WHAT IS IT?
Persons outside of the profession often ask, what is an Emulsion? We answer, an Emulsion is a combination of two or more liquids, so thoroughly mixed that each is held in permanent suspension. Several of the much advertised "Emulsions" now on the market are nothing more than compounds, and a microscopic examination will reveal globules of oil in their original form. The Emulsion made by Messrs. J. A. Magee & Co., Lawrence, Mass., everywhere so favorably known by physicians as
Magee's Emulsion
is composed of one-third part Cod-Liver Oil, one-third part Extract of Walnut, and one-third part Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, each of which must be of the finest quality obtainable. These three valuable ingredients, with a little flavoring extract, are put into a "mixer," where it is emulsified for six hours by steam power, at the rate of 125 revolutions per minute, which breaks every globule of the oil, and combines it with the other ingredients in such a thorough manner that no separation will ever occur. Magee's Emulsion has no equal for the relief and cure of Coughs, Colds, Scrofula, Dyspepsia and General Debility.
For sale by all druggists.

ANOTHER BATTLE.

A Conflict Between Troops and Indians Near Gordon, Neb.

NO ONE KILLED ON EITHER SIDE.

Citizens Carrying Arms and Greatly Excited—The Hostiles Evidently Eager for War, and Say They Will Listen to No More Peace Talk.

SOME ALARMING RUMORS.
OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 5.—Specials from Gordon, Neb., say that two scouts just arrived there confirm the report of a battle Saturday. The first reports were to the effect that a battle was raging about ten miles northeast of Gordon. The booming of cannon could be heard distinctly. Everybody is under arms and the wildest excitement exists. The fight was between the Indians and a detachment sent out by General Miles from Rosebud agency to bury the dead Indians killed at Wounded Knee battle on December 29. The hostile Sioux objected to the burial of their dead by the pale-faced foe and opened fire. After desperate and sharp firing of the Hotchkiss gun they were forced to return to the protection of the friendly rangers. No deaths were reported.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., via Rushville, Neb., Jan. 5.—The Indian army is working itself into a fury dancing the ghost dance and preparing for a big battle. Hundreds are crazy in their excitement and ready for anything. General Miles' letter was burned and answer sent that they did not want to hear any peace talk, but were ready and anxious to fight. Their host numbers over 4,000, a large proportion belonging to other agencies. The Pine Ridge Indians are more friendly than any of the rest. Shots were fired by the pickets at intervals all Saturday night. Two fire arrows were thrown into yards from adjoining ravines, but no damage done. Peace talk will accomplish nothing with these frenzied dancers. They will fight to the death. Half-breeds and squaw-men are leaving for the railroad, saying that they know what is coming and don't propose to remain. This war will not be ended except by one of the bloodiest in the history of Indian warfare.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 5.—Specials to the Journal from Pine Ridge confirm the report of an engagement between General Carr's command and the Indians on White river. It is believed no one was killed, though several Indians were wounded. An Indian courier brings a message from the hostile camp, the substance of which is demand that the soldiers withdraw from the locality, and further that they will treat with no one for peace but the Vice-President of the United States or the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. This message came direct from the hitherto supposed friendly Chief Red Cloud. Roving bands continue to scour the country in the vicinity of Pine Ridge. A man named Miller, formerly a Government herder, was found five miles from the agency, his body riddled with bullets. Many persons coming in tell of narrow escapes. The Indian training school at Pine Ridge burned Friday night, no loss of life resulting.

The refugees admit that the number of Indians killed in the White Clay battle of Tuesday was large. The effect of the ghost-dance delusion is seen in the fact that the Indians make no attempt to remove their dead from the battle-field or to care for the wounded. Their idea is that every one who is killed or dies from his wound is in big luck and will turn into buffalo, etc.

STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Jan. 5.—On the issue of rations Saturday it was discovered that a large number of the bucks who received their supplies here had disappeared, and on close questioning of the friendly Indians the fact came out that they had gathered together what rations they could conveniently carry on their ponies, and moved southward toward the several hostile bands making a stand in the Bad Lands. It can not be learned how many have deserted the agency, but a count of those in for rations indicates that there are from 8,000 to 12,000 of them armed with Winchester and knives. A movement is already on foot to round them up before they join the Southern bands, but it is believed they have sufficient start to be in the hostile camp before the cavalry can overtake them. The savages know the Hills country thoroughly, and doubtless have guides from the camp of Two Strike and Short Bull.

The Indians here openly charge the whites with treachery in the killing of Sitting Bull and say they would as soon be shot down on the battle-field as slaughtered in peace. Even the Indians who have professed the greatest friendship for the Great Father are becoming restless and it is hourly feared that they will go to war in a body, which would be a serious matter for the agency, as there are now very few soldiers at Ft. Yates to protect the whites in this vicinity.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 5.—General Miles has recommended that Agent Hoyer be removed and Captain Doughty of the First Infantry placed in charge. Gen. Miles has also asked the President to remove the agents at the Cheyenne, Standing Rock and Rosebud agencies. Captain E. P. Ewens of the Fifth, Captain J. M. Lee of the Ninth and Captain T. F. Pierce of the First are recommended for these places respectively. General Miles thinks this will restore peace and harmony. The Indians are slowly starving to death but an army officer could soon supply food.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A reporter called the attention of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to the reports from Pine Ridge saying that General Miles had recommended the removal of the Indian agents at Pine Ridge and other places and to the statement that the Indians were slowly starving to death. The Commissioner said that so far as the agents were concerned there was no evidence that there had been any dishonesty on their part in distributing supplies. He said he was preparing for publication a full statement of the amount of supplies voted by Congress and distributed to the Indians. The Commissioner has submitted to the President a statement covering the question of the charge made that the agreements with the Indians have not been fulfilled.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—General Miles from his headquarters in the field in the heart of the Indian troubles has telegraphed to Colonel Henry C. Corbin, the Adjutant General of the division of the Missouri, stationed at division headquarters in this city, ordering him to proceed at once to report for duty on the scene of action. Colonel Corbin is General Miles' chief of staff and has taken active part as an officer of the line in many campaigns against hostile Indians in the Northwest.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 5.—Three companies of militia from interior towns were sent Saturday morning to defend the towns near the Sioux Indian reservation.

MASON CITY, Ia., Jan. 5.—The Sixth Regiment, Iowa National Guards, the strongest in the State, Colonel Benton commanding, has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to march to the frontier for service against the Indians.

KILLED BY A LAW-MAKER.

G. W. Embree Murdered by Representative Terrill, of the Oklahoma Legislature.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 5.—Representative I. N. Terrill, of Payne County, on Saturday murdered G. W. Embree of the same county on the street in this city. The trouble grew out of a contest over Terrill's homestead. Terrill was charged with being a "sooner" and Embree had so testified before the United States Land Office. After leaving the witness-stand Embree went upon the street, followed by Terrill, who commenced firing at once, emptying five chambers of his revolver into the body of Embree, killing him almost instantly. Great excitement prevails, and to protect Terrill a guard has been placed in charge of the place where he is now a prisoner. Both men were farmers and lived about twenty-five miles northeast of this place.

GERMANY'S BOLD MOVE.

The Emperor's Representatives Assume a Protectorate Over the Marshall Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—The schooner W. E. Beebe arrived Friday from the Marshall Islands, bringing intelligence tending to confirm the rumor that the German Government had taken possession of the islands. The schooner reports that the chiefs were compelled to sign a petition requesting Germany to establish a protectorate over the group. One chief, however, who declared himself in favor of allegiance only to the United States, refused to sign the petition, which has been forwarded to Berlin. A German cruiser is stationed at Joluit, and the German agent has announced that the islanders will be required to pay a yearly tax on copra.

Burial of General Spinner's Remains.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The remains of the late General F. E. Spinner, war Treasurer of the United States, were received at his home at Mohawk, near this city, Saturday evening from the place of his death, Pablo Beach, Fla. At 2 p. m. Sunday prayer was said at the house and the procession moved to the Reformed church, including the Rerington Rifles, the Chismore Post of Union and a drum corps. The services were conducted by Rev. H. M. Cox. The body was buried with military honors.

Two Women Fight with Knives.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 5.—Word comes from New Martinsville, W. Va., that two physicians have been summoned to Ten Mile, Tyler County, to attend two women who fought a duel with butcher-knives. The fight occurred in the kitchen of Mrs. Wilson, one of the combatants, and is described as a most ferocious and desperate encounter. Mrs. Wilson was terribly cut about the face, neck and breast and is fatally hurt. The cause of the strange duel is not known.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—George W. French, a book-keeper for LeGrand B. Beebe, a coal dealer on Thirty-fifth street, met a terrible death in the Erie flats, 3706 Lake avenue, Saturday night. The elevator on which he was standing fell from the fourth floor to the basement, and Mr. French received injuries from which he died four hours later.
