TAMMANY.
If ever a political crew returned home with colors dragging and wings clipped it certainly was Tammany last week when it returned to New York from the Chicago National democratic convention. Tammany has always imagined it was the entire democratic party of the Union and everything must bow to its behests. It is learning differently. It seems to be an organization strictly for spoils and has little pretense for principles. It favors any candidate that will divide. It has never liked Cleveland because in all his official life he has not been in the "spoils" business. Its members to the number of several hundred went to Chicago to defeat the nomination of Cleveland. The sentiment was not with the Tammany people, and they were defeated at every point. It placed itself in opposition to the views of a majority and was defeated. It went after wool, but came back itself shorn. An organization created solely for the purpose of feasting off of the tax-payers deserves no recognition whatever from any of the political parties of the country and its wishes in no instance should be heeded. It can and doubtless will do all in its power to defeat Cleveland. It will want revenge. It may seemingly now give endorsement to his nomination but it will not be believed. It has too often heretofore fought the nominees of the party. Tammany is democratic only when it is its interest to be, and this year should not be trusted. It should be this year considered republican until the votes as counted in November indicate otherwise. Occasionally the nominee opposed by it has been elected. Let us hope and believe that the same result will occur this year. Certainly there is little in Tammany that the honest masses of the democracy of the country would desire to ally themselves to. If we have certain fixed principles regarding the government of this country, based on sincere convictions of right, and free from pecuniary considerations, then Tammany is not often with us.

TRULY APPROPRIATE.
Borne down by the weight of additional sorrows, the passage of the resolution at the democratic National convention at Chicago last week, that the sympathy of the convention be tendered to Hon. James G. Blaine in the death of his son, and whose funeral occurred in that city on Tuesday, was truly appropriate. Mr. Blaine is a distinguished American, an active republican politician—one of the most distinguished in the land—and words coming from political foes of the nature embraced in the resolution, cannot but lead him to feel that in his personal bereavement he has true sympathizers although of opposite political belief and action, and that as the poet hath said, "one touch of nature makes the whole world akin." The resolution was passed with cheers, as reports of proceedings stated, and a delegate from Maine thanked the convention for its action in the matter.

SOME ADVANTAGES.
The democracy start in this campaign with some advantages not possessed four years ago. First is the new Australian ballot system which in 35 states of the Union places all parties at elections on an equality. The republicans have won their greatest victories at the polls in many states by intimidation, bull dozing and bribery. They cannot use them as in former years, for whatever may be their effect on any voter hereafter they will be in ignorance of what manner or for whom he has cast his ballot. The balloting now is secret, and no man can tell how his neighbor votes, but whatever way it be it cannot be through bribery or by threats. This will be a poor year for "blocks of five" men. Again in the matter of tariff the people have been posting themselves and we will have a great addition to the number desiring tariff reform, and thousands of voters will be with us this year that in 1888 were not. Again the people know Grover Cleveland, know just what kind of a president he will make, what his policy will be; he is not a new unknown man. "State pride" and Grand Pa's log cabin won't count this year. They are chestnuts, and Indiana in all reason should give a majority of from 8,000 to 10,000 for the democratic ticket. The out look is indeed favorable for the election of both the National and State tickets put forward by the democracy.

When democrats point to the result of the election of 1888 to prove that Mr. Cleveland could not carry New York and be elected this year, says the New York World, it is well to remind them that several things have come to pass since 1888. Among them are:
The McKinley worse than war tariff. The Force bill. The squandering of the surplus. The creation of a deficit. The voting of subsidies. The looting of the public service. Wanamaker, Raum, Elkins, et al. The Chilian scandal. The Barrundia affair. The untaxing of foreigners only. Three years and a quarter of Harrison. The discarding of Blaine. All these and other outrages, iniquities and scandals, resulting in an Anti-republican majority of 1,300,000 in the elections of 1890. Can it be imagined that either Grover Cleveland or any other democrat will gain nothing from the events, which only add to the issues needful to democrats but radically change the conditions of the impending contest in their favor? The assumption is absurd. In addition to these things, the democrats will gain a decided advantage from election reform laws in New York, Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey—all the doubtful states—largely eliminating bribery and bulldozing.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.
The failure of the national democratic state convention to nominate Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana, for Vice President was, we believe, a mistake and the work of Shanklin, McGee and other Indiana democrats to prevent it, will only rekindle the feeling of bitterness among the friends and enemies alike of the ex-Governor which bodes no good to the party in the future. The system to "even up" will probably continue among them now and where any of them seek political promotion. The great mistake, however, was in going to Illinois for a candidate for vice President, which State has never that we remember cast its vote for the democratic ticket in campaign years, while Indiana on the other hand has repeatedly done so. The convention seems to have cast aside a certainty for an uncertainty in this case. What effect the absence of Gray's name from the ticket may have in this State, of course cannot now be known. If, however, the electoral vote of Illinois can be secured through the influence of Stephenson we can suffer the loss of Indiana. We say "if" however.

CHAIRMAN OWENS in his speech before the democratic National convention said among some things the following which will be recognized from its very truthfulness: "This, again, must be a campaign of education. The 'study of the cornfield' begun in the west and south, must be carried into every hamlet of the east and north. The people must learn their true relation to the taxpayer. They must learn that no railroad presidents champion the tribunes of the people; that no taskmasters write our tariff bills. They must learn, too, that for personal and political advantage their country was menaced by the threat of war, and they will learn with shame and regret that the very day the warlike proclamation of their president was read in the halls of congress the peaceful response of the little 8 by 10 republic of Chili, accepting the terms of the presidential ultimatum, was read in every capital of the world."

TOM PATTERSON, of the Rocky Mountain News, our Tom by the way, refuses to support Cleveland because of the absence in the platform of any plank favoring the free coinage of silver. As neither Cleveland nor Harrison favor that plank, Patterson will have to go to the Peoples party for political affinity. As Colorado is always republican anyhow his failure to support the democratic nominees will not be a matter of great consequence.

THE NOMINEES.
As had been generally anticipated for some months past, the National Democratic Convention at Chicago, last week, re-nominated Grover Cleveland for President and Adlai Stevenson for vice President. Cleveland has seemed for months past, the logical candidate for the important position. The public believes in his integrity, his honesty of purpose, his fearless utterances regarding his convictions of right and the policy that has heretofore distinguished him. He was not our choice nor the choice of many other western democrats, yet now that he is nominated, every democrat in the land should aid in his election. Conservative republicans in great numbers in every State will consider Cleveland a strong choice, an able man, a wise executive, and large numbers of them will vote for him. The interests of the country will be in safe hands under his administration. He will represent no clique nor ring, but will be a true man of the people and whom they will trust. The great campaign for 1892 is about ready to open, the generals of the two great contending forces have been chosen, the lines are being formed, and soon the clash of contending political forces will be heard. Let no democrat in this fight be a sulker, a laggard, but let all be united and organized and march forward to win, with the full knowledge ever uppermost that our cause is just, is the cause of the people, and that victory is ours if we but labor earnestly and intelligently for it.

With what contempt must the average republican regard the civil service rules where the thrust for office is on. At the Minneapolis convention hundreds of the breed of office holders were on hand working in the interest of Harrison led by John C. New, Consul to London. New came all the way from England to work in the interest of Harrison, and was violating the civil service rules in so doing. The Consul to London had Cleveland have been in office would have remained at his post as he should, as he had no business away from it. He would have known that his business was his position, and to leave it to engage in a political scramble would be to subject him to immediate dismissal, but this is republican system that prevails and official malfeasance counts for but little, so long as the applicant is loyal.

FOUR TICKETS.
There will be four national tickets in the political field this year. The republican, democratic and prohibition parties have made their selections, and the Peoples' party delegates assemble at Omaha on Monday to make nominations. It is not probable, however, that with all the tickets nominated this year the campaign will be any more earnest or exciting than in former years. The people, aside from the younger voters, are not going to be carried away by political excitement this year.

The city council has at last managed to furnish to the public the cost of the electric light plant. It might be suggested that it has been a long time furnishing the figures. As shown, the cost of the plant and everything connected with it, is put down at near $40,000. We know nothing regarding the correctness of these items for construction, and experts in the electric lighting business may have something to say about it which will put the matter in a different light than their report places it.

The republicans have commenced their mud slinging already and pretend to have discovered that Stevenson, candidate for vice-President on the democratic ticket, was a member of the Knights of the Golden Circle, although that lie was exploded fifteen years ago. They have failed to state, however, that Longstreet, Mosby, and other lights of the republican party were all rebels, and assisted in the slaughter of northern soldiers.

The majority of the Indiana delegation to the Chicago convention indicated them to be from the start first class asses and damnphools in general. They were for Cleveland first, next for Gray, then for both and next for neither, and such a vacillating course as they pursued brought them into the contempt of the entire convention. They should be kept out from conventions hereafter as delegates and not permitted to stray away so far from home.

It would be interesting to file away until after the November election many of the papers containing the political prophecies of various statesmen, great and small, regarding the results of the contest between Cleveland and Harrison. Of course after the results are known many of the prophets would deny various assertions they are now making.

A firm in Boston which a year ago failed for $510,000 celebrated the event last week by paying up its indebtedness in full with 6 per cent. interest. The members of the firm should be secured as curiosities for a museum.

Man-O-Wa,
The Great Indian Doctor.

Will be at Robbins House, Crawfordsville, Ind., on Tuesday, July 13th, 1892. Prepared to heal the sick.

MAN-O-WA treats with unequalled success all Chronic and Nervous Diseases. He especially asks all those who have been treated with strong, poisonous drugs to visit him and receive such treatment as nature intended should be used for the relief and cure of sickness. By the proper use of roots, sacred herbs, and Plants, more cases can be cured and more relief given than by any other methods.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Dr. Man-O-Wa has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. That tired feeling, the headache, dizziness, weakness, pain in the back, dragging down back-ache, hot flashes, cold hands and feet, pains in the top of head, sleepless nights and other conditions due to weakness, positively and permanently cured. My method does away with the "local treatment," so much dreaded by the majority of ladies, and which is perfectly useless.
TO THE MEN. A permanent cure is offered to young and middle-aged men who are suffering with weak back, loss of strength and vitality, despondency, night losses, lost manhood, specks before the eyes, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, fullness in the head resulting from secret and pernicious practices. More lives are wrecked from this secret vice than from all other causes combined. No time to lose. I guarantee a cure in every case taken.
PILES.—Positive and permanent cure of piles. No cutting, no loss of time, no ligature, and no pain. Fistula and ulcers of rectum cured.
EPILEPSY.—Dr. Man-O-Wa has discovered the great specific remedy for epilepsy. This disease, the most dreadful of all diseases, can be cured.
THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.—Catarrh of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes; catarrhal deafness, headaches, drooping in the throat, indigestion, impure blood resulting from catarrh, cured by a very short course of treatment. Catarrh, if neglected, will produce consumption, which very soon becomes incurable. All throat and lung affections should receive prompt and efficient treatment.
DROPSY AND KIDNEY TROUBLE.—Dropsy can be cured by vegetable remedies, but by no other. Bloating of the abdomen, puffing under the eyes, swelling of hands and feet, are dropsy. If taken in time this condition is curable, which very soon becomes incurable. All throat and lung affections should receive prompt and efficient treatment.
RHEUMATISM.—I will positively cure rheumatism, no matter how long standing. This painful disease under proper treatment can be cured and the blood thoroughly purified will prevent a return. You don't need to change climate as this result can be accomplished here as well as elsewhere. Rheumatism produces heart disease, which cannot be cured. Hence it should not be allowed to produce this result.
All who may be troubled with Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Constipation, Epilepsy, Nervous Debility, Headache, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Consumption, Scrofula, or any form of Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Asthma, Cancer or Tumors, Female Weakness, Piles, Neuralgia, Disease of the Eye and Ear, Loss of Strength and loss of Manhood, are especially invited to call and consult the Doctor.
DR. MAN-O-WA is one of the greatest diagnostic of diseases in America. He can locate your disease and describe a patient's ailments without even a hint from the patient to guide him in his conclusions. Consultation, personal or by letter, free. Treatment, including all medicines used, $2 to $5 per month. Address, DR. MAN-O-WA, Frankfort, Ind.
