WASN'T "BORN AND BRED." Simply because he was not "born and bred" a democrat is probably ex-Gov.
Gray's offending with numerous individuals who oppose his nomination for President, and favor an eastern man in place of him. Governor Gray was not a democrat during the war, neither was General Palmer, of Illinois, ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, Boise, of Iowa, Capt.
Myers, of this State, and many others who are now prominent in democratic councils. This view of any man's ability to fill an important position is decidedly bourbonish, unjust, and mean. If such a rule was adopted now throughout the United States in the selection of men it is probable the party would run out of material. Many of the ablest leaders of the democracy in the Union were, a quarter of a century ago, republicans.
They left the republican party from principle and are now actively and sincerely engaged in building up the democratic. They are entitled to their reward for their work, and not to abuse nor misrepresentation for it. Looking over the list of numerous active democratic politicians in Indiana for several years past, can any one point to any of our leaders who have done more effective work than ex-Governor Gray?
We believe not. Then why not have the endorsement freely of the party for the high honor which he seeks? Surely there is nothing unjust or exacting in this. We are of those who have little faith in the nomination of an eastern man. We have tried this six times and with rare success. The cry now is for Cleveland. Many of the delegates at the State convention last week, seemed to go on the presumption that all he needed was the endorsement of Indiana, and his election was an easy thing. If any one can see any thing more encouraging for his election in 1892 than in 1883, then his perceptive faculties are as much ahead of ours. Whether we could or could not elect Gray for President, we know not, but the experiment at the present would be no worse than we have repeatedly seen with an eastern candidate. Cleveland will it would seem, be nominated in Chicago, in June, and it behooves every democrat to do his best to elect him, yet the outlook to us is not flattering, and it is folly to flatter ourselves differently.

Some men can only take a hint when they are struck with a club. Some men have never the sense to discover when they are played out and that the people don't like them. That old perpetual office-seeker from the south part of the county, who calls himself a democrat and yet has boasted of voting for republicans repeatedly, should understand the situation, and yet he bobs up at almost every nominating election for some office.
He should attend to rural pursuits and abandon office hunting altogether. If ever nominated he would be defeated, as the party would apply the same medicine to him that he has reported to have often done to democratic nominees.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS OF
THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CON-VENTION.

At the State Convention held at Indianapolis last week the following platform and resolutions were adopted. Read them. They eminently sound and voice the sentiment of a majority of the voters of Indiana:

We, the democracy of Indiana, in delegate convention assembled, reaffirm our devotion to the time-honored principles of our historic party. We believe that the powers delegated by the people should be strictly construed; that the autonomy of the States and the rights of local self-government and home rule should be jealously guarded; that no money should be taken from the people under any pretext, for other than public purposes; that the strictest economy should be exercised in all governmental expenditures, whether local, State or national; that legislation should be confined to the legitimate objects of government; that public office is a solemn public trust. We are uncompromisingly opposed to the enlargement and concentration of Federal powers; to the usurpation by the central government of the functions of the state; to bounties and subsidies in every form; to every species of class legislation and government partnership with private enterprises; to the whole theory and practice of paternalism.

We believe that in a "free country the curtailment of absolute rights of the individual should only be such as is essential to the peace and good order of the community," and we regard all legislation looking to the infringement of liberty of person or conscience, not absolutely necessary to the maintenance of public order, as vicious in principle and demor-alizing in practice.

We arraign the administration of Benjamin Harrison for its subservency to the interest of the money power, which created it, and its indifference to the welfare of the people; for its brazen violation of its solemn pledges to the country, to elevate and purify the public service; for its shameless repudiation of the public patronage to the vilest partisan purposes, as illustrated by the sale of a Cabinet office to John Wanamaker; by the employment of the Pension Bureau as a party machine, and by the promotion of William A. Woods to a higher post in Federal judiciary as a reward for his services in saving the "blocks-of-five" conspirators from the penitentiary; for its contemptuous repudiation of its promises to the veteran soldiers of the Union; for its wicked attempt to fasten upon the country the odious and un-American force bill, intended to deprive the people of the right to regulate their own elections; for its weak and dema-gogical foreign policy which has exhibited the American Government to the world as a bully toward the feeble and a trickster to the powerful.

We favor such a radical and comprehensive measure of tariff reform as shall relieve the people and the crude material of our manufactures from Federal taxation.

We condemn the so-called reciprocity policy as a transparent attempt to dispose upon the American people the shadow of commercial freedom for its substance, in order to perpetuate the existing system of licensed spoliation for the benefit of trusts and monopolies, which are the chief support of the republican party.

We believe that there should be kept in constant circulation a full and sufficient volume of money, consisting of gold, silver and legal tender paper currency at par with each other.

We favor the election of United States Senators directly by the people and commend Senator Turpie for his efforts in Congress to secure this great reform.
We endorse the course of our distinguished Senators Daniel W. Voorhees and David Turpie, and we favor the re-election of Mr. Turpie to the position he has filled with so much ability.

We most heartily applaud the action of our two last Legislatures in passing the school book laws, thereby giving the people of Indiana a complete series of school-text books equal to those formerly used, at one-half of the old trust prices. We pledge ourselves to resist every attempt of the school-book combine to regain their control of Indiana, and by that means bring about the frequent expensive changes in books of which the people justly complained in former years.

We approve the Australian election system, introduced in Indiana by the democratic party. It has stood the test of experience, and we are in favor of maintaining it intact.

We heartily endorse the new tax law as a wise and beneficent act, by which the increased revenues necessary for the support of the State government are raised entirely from the corporations of the state, that had heretofore unjustly escaped their fair proportion of taxation.
We commend the legislature for refusing to adopt Gov. Hovey's recommendation to increase the State levy from 12 cents to 25 cents on the $100, and for meeting the necessary expense of the State's benevolent institutions by a levy of 6 cents on the $100. We denounce the infamous conspiracy of the Republican county commissioners, township trustees and other officials of Indiana, who, for the purpose of creating unfair prejudice against the new tax law, have wantonly and needlessly increased the local taxes, in the forty-six counties controlled by them, more than one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars —a sum greater than the total increase of State taxes in the entire state. We call on the tax-payers of those counties to rebuke at the polls these local officials, who have put this needless and oppressive burden upon them.

We congratulate the tax-payers of Indiana on the adoption, by the last legislature, of the system of paying public officials stated salaries, instead of giving them power to compensate themselves by fees and perquisites.

We reaffirm our unswerving devotion to the interest of public education, not only as identified with the common school system, but also in connection with the higher institutions of learning, free public libraries and all other legiti-mate means for promoting and preserving the virtue and intelligence of the people.

The democratic party stands by its record as the friend of the masses as against the classes; and calls the attention of the laboring men of Indiana, that it has given to them the eight-hour law to prevent black listing; the law prohibiting "pluck-me" stores; the law for the protection of miners, and laws which make it impossible for Pinkerton detectives to arrest and slay laboring men in Indiana because of their efforts toward self-protection.

For twenty years the republican party has legislated for the rich and powerful and in the interest of corporate wealth.
The democratic party pledges itself to remedy the costs growing out of such class legislation and in all future contests to stand by the great producing masses whose toil and self-sacrifice are at the foundations of all natural wealth.

We commend the organization of the industrial classes for self-protection against trusts, combines and monopolies, and call the attention of the farmers and laborers to the fact that every evil complained of by them is the result of Republican legislation.

Resolved, That this convention in-dorses the wise and patriotic administration of Grover Cleveland; that the presidential campaign of 1892 should be conducted on the issue of tariff reform as defined in the presidential message of 1887; that upon this issue, Mr. Cleveland is the logical candidate of the democratic party.

Resolved, That the democratic party of Indiana expresses its unalterable confidence in and attachment to its gallant leader, Isaac P. Gray; that it holds him to be worthy of any honor in the gift of the American people, and that his name be presented to the convention by the delegation this day appointed, and that if the national convention deems the nomination of Mr. Cleveland inexpedient, the delegation is instructed to use every honorable effort to secure the nomination of Gov. Isaac P. Gray for the presidency.

THE STATE TICKET.

An excellent ticket for the support of the democracy of Indiana was nominated at the state convention last week.
The most of the nominees are well known and have heretofore filled positions of trust. The convention was among the best attended, orderly in its proceedings and harmonious throughout, for many years. The platform and resolutions will be found elsewhere, and are sound, logical and have the true ring about them. Indiana can be placed in the democratic column this year, and the state convention has placed the party in the proper road to bring about this result.

SHANKLIN, whom almost everybody thought was sure to be nominated for governor at the State convention last week, was defeated on the first ballot, and must keenly feel the pang of defeat.
He is not cut out for a successful politician. He is too positive and aggressive in his system of electioneering.
Had he kept his hands off of the Gray and Cleveland business, he would have had smooth sailing, but he did not, and in consequence antagonized the Gray element which floored him.
He is only one other instance that a positive man has little excuse at any time for running for office.

THE Cheap Clothing Bill recently passed by congress is right heartily endorsed by the Chicago Tribune, a Republican organ. "Let the senate meet the issue squarely," says the Tribune, "and say plainly whether it proposes that the American manufacturer shall be put on an equal footing with his foreign competitor by having mixed wools as cheaply and as freely as they have them, or whether the present system shall be compelled to substitute cotton and shoddy for wool in order that the "consumers may have seemingly cheap goods."

According to the Indianapolis Sentinel and other lesser lights, 90 per cent of the Democrats in this State are for old Grover Cleveland for the presidency, a man who never missed an opportunity when presented him, to veto a pension bill for an old soldier.—Newport Hoosier State.

Cleveland in office was a constant injury to pension agents like yourself, who feast off of the earnings of ex-soldiers, but yet nevertheless the voters of the country may conclude to place him in the Presidential chair again.

DAVIS, of the Newport Hoosier State, was not consulted in the selection of Matthews for Governor, and of course is not satisfied, the candidate being from his town. Matthews was elected Secretary of State, and this did not even please Davis. Now he will be angrier than ever.

JOHN E. LAMB was last week chosen by a small majority as a delegate from this district to the National democratic convention. It will be small consolation to that individual should Cleveland be nominated and elected. He knows Lamb, or at least has heard of him, and will not desire his assistance at any time.
