STATE POLITICAL PROSPECTS.

The prospects of the democracy being triumphant in this State at the polls in November are very bright and unless through over confidence which might beget indifference, we shall surely win.

The instrument most fatal to republican success in Indiana is the Australian ballot law. The intimidation and purchase of voters which was the main cause of republican triumph in Indiana cannot be practiced to the extent of former years. The secret ballot which every voter must use prevents that.

The purchaser of votes is never certain of the fulfillment of the contract. He cannot tell how his man is going to vote for a fact and does not like to pay for the goods until he sees them properly delivered. The big protected manufacturer who was in the habit of going among his employees and telling them

it would be healthier for them to vote

the republican ticket if they desired to retain their places is not half so persistent as formerly from the fact that under the new law he is unable to tell how his men have voted. In the north part of the State the men who fought Harrison

so persistently at Minneapolis have not been reconciled, are not working for his success and are indifferent as to results.

The republicans are not and cannot make the fight they did four years ago, and which then only gave them the State by 2,250 majority. There is harmony all along the line in the ranks of the democracy. The poll of the State shows a democratic majority by several thousands. Democratic speakers all over the State are meeting with large crowds to hear them. Now all we want is to continue the fight energetically on the lines prescribed for one month

more, and victory awaits the democracy of Indiana. The "State pride" cry is not in it this year. The republicans don't repeat that this season at all; in fact it looks now like they were merely fighting to keep up appearances and were very doubtful of the result in November.

ORGANIZE.

Senator Hill, with unerring finger pointed out the only way to Democratic success in this election when he said at the close of his great speech in Brooklyn:

"The election will win itself. It is our duty to Organize, Organize, Organize."

It is more necessary now than ever. Better results are obtained by careful attention to detailed organization than to any other campaign work. Help organize your precinct. See that every democratic voter is interested in the election of the entire Democratic ticket.

SOMEHOW or other you don't hear anything of "State pride" on the part of the republicans of Indiana. It may be and doubtless is that "Pride goeth before destruction," and pride seems to have gone.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

Not in many years has there appeared from any public man a more able paper than that of ex-president Cleveland's accepting the nomination of the Chicago convention. It is plain in diction, free from verbiage and is statesmanlike in its utterances. No attempt is made to conceal his exact views on public questions by effusive language, nor by dodging this and that subject of importance. Cleveland has an able mind and by his utterances convinces unprejudiced thinking persons that he is sincere. Concerning the irrepressible tariff issue we make an extract from his letter.

"The dogma is now boldly presented that tariff taxation is unjustifiable for the express purpose and intent of thereby promoting especial interests and enterprises. Such a proposition is so clearly contrary to the spirit of our constitution and so directly encourages the disturbance by selfishness and greed of patriotic sentiment that its statement would rudely shock our people if they had not already been insidiously allured from the safe landmarks of principle. Never have honest desire for national growth, patriotic devotion to country and sincere regard for those who toil been so betrayed to the support of a pernicious doctrine.

In its behalf the plea that our industries should be fostered did service until discredited by our stalwart growth; then followed the exigencies of a terrible war, which made our people heedless of the opportunities for ulterior schemes afforded by their willing and patriotic payment of unprecedented tribute; and now after a long period of peace, when our overburdened countrymen ask for relief and restoration to a fuller enjoyment of their incomes and earnings, they are met by the claim that tariff taxation for the sake of protection is an American system, the continuance of which is necessary in order that high wages may be paid to our workmen and a home market be provided for our farm products.

The pretenses should no longer deceive. The truth is that such a system is directly antagonized by every sentiment of justice and fairness of which Americans are pre-eminently proud. It is also true that while our workmen and farmers can the least of all our people defend themselves against the harder home life which such tariff taxation decrees, the workingman suffering from the importation and employment of pauper labor, instigated by his professed friends, and seeking security for his interests in organized co-operation, still waits for a division of the advantages secured to his employer under cover of a generous solicitude for his wages, while the farmer is learning that the prices of his products are fixed in foreign markets, where he suffers from a competition invited and built up by the system he is asked to support."

PIERCE'S PRETTY POW-WOW.

Hon. R. B. F. Pierce, a former resident of this county, and at present a member of the State republican central committee, in a conversation with some of his republican brethren in New York the other day gave a very pretty rose-colored view of the political situation so far as it related to his party, saying among many things that in Indiana there were in many counties of the State many old and influential democrats who this year had changed over and would vote for Harrison and Reid. Now we don't believe any such thing and neither will any one else posted on the political situation.

The changes are the other way, or from the republican to the People's party. Take this county for instance. Mr. Pierce has lived here and knows many voters of both parties. Now will he please name any prominent or influential democrat in Montgomery county that will vote for Harrison? Please point him out if you know. We want to see the color of his hair and the shape of his head. Pierce cannot do it, and whatever is true of this county is true of all the rest. Prominent and influential democrats are not now nor never were favorable to republican candidates; they don't believe in tariff robbery, force bills, etc., and Pierce has just simply allowed his imagination to carry him away.

FAIRBANKS FOR SENATOR.

If the Supreme Court should overthrow the gerrymander and the republicans then carry the legislature Hon. W. F. Fairbanks will be a candidate for the United States Senate.—Journal.

Fairbanks' sole qualification for the position of U. S. Senator is that he is a millionaire. That is all there is in it or him. He has made money through the railroad business and through railroad speculation. His voice has never been heard in legislative halls unless in the interest of some lobby, and his qualification for a statesman or for a man having the public interests at heart are decidedly limited. He has "a barrel," however and the republican schemers want to get their hands upon that barrel. Hence his name in connection with the U. S. Senate. Indiana, however, is not in the habit of sending millionaires to the U. S. Senate, regardless of what other States have done, and the time is far distant, it is hoped when she will. A man with nothing but money to recommend him for a high office has no recommendation at all, and Fairbanks will stay in the ranks of the private citizens.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is unquestionably the best preservative of the hair. It is also curative of dandruff, tetter, and all scalp affections.

THE TRUTH OF IT.

Is There Any Limit to Human Endurance?

A Revelation Which Will Astonish Most People.

And Yet It Is In Reality Of Every Day Occurrence.

The following communication is from one of our correspondents, Mrs. Carrie E. Martin, a lady well known and highly respected and who occupies a position of the highest social distinction in West Leyden, Mass. Her experience is of such a nature and its importance to many is so great and far-reaching, that we give it to our readers in her own words:

"Last summer I was all rundown, had chills, no appetite, very little sleep nights and none days, faint spells, trembling feelings and was so weak I could hardly walk around the room. I continued to run down in health and strength until I feared utter prostration with its untold miseries.
