

MANY A LIFE

HAS been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Pills. Travelers by land or sea are liable to constipation or other derangements of the stomach and bowels which, if neglected, lead to serious and often fatal consequences. The most sure means of correcting these evils is the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The prudent sailing-master would as soon go to sea without his chronometer as without a supply of these Pills. Though prompt and energetic in operation, Ayer's Pills leave no ill effects; they are purely vegetable and sugar-coated; the safest medicine for old and young, at home or abroad.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in health."—Mrs. C. E. Clark, Tewksbury, Massachusetts.

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for affections requiring a purgative, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers."—W. R. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"For several years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than upon anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These Pills are not severe in their action, but do their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect for the cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, and dyspepsia."—Capt. Mueller, Steamship Pelican, New York City.

"I have found Ayer's Cathartic Pills to be a better family medicine for common use than any other pills within my knowledge. They are not only very effective, but safe and pleasant to take—qualities which must make them valued by the public."—Jules Haue, Perfumer, Philadelphia, Pa.

SUSTAIN YOUR PAPERS.

Hon. Charles Jewett, chairman of the democratic central committee, in his circular congratulating the democracy of Indiana on the brilliant victory won by them says:

"To elect a democratic president in 1892 Indiana must be carried. You have accomplished much, but more remains to be done. Preserve your organizations and strengthen them. Calculate closely how you may retain at the next election the advantage you gained in your several precincts at this one."

Above all, extend to your democratic newspapers encouragement and substantial support. Do everything in your power to increase their circulation and extend their influence."

The more generously a newspaper is supported the better it can and will be made. Better not give your support gingerly to a newspaper. If you are not likely to get the value of your money don't give it. We consider, however, that there is not a weekly publication in Indiana but what is worth more than the price asked for it. The more generously a party sustains a paper of its belief and action the more useful and influential it will become. There are near 8,000 voters in Montgomery county belonging to the two political parties. At least half of them should be subscribers to the papers of their party, but they are not. They prefer to send off for the Enquirer, Sentinel, Chicago papers, etc., and leave the home institutions to live as they can. Each weekly paper should have 2,000 cash-in-advance subscribers, yet no weekly paper in Crawfordsville ever had that large a list we venture to say, regardless of any lying figures that may be placed at the head of their columns indicating it. They should have, may be, but they don't, and the day for deceiving people with such stuff is passed. As the chairman suggests, do everything in your power to extend their (democratic newspapers) circulation. THE REVIEW made an honest and determined fight for the success of the entire democratic county ticket, in the late election, and believes it was one among several influences that aided in bringing about the gratifying results achieved. We now ask the democracy to give us a generous support in subscriptions for the ensuing year, and promise them the value of the money they may use for such purpose.

SOME OF THE RESULTS.

SOME of the results of Tuesday's landslide upon which the friends of good government are everywhere to be congratulated are these: The Democrats have the New Hampshire legislature. This insures the election of a Democrat to succeed Henry W. Blair, the well-known crank in the U. S. senate.

Henry Cabot Lodge's majority is reduced from 3,500 to a scant thousand. Lodge is the author of the force bill.

Delamater, the notorious corruptionist and creature of Quay, is defeated for governor of Pennsylvania.

William McKinley, author of the cruel and wicked tariff law which Benjamin Harrison signed without reading, is retired to private life.

Daniel W. Voorhees, the brave and eloquent champion of tariff reform and home rule, is returned to the U. S. senate.

Millionaire Farwell is retired from the U. S. senate in favor of that noble and brainy advocate of popular rights, John M. Palmer.

The un-speakable blackguard, Joseph G. Cannon, is relegated to the position of a private citizen.

Finally, and perhaps best of all, that brilliant but unscrupulous tool of monopoly, John J. Ingalls of Kansas is retired from the U. S. senate.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

BOOMING HILL.

Warwick, the newly elected representative from the Canton, Ohio, district, who defeated McKinley, attributes his success to a great extent to speeches made by Gov. Hill, of New York, in his district. In consequence we observe that several democratic newspapers have commenced the old chant of booming Hill for president. This is all wrong. Hill is as good as any democrat, but is not the man to nominate for president in 1892, and neither is Cleveland. We reiterate, it must be a western man.

Nominations from New York for president by the democracy are almost always fatal to party success. We have fallen into the foolish and sentimental idea that all the brains and all the influences are concentrated in New York. Why would not Gray, of Indiana, Palmer or Black, of Illinois, or some other prominent western democrat be a suitable candidate for president? Do you know of any reason why they would not secure as many electoral votes as any New York man? Why not Gray and Hill for president and vice-president, or Black, of Illinois, for president, and Grant, mayor of New York City, for vice-president. Reverse the ticket for once and let the tail of it be a New Yorker, and the head a western man. There are too many prominent democrats in New York always seeking the presidential nomination. They are envious of each other. They have too many selfish and bickering among themselves to succeed. They prefer to slaughter each other rather than that the party should succeed. We make the prediction now, two years before the election of 1892, that if either Hill or Cleveland be nominated, or any other New York man, that the democracy will be slaughtered fully as bad as they were in '88. These editors booming Hill should study the political situation of New York for thirty years past more thoroughly with reference to the democracy. The old trick of going to New York for presidential candidates has been trod enough. Let us find a new path.

THE AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM.

The new system of voting in Indiana as used at the last election will bring much more respect for us as a people than there has been previously for many years. It has broken up the buying of votes and "blocks of five" men and their occupation gone, and it is to be hoped permanently. For a long time in other States the name of Indiana in matters relating to elections has been a byword and a reproach. There seemed to be more buying and selling of the franchise privilege in Indiana than any other state in the Union. A man's ability to secure a nomination and an election to office was heretofore determined by the amount of cash he would invest at elections. But thanks to the last legislature of the State all this is changed now. The new system of voting has stopped the barter in votes, and hereafter an Indian can look the outside in the eye and say we have pure elections, they don't sell their votes in Indiana. We believe there is a general gratification shown fully as much among republicans as democrats at the new system of elections in Indiana. Future office-seekers will certainly have cause to be thankful that they will not to a great extent be pulled and hauled by fellows hungry to sell their franchise. No man of sense could certainly object to the mode and manner of conducting elections as shown last week. No running of men up to the polls to cast a prepared ballot, no drunkenness, no noise, but peaceable quiet work. Hurrah for the new election system. It is what we have been needing for years.

Now that the elections are over we suppose that 700 or more applicants for positions of clerks, door keepers, etc., for the next legislature, will at once begin to send out their appeals to the members. For the benefit of those fellows we will inform them that the P. O. address of one member from this county is Waynetown, the other this city.

REPUBLICAN publications in this state have contended that there was and is an intense rivalry between Hon. D. W. Voorhees and Ex-Gov. Gray; that whenever they meet in a contest for the office of U. S. Senator there would be much bad blood, and hoped that it would bring about the dissolution of the party through the quarrels of these two men. The truth is cordial relations exist between these two gentlemen, both worked earnestly for the great success which has crowned their efforts. Regarding the Senatorship Gov. Gray at Indianapolis last week said:

"I recognize the ability of Senator Voorhees and the distinguished services he has rendered his party, and I have no desire to enter upon a contest with him for the Senate. He has just closed, and no man in Indiana deserves more than he to be his successor. I believe he is the choice of the people of the State, and I will take great pleasure in seeing his devotion to principle and party rewarded by another term in the Senate. I am

AS ANTHURASTIC FOR VOORHEES
Any Democrat in the State, and have never had any thought of being a candidate against him.

That does not sound like bitter personal feeling between the two men. Mr. Voorhees if he lives, will be his own successor as U. S. Senator and Gov. Gray, if such were needed, would no doubt, use his best efforts to bring this about.

SOME OF THE RESULTS.

SOME of the results of Tuesday's landslide upon which the friends of good government are everywhere to be congratulated are these: The Democrats have the New Hampshire legislature. This insures the election of a Democrat to succeed Henry W. Blair, the well-known crank in the U. S. senate.

BLAINE.

THE only man apparently now to lead the republicans in 1892 toward any prospect of victory is James G. Blaine. Out of the number of prominent republicans slain by the verdict of the last election, or condemned in any manner by it, Blaine is one of the few whose reputation comes out of the contest unscathed, and who remains as strong and popular as ever, with the rank and file of his party. The McKinley bill defeated the republicans last week, yet Blaine remarked last summer that it was one of the most infamous measures sought to be perpetrated upon the people. He seems to be one of the very few leaders of his party that thinks, or reflects. None of the other republican leaders seemed to raise their voice against the infamous measure, yet Blaine did and no doubt saw the disaster that would overtake his party. His reciprocity theory is semi-democratic, is anti-tariff, and will win, yet none of his party thought of any such thing until he advanced it. Blaine is the sole remaining hope of his party in 1892, Ben Harrison is no where, and will not be nominated. It is Blaine or nothing.

THE LAST OF MCKINLEY.

One of the most righteous verdicts of the elections of last week was the defeat of McKinley, of Canton, Ohio, author of the infamous bill bearing his name. His bill, which is a law is undoubtedly in the interest of monopolists and manufacturers, and will hereafter be distinctly proven to be. Although a $150,000 corruption fund was sent into his district to help carry him through it failed to do so, and after next March he will give way to Warwick, a democrat. The democrats have a majority in the next congress, and it is believed that the McKinley bill will be repealed, and one in the interest of tariff reform established. The republicans can attribute their defeat to that more than anything else in the elections just passed, and will in a short time desire its abolishment from the statute books as much as the democrats.

REDUCING WAGES.

In the McKinley district at Massillon, Ohio, is a large implement manufacturing establishment under the name of Russell & Co. Among the numerous employees are a large number of democrats. They would not be bulldozed into voting for McKinley at the election last week, and in consequence their wages were next day reduced while those of the republican employees continued as formerly. It might be well for those needing implements with the imprint of Russell & Co., Massillon, Ohio, upon them to remember this piece of boycotting attempted by this firm and to avoid purchasing anything made by them. They richly deserve a boycott which they seek to force upon others.

THE LAST OF A DEMAGOGUE.

In the great cyclone which threw so many republican leaders to the earth last week there was none more deserving of his fate than Ingalls, of Kansas. He is a bully, a demagogue, who at one time advised the arming of the Negroes in the south that they might shoot down their white neighbors. A patriotic man, with his tongue, he was careful to save his own hide during the war by not entering. The farmers' alliance settled his fate last week in Kansas, and that of many other such patriots in that state by defeating the republican party at the polls, and Ingalls is compelled after March 4 next, to retire and give place to some man who is not a fanatic and demagogue, it is hoped.

MASTER-IN-CHANCERY FISHBACK in his report of the estimate of Attorney's fees in a case won against the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railroad says: "My report and that of ex-Gov. Chamberlain's services were reasonably worth $20,000 and that Charles E. Patterson's services were worth $15,000. Most people will wonder where any attorney's fees can be so valuable as to entitle him to a fee of from $15,000 to $20,000 in any case and they will further wonder how many years he required to earn it. Compared to other lines of business attorneys are certainly the best paid of any class of men in the world."

REPUBLICANS are claiming they originate all measures for the public good, and which the democrats afterward adopt. Did the republicans originate in Indiana the new system of voting? Not at all. On the contrary many of their leaders in the legislature were opposed to it. It was a democratic legislature that secured this good law, which renders elections fair and make them expressions of the people's will.

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY says he is well satisfied with the results in his district. The democrats over there are also well satisfied. Therefore since both are pleased with the results of the election there should be no reason for quarreling and dissatisfaction by either party.

WHAT CURES?

Editorial Difference of Opinion on an Important Subject.

What is the force that out disease; and which is the most convenient apparatus for applying it? How far is the regular physician useful to us because we believe in him, and how far are his pills and powder and tonics only the material representatives of his personal influence on our health?

The regular doctors cure; the homeopathic doctors cure; the Hahnemannites cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures; and the so-called Christian scientists, and the four-dollar-and-a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—one great difference—in the result is that when the regular doctors lose a patient no one grumbles, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stands on ends and howls.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Nature cures, but nature can be aided, hindered or defeated in the curative process. And the Commercial's contention is that it is the part of rational beings to seek and trust the advice of men of good character who have studied the human system and learned, as far as modern science lights the way, how far they can aid nature and how they can best avoid obstructing her.—Buffalo Commercial.

It is not our purpose to consider the evils that result from employing the unscrupulous, the ignorant, charlatans and quacks to prescribe for the maladies that afflict the human family. We simply declare that the physician who knows something is better than the physician who knows nothing, or very little indeed about the structure and the condition of the human system. Of course "he does not know it all."—Rochester Morning Herald.

I have used Warner's Safe Cure and but for its timely use would have been, I verily believe in my grave from what the doctors termed Bright's Disease.—D. F. Shriner, senior Editor Sentinel Gazette, Chillicothe, Ohio, in a letter dated June 30, 1890.

Fortunate Father and Son.
"I am as certain as I now live," says C. E. Bartholomew, of Kankakee, Mich., "that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., saved my life when I was a victim of that terrible renal disorder—Bright's disease. My son had a fever sore on his leg. He, too, used Favorite Remedy, and is now well. But for this medicine I am sure both father and son would have been six feet under the sod."

An Old Sore Healed.

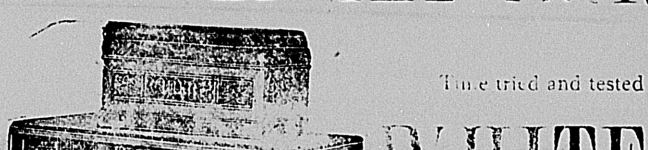

I had a painful, annoying sore on my leg near the knee that troubled me for over two years. I tried various remedies, but the sore, instead of healing up, continued to grow larger, and to cause me more pain until I began to look for a cure. Through the advice of a friend, who was cured of a similar trouble, I took S. S. S., and in a few weeks was cured entirely. The sore healed up, and there is not even a scar left to mark the place. WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

THE N W PENSION LAW

Provides a pension of not less than $6 nor more than $12 per month to old soldiers or sailors who served 90 days during the last war, and were honorably discharged from service, who are in any way disabled.

This pension is granted without any reference to when or how the disability was incurred either in or out of the service, if not the result of his own vicious habits.

Provides also $8 per month for the widow of every soldier or sailor who served 90 days, without regard to the time or cause of her husband's death if she is dependent on her labor for her support. Also $2 additional for each child under 16 years of age, and the child's pension is to continue if it is in sane, imbecile, or entirely helpless although the mother remarries or should die.

Provides also that any soldier's parent who is without other means of support than his or her own manual labor, if the soldier died in the service or from any disease or wounds he received while in the service, may obtain pension at the rate of $12 per month.

Applying for or accepting pension under this law does not prevent the claimant from prosecuting a claim under the old law. Pensions under the new law commences the time the application is filed.

If an application is made under this law the claimant can select any attorney he desires without reference to his old claim, and if a soldier is now drawing less than $6 per month he can be increased under this law.

The attorneys fee is limited to $10 in each case. We are now prepared with necessary blanks to prosecute all claims under the new law. Address or call on the Old Reliable Claim Agency of
