THE WAGE EARNER.

Among those most interested in a permanent, sound financial system, none are more so than the laboring man, the mechanic and he who earns his daily bread by the sweat of his brow. Regarding this class the President in his message says:

"There is one important aspect of the subject which especially should never be overlooked. At times like the present, when the evils of unsound finance threaten us, the speculator may anticipate a harvest gathered from the misfortune of others, the capitalist may protect himself by hoarding, or may even find profit in the fluctuation of values; but the wage-earner, the first to be injured by a depreciated currency and the last to receive the benefit of its correction, is practically defenseless. He relies for work upon the ventures of confident and contented capital. This failing him, his condition is without alleviation, for he can neither pray on the misfortunes of others, nor hoard his labor. One of the greatest statesmen our country has known, speaking more than fifty years ago, when a derangement of the currency had caused commercial distress, said: 'The very man of all others who has the deepest interest in a sound currency and who suffers most by mischievous legislation in money matters is the man who earns his daily bread by his daily toil.' These words are as pertinent now as on the day they were uttered, and ought to impressively remind us that a failure in the discharge of our duty at this time must especially injure those of our countrymen who labor and who, because of their number and condition, are entitled to the most watchful care of their Government."

THE HEROIC TREATMENT.

The greatest set back to those unlawful organizations known as "White Caps," which abound in southern Indiana, yet received was noted last week in Harrison county, on the Ohio river.
Two brothers, Conrad, had been arrested, tried and acquitted of the charge of murdering their father. There was not the slightest evidence against them and their mother did not believe them guilty.
This, however, did not suit the White Caps, the self constituted administrators of the law, and they prepared to lynch the Conrad boys, two in number.
They reckoned without their host. The Conrads were prepared, and just as soon as the mob appeared at night and began storming their cabin and demand that they come out the ball opened. The two boys opened fire with shot guns and revolvers, and before the cowardly mob had retreated it left five of its members dead on the field and a number wounded. The Conrads defended their homes, and their actions will be approved. They showed themselves to be men of undaunted courage. White Capism is a symbol of an unlawful organization, cowardly and cruel, with no respect whatever for the rights of others. Instead of permitting the legal authorities to execute the law they assume that power themselves. They have received a wholesome rebuke, and the example furnished by the Conrads is bound to have imitators, who will administer to White Caps proper punishment and in time dissolve the cowardly mobs.

WHENEVER the pension department seeks to prevent frauds in that department, that moment republican newspapers and pension agents begin to denounce Hoke Smith. There seems to be no doubt that thousands of men in the United States are drawing pensions from the government who have no more right to them than the Queen of England so far as having rendered service to the country during the war. Then there are others who are rated too high.
Secretary Smith in honestly seeking to regulate these matters and see that justice prevails in the matter, is denounced by these partisans. The pension department of the government heretofore has been managed to a great extent in the interest of the republican party. It is not now, but is in the interest of the people.

OHIO NOMINATIONS.

Mon. Lawrence T. Neal has been nominated for Governor and W. A. Taylor for Lieutenant Governor by the Ohio democracy in convention assembled at Cincinnati last week. This is in opposition to McKinley and protection. The democracy of Ohio against great odds have frequently won unexpected victories, having elected four Governors within the past twenty years, and the same good luck may attend them this year, although the chances are against them largely. McKinley desires the election this year to boost him into the republican presidential nomination in 1896, and his friends will stop at nothing to accomplish it.

HENRY WATERSON truthfully says in the Courier-Journal that "the republican party cannot escape its full responsibility. It is the author of the fiscal laws under which we live. It is the father of our industrial system, regulated by a tariff made by protectionists in the interest of monopoly. The democratic party assumed the reins of government less than five months ago, taking possession of an already depleted treasury. Congress could hardly have been called in extra session much earlier.
All things existent in the federal fabric, except the men newly chosen to administer them, are of republican making."

"The democrats transferred power to the republicans four years ago with everything in good shape. The republicans pass it back to the democrats with everything in bad shape. At this stage of the journey criticism from the oracles of republicanism is the sheerest quibbling. Thus far the administration has had the opportunity to do very little.
But Mr. Carlisle held his own in the treasury, keeping the national credit intact without increasing the national debt by the issuance of bonds, and Mr.
Cleveland has maintained the public confidence to an exceptional degree, whilst waiting the coming together of the people's representatives."

THE banks at Crawfordsville, Frankfort and other places charged old soldiers from twenty-five to seventy-five cents for cashing their pension checks.
The Ladoga banks charged nothing.
Do you see the point? Ladoga business men do a fair, honest and legiti-mate business, and aim to make a reasonable profit.—Ladoga Leader.

The individual penning the above seems possessed of an inordinate amount of conceit, and the praise of his banks in this case may be construed as scandal. According to his idea the bankers of Crawfordsville and Frankfort do not do a fair, honest and legitimate business, because from a fair legitimate custom they charge ex-soldiers 25 cents for cashing checks. The bankers of Crawfordsville, we believe, are as honest and fair as those of Ladoga and they have much more money.

This monkey patriotism of not charging ex-soldiers for transacting a legiti-mate business is disgusting. We know of a dozen or more ex-soldiers in town who are worth from $5,000 to $50,000, and others are in good circumstances.
Is there any reason, unless the Leader desires to consider them paupers, why they should not pay for services of this kind any more than other individuals.

At the last meeting of the city council the superintendent of the light plant reported the receipts for the month of July to be $609.86 and the expenditures $1,088.84, a net cost for the maintenance of the plant of $478.98 or $3.37 per ar-bit. The monthly report of the receipts and expenditures for about every month since the city constructed the electric light plant has read just about this way—the expenditures always in excess of the receipts. Now we boast of cheap electric lighting, but where does it come in? Who has to foot up this regular monthly deficit? Let the consumer add up this expenditure for light to his extra tax to pay this deficit and calculate how cheap it is then. The $80,000 electric light plant is the creation of a republican city council, Mayor and others, and the tax payers are paying a big round price for it all the time instead of getting the product at a low rate.

BANKING and piety don't always make the institution run smooth, as is evidenced in the case of Mr. Haughey, president of the Indianapolis National Bank.
The newspapers of that city at the time of the failure of that institution were particularly to impress upon the public that Mr. Haughey was a pious, God-fearing, church attending citizen, yet his management of it in many instances partakes of criminality, and the grand jury may take his case in hand for violations of certain banking laws which he could not have but known were wrong.

THERE is nothing nonsensical in the message to Congress by the President, but its duty in the premises on the financial question is explicitly set forth.
He impresses Congress with the early and absolute necessity of repealing the Sherman law, but offers no substitute, plainly intending that Congress must act for itself in the matter as it deems best, knowing the responsibility lies solely with it. The short message is a very earnest, able document, worthy of Cleveland.

OUR Kirkpatrick correspondent seems to continue to be in ill humor over the appointment of post master in his town and vents his spleen at Mr. Brookshire over it. He attaches entirely too much importance to the matter. The grass will continue to grow and water to flow regardless of who is P. M. there or in any of the other towns of the county.
The public away from there care little about it, and we trust he will let up in the matter.

FOR the present financial troubles who are directly responsible? The Sherman act which seems as much or more than anything else to have caused the present distress, is the creation of John Sherman, one of the fathers of the republican party, and this same act was made a law by a republican congress and signed by a republican president.

THE Indianapolis National Bank which bursted the other day went republican by a large majority. It seemed to have been under the management of scamps from the start. The stock-holders will be compelled to go down in their pockets to make good, or partially good the losses of depositors. President cashier, and about all the directors were republicans, among the latter being our own good R. B. F. Pierce.

It is a pity that "McHugh, of Tippe-cawne," could not be spared for another term in the Indiana legislature by which a law legalizing lotteries similar to that of Louisiana could be passed.
With the "Roby" law added to a lottery law our happiness would be complete and McHugh raised another round on the temple of fame.

CONGRESSMAN BROOKSHIRE, with some six other members of the House from Indiana, is arrayed against the movement favoring a repeal of the Sherman act unless something favoring free coinage is substituted. Mr. Brookshire no doubt voices the sentiment of a majority of his constituents in the stand he has taken in this matter.

The New Great South American Kidney Cure.

The acknowledged superior cure and immediate relief for all derangements, painfulness and decay of the kidneys or bladder, Bright's disease, diabetes or any complaint that hurts or despoils either of these delicate organs. This new remedy has been thoroughly tested by learned physicians and found far superior to any medicine yet discovered for quickly relieving all weaknesses, aches, pains and distresses arising from diseases of any part of the urinary passages. It is a great relief for the old, middle aged and children, male or female. It relieves at once retention and pain in passing water, and it is very effective in relieving prostatic troubles in the old, and for nightly incontinence of water in children, or others, caused by weakness of the bladder. It may be worth to many a hundred times its cost.
This is a remedy of great value to ladies, because they are very liable to weakness and pains peculiar to their sex.
