

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. L. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

THE REVIEW.

—BY— LUSE &amp; BERRY.

COAL CREEK TOWNSHIP. E

Farms, Houses, Roads and Improvements In General.

During one of those bright, balmy days of last week, a REVIEW representative, in company with Mr. Wm. Alston, took a short tour over a portion of Coal Creek township. The charming weather, delightful, smooth roads and the variegated colors of field, forest and sky, made the visit exceedingly pleasant. Coal Creek, in the way of substantial improvements of farms, residences and roads, is keeping well up in the procession, and the changes, of but a few past years, are numerous and encouraging. The blazed paths, muddy roads, with holes and quagmires, of almost fathomless depth, are rapidly being supplanted by thickly graveled roads in many directions. The old log cabin, of long ago, the home of the sturdy pioneer, the bidding place of the stories, incidents and history of the past, has given away to the spacious frame mansion or the neat cottage on the hill. These are some of the many changes to be noticed in Coal Creek within the past few years. Gravel roads have cost the people enormous sums of money, entirely too much, but, after completion, who would now desire to go back to the old dirt roads again? The journey from New Richmond, on muddy roads, required, some times, a half day of time. It can be made now in two hours, and some fast fellows, with horses of similar disposition, complete it in even less time. In the way of comfortable residences, spacious lawns in front, and an air of contentment around and about, we note those of Mr. James Wilson, at Round Hill, Mr. James Thomas, some two miles west, W. W. Tiffany, Capt. McCrea, Ellis Burke, Mattie Hannah and some others whose names we can not recall. Those people propose to enjoy life hereafter, what little may be left of it for them, and have good substantial homes to greet their friends and acquaintances who may call to visit them. Their farms, very generally, are well cultivated, barns and fences strongly built, sleek, well-fed cattle roam over the fields, and an air of contentment seems to abound. From some of the hills, in the west portion of the township, extended views of woodland, meadow and stream, can be observed. The farm of Boswell Clough, some two miles south-west of New Richmond, is one very eligibly situated. Looking to the north, from his home, an unobstructed view of fields, farm houses and forest, with a background of sky is presented, furnishing to the observer a landscape picture of rare beauty and unsurpassed loveliness. The wonderful growth of New Richmond, during the past two years, is a subject of remark. They have two new churches, a new brick school house, an elevator and a hotel besides many new business houses and residences. They pull together now and that is what is giving them strength, growth and life. They are not fighting each other, but are united. (Darlington should do likewise). The town has grown faster, perhaps, than any other in the county within the time spoken of. Patten has a good big stock of stoves and hardware. Wint Washburn does the dry goods trade, Holland brothers the drug business, George Long the jewelry trade, and Bill Campbell is furnishing them the clothes to wear. They all seemingly are enjoying a good trade, and speak encouragingly of the future. Campbell is getting ready to rebuild a new room to take the place of the building destroyed by fire last winter. Campbell is well-known as the correspondent of the REVIEW at this point, and no one has aimed to attract the attention of the outside public to the advantages of his town more than himself. He has some enemies, but we have never yet noticed a hustling correspondent of any newspaper anywhere but what has.

The most backward, in the way of progress of anything we observed on our short tour in Coal Creek, was the school houses. Aside from a new brick school house in New Richmond, the school buildings are old ramshackle affairs that should have been torn down years ago. They have long since outlived their usefulness. The next trustee, whoever he may be, will hold the office four years. He should make it a business to erect, at least, one brick school building each year of his term, which would cost from $300 to $1,000. Within ten or twelve years at this rate the township would be supplied with school buildings that would last them for a century. Of course there would be persons found opposed to this; would consider the old ones good enough. Yes there are some people who would even oppose the second coming of the Savior. They would oppose any thing that might be of any advantage to the public. But the trustee should, at any rate, go ahead and give the people better school houses. After they are completed and paid for, these opposers would then think him a good, clever fellow after all. Trustee Utterback is making them a good trustee, looks carefully after the interests of the people, and we heard of no complaint of him in his official conduct. He has secured the needed quota of school books of the new series and has a good corps of teachers to assist in carrying on the educational features of his office.

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. Sult, druggist Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend electric bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is electric bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that electric bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only 50 cents a bottle at Nye & Co., Drug store.

Complete and Permanent.
The early part of last year I had been having a violent attack of rheumatism, from which I was confined to my bed for over three months, and at times was unable to turn myself in bed, or even raise the cover. A nurse had to be in constant attendance day and night. I was so feeble that what little nourishment I took had to be given me with a spoon. I was in constant agony, and sleep was entirely out of the question except when I was under the influence of opiates.

After calling in the best local physicians, and trying all other medicines without receiving any benefit. I was induced by friends to try Swift's Specific (SSS). I discontinued all other medicines, and took a course of SSS—thirteen small—which effected a complete and permanent cure.
