WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an

Improvement

In my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."—A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.

THE LOTTERY BUSINESS.

President Harrison, in a message to congress last week, urges it to at once take action so far as the government can against lottery companies who may and do use the mails for carrying on their business, the Louisiana Lottery company in particular. The action of the president is judicious, but congress should have done something effectual against such schemes twenty years ago. It would have saved to many a poor man of this country the dollars he needed, would have prevented much misery and crime, would have brought happiness where misery reigned, and in time would have in many families produced a much pleasanter state of affairs, had the temptation to throw away money in lottery tickets not prevailed. The chances of the victims getting any thing for the expenditure of their money is about one in five hundred, yet every fool mentally resolves that it will be him and in consequence patronizes the lottery quite liberally every month of the year. Let some one in at neighborhood draw a small money prize and everybody is wanting to purchase tickets in the lottery, and the company by giving say $50 soon gathers in $5,000. For ten years past a least it has been estimated that $10,000 per year are sent from here to the Louisiana State Lottery. How much has ever been received from there we know not, but can safely say that not a tenth of this sum has ever come back. The same state of affairs exists in thousands of places in the United States. The lottery managers have become millionaires through the yearly contributions of their many fool patrons. The government through allowing the gamblers who own and run the Louisiana Lottery the mails is really a participant in crime. It aids the scoundrels in carrying on an illegitimate business. It should have ceased to do this a years ago, by which thousands of persons would financially, at least, have been on a much better footing than they today find themselves. But better late than never will apply in this case, and if the government will at once cease to further aid the carrying on of the lottery business through its mail facilities, that much good will be done.

HE PLAYS ALL PARTS.

Jimmy Mount, the granger, greenbacker, farmer alliance, republican candidate for congressman in this district, it seems has always had an eye to the main chance, and in whatever public situation he has occupied, has always been careful to get all the money out of it that was possible to be obtained for his own use. When the grange organization was first put on foot along in 1873 and '4 Mount managed to secure for himself the position of organizer of lodges. It was not at all from his interest in the welfare of the farming community that he was looking after, but the dollars to be obtained from the scheme. He was paid $5 for each lodge he organized and put under way, and he made it a business to create lodges of grangers in ever locality where possible in this and neighboring counties. How much money he made out of the arrangement no one but himself knows, but enough no doubt, to add very materially to his bank account. At the last session of the legislature he got a bill passed creating "Farmer's Institutes," each county paying so much for holding them at the county seat. It was noticed that Mount was among the first to take hold of them and begin an itinerancy as a "lecturer" before these "Institutes." He has since the establishment of these "Institutes" traveled and "lectured" in half the counties of the state before the farmers. As stated before, each county where he lectures has to pay the bill, and he undoubtedly has made a good thing out of this. His latest scheme is in securing from the republicans of this district, when they saw no chance for the election of a straight party man, the nomination of Representative for congress, he to assume all the characters in the play, granger, farmer, republican, etc. Will the voters of the eighth congressional district be humbugged by such demagoguery? We believe they are intelligent enough to see through the scheme and will not be deceived by it.

THE REASON WHY?

Rev. S. S. Aikman, formerly a Presbyterian minister of this county, and of whose church Mr. James Mount is a member, desirous of giving his brother a boost, in a letter says: "That he is 'not without honor in his own country' is evident from the fact that he was elected State Senator where he had to overcome a large democratic majority."

It is evident that Bro. Aikman has little knowledge of the political race two years ago and the scheming going on at that time to elect Mount and the balance of the ticket. He has probably never heard of Dudley and his "blocks-of-five" machine by which Mount and the entire republican state and county tickets were "unanimously elected." He never learned of the enormous corruption fund raised in Indiana two years ago to carry the state for the republican party. He never heard, perhaps, that men were paid as high as $20 each to walk up to the polls and "vote" the republican ticket. When Bro. Aikman reads up and studies the political events of two years ago he will have little to say about anybody overcoming a majority, big or little. With the "influences" then used anybody could have done the same thing similarly situated.

SENATOR, VOORHEES will address the democracy of Miami and adjoining counties at Peru on August 14.

THE "NAME IN PRINT."

One of the most ridiculous and nonsensical vanities is that exhibited by many persons who love to see their names in print. Newspaper proprietors have often seen and observed this class of individuals for every community has them. To see their names in the column of a newspaper fills their souls with secret pleasure. The face of the type look clearer and prettier than at any other time if they but contain their names. And why? No one can say unless it arises from inordinate vanity and self-esteem in the individual thus temporarily noticed. We know an old farmer in this county who derives more self-satisfaction from seeing his name in print than from almost anything else, and the publisher who will put his name in type can count on him as a fast friend. Some time it may be a pecuniary advantage to thus tend to a man's whims in this line, and such items as "we observe our old friend John Smith, from 'Possum Hollow, is in town this week," as seen occasionally in newspapers are the means of inducing him to subscribe and use his influence for the publication, although it must be admitted that such work does not naturally add respect and dignity to the newspaper engaged in it. An individual at one time connected with the Crawfordsville press was distinguished for the sickly vanity with which he joyed in seeing his name in print, and it mattered little in what connection it appeared. It was even said of him that in going to other towns he would make it his business to first form the acquaintance of the newspaper reporters tell who he was, "set up" the cigars, and then watch anxiously the next day for the papers to see if his name appeared. Some people are so exceeding vain regarding such matters as to send word of their going or coming from any locality, or else approach the reporter and tell where they may go. When their names appear their cup of joy is full. Such freaks of foolishness is a part, perhaps, of human nature and cannot well be avoided.

ARE not those Crawfordsville gentlemen who are so anxious to invest their surplus capital in alleged profitable lead mines near Joplin, Missouri, somewhat hasty about it? If they have money to invest would it not be a wise policy to put it into some kind of manufacturing here at home? It is somewhat strange that this lead mine bonanza, should remain for a Crawfordsville colony to discover, although mining for lead has been going on at Joplin and other points in Missouri for years. In fact we believe much of the business will turn out a fake, and their will be some losses in the investment. But what kind of a spectacle it is in these gentlemen taking their money away from home to invest when it could be used to such great advantage in building up Crawfordsville, and which needs it, and badly too. Complaint is often made of citizens who go to Indianapolis, Chicago and other places to make purchases of goods to the injury of the merchants at home who would do fully as well by them. But how much better are the citizens who take their money away from here to invest it in other enterprises, where a judicious use of it at home would be fully as profitable, often better? Those men have no reason to complain if business may be sluggish, property depreciated, and an air of dullness everywhere to be seen. They set the example of helping to kill the commercial importance of the place, by putting their money in other localities.

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

At the present session of congress 1,145 bills have passed the senate and in the house 865. Ten thousand bills were introduced. This session is about like those that have preceded it. Considering the value of the work done and the cost to the United States in having it done the American congress is undoubtedly the greatest constitutional bungler known to any civilized nation of the earth. It costs more and gives less benefit for the money expended than any legislative organization known to mankind. Each member receives $5,000 per year, and there is an immense number of clerks, assistants, etc., costing per diem an immense sum, and for what? And yet the people, because it is part of the machinery of a free government, submit from year to year to this most useless assembly. If congress met but once in six years, and then for a six months' session only it would be amply sufficient for the necessities of the government.

AN exchange makes the following interesting statement regarding the amount of Kansas corn that was carried around by the average gentlemen last year: "The eastern man is crying for and getting without reciprocity raw material at the expense of the south and west. Last spring a western man wearing an $8 pair of shoes and 30 cent socks had 83 bushels of Kansas corn on his feet; 88 pants and $1 drawers; 90 bushels on his hips and legs; $2 undershirt, $2.50 white shirt, 40 bushels on his arms and body; $5 vest and $25 coat; 300 bushels; 50 cent neck tie, 5 bushels; $20 overcoat; 200 bushels; a pair of overshoes, 10 bushels; a handkerchief, 4 bushels, making a total of 732 bushels of Kansas corn for a fair suit of gentlemen's clothes. A product of 25 acres of land for one season, to say nothing of interest, labor and waste. If a worse showing can be made under free trade for the Kansas corn-raiser, in its worst aspect, I cannot conceive of it."

Mike Carroll has received a contract for the construction of a gravel road in Franklin county, south of Brookville, for which he received the sum of $7,500. He will commence work on the contract with men and teams next week. Slattery & Reynolds received a contract last week for building seven miles of gravel road in Tipton county for which they receive the sum of $16,900, the work to be completed within a year. There were six bidders for the work.

The Federal election bill, the latest scheme of republican leaders to retain power in this country has not yet been acted upon by the Senate, and probably will not be at this present session of congress. It is generally believed that it will not pass that assembly and that we will soon hear the last of it.

WILLIAMS, of the Indianan, at Warsaw, a thirty years republican editor, having failed to get a position under this republican administration, is now ragging his readers with accounts of dirty political schemes in which he and others of his party have engaged in in former years. The public will have now a more contemptible opinion of him than before, for the reason that the scoundrel who turns states evidence is as guilty, or more so, than his comrades.

PROTECTION protects only the rich while it plunders the masses—slowly but surely the masses are learning this great truth. The democratic party is opposed to a tariff for protection; it favors a tariff for revenue sufficient to meet the cost of economical government. In other words, the democratic party is opposed to pandering to the rich, and favors giving common people an equal chance, at least, in the race for life with monopolists who have become millionaires by reason of the bounties freely given them in the enactment of protection tariff laws by the republican party.

HERE are a few extracts from the editorial page of the Chicago Tribune, the leading republican newspaper in the west:
Tariff duties are taxes.
Higher duties will increase the burdens put upon the millions.
The high duty is protecting the wool growers and robbing the people.
The increased duty on wool and woolen goods, as provided in McKinley's bill, will work hardship to all classes.

THE republicans are canvassing the name of Clem Studebaker, of South Bend, as their candidate for governor in 1892. He is just the man having republican requirements for governor, plenty of money (brains not a requisite) and the ability to build those under his employment. The should look no farther.

WHAT political victories the republicans may gain in Indiana this year, if they win any, will be solely through their ability to hoodwink the farmers' alliance organizations in the different counties where they are established. The republicans expect little within themselves.

THE population of Indianapolis, as accurately compiled, is 106,756. Before the census enumerators were around it was not less than 125,000 and the per cent of reduction is as large as most places engaged in over-estimating their population.

Arsenic and Potash Three Times a Day for Twenty-Five Years.

I have been taking SSS (Swift's Specific), and feel it to be my duty to state its results, that others who are similarly affected may profit by my experience, and be relieved of their sufferings. I had suffered for a long, long time with what the doctors called Herpes an eruption of the skin; forming scales and blotches which was horrible to endure. Under the advice of physicians I took 30 drops of Fowler's Solution of Arsenic every day for 25 years besides many other kinds of medicines, without a cure. I have been taking SSS for about two months, and the eruption and unpleasant symptoms have all disappeared, and I am continuing it to completely root it out of my blood, which I am confident it will do for others, for there are thousands of such cases all over the country which resist all other treatment. I have lived here in my present business for 22 years.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

can certainly be cured by only one thing, namely: PROF. PHELPS' great discovery, PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Saved From the Insane Asylum. Dear Sirs:—I feel it my duty to tell you what Paine's Celery Compound did for me. I can't praise it enough. About a year ago my head troubled me so that it seemed as though I should be crazy. It was caused by over-study. I asked the advice of two doctors, who gave me medicine to no effect, and I did not know what I would do. I did not want to see anyone, everything seemed so strange. I had a tired, languid feeling, my kidneys troubled me, and I felt badly. I read your advertisement in a paper and thought I would try the compound. Before I had taken half of one bottle I felt like a new person. Four bottles cured me and I would recommend it to all that feel the way I did. Yours truly, Mrs. J. E. Wilcox, Rural P. O., Wis.

Physicians Prescribe It. Dear Sirs:—I am much pleased with the action of Paine's Celery Compound in those cases where the nervous system was broken down from over-work of mind or body. I have seen particularly good results where the patient had lost all ambition, no appetite, constipated, could not sleep nights, etc. Three or four cases of weak, emaciated, hysterical females have been cured with the Compound. I have observed that it quiets excitable nerves, gives patients better rest, increases appetite, regulates bowels, and is a good remedy to build up broken-down cases generally. Yours truly, R. C.
