that some houses always seem to need repainting; they look dingy, rusted, faded. Others always look bright, clean, fresh. The owner of the first "economizes" with "cheap" mixed paints, etc.; the second paints with

I have never seen anything act so promptly as Pheno-Caffein in sick and nervous Headache.

Many cases have been cured, and not any failures reported. H. L. Farrer, Belle Vue, N. C.

For years I have been a terrible sufferer from headache; some six months ago, my physician prescribed Pheno-Caffein, and since then, by their use, I have not had a severe headache, being able to stop them completely in their incu-ency. J. H. Stannard, Concord, N. H.

You hit the nail on the head when you put Pheno-Caffein on the market. They are the best thing out for headache. E. P. Jones, M. D.,

Orleans, Mass.

One year ago I was one of the greatest sufferers from sick and nervous headache that I ever knew. I no more have trouble with sick headache, and seldom have even a slight headache. I attribute the great change to your Pheno-Caffein, a remedy I could not do without. If it cost

$5 a box, I have tried a dozen or more medicines (warranted to cure) without their even helping me. I can't praise your valuable preparation enough. Frank S. Schmitt, Seymour, Ind.

Here is a Snap for Brainy People

—The Latest Thing Out.

In order to introduce The Canadian Agriculturist into New homes, the publishers have decided to present an unusual and attractive reward list for their great eighth year literary attribution for the summer of 1903, which closes

Oct. 1. They have entered into a written agreement to pay through the judges all the rewards offered below.

HOW TO SECURE A REWARD—Those who become subscribers can compete for free of charge.

All that is necessary is to take a few sheets of paper and make all the words you can out of the letters in the three words, "World's Columbian Exposition," and send them to us, enclosing $1 for six months subscription to either, The Canadian Agriculturist or Ladies' Home

Magazine, two of the choicest illustrated portraits of the day.

The sender of the largest list will receive $5 per week for life; 2nd, $1,000 in gold; 3rd, $500 and ten days' expenses; pianos, organs, ladies' and gents' gold and silver watches, silver tea services; diamond rings, and over 10,000 other rewards, making altogether the most valuable prize list offered by any publisher. Send for printed list of former prize winners.

RULES—1. Foreign or absolute words not counted. Letters cannot be used oftener than they appear in the words "World's Columbian Exposition"—that is, the word "ridiculous," for instance, could not be used, because there is but one "d" in the three words. 2. Names of persons and places barred. 3. No charge for packing or shipping, but all prize winners will be expected to come to town and receive their prize. 4. All lists containing over 100 correct words

"Lost In New York."

"Lost In New York." Melodrama is a drawing card at the People's. As an evidence of this it may be mentioned that the curtain went up to a packed house last night, after a most stirring melodrama had played a week's engagement at the theatre. "Lost In New York" was put on for the first time, and made a great hit. The scenery used in the production is the finest that has ever been used in this house, and wonderfully realistic. The most striking of the mechanical effects was the introduction of a naphtha yacht and row boat.

A vast body of water was run upon the stage, and a genuine yacht appeared steam up. The heroine of the piece went flying down the east river in a row boat, with the little steamer after her. The scene was very impressive, and is an apt illustration of the advanced methods used in theatrical productions in this progressive age. The tank containing the water upon which the boats ply is 75x35 feet, four feet in depth, and contains 60,000 gallons of water. The Park Scene was handsomely set. New songs, dances and specialties this season.—Toledo Blade.
