A World-Wide Imperialism of Capital.

Ed. Review:—
Mr. Fairbanks in his speech at Music Hall lifted up the curtain, and any lover of this country who can see must feel some alarm.

The speaker spoke of General Harrison's proposed inter-national money congress and said that a union of interest was desired; then we would have more money. What he meant by "more money" is more of purchasing power. Fairbanks is five times a millionaire and a world-wide imperialism of capital would be to his liking. And we remember Harrison's aristocratic mould. All the money legislation this country has had under the Republican party has been to the liking of the money barons. We remember Mr. Hazard's infamous circular scheme and Wall street's ready acceptance of that Plutonian plot and knave's conspiracy. Yes, we remember John Sherman's Seven Conspiracies coming out of the tomb of monetary crime which gives birth now to the Inter-National Monetary scheme spoken of by Fairbanks. The intercourse was with the aristocratic proclivities of the Republican leaders and that knot of Jew money managers located on Lombard street, London, England. Yes, sirs, from the congress of these named elements have come all our modern hardships and money panics. Nothing short of a money Empire controlling the world will satisfy the whelps and hounds of hell. To destroy Republics is the first necessary step—not in name but in effect will suffice. Secular government is a despised thing to capitalists. Now with this bold scheme of the money powers espoused by the Republican party which is to cover the entire globe with its blighting shade, will poor men vote it? The alarm bells are ringing. The schemes against the government have been exposed by no one more clearly than by the Big Four millionaire in his speech here. There is but one and only one hope for the people. Let the Alliance men, the men of the F. M. B. A., the guards of labor, the K. of L., those who have been reading up the history of modern Money Schemes hear that. Hope is the success of the Democratic party.
The third party is too weak. The Democratic party is now, has always been opposed to a money monarchy. It can win, and we believe will win. But thinking men must do their duty—blast for ever the hope of the conspirators in November.

cases have been granted changes of railroad, to Fountain.

Knights of St. John Banquet.

The Catholic young ladies of the city met Monday evening at the Knights of St John hall and perfected arrangements for a grand banquet and reception to the visiting Knights on October 16, the day the local commandery is to be installed. The banquet will be held in Morton hall. The room will be beautifully decorated and arranged to entertain at least 500 guests. Too much praise cannot be given the enterprising young ladies who have the matter in charge, the success of which is guaranteed in advance.

See our muslins and shirting, gingham and prints, all go at bottom prices at The Trade Palace.

As she enters womanhood, every young girl needs the wisest care. Troubles beginning then may make her whole life miserable.

But the troubles that are to be feared have a positive remedy. Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription builds up and strengthens the system, and regulates and promotes every proper function. It's a generous, supporting tonic, and a quieting, soothing nervine—a legitimate medicine, not a beverage, free from alcohol and injurious drugs. It corrects and cures, safely and surely, all those delicate derangements, weaknesses, and diseases peculiar to the sex.

A remedy that does cure is one that can be guaranteed. That's what the proprietors of "Favorite Prescription" think. If it doesn't give satisfaction, in every case for which it's recommended, they'll refund the money. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms.

Decide for yourself whether something else sold by the dealer, is likely to be "just as good" for you to buy.

GRESHAM'S RESOLVE.

Causes Republicans Much Worry—The Judge's Influence.

The announcement from Chicago that Judge Walter Q. Gresham has said that he will vote for Cleveland, is the principal topic of discussion, says the Indianapolis News, around the political headquarters to-day. The officers, employees and hangers-on of the Democratic State committee are jubilant over the news.
They say they have no doubt about its authenticity. Some of the visitors at the committee rooms this forenoon expressed the opinion that Judge Gresham would take with him at least two or three thousand young Indiana Republicans, who at best, they say, have not been enthusiastic for Harrison. "I was not surprised when the announcement of Gresham's declaration came," said Secretary Reilly, of the State committee. "The committee had known for several days that Judge Gresham would vote for Cleveland. That is, we had been reliably informed that he would The information came to us in a confidential way, and could not be used. I have no doubt about the authenticity of the newspaper reports that come from Chicago."

Talking Through His Hat.

Mr. Cockrum's speech at Wingate Wednesday night didn't tend to increase his party's changes in that locality. A Republican who attended the meeting said Cockrum talked like a man with the bline staggers. His whole speech was a mess of senseless twaddle and if he expected his hearers to believe many of his remarks he presumed a great deal upon their ignorance. For more than an hour he flaunted the bloody shirt by delivering a tirade of abuse upon the democratic party. Among other things he said the tariff was a tax, that the farmers were prosperous, that Cleveland hired a substitute and would not pay him, that Stevenson was a copper-head and a member of the Golden Circle, that democrats were traitors, that the new election law was based on infamy and corruption, that if necessary he was in favor of arming men with shot-guns to conduct the elections in the South, that Cleveland vetoed more pension bills than all the Presidents since Washington, that the flag of the democratic party was the English flag and so on until most of his hearers left in disgust. A few more Cockrums in Indiana and the democratic victory is assured.

Close Up the Last Chances.

A committee of the saloon keepers Union, headed by Otto Schlemmer, called upon Mayor Bandel Tuesday afternoon and stated that the organization were desirous of conforming with the laws governing them. That in return they wanted the protection due them by the closing up of those disreputable joints on the out skirts of the city that operated upon government licenses.
That these places sold at all hours of the day or night and in any quantities desired by purchasers. They further stated that there were several dives inside the city who operated on the same plan and openly defied the law. The object of the Union was to force these places to take out city licenses or close them all up and to see that the Sunday closing law was rigidly enforced upon all alike. Mayor Bandel was delighted with this move on the part of the Union and heartily promised to use all his power to further the success of their efforts.

Installation of Officers.

The Courier has received an invitation to attend the installation services of the Father Dinnen Commandery, K. of St. J. at Crawfordsville, Sunday, Oct. 16.
The commandery are working hard to make this a grand event for their city, and at the same time to outdo all other events of the same nature, and will no doubt succeed. They are preparing to entertain as their guests all uniformed Catholic societies, clergymen and the press. Commanderies will be there from Louisville, Indianapolis, New Albany, Fort Wayne, Lafayette and other cities.
Evansville will be represented by the banner commandery of the State. Col.
Spechert, of Louisville, will have charge of the military display, and W. W.
Cheezum, sr., of this city, will be the installing officer. The following gentlemen of No. 202 compose the committee on arrangements: Capt. John Drury, W. C. Murphy, M. J. McCarty, D. G.
Sullivan, (the comedian)—Evansville
Courier.

Pettit's Attorneys File Suit.

This afternoon in the superior court Colonel R. P. DeHart and others, attorneys for W. F. Pettit, brought suit against the county commissioners for $12,000 and six per cent. interest from September 23, 1892. The complaint recites the same facts as were contained in the petition denied by the commissioners. Stuart Bros. & Hammond are attorneys for plaintiffs.—Lafayette Courier.

A Millinery Emporium.

Mrs. L. Cresse has removed her stock of millinery from the D. W. Rountree stand to the room formerly occupied by Snodgrass, the tailor, on Washington street where she will be pleased to meet her old friends and make new ones as well. Her stock of beautiful fall millinery is now in and ready for inspection consisting of walking, sailor and dress hats and bonnets which was never before equalled. Mrs. Cresse has also purchased the Rountree stock of kid glove and will use the same system of fitting to hands as employed by Mr. Rountree.
Her new gloves are beauties. See them before buying. Don't forget the new quarters.

See the stylish millinery. Handsome goods, and low prices is our motto at the Trade Palace.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the few remedies which are recommended by every school of medicine. Its strength purity, and efficacy are too well established to admit of doubt as to its superiority over all other blood-purifiers whatever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla leads all.
