

People Wonder

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and could had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food did not taste, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement.

Improvement

in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. Your medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence." — O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his feet. I sent him Ayer's Sarsaparilla and the disease it contained induced him to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia." — A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.

THE END OF A GREAT TRIAL.

The Petit trial, which terminated last week in this country in the conviction of the prisoner after a session of court of near six weeks, will long be remembered as one of the most important criminal trials ever held in western Indiana. The previous standing of the prisoner, the great crime with which he was charged, the large number of witnesses examined, the array of legal talent employed, etc., all aided in attracting a vast amount of public attention and interest, and which from the first appeared never to flag in the least. As in every case there is a great diversity of opinion regarding the verdict arrived at in so short a time after the charge by the court was given. Large numbers think him guilty, that the evidence as given was sufficiently strong to carry conviction and that he deserved the extreme penalty of the law. On the other hand very many think that no evidence produced showed the least that he was guilty of administering the poison, that if his wife died from its effects it was largely owing to the incompetency of the physician employed, and if guilty the state failed to prove it to the satisfaction of the unprejudiced mind. It is probable that the end is not yet in this case. The attorneys will take the case to the court of last resort and a year or more may elapse before its final termination. If the verdict is in the interest of justice, morality and order it should stand, and regardless of his previous record calling he should be punished the same as any other criminal. If it has resulted through malice, gossip and prejudice, the sooner the verdict is set aside the better. Let justice prevail through the Heavens fall.

THE SENATE.

The Senate now contains 47 republicans and 37 democrats. The four new Senators from Wyoming and Idaho will give the republicans a majority of 14 until after March 4, 1891. Then they will lose of Senators Evans, of New York; Spooner of Wisconsin; Farwell, of Illinois; Ingalls, of Kansas; and probably that of Blair, of New Hampshire.

The loss of seats of Senators Evans, Farwell, Spooner, Ingalls and Blair would reduce the republican majority to four. If the democrats can gain three more Senators they will control it. Among the Senators whose terms expire in 1893 are Aldrich, of Rhode Island, whose state is now Democratic; Davis, of Minnesota, whose State is unquestionably opposed to the Republican policy and hangs on to the Republican organization by very slender ties; Hawley, of Connecticut, whose State is Democratic and whose legislature may be; Hiscok, of New York, whose State and whose Legislature are both Democratic; Paddock, of Nebraska, where the Democrats have elected three Representatives, and Sawyer, of Wisconsin, and Stockbridge, of Michigan, in which States the Democrats have just won sweeping victories.

There is an excellent prospect, therefore that on March 4, 1893 the nation will have a Democratic President, a Democratic Senate and a Democratic House.

DID NOT SAVE HIM.

A number of persons believing the old traditional humbug that any member of the Masonic fraternity who may have violated the law could easily be saved from deserved punishment by gisal-cutus means, known only to the order, were very apprehensive that Pettit would go free simply because he was high up in the order and was known as a Master Mason. The sentence he received should satisfy them that there is nothing in this old superstitious yarn. One of the jurors, we believe, was a Mason, and several of the attorneys and officers of the court belonged to his order, yet Pettit was not saved by them, and got just as strong a dose of the red-eyed law as any other criminal would have received, regardless of his standing. Masonry does not seek to shield any criminal. If it did it would be in antagonism with all the rest of the world, and would soon cease to exist, if one could not pound some enough with a ten pound maul into some people's skulls to get them to think otherwise than that one of the duties of the order is to save a brother regardless of what crime he may commit.

A NON PARTIZAN BOARD.

The partisan complexion of the board of county commissioners will be somewhat changed hereafter, as from and after Monday next it will consist of two republicans and one democrat. This is as it should be. All boards of county commissioners should have a mixture, politically speaking, and we never want to see them again in this county composed of solely one political faith.

The democratic board of seven and eight years ago in many respects was a great fraud and terribly expensive to the tax-payers. The republican board under Grubb was not one whit better. There should always be one member of the board of the opposite party to other two, and a law so framed would be the correct thing for the tax-payers. Byers can keep his eye on two brother republican commissioners. When he and Fullen are both members, a republican commissioner should keep them company. The county commissioners should be of a mixed political complexion always. Schemes for political advancement, private gain or any thing else detrimental to the interest of the tax-payers, can generally be prevented.

Some republicans are giving as a reason for their defeat in this county that the democracy purchased votes at the last election. A bigger lie could not have originated anywhere else than in this. If they believe this they should produce their proof and have men doing the buying indicted and prosecuted. We would just as soon have a democrat violating this law punished as a republican, and one should fair no better than the other. The whole truth is that the democracy were every where well organized while the republicans were not; again the McKinley bill above everything else aided in bringing around the great defeat with which the republicans met.

NOMINATING BY THE NEW SYSTEM.

The suggestion has been made that since the new Australian system of electing men to office has given such good satisfaction that it should also be used in nominating candidates. The suggestion is a good one. It will do away with the delegate system which is often quite unsatisfactory. The entire party could select the candidates instead of a delegated few. It would prevent the "setting up" of a township or precinct in the interest of any one candidate. No voter would know how his neighbor was casting his ballot, and neither would be able to ascertain. The use of money to influence voters would be of little benefit, and in consequence this corrupting feature of so many primary elections would be a great extent be done away with, and the best of men selected. It is quite probable that this system for nominating candidates will, on the part of the democracy at least, be adopted in this county in 1892 for the selection of candidates for the county ticket.

FOOLISH LAWS.

The farmers' alliance had a state meeting at Indianapolis the other day. Among the laws they desired passed by the state legislature is one prohibiting voters living in towns and cities from participating in township elections, and prohibiting those of any city or town from holding a township office. Such narrow-minded, selfish ideas as these will never do in this day and age, and they will never see such laws as these encounter the statute books of Indiana. After a time, such people, would not allow a man from town or city to travel on a township road without a permit, or buy a load of corn without first obtaining permission from them. It is such arbitrary, ridiculous laws as the above constitute the principle demands of the alliance it should stop before going any further. If they consider that there are no other interests involved in this country than theirs they will very likely learn to the contrary before their mission as a political organization is ended.

WHO DOES THE READING.

In this campaign, taking the country now the Democrats prints twice as many papers as the republicans, and this superior circulation of their adroit misrepresentations told heavily against us.—Clarke.

One of the main arguments for years used by the republicans in their campaigns against the democrats and always spoken of in the way of ridicule is that the democrats can't and don't read, and were therefore unfit to vote intelligently in political affairs. They have reiterated this time out of mind. Now comes Clarkson, a high priest in the republican synagogue, and one of the most intelligent man of his party and says the "democrats print twice as many papers as the republicans." Over a year ago he said this same thing, and he certainly has had opportunity of knowing. This old assertion in which there never was but little truth will now, we should think, become decidedly stale when the lie is given to it by a strong and observing republican leader.

AN IMPLEMENT COMBINE.

The proprietors of McCormick's, Walter Woods, the Deering, the Whiteley and in fact all the reaper and mower factories in this country entered, last week into one combination in which $35,000,000 is to be invested and 50,000 men employed. The combination is formed in order to raise the prices on all implements turned out by them. These concerns separately, it is stated, have not for years made anything out of their products on account of the strong competition heretofore existing among the different manufacturers. They have now established a trust similar to the coffee, oil, iron and similar combinations, and propose now that the consumer shall pay for the music while they dance. Farmers purchasing binders, mowers, etc., will pay the full value for them hereafter.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION BILL.

A COMMITTEE of the leading educators of the state are preparing a bill to present at the next session of the legislature, asking the compulsion of children between certain ages in attendance at school. We doubt very much if such a law can be secured by its advocates, although in many respects it would be beneficial, but attempts have heretofore been made to secure the passage of a law of similar import and have failed. The public have a horror of most laws compelling them to do this or that when they think it may be of a personal nature, that is, they look upon such laws as tyrannical, and whether they send their children to school or keep them out is none of the public's business.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

December payment cannot be deferred without usual penalty.

There is another matter, however, that will interest time and money savers, or THE ECONOMICAL, for "time is money."

By actual comparison and carefully computed figures it is found there was a saving of 822 hours, besides a great saving otherwise, to 274 excursionists that purchased "harvest tickets" to the west during Sept. and Oct. via Toledo St. Louis & Kansas City R. R. Enough in aggregate to pay the taxes of any ordinary holder in Ohio, Indiana or Illinois, if computed at 20 cents per hour.

A FAMILY JEWEL.

Dr. David Kennedy, of N. Y., the famous surgeon and physician, has sent us a copy of his book, "How to cure kidney, liver and blood disorders." It is a work which should be read in every home, for the value of the medical lessons along. It contains also many life illustrations, and two facinating stories from the widely known author "Ned. Bartle."

Any one sending their address with name of this paper to Dr. Kennedy, will receive the book free by mail.

THE republicans in some parts of the state are forming what they term "McKinley" clubs. They were pounds enough with that style of clubs on the 4th of November, one would think, to be very willing to let the McKinley part of politics alone.

It is thought now that Ingalls and his friends will so manipulate the Kansas legislature as to return him to the senate—a calamity much to be deplored.

THE official vote of the county vote as published last week should be preserved by politicians for use in 1892, as it will be a valuable table for reference.

IF YOUR HOUSE IS ON FIRE

You put water on the burning timbers, not on the smoke. And if you have cataract you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effects subside. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures cataract. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.
