—The Latest Thing Out.

In order to introduce The Canadian Agriculturalist into new homes, the publishers have decided to present an unusually attractive reward list for their great eighth half yearly literary attractions for the summer of 1893, which closes Oct. 1. They have entered into a written agreement to pay through the judges all the rewards offered below.

How to secure a reward—Those who become subscribers can complete free of charge. All that is necessary is to take a few sheets of paper and make all the words you can out of the letters in the three words, "World's Columbian Exposition," and send them to us, enclosing $1 for six months subscription to either The Canadian Agriculturalist or Ladies' Home Magazine, two of the choicest illustrated periodicals of the day.

The sender of the largest list will receive $3 per week for life; 2nd, $1,000 in gold; 3rd, $500; 4th, $250; 5th, $100; 6th, "Ticket to World's Fair and ten days expenses, plane, organ, ladies and gents' gold and silver watches, silver tea services, diamond flags, and over 10,000 other rewards, making altogether the most valuable prize list offered by any publisher. Send for printed list of former prize winners.

RULES—1. Foreign or absolute words not counted. 2. Letters cannot be used often than they appear in the words. "World's Columbian Exposition"—that is, the word "ridiculous" for instance, could not be used, because there is but one "d" in the three words, etc. 3. Names of persons and places barred. 4. No charge for packing or shipping, but prize winners will be expected to help us to extend our circulation. 5. All lists containing over 100 correct words will receive a special reward.

JUDGES—The following well-known gentlemen have consented to act as judges and will see that the prizes are fairly awarded.—Commodore Calcutt, (Proprietor) Calcutt's Line of Steamships, Peterborough; and Mr. W. Robertson, President Times Printing Company, Peterborough.

AGENTS—We pay $1 to each per day salary (no commission) to men, women, boys and girls. Write for particulars. Register all money letters. Address: AGRICULTURIST PUB. CO., [LTD.] Peterborough, Canada.

Treasurer Hutton's New Bond.

John C. Hutton begins his second term as Treasurer of Montgomery County today, and filed a new bond for $350,000, which had been accepted by the county commissioners, with County Clerk Sparks this week. Mr. Hutton is one of the best officials in the county has ever had in that responsible capacity. He discharged his duties during the first term in an admirable and business like manner hence the securing of a second bond was an easy matter, most of it being made up of volunteers. Here it is, who can beat it? J. C. Hutton, Jos. S. Henry, James Hutchison, Samuel W. Kel, Alex. Harper, A. T. Thompson, E. C. Griffith, H. D. Service, Jere Harlow, Benton Snyder, Jacob W. Hutton, J. H. Service, B. M. Galey, J. Y. Durham, G. W. Bratton, A. J. Wolfe, J. W. Foster, A. W. Heron, Thomas F. McDaniel, J. W. Todd, J. C. Todd, John Harpel, Benj. Ball, W. H. Durham, F. M. Dice, L. C. Elson, G. S. Darham, J. P. Bible, E. F. Goff, Dan Curtis, J. G. Swearingen, Benj. Swank, Albert Cern, Asa W. Corn, E. F. Hall, G. W. Bowers, J. H. Smith, James Ball, J. P. Biddle, Jas. Wilkinson, Isaiah Hunter, Jas. P. Gray, Henry A. Foster, James T. Fisher, Israel Wilkenson, L. D. Coyner.

Wagner Captured.

A special to the Journal from Waynetown on Wednesday says that Wils Wagner, the brute who attempted to commit a rape on little Maggie Parker last week, was caught at Danville, Ill., on Monday and was brought to Covington Tuesday where a preliminary trial was held, which resulted in the court binding him over under the sum of $1,000, which he was unable to give, and now he languishes in the county jail. If the jury does its whole duty when the final trial comes off and sends him to Michigan City for about five years he will not need the Keeley treatment which he was so anxious to take when here last week.

Mrs. Spingler's Troubles.

Emma Spingler will air her marital woes in court by bringing suit for a divorce against Henry Spingler. Emma states in her complaint that Henry is certainly the most trifling specimen of his sex. She says that he has never provided for her, but that he spent his time in cursing and beating her, that at one time he cut an ugly gash in her forehead with a cup. This was mighty mean in Henry and the judge should give him 99 years on some deserted island where no other woman will run the risk of ever being caught by his wiley ways and suave manners.

The Collectorship Ara n

A Washington correspondent to the Indianapolis News says: "There may be a departure in the case of Joshua Jump, of the Terre Haute district, who is the choice of Senator Voorhees and the other big wigs of Indiana politics. Congressman Brookshire has been making a strong personal fight for W. F. Hulett, of Crawfordsville, and has predicted the latter's appointment. He has the backing of several of the original Cleveland men of Indiana, who believe that the appointment of Jump means a war against Brookshire for re-nomination. Even if Hulett is not appointed the fight may become so warm against Jump that some compromise candidate like Treasurer Conzmann, of Vigo county, may be selected."

Bell's Troubles.

Mr. Bell of Round Hill was intent on gore. He was in his imagination going "to fill some one's hide full of holes." With this idea distinctly formed in his mind he came to town on Tuesday and going to Mahorney's store purchased a revolver. He at once hurried to the street, brandished the weapon and might have hurt himself or some one else had not some "cop" appeared and relieved him of the weapon. Mr. Bell should go west and exterminate Indians or join Buffalo Bill's show.

"Chucky" Fell's Downfall.

"Chucky" Fell, he of the Auburn locks and speckled complexion, had a merry time of it Tuesday night. He at first got roaring drunk up town and then went home and proceeded to break up housekeeping. He began by kicking his wife out into the frosty air and then went after the furniture and dishes in his usual happy style. He was right in the midst of the wreckage when Officer Gill arrived on the scene and ran him in. It was great fun while it lasted but "O, what a difference in the morning."
