SOUTHERN OUTRAGES.

The season for southern outrages, so termed, is about at hand. The "outrage" business, the work of republicanpoliticians, is generally inaugurated in campaign years and carried on until theelection. Reports of outrages, here and there, in different parts of the south aremanufactured to order and for political effect solely. There is rarely little if any foundation for them. They consist always of reported ill treatment toward the colored people of the South, and are always magnified the further away the locality is from telegraph and railway stations. This outrage business is necessary in the campaign season to fire the northern heart—the negro heart—and force him to continue in his loyalty to the republican ticket. Even many white people are frequently deluded into believing the well described yarns of cruelty to the negroes of the South.
The Methodist Ministerial conference, in session at Omaha last week considered it necessary to resolve that the Government, the State officials, the M. E.
Church and all good citizens "arise in their might and abolish the indignities and outrages that are put upon the colored people and all white people who love to work for the preservation of the colored race in the Southern States." It is remarkable that it had nothing to say about the rich corporations of the north that yearly heap indignities upon the poor laboring men in their employ by grinding them down with cheap wages, intimidating them into voting the republican ticket at the November election, etc. But then this is hardly to be wondered at as about all the conference is republican anyhow, and many of them active politicians of that party.
The truth of the matter is that a well behaved negro in the south fares just as well in every respect as a well behaved one in the north, regardless of what color he is.

He is not a capital offense it certainly should be in every state of the Union. For the execution of negroes for that crime, a political tone is aimed to be given them as "outrages" against the colored people, by republican politicians.
White Cape may lynch men in the North but there seems little politics in their work. The "outrage" business won't work any more. It is too transparent. The public are understanding the motive for the circulation of such reports, and something new must be invented to deceive the voters.

DEMOCRATS SHOULD REGISTER.

The new election law requires voters leaving the State, to be absent a few months, to register at the county clerk's office. If they fail to do this they lose their votes. Republicans are registering right along. Democrats are not.
Young men going away to work for the summer must register before leaving, or they will lose their votes. Those now gone should return and register. Democrats everywhere should see that all who intend going away should register.
It is the duty of committeemen especially to give this matter careful attention.
Democrats moving into the county between now and election day should also register sixty days before November 3d, in order to avoid trouble of swearing in of their votes, which the Republicans may compel them to do. This should be attended to without fail.

STILL SUPERSTITIOUS.

An item the other day said that fully 25,000 people crowded a church some days ago in New York to kiss the relic of St. Ann that they might be healed of various bodily infirmities such as lameness, blindness, etc. In this age of intelligence, of books, of free thought, such actions seem supremely ridiculous, yet there is yet a wonderful amount of superstition yet existing all over the world in enlightened countries regarding the power of this or that image, or charm, to heal the sick, and restore health. We should stop sending missionaries to far off lands to teach the heathen who bow to stocks and stones, but allow them to work among the damfools at home.

NOTWITHSTANDING the local feeling against him in Indianapolis, and efforts of all kinds to down him, Frenzel was re-elected president of the street railways of Indianapolis last week by the owners of the property. This again illustrates that a determined man pursuing the proper course will come out ahead in spite of any popular clan-or that may be made against him.

WANT HON. M. D. WHITE.

The republicans of this district in their hunt for a candidate for Congress against Brookshire, it is thought may select Mike White of Montgomery county to lead the forlorn hope. This is, of course, on the supposition that Mike can be induced to make the sacrifice.
Humphrey, they assert, is a rather small man to be pitted against Brookshire, is little known outside this county, and has had little or no political experience.
Although this district is from 700 to 1,000 democratic, some of the rads, pretend to see chances of success if they can get a suitable candidate. They think Mike White the most available candidate, but he is likely not to be flattered into undertaking the hopeless work. He has no money to fool away on the race and can see only slim prospects of success. It may safely be asserted that Mike won't be a candidate.
Again we would suggest the name of that well known official, Constable Bias, as a candidate, if his consent can be obtained for the position.

CHANCES OF HARRISON BEING RE-NOMINATED.

The republican nomination for president occurs next month, the convention assembling at Minneapolis on the 7th of June, and as the time approaches it begins to be a matter of considerable doubt about Harrison's renomination.
The are 900 delegates and the votes of 451 of these are necessary for any one to be declared the nominee. The solid South and four or five northern states have instructed their delegates to vote for Harrison, but as they number but a few over 300 are not near enough to secure the prize. Very many of the most powerful republican leaders are opposed to Harrison. Among them are Platt and Miller, of New York, also Farwell, Quay, Cameron, Dudley and others. They have influence too and they will be on hand at the convention, and will lay out Benny if possible. It seems now that Sherman of Ohio, is a decided favorite with the opposition to Harrison, and Judge Walter Q. Gresham is talked of as well equipped for a dark horse. Harrison has as his aids Steve Elkins, John C. New and other able politicians, also thousands of office holders, and may be able to defeat the plans of his adversaries, yet the contest promises to be exciting and its results surprising.

THE CLEVELAND SENTIMENT.

A correspondent of the Enquirer, from Indianapolis says there is decrease of fully 25 per cent. in the Cleveland sentiment among the democracy of Indiana during the past month. This is probably true. The expression, time and again reiterated that he was the "logical" candidate for President begins to sound nonsensical, foolish and untrue.
There are probably in the ranks of the party a number of men who would poll as many votes as Cleveland and if elected, be as good a President. This thing that the brains of the party are all concentrated in one man is ridiculous, or that within himself he represents a principle that no other man can, is equally absurd. The fact that Cleveland failed to carry his own state in 1888 and would likely fail again in 1892; again that thousands of democrats are opposed to his views on the silver coinage question, makes him to us anything else than a particular "logical" candidate.

THE ODELLIAN SENTIMENT.

A correspondent of the Enquirer, from Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

DON'T GET IMPOSED UPON.

Is a good motto to follow in buying medicine as well as in everything else.
By the universal satisfaction it has given and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished, Dullam's Great German blood, liver, stomach and kidney cure has proven itself unequalled for building up and cleansing

RENOVATED.

The re-nomination of Hon. E. V.
Brookshire for the third time for Representative in Congress from the eighth Indiana district last week was an event not unanticipated. Though young in years Mr. Brookshire is proving himself a useful member, though lacking in legislative matters the experience of many others he is learning rapidly. He represents the wishes of the majority of the voters of the district on important questions coming before Congress. He will be elected again if he lives, and will receive the party majority of from 700 to 900, we believe. Congress will not adjourn this year probably until August, and Mr.
Brookshire will remain until the close of the session.

THE STORMS.

The storms of this month through the West have been more disastrous to crops than for years past. In low lands immense fields of wheat have been ruined, and there has also been a very great loss of personal property in the way of cattle, hogs, etc.

Nor what is his ability to fill the position of Governor, but what church does he belong to, seems to be among the first requirements this year, for a candidate offering for this important position on the republican ticket.
