

BAKING POWDER

Montgomery County News.

WAVELAND.

Trade is considered good. James Robertson is sick with dux. H. A. Pratt bought W. T. Hanna's grocery store. Spruhan & Barton bought C. H. Johnson's groceries. James R. Canine superceels Barton in the butcher business. Almost everyone is done threshing and is very well satisfied with the crop.

DARLINGTON.

John Brown has an increase in his pension. Isaac Booher will move back to his farm soon. Frank Thompson, of Colfax, was here Wednesday.

Lew Honiker, of Thorntown, was here Wednesday. Harry Pickern will move on Clifton Kimler's farm soon.

George Welty and Frank Elston were here Wednesday. George Jackson is going to Illinois to stay a few months.

The Vandalia Sunday excursion goes one more Sunday. Wilson Long is thought to be better although he is very low.

Charley Peterson and family are among friends in Ohio. Ben Gillan had his face badly bruised in a runaway last week.

Uncle John Hulet has a car load of salt for sale at 90¢ a barrel.

Mrs. Sam Hampton still lingers with no better hopes of recovery. Sam Booher sold eight two year old steers to Hunt Bros., for $215.

It is reported that James Delaney will be married to a Newtown lady. Shriner & Hatch are doing the carpenter work on Chamber's new room.

A birthday dinner at Alice Sideley's last Wednesday and had a good time. The threshing machines are all through threshing in this part of the country.

W. W. Chambers is building a store room on West Main street for a tin shop and store.

T. M. Campbell was at Alamo last week and brought home some good looking apples.

Billy Thompson could not hit a little bird last Monday but he could hit a street lamp.

Miss Grace Berryman has returned home after a visit of several weeks at Shelbyville.

Never in the history of the county was there such a prospect for a clover seed crop as now.

Milt Norman just over the county rained 2700 bushels of wheat and 1,000 bushels of oats.

Quite a number from Sugar Creek township have been working at the cemetery here this week.

The health of Miss Rose Ward is still very bad as she is confined to her bed the most of the time.

Charley Kashner will move to Sugar Creek township to the farm he bought the first of this month.

The steam shovel that is cleaning out Lye creek ditch has crossed the road running to Kirkpatrick.

Grandma Harlin went last Monday evening to the Cameron Springs to be treated for the rheumatism.

James Wilbrite hauls saw logs with his traction engine and couples with the law by going in front.

Frank and John Gobel are repairing the school houses in Franklin township, for trustee, Dr. Owsley.

John Shriner has rented part of the R. A. Craig farm for $700, and John Marsh rented the balance for $250.

Misses Bertha and Alice Kashner returned from Indianapolis last Monday where they have been visiting for several days.

Uncle Tom Elliott says if that town board will come at him one at a time he can whip all three of them even if he is a very old man.

If you want to trade mules, horses or cattle for buggies, harness or carts, call and see our harness and buggy man and you can have a trade.

The town board has just passed an ordinance to pen the cows up and it is not necessary to say we have some men in town who just a little bit mad.

A box of good things to eat was sent to Lin Thompson and Ed. Booher at Oberlin, Ohio, from friends here in memory of Mr. Thompson's birthday last Monday.

The Odd Fellows have made great improvements in their cemetery here. May this good work go on till the cemetery will be second to no other cemetery in the county in looks.

Every road coming into Darlington is a pike and the farmers can get the highest market price for their grain and can buy salt for 90¢ per barrel and in Crawfordsville it costs $1.10 per barrel.

Mrs. Ira Booher, who is in Kansas, writes back and says she has visited John McClasky, an old citizen of Montgomery county, and was in his peach orchard of seven hundred trees all loaded with peaches. She is having good health and enjoying her trip very much.

The Mozart club will give the Aesthetic Garden entertainment on Saturday, Aug. 31st. The Mozart club is a good organization and has been a good benefit to the town. The entertainment is something new and will be well deserving of the people's patronage. Those wishing to spend an evening of enjoyment will not fail to go. Admission 15¢.

Eighty Acres of Land For Sale.

I offer for sale my farm of 80 acres of land in Wayne township, six miles north-west of Crawfordsville. Land is well improved. Terms half cash, and balance on long time. Call on Hurley & Clodfelter for terms.

10-1m THOMAS MCMAHAN.

Loose's Red Clover Pills Cure Sick. Headach, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, 25¢ per box, 5 boxes for $1. For sale by Lew Fisher.

NEW RICHMOND.

These good Harrison times are truly daisies. A good rain is hoped for, and the corn needs it badly.

Jim Duke, a Darlington boy, was a caller here last week.

Threshing machines are thick, and wheat is threshed at a rapid rate.

The minister preached a sermon from the Bible at the Christian church last Sunday evening.

We stand corrected. Linden scribbles. Mr. Steel buys for a Marion firm and not for a Frankfort house.

A great many are talking of our county fair and there will be very few here that will fail to attend.

Tom Florer and wife, of Lafayette, visited at Wm. Campbell's last Sunday, returning home on Monday.

The pay car came along last Saturday morning and paid off for July. The boys were all glad to see it.

We are informed that the school teachers are hired for the different schools and everything is ready for business.

Milton Wheeler is rusticating away out in Illinois for his health. Wonder how much healthier Illinois is than Indiana.

From reports circulated there must be fun in Walnut Grove, east of here. A sensation would not be a surprise at any time.

The families that united and went fishing on the Wabash river near Attica report a fine time and all were sorry when they had to return to their homes.

It matters not how much intelligence a man may possess and how much business he can do, principle has to bow to the rule of weight with an empty skull.

Some suspicion of foul play is talked of in the railroad accident last Sunday night and should be promptly and thoroughly investigated by the proper authorities.

Dr. Detchon is building a new shop, and Buck Bell is boss carpenter, on the corner of Vine and Guiteau streets. It is a daisy and looks up wonderfully.

The kid that makes it his business to steal money from children should be careful, as several parties swear that he shall go the reformatory if it is not stopped.

Our streets have received names at last. We have Booth, Guiteau, Sullivan, Cronin, Buffalo Bill, Mrs. Gougar, Talmage, Beecher and Ellix streets, and a few more too numerous to mention.

The news of Winfield Cox's death caused quite a sensation here. Mr. Cox may have had his faults, and they were not hid, as the worst side was in view, but he had many friends in this vicinity.

Our butcher shop has changed hands again. Mart Lucas and Wm. Graves, Jr., have bought out Ruman & Fouts, who will go west to look for a location. The new firm took possession Monday morning.

Wm. Campbell's merchant tailoring business is quite a success, and Linden, Attica, Lafayette and Crawfordsville are patronizing it for the reason that goods made there are as represented and 15 per cent cheaper than elsewhere.

Our grain business does not seem to prosper as in former years and we suppose the scarcity of wheat is the cause. Wheat from here is taken to Linden and parties from Linden are hauling their wheat to this place. "Many men of many minds," etc.

The Italians that have been working on the railroad here are about through and will soon move out. They are a nice lot of people, and those that throw stones at the Italians do not know what they are doing. If all people were like them this world would have a better showing.

A young man went to see his girl, and instead of going into the house to see her, concluded to interview his pet on the outside of her father's residence. As luck would have it, the dog spied the lover before the girl did and laid hold of his pants near where she sits down. Dr. Washburn came to his rescue with court plaster and at this writing hydrophobia has not set in. The dog is also doing well.

The Brown-Sequard elixir has not been tried here yet but several parties have tried the extract of corn and rye, which works wonders. One old man had two drams administered by way of the stomach, and immediately jumped up and danced a Highland fling, after which he went home and felt so good that he ran the family out of the house; but it did not last, as the next morning he couldn't get out of bed. Corn elixir is a success while it lasts.
