IS JUST THE VERY PLACE YOU ARE LOOKING FOR!

THE REVIEW. —BY— LUSE & BERRY.

WAYNETOWN.

Miss Lotie Darnell is quite sick. Jack Gray spent Sunday in Veedersburg. The W. P. C. club has made an assignment. Mrs. M. E. Steele has been sick for the last two weeks.

The town council has not raised the liquor license as reported.

Several Crawfordsville boys were down to see attractions Sunday.

Bob Baker is buying a large lot of stock in the vicinity of this place.

John Birdsell, Ed. Small, and Wm. Munns were in Crawfordsville Tuesday.

Miss Viona Hays, of Hillsboro, was the guest of R. E. Ray and wife last week.

Miss Josie Chambers, of Danville, Ill., visited Miss Nan Brant the past week.

The remains of Isaac Williams were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery Wednesday.

An attempt is being made to get the Covington and Possum Ridge clubs to play a game for a purse on our grounds now soon.

The management of the reunion came out several dollars behind. It was attributed to the colt which kept the usual number of hucksters away.

DARLINGTON.

A. W. Booher has traded for a pony.

John Irvin and family have moved to Frankfort.

The show was good and had a fair crowd at night.

Joe McKinsey will receive an increase in his pension.

T. M. Campbell bought some very fine chickens at the State fair.

Marcellus Booher will commence his new residence in ten days.

Mont. Booher got one of his mules badly crippled last Tuesday.

Flem. Butler has moved from Gravel Run to town to make his home.

Shriver & Co. will build the bridge across Potato Creek near Silas Peterson's.

William Griffith and wife have returned home from a visit with friends in Illinois.

Charley Shone and wife have been visiting friends in Illinois for the past two weeks.

John Coltrane, three miles east of Darlington, will have a public sale next Thursday.

Uncle John Hulet sells from one to ten barrels of salt to one man. Salt is king in Darlington.

Four car loads of salt have been shipped to this place this fall, and it is selling at 90 cents per barrel.

Dr. Ousley and Dr. Hillis have bought a bicycle and both of them can run the wheels in good shape.

The carpenters have Isaac Booher's house ready for plastering, and it will be plastered next week.

Ira Booher traded for the trick mule that belonged to the show that was here last Tuesday to match the one he had.

Uncle Owen Martin, who has made several round trips to Kansas, started forward for Kansas to make his home for life.

Miss Eva Smith, Miss Lida Hollingsworth and Mrs. Lucy Walters were at the State fair last week, and bought new goods while in the city.

Last week there was a tin wedding at John Kersey's. Mr. and Mrs. Kersey received 24 pieces of tinware. John is a jolly fellow, and that call him Quaker for short.

George Smith and his girl were out riding last Sunday night. His horse ran away, threw them out of the buggy and crippled George. The girl was not hurt, and the horse has not been found yet.

Andrew Booher, Wm. Campbell, Ben Gillan, Jess Bowens and G. J. Rhoer started last Thursday morning to northern Michigan for a two weeks' hunt. They promised to send us venison and bear meat by the barrel next week.

We are pained to note the death of Mrs. Ray, William Warlington, who died last week at Covington, Ohio, and was brought here for burial. Her maiden name was Orphy Booher. She was well liked by all who knew her, and was a Christian woman in every respect. She leaves a husband, four sisters, one brother and a host of relatives to mourn her loss.

There is an election ordered on the 22d of this month to decide whether they will tax Franklin township to buy 2½ miles of the toll road. Now, the citizens of this part of the township have bought and made free all their toll roads and have been taxed to build all their own free roads, and think nothing more than right for the people along the road to buy this 2½ miles of road just as they have their's. The taxes now are very high on the people in this part of the township and they do not feel like voting for more.

Large family groups at most reasonable prices, 210½ east Main street, Mrs. Willis & Son's.

Lights and Shades. I have purchased the latest patent for lighting, shading and vignetting photographs. Will make nothing but the latest styles and finest pictures.

SLID-W. A. D. WILLIS.

Edna Nicholson has returned from Chicago with an exquisite new stock of the latest style fall millinery for her store opposite the post office.

50¢-41

Fashionable Millinery. Edna Nicholson is now receiving her new stock of fall millinery at her own store opposite the post office. She wishes all her old friends to call and see the new shapes in hats. She will save you 50 per cent. over the prices of other millinery establishments.

50¢-41

Feed Yard. Wm. Jolly has purchased the Joe Kilburn feed yard 132 west Market street. Farmers or teamsters stopping in Crawfordsville for a few hours will find this a good place to have their horses taken care of. Rates for feeding always reasonable.

PAUL & BRUNER

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

Office over Zack Mahoney's hardware store.

NEW RICHMOND.

The Forepaugh show was well patronized from this place at Frankfort.

Solomon Dewey is suffering from a gathering on his shoulder that is causing him much trouble.

John Barton, one of Madison township's solid farmers, did business in our town last Saturday.

Trade is reported quite dull by our merchants, but a better time is looked for as winter approaches.

William Nealey is prospecting in the far west. His destination is Kansas, where he will rusticate for a few weeks.

Wm. Burrows and wife started for Ka last Tuesday to visit a brother. The ex-convict caught several from this vicinity.

Our town could support handsomely a photograph gallery, a tin shop, a gunsmith, a lawyer, a laundry and a Salvation Army.

George Washburn is building a nice walk around his house. It is one of the many things needed by other citizens of our village.

London seribe, we have no smelting committee at New Richmond. Every man attends strictly to his own business and if he doesn't we will make him.

Dr. Washburn had the misfortune to get his skull cracked last week. He will get over the accident as it belonged to his skeleton, the one he got from the medical college.

Tom. Patten and Frank Dailey could not agree as to the merits of a moving machine and will have the case settled before his honor, Judge Snyder, the coming week.

Our post office, if kept where it is now, will certainly cool the ardor of the republicans who wanted a change so bad last fall. A post office should have a fire-place or stove during the winter days.

Sam Mitti immigrated to Crawfordsville long enough last week to purchase a suit of clothes. The girls are all dead gone on Sam now. He says he intends to buy a plug hat when he goes to Frankfort.

John Dewey, it seems, has good neighbors to look after his affairs when he is absent. Not long ago some one who likes peaches stripped his trees of several bushels, and the loss was quite an item.

G. W. Paul was seen on our streets last Sunday looking pale and heavy. Mr. Paul has a host of friends here who think him the best attorney in the county. Paul always gets on important cases it is said.

Bornier Wallace's melodious voice is heard above the din of battle. He is building a sidewalk in our town and can whoop more than a Comanche. Barney always has something to say and he keeps things lively.

Tom Shepherd, on his return from Chattanooga, by some means, got his foot between the bumpers of two cars and as a consequence he goes on crutches. Thomas, it is said, squelched the rebellion on his last trip south.

Ira Stout took in the Chattanooga trip and brought back a sack full of cannon-balls, bullets, shells, etc. He says that bayonets are so thick around Chattanooga that the people use them to picket their gardens with, all of which he has to throw for.

School in Coal Creek took up last Monday, and those who had books to buy seen quite a difference in prices, and the books are fully as good if not better than formerly. Give the credit to a democratic legislature, if you please, and vote, when the time comes, for all kinds of goods to be cheaper, for the democratic party will do it every time.

We are informed that another raid on the county treasury is to be made to fight the battle to disbar Lawyer Paul. The taxpayers think our treasury is too handy for some people, and if Paul has done things not right let those who fight him pay the bill. Let the lawyer without sin cast the first stone at Paul. How many stones will be thrown?

Violin Instruction.

Next week I will open a night school for the violin giving private and class instruction on the violin to boys and girls. An equal number of pupils in this class will be admitted. I require all who are inclined and desirous to take instructions in this class to apply at once and get my terms which will be so reasonable as to enable even those of limited means to have their boys and girls learn to play the king of all musical instruments.
