THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE TONIC AND Stomach & Liver Cure The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years.

The Great South American Nervine Tonic

Which we now offer you, is the only absolutely unfailing remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and the vast train of symptoms and horrors which are the result of disease and debility of the human stomach. No person can afford to pass by this jewel of incalculable value who is affected by disease of the stomach, because the experience and testimony of many go to prove that this is the ONE and ONLY ONE great cure in the world for this universal destroyer. There is no case of unmalignant disease of the stomach which can resist the wonderful curative powers of the South American Nervine Tonic.

HARRIET E. HALL, of Waynetown, Ind., says: I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine Tonic. I am in full health again, and am now a perfect example of the effects of an exhausted stomach, Indigestion, Nervous Prostration, and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had not the strength to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it too highly.

Now compare with South American Nervine Tonic a non-tonic cure for the Stomach. No remedy will at all compare with South American Nervine as a cure for all forms of failing health. It never fails to cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It never fails to cure Chorea or St. Vitus' Dance. Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle aged. It is a great remedy to cure the bottle of the Nervine Tonic, and continued its use for about six months, and am entirely cured. It is the grandest remedy for nerves, stomach and lungs I have ever seen.

WANAMAKER'S PLANS

Points to Be Presented in His Forthcoming Report.

HOW TO BETTER THE POSTAL SERVICE

The Postmaster General to Present Further Argument Favoring Postal Telegraph, Savings Banks and Extension of Free Delivery.

TO IMPROVE THE SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Postmaster General Wanamaker is collecting the data for his annual report to congress. So far as can be ascertained, the special features of the report will be similar to those of last year. During the last year he has been making experiments in one or two branches of the service, and he is likely to make a special point for their development. His postal telegraph scheme is not dead, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The last congress sat down on it, but now Wanamaker proposes asking the next house to look into it and investigate the arguments and figures he is now preparing in its support. Much the same arguments will be used. The same may be said of the postal savings bank. Mr. Wanamaker is thoroughly convinced that one of the most beneficial additions to the present postal service would be the establishment of savings banks in post offices. His experience and the reports from the country generally during the last year convince him more thoroughly than ever of its practicability. The demand for such institutions in farming districts and small villages where there are no regular banks has been growing steadily. His recommendations in this line will be similar to those of last year, when he urged the establishment of postal savings banks in states having no laws regulating savings banks, and in any other states upon petition of a considerable number of residents in any one locality. He will recommend that there be no more than one bank for every 10 miles of area and that the interest paid on deposits be one-half of 1 per cent. lower than that paid by private bankers.

With regard to penny postage the postmaster general is not so enthusiastic as he was. While in his recommendations he will not recede from the position taken in his former reports he will not lay special stress on this radical change. The postmaster general is anxious to see the penny postage adopted, but congress will have to make the change possible by increased appropriations.

The extension of the free delivery system is one of the points which will receive much attention in the report. The last congress appropriated $10,000 with which to try the free delivery experiment. The postmaster general is now engaged in figuring out results from these localities. As far as they go to indicate the success of the plan. He anticipates that the increase of business and revenue in country towns will about balance the expenditures made in the experiment. With the results in hand he proposes going before the next congress and asking for assistance in extending the free delivery throughout the country. The amount of money needed to put the system into operation has not been estimated, but Mr. Wanamaker feels justified in guaranteeing that the increase of revenues will recoup the government for the necessary outlay.

AFFAIRS IN TWO TERRITORIES.

Annual Reports of the Governors of New Mexico and Oklahoma.

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 17.—The governor's annual report to the interior department at Washington has been published. Among other recommendations made in it are the admission of New Mexico as a state, the survey and marking of the boundary line on the Texas side, the reoccupation of Fort Marcy and the amendment of land courts so as to protect small owners. The report also deals at length with public schools, irrigation, climate, rainfall, agriculture and stock raising.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 17.—In his first annual report Gov. Steel regrets that proper provision does not exist for common schools in the territory; hopes that the Cherokee lands will soon be opened to settlement; says a different mode should be devised for opening town sites which will avoid a recurrence of the scenes recently witnessed, and, finally, recommends that funds be provided for rapid allotments of Cheyenne and Arapahoe lands, in order that room may be found for intending settlers who were disappointed at the recent openings.

Lavalle Breaking Down.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Oct. 17.—The case of incendiarism against Lavalle, Harbin, Ledgerwood and Hawes for burning the Daviess county courthouse has been set for hearing November 3. It is safe to say the trials will not occur at that time, as the attorneys for the defense will apply for and doubtless receive changes of venue on the ground of local prejudice against the defendants. The next grand jury of this county will indict the defendants on a still more serious charge under the laws of Indiana—to wit: the burning of official records. Lavalle and the whole party are in great trouble now and there seems to be no loophole for their escape. Lavalle is breaking down and would doubtless make a full confession if pressed to do so. His brother Mike has not been arrested and is eluding the officers who are after him. The case against the defendants is so plain that no further efforts in the way of investigation will be made at this time.

The committee charged with the duty of examining the auditor's books is hard at work, but meets with many difficulties, as the accounts have been very loosely kept. They say that the first two or three years of J. C. Lavalle's term, according to the records, show a discrepancy of more than $20,000. The extent of this defalcation will never be known, but its results will be felt for many years. The fire has worked in calculable injury to the people of the county, as all the records in the recorder's office were totally destroyed. J. C. Lavalle now feels his position most keenly and is vainly appealing to his old friends to bail him out.

The Washington folk say Lavalle was not given to gambling at all and say they cannot imagine where the man spent so much money. A later investigation develops the fact he was not only an inveterate poker player and a poor one at that, but gave his money freely to others whom he supposed to have superior skill and desire to play for him. Thousands of dollars have been squeezed out of him in this manner. He was probably blackmailed out of a vast deal. He may confess all his peculations. If he does Washington will be treated to another big sensation.

Drunk Drove Him to Suicide.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 17.—Harry G. Lewis, son of Henry Lewis, of Walhalla Hills, Cincinnati, said to be a wealthy man, committed suicide by shooting himself Friday morning. He had been out all night and a newspaper man took him to the hotel, where he fired the shot. Young Lewis, who had studied patent law, came here to attend the Rose Polytechnic institute for the purpose of learning to make his own drawings. He had been making heavily and was suspended from the institute for failure to appear in his class.

Women as Real Estate Agents.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 17.—The first "Woman's Real Estate Association" ever formed in this country was organized and incorporated here Thursday, all of the incorporators being well-known ladies of this city. The object of the association is to deal in real estate and act as rental agents, and they claim that a great deal of property has already been placed under their control.

W. C. T. U. at Evansville.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 17.—The state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union met here Friday morning. The corresponding secretary, Miss L. E. Parker, of Indianapolis, reported that there were 276 unions, a gain of 42 over last year, and a regular membership of 4,804. The treasurer reported the total receipts for the year to be $3,447, the expenditures $3,351.

Shot by a Bartender.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 17.—A gang of glass blowers undertook to demolish Kuntz's saloon at Alexandria Thursday night. Michael Sapp, the bartender, opened fire with a revolver. James McCann and Andrew Gallagher were mortally wounded. Sapp was struck on the head with a beer glass and his recovery is doubtful. Six arrests have been made.

Failure of Nebraska Bank.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Oct. 17.—The Tecumseh national bank was closed Friday by Bank Examiner Griffin. The failure is not considered to be a bad one and is due to poor business. There is a deficit of $70,000. This has nearly all been made good by the officers of the bank, who have deeded over all their property. It is believed that depositors will be paid in full.

Two Years' Imprisonment for Perjury.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 17.—Hugh Berewick, a farmer and stock buyer of Boone county, has been convicted of perjury and sentenced to two years' imprisonment. The charge of perjury grew out of a trial in which Berewick was charged with using false weights while engaged in buying stock.

Indiana's Oil Fields.

PORTLAND, Ind., Oct. 17.—The Cookerly well, which has just been drilled, is the largest in the state, and is good for 300 barrels of oil a day. Derricks are being built in all directions, and this territory presents every appearance of an oil field.

Fire at Paoli.

PAOLI, Ind., Oct. 17.—On Thursday fire destroyed Bowles' drug store and hardware store, the Orange county building and Judge William Farrell's office. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $11,500.

A Foundry Burned.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 17.—At 3 o'clock the foundry and pattern shop of George S. Mesker, corner of First and Ingle streets, was discovered on fire. Loss, $40,000; insurance, $11,500.

California's raisin crop was said to be the largest ever raised.
