THE SPEECH OF VOORHEES.

Senator Voorhees last week in the Senate made a long speech favoring the repeal of the Sherman act in which he took direct opposite views from those held by him heretofore on the silver act.
The Senator in this does not represent the views of his constituents in Indiana, and his sudden conversion from the doctrines held by him previously will create a suspicion that there is behind his present arguments something else other than a belief that he is correct in his views. The majority of the democracy will part company with him on this money question as it in Indiana is in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Mr. Voorhees, spite of his great labors early and late in behalf of the party for near forty years, is not now in accord with it on issues relating to the creation and circulation of money.
His present actions smack too much of the demagogue. The president has allowed him the bestowal of patronage in Indiana, and now, strange to relate, he coincides with Cleveland exactly. Remarkable is it not? We remember how in 1872 on learning of the nomination of Horace Greeley, a republican, by the democracy, he denounced the nomination in exceedingly vigorous terms, and was particularly sarcastic in speaking of the men and means used to bring it about. Within two weeks after this he was in full accord and considered by his speeches the work of the national convention as timely and well done. What is to be thought of any one who changes his opinion at every passing breeze? He is certainly not the one to instruct the people how to act and think on any questions of national importance. Voorhees has outlived his day and generation, and no longer stands in accord with the great party that for a generation has so strongly and determinedly stood by him.

THE TRUE CAUSE.

Republican newspapers with their usual cuteness are aiming to convince the public that the present financial troubles and business failures result from an agitation of tariff matters and the prospect of a reduction of duties on many imported articles. On their theory all that is necessary to make things again serene is to cease this discussion, allow wealthy manufacturers to continue to bleed consumers in extor-tionate rates for many of their wares, keep on protecting this or that establishment by driving out all competition and all will be well and business will resume its normal course. This rot will not do. It is too transparent. The majority of the voters of this country last November said by their ballots that they desired a reform in our tariff laws, a change in favor of the masses and not the classes, and this Congress and this administration expect to carry out their wishes. Republican legislation, republican financeering and republican corruption are the things which have brought about the present depressed state of business, and this administration and this Congress were not in the least responsible for it. Like the sneak thief when his crookedness is discovered, he is extremely anxious "to lay it on some one else," but it won't do. Intelligent, unprejudiced observers can see the transparency of their stories, and will know they are false. Although a great undertaking to pull the government from the slough of corruption and mismanagement into which the republican leaders had placed it during its career, it can and will be done.

DARES TO TELL THE TRUTH.

While some newspapers are crying themselves into tonsillitis because the Interior Department is pruning the pension roll of unworthy names the following manly declaration from The Chicago Tribune is quite timely, viz:— There are men on the rolls receiving $12 a month who never fired a shot, who never did anything to injure the enemy, who never saw a Confederate soldier, and whose health to-day is just as good as it would have been had they never been mustered into the service. It is an outrage on the taxpayers that such things should be. No one grudges the real soldiers what they are receiving.
No one would lift a finger to take from the men who fought and marched, who knew wounds, imprisonment, hunger and disease those pensions which a grateful country is glad to give them.
But there are tens of thousands, dead-beats and frauds, eating up the substance of the tax payers who are in no sense "veterans" and who do not deserve pensions. It is known that under the older and more rigid laws men managed by hook or crook to get pensions, though not entitled to them. Under the new law, laxly administered, every man who was ever mustered into the service, or, if he is dead, his wife is invited to step up and get a pension, and a liberal pension office takes care to make it near the maximum.

PIOUS EMBEZZLERS.

Haughy, President of the Indianapolis National Bank, his son who was a big borrower, and three or four other individuals of that city, who had the nack of getting money at any time and in any amount on frivolous and mythical security from the bank, were arrested last week by deputy U. S. marshals and placed under bond of $10,000 each for their future appearance at court. They succeeded in completely wrecking the bank, and depositors will receive but little of the money placed in bank by them hereafter. They no doubt deserve vigorous punishment and very prolonged at that for embezzling of funds, but that they will receive it is questionable.
They are all pious rascals, belong to church, and pay quarantine promptly.
They no doubt, if statements are true should be behind bolts and bars for years to come. They are no better than the smoothest of forgers or counterfeiters, but in this sentimental age will they be properly punished? Doubtful!

It may be very entrancing and doubtless is, to listen to an eloquent oration such as Voorhees delivered last week in Congress on the silver question, but it may be well asked what does it all amount to? It is work and not wind that the people want. There has been an immense amount of speaking at the present session, and we might add at great expense to the people, but little looking to a settlement of the financial question is yet in view. It would perhaps have been fully as well if all speeches had been limited to five minutes and a vote taken several days ago.
If Congress is going to do anything looking to the relief of the people the time is here right now for it to do so.
The public has had a surfeit of speeches.

MANY of the fanatical G. A. R. posts of the state, who did not get the State Soldiers' and Sailors' monument constructed just to their liking are aiming to let the public see an exhibition of their wrath by not marching around it at Decoration Day on Tuesday next. We could expect children often to be fools, but it looks odd in persons of mature years to give evidence of being such. The monument however, will remain standing spite of all this as an evidence of the esteem in which those are held who patriotically shouldered arms and bore the burden of battle, regardless of what period in our history it occurred.

CONGRESSMAN HOLMAN has been relieved from the position of chairman of the Appropriation Committee in Congress. He held the position for many years and well deserves the thanks of the country for his watchfulness in preventing much extravagance and waste of the public money. His enemies termed him the "cheese paring" statesman, but the government is in need all the time of more "cheese pariers," men who will prevent raids on the treasury and crush the schemes of the thieves and looters who are constantly scheming to steal under the form of law from the tax payers. A "cheese parer" is 1000 per cent. better than a statesman who is a thief.

ANOTHER one of those disgusting exhibitions known as a prize fight is booked for Roby. Since the Governor is unable to crush such affairs some one could immortalize himself by selecting a company of 50 men armed with Winchesters, and run the entire gang of thugs and scoundrels into the lake.
Roby has downed several men and the Governor seems to be one of them. His actions in this Roby business has laid him out permanently, and no one by that name from Indiana can hope to be the next U. S. Senator.

FIFTY-TWO YEARS OLD.

THE CRAWFORDSVILLE REVIEW completed the 52d year of its existence last week and with this issue enters the 53d.
We take occasion to say that THE RE-VIEW is in good shape, is able to pay all bills, has no mortgage attachments, and will continue to be published as a democratic newspaper at the old stand.

THERE are thousands of mechanics without work in Chicago, and they with their families have been on the point of starvation. The McKinley law in all its glory is in full operation in this country and the prosperous times that would immediately follow it, as promised by republican politicians, have failed to materialize.

WASHINGTON intelligence is to the effect that the committee on Ways and Means will take prompt action on the tariff question. That's just what the majority of voters at the last national election hopes and expects it to do.
Tariff reform must mean reform with a big R.

THE House of Representatives by a large majority voted this week in favor of a repeal of the Sherman act. The Senate is next to tackle it, then additional red tape, then more tomfoolery and sometime the thing may be determined for what reason Congress assembled.

THE present session of Congress seems to be simply a place for airing rhetoric.
In the knowledge of what is best to do on the silver question the members seem to know no more than their constituents.

The democracy of Iowa have renominated Boies for Governor for the third time. Third term nominations are generally fatal to the candidates accepting them, and we believe, in spite of his good running qualities Boies would have done the correct thing by declining it.

COUNTY fairs in many counties are playing out and no more such exhibitions will be given. There is too much of a sameness attending most of them, and the managers can discover nothing new to interest the people.

McKINLEY and Neal, opposing candidates for Governor of Ohio, open the campaign in a few days, and it promises to be intensely exciting and interesting.

MONTGOMERY county fair week after next. Give the home institution your patronage, as it is for your benefit.

$100 Reward $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send

AN ATTRACTIVE CHILD.

THE UNFORTUNATE OC- CURENCE OF HER LIFE.

And How It Came near Making Her Existence unhappy.

Her Mother Tells a Story Which Will Greatly Interest All.

Stories of children are always interesting. Parents often vie with each other in seeing which can tell the best story or most interesting anecdote about their children.

But here is a story told by one mother which, while it may awake echoes of sadness in the minds and hearts of some parents, will be to others a message fraught with hope and joy.

The child whose short history of mingled sorrow and gladness is here given is the daughter of the well-known Mrs. J.
Learnmonth, who resides at 776 Broadway South Boston, Mass.

"At ten years of age," said Mrs. Lear-month, my daughter became affected with a nervous condition which soon developed into St. Vitus' dance. It was pronounced by the attending physician to be a very severe attack.

The mouth would be drawn spasmodically far to one side, the hands and arms were restless and constantly twitching.
Her limbs also were weak; her ankles bent under her so that it was almost impossible to walk.

CORA LEARNMONTH.

She was so nervous that she would scream almost like a maniac and then have fits of crying. After two months' treatment without a cure I concluded to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

Three bottlefuls entirely cured her.
She is now thirteen years old and has been well ever since and to-day is a picture of health.

Children are prone to have weak nerves and delicate health. Neglect of a nervous condition, a pale look, a disordered digestion or a general lack of health and vigor in a child may result in fits, St. Vitus' dance, or some other serious nervous disease.

Give your infants and children this glorious children's remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in the beginning of the disease—when you see them nervous, restless, wakeful, pale, spiritless, without appetite, or with appetite irregular and bowels constipated.
It will make their nerves strong, their blood pure, their sleep sound, natural and refreshing. In fact it will make them well and strong.

It is purely vegetable and harmless and all druggists sell it for $1.00. It is the discovery and prescription of a physician, Dr. Greene of 35 W. 14th St., New York, well known as the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.
