REID SENDS A LETTER

SAYS THE DEMOCRATS MADE THE TROUBLE

The Republican Candidate for Vice-President Discusses the Business Situation and Declares That the Responsibility Rests With Democrats.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 28.—The sixth annual convention of the State League of Republican clubs met here yesterday. President McAlpitt presided, and after the appointment of committees read his annual address. Secretary Hedges read letters of regret at inability to be present from ex-President Harrison, ex-Vice-President Levi P. Morton and Whitelaw Reid. Ex-President Harrison, in the course of his letter, says:

"I have been acting upon a resolution made before leaving Washington, that I would give the spring and summer months to rest and avoid all public occasions and addresses. I hope your meeting will be successful and, I think, I may add without transgressing the proprieties, that there is nothing in the present business situation to suggest any great gain to the country as the result of the inauguration of Democratic politics."

Ex-Vice-President Morton says that previous engagements prevent his attendance.

The letter of the Hon. Whitelaw Reid is as follows:

"Other engagements must prevent acceptance of your invitation to attend the meeting of the league. I deeply regret this necessary absence, for these are times when every Republican should be more than usually faithful and zealous in the discharge of every political duty. After a great reverse is not the occasion for a true man to retire from politics any more than from war."

"You find the country in an unfortunate condition. The duty of every one of us is to do every right thing in our power to help the President and Congress to relieve the situation. Our party will not be unfaithful to that duty. Mr. Cleveland can confidently count on more support on the first vital question of the day from the Republicans he tried to defeat than from the Democrats he helped to elect."

"But while loyally co-operating to meet the existing dangers, we must not be charged with creating them. The present condition, whether financial or industrial, is neither the choice of the Republican party nor fairly considered, the work of Republican legislation. In finance it is the culmination of an unfortunate compromise to which Republicans were driven after a majority of Democrats and a minority of Republicans had passed in the Senate and were near passing in the House a measure for the free coinage of silver at say a third above its market value. Twenty-seven Democrats and fifteen Republicans had voted for this free coinage measure in the Senate, while twenty-two Republicans and barely three Democrats voted against it. In the House the proportions of the respective votes were still more significant. The effects of the compromise measure to which the Democratic party with substantial unanimity thus drove the Republicans were had, but the general confidence at home and abroad, in the financial record and purpose of the Republicans, helped to minimize them, and though the tendency grew worse they didn't culminate till the shock came to public confidence in the triumph of that party, the great body of whose legislators had been steadily in favor of far worse measures, and had been on the verge of carrying free coinage two years before."

TORONTO, Ont., June 28.—The Spanish caravels, models of the Santa Maria and the other two vessels in which Columbus discovered America, arrived here yesterday from Rochester. They leave for Chicago early to-day. Capt. Concas, who is in charge of the little fleet, and his officers were entertained by the city.

Caught in the Belt and Killed. KENOSHA, Wis., June 28.—At 9 o'clock yesterday morning Fred Hanson, engineer of the Grant planing-mill, was caught by the main belt and drawn into the fly-wheel, where he was almost instantly torn to pieces. He was a middle-aged man and leaves a wife and four children.

Killed by the Sun. NEW ORLEANS, La., June 28.—This is the fifth day of a severe hot spell. There were eight prostrations from heat yesterday, three proving fatal. Yesterday two fatal cases of sunstroke were reported. At 2 o'clock yesterday the thermometer registered 95 degrees.

Ohio Christian Endeavor Convention. CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 28.—The Convention of the Christian Endeavor societies resumed its session yesterday. Secretary Franke of Toledo read a report showing that the total membership in Ohio is now 65,828, a gain in the last year of 26,393.

GENERAL STATE NEWS.

The Knox county jail is overstocked with prisoners.

Fish dynamiting is being practiced along White river.

A recent census gives Champaign a population of 8,000.

Wheat harvest will commence in Knox county this week.

The engine for the new Princeton water works has arrived.

The Clay county commissioners have ordered five new bridges.

George McClure, of Brazil, was overcome with heat Wednesday.

A Keely bi-chloride of gold institute is being established at Evansville.

Articles for incorporation were filed Monday by the Greencastle Street Railway company with a capital stock of $100,000.

Brazil will have brick paving put down on Main street. The city council has said so.

The recently organized fuel gas plant company, of Brazil, has asked for a fifty year franchise.

Stephen Gaines, of Vincennes, while in a skiff on the river was struck by lightning and killed.

Richard Chadwell, near Thorntown, was struck on the head with a harpoon-fork and dangerously injured.

John Leffler, seventy-three years old of Muncie, wound up a protracted spree by swallowing "rough on rats."

Experts robbed the safe in the Buckeye Dry Goods Store at Terre Haute, securing $900 cash $125 of which belonged to one of the clerks.

Mrs. W. T. Davis, of Dana, heart-broken by domestic differences, swallowed "rough on rats" and died. She was the mother of four helpless children.

The creditors of the Bedford bank have appointed Webb Parker to assist President Winstanley in settling up the affairs of that concern. Nine months is the agreed limit of settlement.

Daniel J. Alias "Babe" Hawkins, indicted for attempting to murder ex-sheriff William McDougall, of Shelbyville, has given bond in $2,000 for his appearance when wanted for trial.

Al Jenkins, the fugitive ex-treasurer of Clark county, is said to be anxious to return to Jeffersonville, provided the bondsmen will withdraw the warrant issued for his arrest. This the bondsmen decline to do.

"Link" Wattam, of New Albany, was shot in the back while in the act of disrobing at his home, the bullet coming through a window. He is inclined to think somebody shot at a dog and aimed badly. The wound is not fatal.

Simon Fields, of Elkhart county, who killed Silas Bell three years ago, stood trial for the third time at Goshen the past week, and a jury sentenced him to two years' imprisonment. In the first trial he was given a life sentence.

It is said that the fishermen of Clarksville have banded together to assist convicts to escape because of the refusal of the prison officials to pay the full amount of the usual reward for the recapture of Theodore Poweska, the crazy convict.

Mrs. George Sanborn, near Farmland upon lifting the cover off a large crock of milk found a huge house-snake coiled in the milk, with his head protruding above the cream. Mrs. Sanborn killed the snake, which measured nearly five feet in length.

The Kokomo City Council has indefinitely postponed the ordinance giving the company now occupying the field a thirty-five-year gas and electric light franchise. The franchise under which the company is now operating has still two years to run.

ALTGELD CRITICISED.

PARDON OF THE ANARCHISTS DISCUSSED.

Several Eastern Papers Bitterly Censure the Governor—Hear Most Jubilant Over the Pardon—Comment of New York Papers—Opinions in Chicago.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—There has been much comment and criticism in Washington of Gov. Altgeld's course in pardoning the Chicago Anarchists. The local newspapers are unsparing in their editorial criticism.

The News characterizes it as "Altgeld's Outrage," and heads an editorial with the query, "Is Altgeld an Anarchist?" It adds:

"What is the answer of Gov. Altgeld of Illinois on the charge that, by his unwarranted act in pardoning the Haymarket rioters, he is aiding and abetting anarchism? The governor, who is apparently already making a bid to the riffraff of Illinois for reelection, gives as his reason for his singular conduct the statements made in the appeal for pardon presented to him, which declare that the trial was a farce, the jury was packed and the trial judge prejudiced. Starting as the statements are, it is even more startling that it has taken several years to arrive at them. The sober sense of the people of Illinois will condemn this action of Altgeld's. There may have been a shadow of justice or a proper degree of clemency in pardoning Neebe. For the others there is and can be none. In view of the facts, the action of Gov. Altgeld can only be regarded as a flagrant abuse of the pardoning power."

New York, June 28.—The news that Gov. Altgeld of Illinois had pardoned Neebe, Schwab and Fielden was received by the Anarchist colony of New York with wild enthusiasm. John Most was about the only one of the coterie who could be found out of bed yesterday afternoon, so late was Monday night's celebration kept up in honor of the release of the men convicted for the Haymarket outrage. Most had a ferocious pompadour on the forehead covering to his fiery brain. For Die Freiheit comes out to-day and the king of the Anarchists had a fiery, unum editorial to write, each particular word of which will be hotter and more Anarchistic than the other.

"It will be hard," said he, "to find any of your friends in time for the afternoon press. You can't find Justin Schwab before evening, for he was up late celebrating last night."

Supt. Byrnes declined to express an opinion of the action of Gov. Altgeld. The newspapers of this city all devote considerable space to editorials upon this subject. The World says: "It is not the fact that these men have been given their liberty that is remarkable and startling. It is the tone of Gov. Altgeld's statement, in which he sets forth the reason for action that will astonish if it does not alarm the country."

"The Governor's action is not accepted nor regarded as mercy. It makes martyrs of the men who paid the penalty of their revolting crime on the gallows, and sanctifies hereafter the devotion of the day of their execution to memorial services."

"Let us hope that Gov. Altgeld's act may be as powerless to breed mischief in the future as it will be to soil the reputation of the nation."

CHICAGO, June 28.—There is great difference of opinion as to Gov. Altgeld's action in pardoning the three Anarchists. Workingmen generally approve the action, many who were not sympathizers with the Anarchists believing that they had been punished enough. Mayor Harrison and most of the members of the city administration approve of the pardon.

SPERRY REFUSED TO PAY.

Commission in Houston, East & West Texas System Dissolved.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The commission appointed by the United States Circuit Court of Texas to take testimony in the case of Joel A. Sperry against J. C. Hutchinson for dissolution of contract has been dissolved by United States Commissioner Shields. The suit grew out of a dispute between the stock and bond holders of the Houston, East & West Texas Railroad. The stockholders held that the bonds of the road were invalid.

J. C. Hutchinson, who is the Congressman from the First District of Texas represented the stockholders. Suit was instituted and the bonds were declared invalid. Then Mr. Hutchinson told the bondholders that for $45,000 he would have the bonds declared valid. This was assented to and a verdict was brought in as he had promised. Then Mr. Sperry refused to pay the $45,000 and sued to have the contract dissolved. To reopen the suit Mr. Sperry will have to apply to the Circuit Court of Texas for another commission.

Hardly Needed a Safe.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 28.—The Bank of Ness City has closed its doors with but $85.39 in cash on hand. Deposits amount to $31,860, with other liabilities of $4,000. It has loans aggregating $74,000, mostly on real estate, from which but little can be realized. The capital of the bank is $40,000.

Mr. Charles Russell Summoned to Paris. LONDON, June 28.—Sir Charles Russell, British counsel in the Berlin Sea case, has been summoned suddenly to return to Paris to attend the sittings of the tribunal of arbitration.

Welcomes to Lord Houghton. DUBLIN, June 28.—Lord Houghton, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, is making a tour of the west of Ireland. He has been heartily welcomed at every place he has visited.
