

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes that Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

The figures are quite creditable to the county with few exceptions. The libraries are poor excuses, as hardly any of them are worth reading. The books are old and worn out and are strictly back numbers.

Annual Jubilee.

The harvest is over, the summer almost ended, bringing abundant crops, thus rewarding skill and industry.

The fair season is here, and the agricultural community will gratefully acknowledge the blessings of a kind Providence in bestowing good health and a fruitful season by attending the annual festivals and showing the improvements resulting from intelligent culture.

Successful county fairs insure a good State exhibition, and indications point to an excellent fair season. Being an off year from political disturbance, prompts the management to extra exertions in making the forthcoming Indiana State Fair, September 23d to 28th, excel in every respect. The Board of Agriculture can make a better showing financially than any other institution of the kind in this country, thus proving the solid basis on which the business management operates.

The agricultural fair is an American institution, and came to stay, not only as a mart of trade, but the social features predominate in a way no other character of gathering can equal, and is now recognized as the "harvest jubilee" in more sense than one.

Indiana is the center of the breeding grounds of improved live stock, and the State Fair the nucleus where will concentrate the competitors in the "battle of the breeds."

Superior accommodations for exhibitors and visitors. An increased list of premiums, including lady equestrianism.

More favorable railroad rates are applied for to give those at a distance the opportunity of visiting the best agricultural fair on the continent, and the Capital City with its many attractions.

A Man of Wealth.

Moses Fowler, the wealthiest man of Lafayette, and the next after Wm. English, possessing more property than any other man in Indiana, died on Tuesday morning last at his residence in that city. His wealth was estimated at near $2,500,000, a large portion of which consisted of about 30,000 acres of tillable and first-class land in Benton county, which in value would average $40 per acre. He was possessed also of much money, bonds, securities, etc. He came to Lafayette fifty years ago, at first carrying on the mercantile business, and among his first clerks was Mr. Benj. Wasson, of the Citizens' Bank of Crawfordsville. He is not known to have left behind any sums from his vast estate for charitable or benevolent purposes; was an individual extremely selfish and dictatorial in his actions, and his departure creates no considerable sorrow in that city. His wife, with whom he has not lived for several years, and two grown children inherit his vast wealth. He was a trustee of Wabash College and was in this city generally during the week of commencement.

A Surprise.

Sunday, Aug. 18, 1895, was the 33rd birthday of M. C. Lanahan, of Ripley township, and his kind wife, with the assistance of her many friends, prepared and successfully carried out a complete surprise on him. He was conveyed away from home and was surprised beyond description upon returning to find his house and yard full of people. He wanted to know if it was the 18th and the people present expressed the information with their wishes of many happy returns of the day. The dinner was then spread, and such a good dinner as it was. Everything known that was good to eat was there. Among other things were ten varieties of cake, all of them the best quality. Fifty-eight persons partook of the feast. All had a social chat of olden times until 4 o'clock. There were present from Crawfordsville, Frank Catterlin and family, James Green and family, Pete Bailey and family, Mike Miller and family of Frankfort and Mrs. C. O. Brown, of Hazelrigg, Boone county. At 4 o'clock all parted and returned to their homes, wishing Mr. Lanahan many returns and a happy and useful life.

THINGS POLITICALLY.

It is with an unpardonable pride, or something akin to that word, that we announce that our esteemed friend Joseph Grubb has come to the front again, and is now superintendent of the Crawfordsville & South Eastern gravel road. He came to the front Monday and drew pay, a remarkable feat that Joseph is strictly on to with both feet. We will keep an eye on that road, and as usual will not be timid in stating how it is managed.

A slim looking white-horse-whiskered individual by the name of Pollock, who, we blush to say, is an editor of the Phalanx, the Prohibition State paper, was the funny man at the prohibs. meeting Tuesday. He poked fun at Senator Voorhees, and actually injured the "influence" of the Senator. Such funny men are always dyspeptic, and we think Pollock has a bad case.

Would it not be a good idea to print a book of rules of the republican party for such strictly pious party people as Trustee Henry? He should immediately enter the race for Governor. He is too good a man for trustee or road supervisor. Such strictly party men as he are only found in heaven. They always die young. Wonder what's the matter with Henry?

A. B. Anderson, so the story goes, is chock full of ambition, and would like to fill Judge Snyder's shoes. Andy is full of promises and likes friends, just as long as they come on his side of the fence. He could not be elected again for Justice of the Peace. In fact his political days are over.

The double-jointed spasms of the prohibitionists at their meeting Tuesday was a struggle real amusing to a looker on. They were making a feeble attempt at a showing, and a feeble attempt it was. It was painful to hear them blow about what they were going to do. T. E. Ballard seemed to be the high-cock-a-lorum and did most of the talking. They were conceited enough to think the world was theirs if they could only get enough baskets to carry it away in. The attendance would have done shame to a township convention of either of the old parties.

That T. E. Ballard is an out-and-out worker in the prohibition party is a recognized fact, but what are his intentions, what does he expect to gain, or is there any prospect in view of success for this weak party with its few followers? None of them are good workers in the field and Ballard is alone. True, there are a few zealous and untiring followers in Montgomery county, but they will never do any good, and this foolishness is like pouring water on a duck's back; you can hear the splash, but you don't wet the duck; you can hear them talk but you cannot see any effect of their work.

There will never be a better law in regard to the traffic in intoxicating liquors than we now have. No man can sell whiskey and live up to the law. No man does it. Then if the prohibition party is so anxious to rebel against this traffic why do they not make a crusade against the dealer and not give a haven for disappointed office-seekers? Their leaders are all worn out timber of the old parties, and as long as they do nothing except talk, talk, talk, they will find both old parties just as prosperous as they now are and their little flock left in the soup.

As our friend Jno. Johnston is soon to retire from official duty we will let him alone for a little while.

THE REVIEW only asks for its share and what is due it. We want nothing but what is our own and will have that or know why.

Since we spoke of Richard Bible being a good man for Sheriff we find he has quite a following, and many say he would make a good man. Now what Richard has to do is to shelve many other ambitious republicans who want the office, but the question is can he do it?

Our esteemed friend, the Hibernian reformer, Hon. Michael Price, promises that the $450 will be looked after when the commissioners meet in regular session in September. So far so good. If promises are kept the REVIEW will be satisfied, but the smart youngster may stick his nose into everyone's business once too often for the court house ring before they are through with us. We want some kind of an explanation.

Since we have purchased the gravel roads we are going to say one good word for the county commissioners: Almost all the bridges on the roads are worthless. There is one out near Tom West's that they drive around, and many others are liable to accident at any time. The commissioners must put in new bridges, for if there is an accident on any of them the parties who meet with it can sue the county and get recompense for their injuries and damages to horses or vehicles. It is going to cost something to build the bridges and you must pay it, citizens of Union township, so don't curse the commissioners, they will only be doing their duty.

Agent Edgeworth, of the Vandalia, has taken great pride in his little herd of fish in the fountain pool in the depot yard. Monday the pipe leading to the water tank got clogged and the supply of water stopped. Now, as you all know, fish don't live without water, neither do excursionists, but Edgeworth forgot to water his fish, as he did his passengers, and the poor little things died. They were given a little grave over near the freight depot and are now supposed to be happy and contented in fish heaven.

Jake Joel has been honored with an office and is a full fledged monopolist. It was only a short week ago that Mr. Joel who is known far and wide as "cheap Jake", the clothier, was made President of the natural gas company. Now this monopoly is rather a chills affair but the title is just as big and has many words as that of President of the U. S. Last week the income was fifty dollars collected by 50 cent subscriptions, but the expenses were fifty dollars. Jake put on his mathematical cap and concludes that the pot was thirty short and he paid it and he can see but one way to get even and that is for the boys to ante-up.

BASE BALL CRANKISMS.

Johnnie Spatz was with the Recreations at Ladoga.

The Texas club, of Ripley township, defeated the Hibernians last week by a score of 27 to 13. It is reported that the Yountsville and Wayne-town clubs are to play upon the latter's grounds to-day.

The Reds claim the championship of the county and are ready to contest with any club for that title.

Pig Dorsey has been doing some fine fielding for the Terre Hautes, but there is a hole in his bat just now. Plug it up, Dorsey, and show "Hietown" where you're from.

Let us have that county baseball contest. The Reds and Recreation Parks are willing to enter and make a good purse. How many other clubs in the county are willing to enter?

It looks as if some one was afraid to play that game the Hillsboro and Veederburg clubs have been talking of for $25 a side. We have seen both clubs play ball and can easily name the winner.

The Terre Haute management has decided to not play any more games with Danville. The managements of both clubs need to be spanked for they could make money out of each other by acting respectfully.

There was to have been a game at the campus Tuesday afternoon between the Recreation Parks and the Ladoga club but for some reason the latter club failed to make its appearance and the game was postponed.

Will Prescott, the catcher, has been here the past week, the guest of Danny Sullivan. He left the Dayton club and will rest the remainder of the season, though he went to Wabash on Tuesday to catch a few games in that city, after which he will return here and play a few games with the Reds.

The Recreation Parks went to Ladoga, Monday, and played the club of that place, which from the score must have been as brilliant as the game played in the college campus in this city. Phil Greene was in the box for the Recreations and Danby Wasson did the backstop act. The score was only 28 to 25.

An effort is to be made to have a series of county championship games with as many clubs as desire to enter the contest. The Reds of this city are the first to enter the ring and want at least eight clubs to come into the schedule. All the clubs will be corresponded with next week asking them to join in and make it interesting. If they do not the Reds will claim the county championship.

The Hillsboro ball club do considerable crying about losing a game recently played with the Reds of this city. They claim the umpire lost them the game. It is foolish for such a weak club to talk that way. They are out classed by the Reds and can find a place for that twenty-five dollars they wanted to play Veederburg for at any time. This will be no talk but put up or shut up plan. They are not a match for the Reds at any time and the talk of being robbed of a game is bosh.

Wedding Anniversary.

W. H. Peterman and wife, of Wavland, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage last Thursday night and the Wavland Independent tells the following romance in their marriage. There is quite a romance connected with the marriage of these two people which as related by Mr. Peterman, is about as follows: In 1839 he started from his home in Pennsylvania to go to Terre Haute to work at his trade, that of a cabinet maker. Before starting he had a dream, in which his future wife appeared to him. She was a "little girl with black hair and eyes, and dressed in pink" he said. He thought nothing more of his dream until he reached Vincennes. He had stopped there at a tavern over night and next morning as he started on his journey he saw the young lady who appeared to him in his dream. Every feature was the same, she was dressed the same, and he decided instantly that he would stop there for a while. They were soon acquainted; he secured work at Vincennes and remained there until their marriage.

FAIR NOTES.

Going right out, now soon.

The stalls are all being taken rapidly.

Get ready for the greatest fair in the state.

Don't forget the fair begins Sept. 9 and ends Sept. 13.

The home band will furnish good music every day.

There is $3,500 in cash premiums offered and all will be paid in full.

Scott Steel's new European hotel will come in time to reap a harvest.

Tuesday of the fair is childrens and old settlers day; all children under 15 years of age and all old settlers over 70 will be admitted free of charge.

There are 4 entries in the 2.25 trot, 14 in the three minute trot, 4 in the free for all pace, and 14 in the 2.50 pace. The races are assured to be the best ever held on the track.

Killed by the Cars.

Grant Ross, a young man who has been residing at Wingate for a few weeks, met with a terrible death last Sunday night. He was going home from the Salvation Army meeting when a freight train ran over him. The body was horribly mangled and it is uncertain whether he lay down on the track and went to sleep or committed suicide. Both legs were severed from the body, one arm cut off and his head crushed into a mass. At first it was thought he had been murdered, but that theory was absurd as no reason could be given for it. Coroner Coppage held an inquest but as the friends wanted to await developments he has not made his final decision.

FIELD ARRESTED.

Mrs. Terry's Warrant Served on the Justice.

HE IS IMMEDIATELY RELEASED.

Pending the Hearing Next Tuesday of a Motion for a Writ of Habeas Corpus, the Jurist is Liberated on $5,000 Bail—Judge Terry B. 4ed.

THE COAST TRAGEDY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—Justice Stephen J. Field, of the United States Supreme Court, was arrested here Friday on a charge of being a party to the killing of David S. Terry at Lathrop last Wednesday morning. The application for a writ of habeas corpus was at once made, and the matter was heard by Judge Sawyer, of the United States Circuit Court, who granted the writ and released Justice Field on $5,000 bail.

The warrant for Justice Field's arrest was issued by justice of the peace in Stockton, on the complaint of Mrs. Sarah Althea Terry, Sheriff Cunningham, of Stockton, arrived here with the warrant Thursday night, and he applied to Judge Rix, of the police court, Friday morning to endorse it. Judge Rix took the matter under advisement and consulted with District Attorney Page, who expressed the opinion that the warrant should be endorsed, as it was issued in the regular form and the judge should not consider the individuality of the person against whom it was directed. Counsel who appeared for Justice Field urged the judge to take testimony to ascertain if the warrant should have been issued. He declared that the issuance of the warrant was nothing more than an attempt to humiliate a Justice of the Supreme Court. Judge Rix finally endorsed the warrant and placed it in the hands of Sheriff Cunningham, who went to the United States Appraiser's building, where Field's chambers are located.

Justice Field arrived at his chambers about noon, and with Judge Brewer, of Kansas, and Judge Sawyer awaited the arrival of the sheriff. Sheriff Cunningham went first to the marshal's office, and then, accompanied by Chief of Police Crowley, Captain Lees and United States Marshal Franks, proceeded to Justice Field's chambers. Justice Field rose to receive the party and Sheriff Cunningham presented the warrant and formally made the arrest. An application was made at once for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Sawyer granted the writ and retired to the circuit court-room. District Attorney Carey announced that Sheriff Cunningham had obeyed the writ of habeas corpus and produced the prisoner, and that he now awaited the further pleasure of the court. Judge Sawyer set the case for hearing for next Thursday morning and ordered Justice Field's release, fixing the bail at $5,000. The petition for the writ of habeas corpus was made by Justice Field himself, and is a very long document. An abstract is as follows:

It sets forth in detail the facts of the case already known, and declares that at the break-fast table at Lathrop Justice Field was maliciously and wickedly assaulted from behind without any provocation by David S. Terry, which assault was not provoked by any act, word or deed of the petitioner. The details of the contempt proceedings of September last, when Mrs. Terry caused the sensational scene in the circuit court-room, are then set forth, and it is declared that at the time of the commission of the contempt by Terry and his wife, and their arrest, conviction and sentence, therefore, and at divers times and places since, as the petitioner is informed and believes, that Terry and his wife have respectively threatened that at the first opportunity they would assault and kill the petitioner on account of acts done in the discharge of his duties devolving upon him as Associate Jus-

ice of the United States Supreme Court, and that Terry had repeatedly and frequently declared that he would "get even" with the petitioner. The petition next sets forth that at the time of the shooting Justice Field was accompanied by David Nagle, Deputy United States Marshal, who was acting under instructions from the Attorney-General of the United States and Marshal Franks. The petitioner declares that he in no way or manner defended or protected himself and was in no way responsible for any directions given Nagle or any other person, and that he was merely present at the place of shooting while en route from Los Angeles to San Francisco in discharge of his official duties. He further declares that he was not then nor has he been at any time for many years armed with any weapon whatever, nor has he used any weapon whatever. Petitioner further alleged that Sarah Althea Terry falsely and maliciously swore out the warrant of arrest. Justice Field also sets forth in his petition that he is now holding court in this city and that his arrest and removal would seriously interfere with and interrupt his official duties, such interference being contrary to the provisions of the constitution. Justice Field further asserts that in the United States Circuit Court, during the hearing of the Sharon case issues, it was proved and held that the complainant, Sarah Althea Terry, was "an abandoned woman without veracity."

Action will be taken seeking for an order from the United States Court upon Sheriff Cunningham to at once deliver Deputy Marshal Nagle into the custody of the United States Marshal. Upon which, if obeyed, the deputy will be brought to this city.
