

MANY A LIFE

HAS been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Pills. Travelers by land or sea are liable to constipation or other derangements of the stomach and bowels which, if neglected, lead to serious and often fatal consequences. The most sure means of correcting these evils is the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The prudent sailing-master would as soon go to sea without his chronometer as without a supply of these Pills. Though prompt and energetic in operation, Ayer's Pills leave no ill effects; they are purely vegetable and sugar-coated; the safest medicine for old and young, at home or abroad.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in health."—Mrs. C. E. Clark, Tewksbury, Massachusetts.

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for affectionate years, requiring a purgative, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers."—W. R. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"For several years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than upon anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These Pills are not severe in their action, but do their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect for the cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, and dyspepsia."—Capt. Mueller, Steamship Felicia, New York City.

"I have found Ayer's Cathartic Pills to be a better family medicine for common use than any other pills within my knowledge. They are not only very effective, but safe and pleasant to take—qualities which must make them valued by the public."—Jules Haezel, Perfumer, Philadelphia, Pa.

NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

Had the democrats of New York in years past have shown the same fealty to party as their brethren elsewhere in all parts of the Union had done we would have had more than one President out of a half dozen nominees in the thirty years past. Instead of that self interest, dollars and revenge, always appear to enter largest into the actions of the democracy of that state. The matter of a Governor, or Mayor of New York city seems always to be of far more consequence to them than the Presidency of the United States. We would prefer to see Cleveland nominated for President in 1892 much more than any living democrat that we know of. He made us the best President and gave us a purer administration than the country had known before in a quarter of a century previous. So would he again. But will the New York democracy allow him to be elected? Doubtful. If his election would destroy some political scheme of theirs it is certain they would encompass his defeat regardless of the wishes of the democrats elsewhere. Why did they elect Hill in 1888 for Governor by 15,000 majority and defeat Cleveland in his own state at the same election by an equally large majority? Why will they not do the same thing in 1892 if he were nominated? To be plain, would David Hill, present Governor of New York, allow Cleveland to be elected President in 1892 if he could prevent it? We doubt it. As stated the motives that inspire democrats elsewhere do not seem to animate those of New York. Observe those New York fellows in years past and behold their selfish scheming and double dealing. Therefore why put up a man for them to simply knock down? Would not a selection made from some other part of the country afford much better indications of success? Why continue in the same old rut from year to year of toadying to the interests of a small portion of the democracy of the nation to the injury of all the rest? What indications have we that the New York democracy would not again slaughter Cleveland as they did two years ago? We have little faith in that element of our party. We have reason to. They have winked and aided in our defeat before, and will do so again.

THE CENSUS BUSINESS.

One of the greatest curses yet shown of the spoils system in politics is exhibited in many of the census enumerators appointed for taking the census of the country this year. They were all republicans, many of them political favorites and party workers, little attention in most instances being shown as to their fitness or ability to do the work set before them. The consequence is seen in the miserable and unbusinesslike methods they have used, and the cry comes up from a thousand places in the land indicating the inefficiency, unreliability and unsatisfactory reports made by them. Hundreds of squares of population have been missed altogether, and thousands of names unenumerated. As a basis of calculation, this being true, what will the 10th census report of the population amount to? Very little. The curse of political favoritism mingling in every important matter of business that the government may desire transacted is every year becoming more apparent, more injurious, more nauseating to the business interests of the country. Had strictly sensible business methods in the census enumeration have prevailed a report could have been made that would have been relied upon, but as it is it will be received otherwise. The scheming political work of the Quays, Blaines and other republican managers have prevailed, and the census for 1890 will attract little more attention than patent office and agricultural reports that congressmen are in the habit of deluging their constituents with.

THAT $50,000 COTTAGE.

The Muncie Herald says that gift of a $50,000 cottage located at Cape May, to Mrs. Ben Harrison, by Post Master General Vanamaker, may seem a little lavish, to the farmers who are selling wheat at 70 cents a bushel and cattle at 2½ cents a pound, under this administration, but when it is remembered that Harrison's Secretary made a ruling some months ago that put $100,000 in Vanamaker's pocket, as a rebate on goods imported by him in past years the matter of $50,000 is a small affair. Deduct this amount and the contributions to the campaign of 1888 and "Wanna" is still $550,000 ahead on the deal.

NO FREE COINAGE.

The free coinage bill which passed the Senate will be lost in the House. It was a measure popular with the people and in their interest, but a number of republicans of the house, whose motives in opposing it will be strongly suspicioned, opposed it and that is the last of it. The voters of the West this fall at the election should express by their ballots their opinion of the men who opposing this measure come up before the people for reelection. Any opposition to this measure of an unlimited coinage of silver will seem to be favorable to interests of the wealthy or those having money to sell and in direct opposition to the wishes of the people. It would greatly injure, no doubt, those who speculate in the money of the country. It would make plenty that which is scarce, and injure the business of money loaning. Plenty of money in the market injures the business of the money loaner, and his opposition is not to be marveled at. Whether these Congressmen is opposing the free coinage bill are moved by mercenary motives is not known of course, but their action in opposing it will always render them objects of suspicion, whatever may be the cause of this action.

The McKinley bill revises but does not reduce the tariff. Bear that in mind. On the other hand, it largely increases the prices of many articles in every day use among farmers and consumers. The tariff placed on the farmers' wheat, corn and oats is of no earthly benefit to him because he ships wheat out of the country and must depend upon the foreign market to fix the price. If the United did not raise enough wheat to furnish flour for all our inhabitants, then the wheat raiser might take his place among the other protected monopolists of this country, but so long as England and other parts of the old world buy our surplus and fix the market price, no tariff, however high, can possibly effect the price of wheat.

VOORHEES ON THE TARIFF QUESTION.

We hand to all of our subscribers this week the very able speech made some months since by Senator Voorhees in the U. S. Senate on tariff matters. It is good literature at any time of the year and upon the important topics it involved in it should be perused and studied over carefully. Lay it away carefully, but previous to the election this fall, see that its contents are familiar to you, and acting upon the subject vote in accordance with your best judgment which we are satisfied will be in harmony with the sentiments found therein.

The Arkansas democrats, at their convention the other day, adopted, among other timely resolutions, the following:

We denounce the combination by which the price of school books is largely increased above a reasonable cost, and we favor such legislation as will free the people from their grasp, and give school books to the children of the state at a reasonable price.

The organization of the American school-book company does not appear to have had the effect of allaying the popular antipathy to monopoly prices for school books.

Protectionists tell us that a tariff is for the benefit of the farmer. We have had a high tariff since 1868 and yet wheat has dropped from $1.75 and $2 per bushel to the low price of 65 to 80 cents per bushel. Hogs have come down from $5.50 per cwt. to $3.25 and cattle from $6 to $3.75 per cwt. Nearly all the other farm products have shared the same fate under the high tariff.

The salaries of the U. S. Ministers to Turkey and the Argentine Republic are to be increased from $7,500 per annum to $10,000. As Crawfordsville is the residence of two ex-ministers to those countries, such information is of no particular benefit to them now.

No matter if you have resided in the state all your life, if you have recently moved into Montgomery county you must go to the county clerk's office and register, otherwise you will lose your vote this fall.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, the prize fighter, was fined $500 for engaging in his fight with Kilrain in Mississippi about a year ago, and this is all the punishment he receives. If to this fine could have been added five years imprisonment in the penitentiary there would have been much more sense and justice in the matter.

Congress, it is thought, will not adjourn before the first of September. Since it convened there appears to have been but very little business of importance to the country transacted by it, and its immediate adjournment would not, perhaps, work any injury to the country.

Hood Nelson, the Crestle King.
Hood Nelson, the inventor and patentee of all metallic crestles, is once more at the front with something new, and is satisfied that in his second invention he has reached the acme of perfection. This time all cannot help admitting that he has the best and most showy thing for the combs of houses yet seen. It is neat, ornamentally, and absolutely rain proof. It cannot spring or twist, nor allow the roof to get wet. As an ornament it is not surpassed by anything in the market, even by the most costly. Mr. Nelson has put into his new crestling all his experience, and he now has a bonanza, for it will take the place of everything now in the market. Samples of the work, several different and unique styles can be seen at his office at W. B. Hardee's cigar store on south Green street, next the Elston bank. Every owner of a house should examine it and everyone who is building should not fail to see it before purchasing anything else. Even putting the old saddle board on, he claims that he can follow the design of any architect.

Tee worst cases of scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Weak Women.
The more sensitive nature of the female sex renders women much more susceptible than men to those numerous ills which spring from lack of harmony in the system. The nervous system gives way, sick headache is frequent, the appetite is lost, and other ailments peculiar to the sex cause great suffering. Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiarly adapted for such cases, and has received the most gratifying praise for the relief it has afforded thousands of women whose very existence before taking it, was only misery. It strengthens the nerves, cures sick headache and indigestion, purifies and vitalizes the blood, and gives regular and healthy action to every organ in the body.

The Late PROF. PHELPS.

Accompanying is a portrait of the late Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth College. He was a strong, able man, who stood high in the literary and scientific worlds. It is not generally known, but it is, nevertheless, the truth that Prof. Phelps was the discoverer of what is known to the Medical profession and Chemists universally as Paine's Celery Compound, unquestionably one of the most valuable discoveries of this century. This remarkable compound is not a nerve, an essence, a sarsaparilla, or any devised article, but a discovery, and it marks a distinct step in medical practice and the treatment of nervous complications, and the greatest of all modern diseases—Paresis. It has been freely admitted by the best medical talent in the land, and also by the leading chemists and scientists, that for nervous troubles, nervous exhaustion, insomnia, debility, senility, and even the dreaded and terrible Paresis, nothing has ever been discovered which reaches the disorder and restores health equal to this discovery of Prof. Phelps.
