The Kempner-Joel Nuptials at the Robbins House.

At the Robbins House on Tuesday evening was solemnized the marriage of A. B. Kempner of South Bend, to Miss Fanny Joel of this city. The marriage was pronounced by Dr. Messing of Indianapolis. There was an attendance of over forty persons from this city and abroad. An elegant collation was prepared by the Robbins House. The room was elaborately and tastefully decorated with plants and vines, the brilliantly lighted chandeliers presenting a most beautiful spectacle. The tables were set with a splendid silver and china service and almost hidden by banks of cut hot house flowers. The unusually large number of presents to the bride made a most imposing display and exhibited many very beautiful and costly pieces of silver, cut glass and bronze. The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Solomon and Mrs. A. Z. Solomon, of Denver, Colorado; Mrs. E. D. Joel and daughter of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Warner and son, of Monmouth, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schaffer, of South Bend; J. H. Lempert, of Buffalo; Simon Kempner, Sturgis, Mich.; Isaac Kempner and son, Adolph, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Nadel and son, of Elkhart; Mrs. R. Kempner, of Buffalo, and Ed. Whitkosky, of New York.

Not His Blue-Eyed Coon.

Eliza McCrea, any ebony-hued damsel, is causing Brudder Henry Warren no end of trouble. Our readers are familiar with the first chapter of his trouble, how he was yanked up before the throne of justice and made to cough up four notes of $25 each which was to be used in the care and rearing of Eliza's unborn babe. Now Henry's beauty is decidedly of the brunette type while Eliza's is only one shade lighter, yet when the son and heir was born it had decidedly light blue eyes and blonde hair. Henry quickly forfeited all claims to the title of papa as his "gets" didn't run in that shade and straightway registered a vow to heaven that he would be eternally blanched if he paid one cent of the notes against him. Up to the time of his disgrace Henry had been a moving spirit in church work, and he felt his downfall keenly. At the birth of the child the haze mist which had surrounded Henry's character disappeared like dust in a storm and he was received once more into good fellowship. Now these notes are long past due and as November's chilling winds are threatening the general good health of Eliza and the kid something must be done, consequently no one was surprised this week when Eliza filed suit against Henry for the payment of the same. The trial promises to be rare and racey.

The "Nabobs."

The jury in the case of Sharples & Co. against N. J. Clodfelter, on trial this week, brought in findings for the plaintiff. The Sharples company claim to have furnished the fittings and machinery for the Crawfordsville creamery and never received their pay. In their complaint they allege that N. J. Clodfelter received $700 worth of stock for which he paid nothing, and then had the plant mortgaged to him for no consideration.

Salesmen Wanted to Travel

in surrounding districts, by team or otherwise, soliciting orders on commission from retail dealers for rubber boots and shoes, to be shipped direct from factory. Those already traveling with another line of goods could make this a valuable addition to their business. Address, stating particulars and references, Colchester Rubber Co., Colchester, Conn.

Every one suffers from Catarrh in the Head. Those who don't have it suffer from those who do. It's a disease you can't keep to yourself.

Here are some of the symptoms: Headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid, and offensive; eyes watery, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. But only a few of these likely to be present at once.

The cure for it— for Catarrh itself, and all the troubles that come from it—a perfect and permanent cure, is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. A record of 25 years has proved that to its proprietors—and they're willing to prove it to you.

They do it in this way: If they can't cure your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case, or of how long standing, they'll pay you $500 in cash. Can you have better proof of the healing power of a medicine?

The President's Wife Is Constantly Growing Weaker.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Aside from the fact that Mrs. Harrison appears to be a trifle weaker this evening there is no material change to note in her condition. Mrs. Harrison has been growing gradually weaker for several days past. In the progress of this disease the patient is better one day and worse the next. There has not been a moment of the last few days not filled with anxiety for the President and family. As long as Mrs. Harrison can take nourishment her declining strength can be revived. She is ever the same patient sufferer trying as far as she can to brighten the sadness of the President and her children by appearing to feel better. Her cough has stopped since the weakness of the past few days has set in and she is still taking considerable nourishment. The steady, though slight depletion of strength each is now the most serious feature of the case. President Harrison is looking care worn. He has grown so nervous owing to the terrible strain of the last few months that his family almost compel him to go out every day for a walk or a drive.

A Narrow Escape.

J. K. Everson, the saw mill man, had a very close call Monday and one he won't soon forget. He was driving out east of the city and when in the act of crossing the Big Four railroad at Ferguson's brick yard he was almost run down by a west bound passenger train.

A corn field obscures the view of the track which makes the crossing a decidedly dangerous one. Mr. Everson did not hear the train and his horses' hoofs were planted upon the ties when he was almost paralyzed with fright by seeing the train not twenty yards distant bearing down upon him at a rapid rate. Instead of whipping his horse forward, which act would have proved fatal, he gave the animal a vigorous jerk and backed him down into the gutter, and not a moment too soon. The buggy was upset and Mr. Everson thrown out. The frightened horse turned squarely around and dashed away toward town, finally coming to a stand still in front of Rev. Greene's residence on east Wabash avenue. The buggy and horses were badly damaged but Mr. Everson is well satisfied with the result.

Egged the Students.

While the Wabash students were at the Big Four station Tuesday evening to receive their new President, Dr. Burroughs, some of the lower classmen became involved in an altercation with some town boys living in that vicinity. By the timely interference of some older gentlemen serious trouble for the time was averted. The students had attached a long rope to the cab for the purpose of furnishing the motive power to bring the Doctor to the hotel in true Hoosier style. In the mean time the young local hoodlums had fortified themselves in a yard on College street and armed with several dozen eggs opened up on the procession as it passed. Several of the students were badly plastered but fortunately none were severely injured. Every one of these young toughs should be hunted out and given a few days in jail for their contemptible work.

Dr. William Steele Again.

William Steele, of Waveland, the Keeley graduate and backslider, is now doing time on the stone pile. William waited into this city last Tuesday, and at once began a vigorous onslaught on the numerous bar rooms. The police did not interfere with Williams'肆虐 until Wednesday afternoon when he was found obstructing the thoroughfare of "growler avenue" in a good sound nap. He boarded with Sheriff Bible until Thursday morning when he was taken before the Mayor and fined $1.25. On a promise of at once returning to his home in Waveland Mayor Bandel very kindly suspended the fine, and Steele was liberated. Like all the other of his promises, it failed, for in less than an hour after he was released, he was raving drunk. Officer Brothers run him in and he will now have twelve days to work off the effects of his spree on the stone pile.

Smith-Hirst.

Last Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Edward Hirst of Yountsville, occurred the marriage of Walter A. Smith, of Chicago, and Miss Pearl Hirst. Rev. G. W. Switzer performed the ceremony in the presence of about seventy guests. The house was beautifully decorated. Immediately after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Smith were driven to this city and took the afternoon train for Chicago. The groom is one of the rising young business men of the World's Fair City and operates a jewelry store at 3930 State street. The bride is well known in this city and county as a most excellent lady and well worthy the husband she secured. The REVIEW joins in extending congratulations.
