VOTE IT DOWN.

Aside from only selfish and local reasons can the Indianapolis Sentinel's advocacy of the $50,000 donation by the state to the G. A. R. encampment be ascribed. The Sentinel claims to be the advocate of the only constitutional party of the Union—the democratic—yet it favors an act which is clearly unconstitutional. It will, the encampment, be a good thing financially for Indianapolis, but that does not argue that the state shall help foot the bill of expenses arising from it. By what authority has any organization, through its officials the power to reach into the state treasury and take money therefrom for its use? Clearly none. A convention of the undertakers of Indiana is to be held in Crawfordsville in May. To entertain them this city has just as much authority to force the state to help foot the bills. It is somewhat surprising that the Sentinel should advocate such a measure—a measure that ordinary reasoning will surely show to be wrong. The News of that city takes the correct view of the matter and does not consider that the legislature can constitutionally make the appropriation asked for. A tremendous pressure is being brought by many politicians, men of influence, and G. A. R. organizations, to commit the legislature into giving this $50,000. The legislator who is true to his oath, to his constituents, to the interests of the people, will vote against it regardless of all bull-dozing tactics that may be originated by other side to seek to get him to do otherwise. Our understanding is that both Senator Seller and Representative McCallister are opposed to the appropriation and will vote against it. If so they represent the correct sentiment of the people of Montgomery county in the matter and their act will receive their approval.

GRESHAM A CABINET POSSIBILITY.

For some week rumors have said that Gresham would probably be called to become a member of Cleveland's cabinet. This would seem and is entirely out of place. If there should be such a thing as reliable, conservative, constitutional democrats to occupy any prominent place it should be as cabinet offices. The are few more intelligent, moral and upright men in this country than Judge Gresham. He is learned in the law, conservative in his views, and is upon a decidedly higher plane than most of the leaders of the republican party in almost everything. With all this he does not harmonize with the democracy, hold to few of its tenets, and aside from being anti-high protection, is a decided republican in his leanings. If Cleveland was elected by democrats why honor republicans with high places of honor in his administration simply because they agree with him in some particulars? It is a decidedly sad comment on the democracy that it should be compelled to seek in other parties for the brains necessary to manage its business, and it does not have to either. There are certainly many able democrats who could be placed at the helm and safely carry our ship over treacherous waters. And they should be placed there too. It may be that Cleveland intends to pursue a mugwump policy in many of his appointments, and if he has offered Gresham a position in his cabinet as asserted, it would seem to confirm this, yet if he should, he does not act in harmony with the wishes of the party which has placed him in the high position he is so soon to occupy.

THE SHERMAN LAW.

Efforts were made in congress, last week to repeal what is known as the Sherman law, which has been in operation for some years past and which authorizes the purchase and coinage of a stipulated amount of silver each month. The members of the senate seem greatly divided in opinion regarding it. There are many democrats and republicans who favor its repeal, yet not enough it would seem to accomplish it. President-elect Cleveland favors its repeal, and a failure in this congress to have it done, will bring the matter in the next congress.

PRESIDENT HARRISON will return to Indianapolis the first week in March. He won't be one-tenth as important by that time as he was four years ago, at least there won't be one-teeth the lick spittles to surround him as there was then. Such is power and fame. Both soon pass away from Harrison.

That was a particular bright member of the Indiana legislature who proposed to make it lawful to allow pool selling at horse races in summer but not in the winter months. This is on a similar plea that it would be wrong to gamble for money on Sunday but all right any other day of the week.

HAWAII NOT WANTED.

Hawaii, one of the principal islands in the Pacific, 2,000 miles west of San Francisco, wants to be annexed to this government and become one of the United States. The government has had trouble, the queen of the country, or province, or whatever it might be called, has been deposed, and things generally are in a very unsettled state. Yet this country certainly does not want it; has no need of further increasing its territory whatever. We are large enough now for all coming time. The interests of the people are diverse enough without adding any new people to it. We are becoming too un-American as it is. We are having too much emigration to these shores both from Europe and Asia, and we have no need of increasing our territory by the annexation of Hawaii, or any other island that may want to come in. It matters not what may be the policy of England of adding new countries to her already vast possessions, we do not have to do that way to prosper, and do not desire to imitate England in anything. Let us build up and strengthen what we already have before seeking something new.

GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS.

Congressman Cooper of the 7th district is aiming to secure an appropriation for a new government building at Columbus, Indiana. Since this is the style now Congressman Brookshire should secure one for Crawfordsville. Columbus is no larger than Crawfordsville and does no larger postal business than we do. The whole thing of securing appropriations in a majority of instances is a fraud, is done in the interest of contractors quite often, and also by Congressmen who wish to make themselves solid with their constituents. Our neighbor, Lafayette, is an instance of this. They are putting up a "government" building there. And such a building! It would be better for the town that it were not built at all, low, ill proportioned and useless as it is. Yet their Congressman, to please his constituents, and secure their votes by a pull on the government treasury, figured through and had an appropriation of $80,000 made for the building, and the contractor, no doubt, is on good terms with himself over the money he is making out of the job.

A DIVISION has arisen among the democrats of the legislature regarding the distribution of official positions as to whether the matter shall be controlled by the legislature or by the Governor. The Governor is simply the executor of the laws. That is the sole meaning and intent of his office, and he is paid for that alone. It would seem better that the giving of official positions would be more satisfactory if left to the legislature than to the Governor. The Governor is more apt to be partial, and would aim to reward this or that political favorite, and frequently to the detriment of the service. We believe the taking away of this privilege from the Governor is in the interest of the service.

THE voice of the state editorial convention, which aims its importance about twice a year at Indianapolis is not half as powerful as it had perhaps imagined. It has repeatedly demanded of "our state legislature" the repeal or modification of the Grubb's libel law, yet in a discussion before the Senate last week out of twenty or more Senators, only two favored the modification of the law, and it will still continue on our statute books to plague and irritate publishers. The "power of the press" seems to be lessening, at least in Indiana, if the Grubb's libel law discussion and vote on the motion is a sample.

The legislature can well afford to assist in making the grand army national encampment a success, but it cannot afford to assist in the effort to make it a failure. —Sentinel.

The legislature, may be, can well afford to assist in making every political, educational or religious convention that meets in Indianapolis for the next few years a success, but it cannot do it honestly by making appropriations of money from the treasury of the state.

SEVERAL of the parties engaged in mobbing the ex-priest Randolph at Lafayette have been indicted, arrested and bound over for future appearance at court. They will learn probably by the time they are through that depriving a man of free speech in this country is an expensive experiment.

ALMOST BEYOND RELIEF.

Things Often Happen That We Can Scarcely Credit.

This is One of Them, and We Give it to Our Readers.

It May Seem Remarkable, But We Know That It Is All True.

A strange tale comes to us from Champlain, N. Y., where the principal in this absorbingly interesting account came very near not now being alive to tell the story.

It would seem that a well known resident of the town, Barney Wilson by name, fell ill. Now illness is a common thing, but not so that of Mr. Wilson, as he says himself, now that the danger is all over.

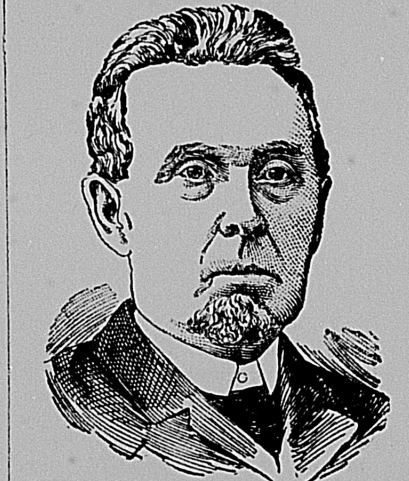

I cannot describe how I felt or what I suffered.

It seemed to be at first mostly in my head. I could not think easily; my head felt dull and strange, and I was tired and weak all over.

I knew my nerves were weak and prostrated; that I had dyspepsia terribly. Why, I could scarcely eat anything from one day to another.

I could not sleep, nights, and woke morning feeling weak, tired and dragged out. It came near being my death stroke, I tell you, and we did not know what the end would be.

Can you believe it, I lived and suffered like this for a whole year!

MR. BARNEY WILSON.

And then, when I had become about hopeless, I saw the advertisement of a medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I procured some from the druggist at once, and before I had taken two bottles I was so much better that I was astonished!

I continued its use and now I am feeling as well and sound as I ever was in my life. I can truly say that had it not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I should now be in my grave.

I have recommended this wonderful remedy to all of my friends. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine, and I earnestly recommend it to all who are suffering from disease.

Our readers would be foolish indeed if they do not follow Mr. Wilson's advice, if they are sick or out of order, for it is a sure thing that this remarkable remedy cures. Besides it is purely vegetable and harmless. The great physician and specialist in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene of 35 W. 14th St., New York, discovered it, and he and other physicians prescribe and recommend it. The doctor also can be consulted free of charge in regard to any case personally or by letter.

Mothers And Daughters.

Over twelve years I was afflicted with a very serious female difficulty and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the very best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse, until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullam's Great German Uterine Tonic and after taking three bottles, can say I am in better health than I have been for twenty years and am now sixty years old, but feel as young as at thirty—$1 a bottle.

A tickling sensation of the throat, a piping voice and a disposition to expectorate frequently, are the forerunners of a dangerous throat affection. The bronchial trouble often develops into consumption, unless checked by the timely use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Beware.
