

Why? Why is Strictly Pure White Lead the best? Because it will outlast all other paints, give handsomer finish, better protection to the wood, and the first cost will be less.

“Strictly Pure White Lead?”

This Barytes is a heavy white powder (ground stone), having the appearance of white lead, worthless as a paint, costing only about a cent a pound, and is only used to cheapen the mixture. What shoddy is to cloth, Barytes is to paint. Be careful to use only the standard brands of white lead.

WILL GET THE GOLD.

ALL TREASURY NOTES TO BE REDUCED.

The President Says There Has Been No Intention of Redeeming the Notes of 1890 in Silver—Carlisle Depends on the West.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—If any of the New York bankers who are reported to have determined to come to Washington for the purpose of settling the gold stringency question are in the city today, a careful scrutiny of the hotel register fails to disclose their presence. The desires of the New Yorkers are already well known to the Secretary of the Treasury, and it does not require their presence here to make the situation as viewed from their standpoint, more plain. The administration has already decided against the Wall Street men, and their demand for an issue of bonds has been answered in the negative. So long as it is possible for the government to get along without a bond issue, just so long will the present policy of the Treasury Department be adhered to. Should the demands for gold during the coming week exceed the amount of free gold in the Treasury there is nothing in the situation to suggest any other policy than that which was followed under similar circumstances on last Friday when the gold reserve was unflinchingly entrenched upon.

The news that the shipments of Tuesday will probably be unusually heavy does not give Mr. Carlisle any uneasiness as he feels sure that the Western banks will do as handsomely in supplying him with gold for emergencies as they did Saturday. More over it is understood that Mr. Carlisle's statement of last Thursday has been supplemented since by private correspondence with leading Western bankers who are known to control large resources of gold with a view to have them co-operate with the Treasury.

President Cleveland said yesterday: “The inclination on the part of the public to accept newspaper reports concerning the intentions of those charged with the management of our national finances seems to justify my emphatic contradictions of the statement that the redemption of any kind of treasury notes except in gold has at any time been determined upon, or contemplated by the Secretary of the Treasury or any other member of the present administration. The President and his cabinet are absolutely harmonious in the determination to exercise every power centered upon them to maintain the public credit, to keep the public faith and to reserve the parity between gold and silver, and between all financial obligations of the government.”

HENRY CLEWS GIVES HIS VIEWS.

The New York Banker Discusses the Present Financial Condition.

New York, April 24.—Henry Clews, the banker, in discussing the conditions in Wall street, says:

“The weak point in the market continues to be the gold movement, about which there is still much uneasiness. The thing especially feared is not any real trouble in the treasury finances calculated to seriously affect the government credit. Wall street has no misgivings that the United States can suffer from impairment of public confidence or from any inability to take care of all and every form of its obligations. It is known too well what the resources of the government are and what is the world's estimate of them to fall into such narrow misconception. The thing feared is that the reserves of the banks may be so drained by the exports of gold as to compel a further reduction of loans and discounts and a consequent selling of securities held on speculation. This latter possibility is so real that it would be folly to belittle it. It is the seriousness of this possibility that makes down-town interests so anxious that the government should sell an amount of bonds in Europe sufficient either to arrest the export of gold or to bring back some of the large amount we have exported. Whether this desire will be gratified remains to be seen.”

STOLE FROM THE VETERANS.

Treasurer of the California Soldiers' Home Short in His Accounts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 24.—Col. Clark E. K. Royce, Treasurer of the Veterans' Home Association, is short in his accounts at least $20,000, and it may be $40,000. The Veterans' Home, located at Yountville, Napa County, is an institution supported jointly by State and Federal aid. Royce was elected treasurer without bonds a year ago. One week ago he was found in a room at a local hotel unconscious and nearly dead from wounds about the head. He has since been in a critical condition, but he is now improved. Much mystery is attached to the affair, and it was thought he was the victim of a murderous assault by persons unknown. Royce now confesses that he attempted suicide, fearing exposure.

EIGHT MEN DROWNED.

The Schooner Newell C. Eddy Goes Down in Lake Huron.

CHICAGO, April 24.—News has been received here that the schooner Newell C. Eddy, which cleared here Thursday for Buffalo, has been wrecked in Lake Huron. She carried a crew of eight men, all of whom are probably drowned.

Booth's Condition Serious.

NEW YORK, April 24.—There seems to be little doubt that Edwin Booth is in a very serious condition, in spite of the reassuring statements of his physicians. Dr. Smith said after his call yesterday that Mr. Booth was better than he had been at any time since his present attack. Mr. Booth is still unable to talk. He recognized those about him, however, and sleeps most of the time. His daughter, Mrs. Grossman, was with him yesterday.

Trans-Mississippi Congress.

CONFER, Utah, April 24.—The Trans-Mississippi commercial congress will commence in this city today. From the East large Nebraska, Dakota, Minnesota, Wyoming and Colorado delegations arrived here last night, while the Rio Grande western train will arrive at the same time, bearing ex-Gov. Prince of New Mexico, President of the congress, and other prominent men.

MR. WATT MAY TURN AGAIN.

His Latest Political Trick Fails to Have the Desired Result.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Postmaster-General Bissell Saturday notified S. J. Watt, the postmaster at Columbus, Ga., that he would remove him from office as soon as he had selected a successor. Mr. Watt has been postmaster at Columbus for eight years and is now in Washington seeking reappointment. He was appointed by Mr. Cleveland eight years ago. After the defeat of the Democratic party in 1888 Mr. Watt changed his politics and reorganized the entire clerical force of his postoffice on a thoroughly Republican basis. He was thereupon reappointed by President Harrison. When the Republican party was defeated last November Mr. Watt again changed his politics and became one of the most ardent Democrats in Columbus. A month ago he sent a note to every clerk and letter-carrier in his office stating that since the administration is now Democratic it was proper that the Columbus postoffice should be entirely reorganized on a Democratic basis, and therefore requested their resignations. One of the clerks sent the note he received to the civil-service commissioners at Washington. They found this note in plain violation of President Harrison's order of last January placing all free-delivery offices within the classified service. They made a report to this effect and recommended Mr. Watt's removal. Yesterday Mr. Watt called on Postmaster-General Bissell. After introducing himself and stating the purpose of his errand Mr. Bissell inquired of him how he had succeeded in holding office under Mr. Harrison. To this Mr. Watt replied: “I am a business man and view matters philosophically. When Mr. Cleveland was defeated I promptly turned out the Democratic clerks and put in Republicans. When Mr. Harrison was defeated last fall I determined that I would turn out my Republican clerks and replace them with Democrats. I have already asked them for their resignations.”

“Yes,” replied Mr. Bissell, “I know all about your office. Here is the report of the civil-service commission. Your story saves me the trouble of reading it.”

Mr. Watt: “I am glad I have come.”

“Yes, I, too, am glad you have come,” said Mr. Bissell, “because your being here saves me the trouble of sending you notice, formally, that I shall remove you as soon as I can select your successor.”

CABINET CRISIS IN NORWAY.

Ministry Resigns Because the King Refuses to Approve a Resolution.

CHRISTIANIA, April 24.—The Norwegian ministry has resigned owing to the refusal of King Oscar to sanction a resolution of the Norwegian parliament in favor of the appointment of the Norwegian consuls to represent the shipping and commercial interests of Norway abroad, instead of Norway depending for consular representation as at present, upon consuls representing both Sweden and Norway. This refusal of King Oscar and the resignation of the ministry brings to a critical stage the dispute long pending upon the consular issue.

MAY SAVE CARLYLE HARRIS.

Gov. Flower Appoints a Commissioner to Take Testimony in His Behalf.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 24.—Gov. Flower has appointed George Raines of Rochester commissioner to take testimony in the case of Carlyle W. Harris, confined in Sing Sing prison awaiting execution during the week beginning May 8, for the murder of his girl wife. This action on the part of the Governor does not necessarily act as a stay of execution, as the Governor expects that Mr. Raines will finish his work in time to allow him to review the testimony and announce his decision before the date of the execution.

Egan Congratulates Morton.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary of Agriculture Morton has received the following letter from Minister Egan: “LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES, SANTIAGO, CHILE, MARCH 10, 1893. MY DEAR SIR:—I have just learned of your appointment as a member of the present Cabinet and I hasten to offer you my most cordial and sincere congratulations. I am delighted that the President has conferred upon you an honor of which you are so eminently worthy and I am sure that every Nebraska man, regardless of party differences, will heartily rejoice, as I do, that our State has thus been honored through you. My dear sir, your obedient servant, “PATRICK EGAN.”

FAIR ALMOST

THE GREAT BUILDINGS ARE FILLING UP.

There Are Four More Good Days and the World's Fair at Chicago Will be Ready for the Rush of Visitors—Working Day and Night.

CHICAGO, April 24.—If 12,000 workmen can do it the Exposition will be ready May 1. Yesterday 8,000 pairs of arms labored with nervous energy to catch up with the time lost during the storms of wind and rain which practically stopped all exterior work in the World's Fair for five days last week. To-day they were increased to an army of 12,000.

The bright sun of yesterday afternoon, the gratifying knowledge that the drainage system of the Exposition was rapidly drying the super-saturated ground, and the enthusiasm of every man connected with the enterprise, brought encouragement to the hearts of the construction and installation departments and caused Assistant Director of Works Graham to say:

“Give us four days of good weather and we will be ready. Only four days of sun and warmth, just ninety-six hours without rain or high wind, and to all outward appearances, the World's Fair is finished. Four days before the dedication last fall the grounds and roads were in worse condition than they are to-day, and we were ready for the crowds when they came. To-day we are better off than we were then. We are far better organized, have a better working force, and only need better weather.”

The work is general. No particular point of attack is made the object of an unusual demonstration. Road-making, painting, staff laying, sodding, installing, cleaning up, electric wiring and construction are all advanced. The workmen have caught the spirit of the hour and labor with the enthusiasm induced by pressure of time and personal responsibility. No work except cleaning up and switching was done at night, but twenty-four-hour work begins to-day.

With the exception of administration and horticultural buildings the painting of all the great buildings is nearly completed, and painters swarmed over those two structures yesterday. The staff covering of the choral building is almost all on, and a few days will see the tall tower and corner towers of the gold storage building. Mr. Millet's fresco painters will finish their work on the transportation building by Wednesday. All the odds and ends now unpainted of other buildings will be fresh and white before Tuesday's sun has set.

Dr. Burnham has written a number of letters. They are worded alike, addressed to the Superintendents of the various buildings, and read as follows: “The stress we are under demands that the Superintendent of each building shall make arrangements to be here for the next two weeks all the time. The necessity for your presence at night now is even greater than during the day until the goods are in and installed. Cannot you make arrangements to stay here in the park? The company can furnish you with bunks and make you comfortable, and when it rains you must be on deck with your men.”

In compliance with this letter each Superintendent has moved to the grounds. Canvas covers and tarpaulins are piled ready to be spread over exhibits at the first sign of a leak, and the Superintendents go to sleep with their weather eyes open and a high-water alarm within hearing distance.

Makes an every-day convenience of an old-time luxury. Pure and wholesome. Prepared with scrupulous care. Highest award at all Pure Food Expositions. Each package makes two large pies. Avoid imitations—and insist on having the NONE SUCH brand. HENRI L. & SONS, Syracuse, N. Y.
