COD
LIVER
OIL,
MALT,
Hypophosphites!

That is the splendid combination known to physicians in hospital and private practice as Magee's Emulsion.
Life is life.
Cod Liver Oil is fuel.
Emulsion is the mechanical separation of the fat, that it may be the better fed the fire.

Magee's Emulsion
is called by physicians "the finest made;" it deserves the high praise.
Nothing can excel it; doubtful if any equal it.
It will not grow rancid and nauseate you; it will remain sweet to the last drop.
The distinctive combination with Hypophosphites and Malt gives new life and strength to the delicate.
Supply more fuel than is consumed, and the fire is kept burning.
Magee's Emulsion will do that for you.
Try it, and tell the story of your recovery that others may know its marvelous power in restoring vitality and strength.

NUMEROUS CRANKS.
The killing of Mayor Carter Harrison. of Chicago, has directed attention to the vast number of cranks to be found all over the country, some very dangerous, others not, and what to do with them naturally arises in the mind. A crank killed Lincoln, another one Garfield and now Carter Harrison has met the same fate at the hand of as dangerous a human being. The cranks that killed Lincoln and Garfield met the death meted out generally to mad dogs or other dangerous animals, and it would seem fit that the dangerous cranks that are seeking the lives of people should follow the same course.
To save the lives of persons who may be inoculated by an animal having the hydrophobia, the plan is to kill the animal to prevent further danger. Why not serve cranks exhibiting dangerous syntoms the same way? It looks like the most feasible plan to be pursued.
If, however, all cranks were served this way the population might be much reduced. Experts in the business of mental observation assert that a majority of the adults in every community are cranks in some one particular. There are cranks on religious matters, cranks in political matters, cranks on the subject of making money, on farming, and in scores of other matters in which they have had an interest; in fact to find a level-headed man in all particulars, one who is neither fool nor fanatic in anything is to find something exceedingly rare, a diamond in fact in the mental world. It would hardly do to attempt to extinguish all cranks. Our cousins, sisters and aunts, would all leave this world soon if such a decree were enforced. The only plan seems to be that when a human being exhibits symptoms of danger to the community he be immediately corralled and kept confined until death relieves him or his mental caliber is restored to its normal condition. The murderer of Harrison will eventually, probably, be treated that way. He was not mentally responsible for his act.

ABOLISHING THE SHERMAN ACT.
It may be that Congress in voting to do away with the Sherman act has done the correct thing, and again it may not.
There are too many in this country who know all about the money question and the needs of the country, that really don't know anything about it. There are entirely too many of these monkey financiers. What this country has really needed more than statesmen and scheming politicians, are good financiers.
In abolishing the Sherman act we fear the vote of too many Congressmen has been recorded solely through self interest. The way they voted was of interest to them whether it was to the country or not. There were prospects ahead of prosperity to them if not to their constituents. The east has already too long dictated the financial policy of each administration and it has in this. Wall street has had too much of a hand in the matter, and it is in the west its activity carries with it an air of suspicion.
Allow that the Stewarts, the Jones, and the western silverites have acted from selfish motives, what is to be said of those eastern senators who follow up Wall street's wishes so closely? It is hoped, in accordance with the prophecies of many persons, now that there is no more Sherman law that business may brighten up and the close stringent times melt away, yet we are not so certain of this. Any how we can all hope for an improved condition of business.

The President has designated Thursday, Nov. 30th, as a day for thankgiving and it is asked that business be suspended on that date. One big thing to be thankful for is that Congress has adjourned before its members made any greater asses of themselves than they did.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRES- IDENT.

WASHINGTON, November 4.—The President has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:
By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.
While the American people should every day remember with praise and thanksgiving the divine goodness and mercy which have followed them since their beginning as a nation, it is fitting that one day in each year should be especially devoted to the contemplation of the blessings we have received from the hand of God, and to the grateful ac-knowledgegment of His loving kindness.
Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to be kept and observed by all the people of our land. On that day let us forego our ordinary work and employments and assemble in our usual places of worship, where we may recall all that God has done for us, and where from grateful hearts our united tribute of praise and song may reach the throne of grace. Let the reunion of kindred and the social meeting of friends lend cheer and enjoyment to the duty, and let generous gifts of charity for the relief of the poor and needy prove the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

GROVER CLEVELAND.
By the President:
WALTER Q. GRESHAM, Sec'y of State.

A NEW TARIFF LAW.

When Congress convenes in December next the first bill of importance probably will be one changing to a great extent the present tariff law or what has been termed the McKinley law. The democratic platform adopted at Chicago and on which the party gained such a grand victory in 1892 especially pledges the people in so many words that a tariff law should be enacted and would be which would greatly relieve the burdens of the people, which should be in their interest and not as now, solely for the purpose of adding to the wealth of manufacturers. This Congress should see that this is done.
It has the power to do it. We have the Senate, the House and the administration. Now let a tariff law be passed in conformity to the will of the people. Of course republican Congressmen will throw every obstacle in the way, but are powerless if the democratic members do their duty. The matter of tariff reform began as a discussion under Cleveland's first administration and its needs fully set in a message at the time from him. Let us have it and have it soon.
Do away with the uncertainty and doubt. If tariff reform is demanded as we believe the sooner it is brought about the better.

SORREN ORDINANCE UNCONSTITU- TIONAL.

The various screen ordinances which have been passed in different cities throughout Indiana, have been a bankrupting business to saloons wherever passed. The republican city council of Indianapolis had one of these ordinances in a state of incubation which now will never be hatched. The screen ordinance movement upon the part of the republican city councils throughout the State is only one form of prohibition.
The court in its decision claimed that the saloon business was a legitimate business, and was not burdened by the State in way of license, etc., on account of its business, but from the evils arising therefrom, and that the screens of a saloon did not lessen the crime of the traffic laws, therefore was unconstitutional.
That a saloon had as good a right to put up a screen as it had to put up a shutter on a stormy day.

HON. JAS. A. MOUNT has written a letter to the Argus News favoring the establishment of a canning factory in this city. There certainly could not be no more beneficial industry established here than this "Truck farming," as it is termed, and pays big in the hands of skilled operators. A canning factory would consume all the tomatoes, sugar corn, peas, etc., that could be raised, besides bringing in vast amounts of money from other cities for their purchase. It would likewise give employment to many persons. By all means if any one has any notion of establishing a canning factory in Crawfordsville let him be encouraged.

The receiver of the Indianapolis National Bank, which went up the flume some three months ago has determined that the stockholders of the concern shall pay in cash the full amount for the stock held by them. Gen. Lew Wallace, of this city, will be compelled to pay $7,200, and R. B. F. Pierce, formerly of this city, $20,000, each having owned stock to that amount. In the meantime it might be asked where and what kind of a receiver was it of the bank who failed to discover the rotten condition of it long ago. It would be justice to compel the examiner and his bondsmen help make up the losses if such a thing could be legally done.

It should be remembered that the Sherman law, as it was termed, relating to the purchase of silver by the government, and which experienced financiers say is the cause of our present troubles in business and the main reason for the financial stringency now prevailing, is a republican measure, a "make-shift" created by republican politicians solely.
Let the blame be placed where it properly belongs.

TRUSTEES WILL JOINT SUPER- VISOR.

On March 4, 1893, the Legislature repealed the section of the road law providing for the election of road supervisors and vested that section solely in the township trustees. There was an emergency clause in the bill which virtually vacated all the offices at the time of its passage, to the majority of the trustees have perished and the supervisors to serve out for which they were elected, but it will be necessary in all cases to fill the offices by appointment next spring.

DEPUTY POST MASTER.

Mr. W. E. Henkle, for many years an employee and business manager of THE REVIEW, resigned his position on Saturday last and this week assumes a position as a deputy under Post Master Voriss. We part with him with regret.
If integrity, business capacity and affable treatment count for anything we unhesitatingly accord Mr. Henkle the full possession of all these, and sincerely believe that in his new position he will give the same satisfaction to his principal and the public that he has to THE REVIEW.

CASH TELLS.

The acquittal of Brown, the Lebanon business man who killed Wesner at Danville last may. will be received by the public with various degrees of approval and disapproval. The evidence for his conviction seemed fully as strong as for his acquittal to the non-interested reader. One thing is clearly demonstrated in this trial as in many others similar, and it is that the man with a well developed pocket book and good bank account stands a much better show for acquittal of a crime than a pauper who might commit the same act.

It is somewhat remarkable why the proposed sale, or even consumable sale of any newspaper, property will always cause more discussion and gossip than the sale of any other property. Yet it always does. A hotel may sell out, or a large dry goods house change hands, and little is said or talked about it. It is different about a newspaper, and although it may not have a third of the value of some other business its proposed sale causes ten times the gossip.
Why is this the case?

THE ENVY OF KINGS.

THE PRINCESS OF THE EARTH
MAY ENVY THE POOR.

RICHES AND POWER CANNOT MAKE LIFE PHEASANT OR HAPPY.

The True Way to Find Happiness for Those Who Have it Not.

Wealth does not make happiness. It does not make even comfort.
Sickness blights everything.
Kings and princes may envy the poor the blessing of good health.

If you are in pain or suffering you cannot be happy.

This is why the remarks of the well-known Harriet Robinson, of 74 Snell St., Fall River, Mass., have so much weight and are worthy of all attention.
"I firmly believe," she said, "that I should not be living today if it had not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Such awful pains in my head and back, and my stomach, oh, it was so bad! I now am well and eat naturally. I have no pains or distress. Thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervura I am well again. It was over two years ago that I was cured, and no trace of the disease has returned."

HARRIET ROBINSON.

Another widely known lady, Mrs. N.
Blatt, of 73 Mulberry Street, Newark, N.
J., speaking in the same vein, says: "I have been suffering with pain in the back and head. I tried doctors, but found no relief. I was recommended to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I now sleep soundly and have no pain, and am well, thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

If you are a sufferer from disease it is plainly your own fault if you do not get cured. This wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will certainly cure you. It is purely vegetable and harmless.

It is constantly prescribed and recommended by doctors. It is the discovery of a physician, Dr. Greene of 35 West 14th St., New York, the famous and successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.
