They are effective in relieving Pain, and in curing Headache or Neuralgia. They are not a narcotic, and contain nothing that supplies. They tone up the nerves, and tend to prevent returns of Headache and Neuralgia. They are guaranteed to do all that is claimed for them.

TESTIMONIALS

I have never seen anything act so promptly as Phenyo-Caffein in sick and nervous Headache. Many cases have been cured, and not any failure reported. H. L. Farrer, Belle Voir, N. C.

For years I have been a terrible sufferer from headache, some six months ago, my physician prescribed Phenyo-Caffein, and since then, by their use, I have not had a severe headache, but have been able to stop even a slight headache. J. H. Stannard, Concord, N. H.

You hit the nail on the head when you put Phenyo-Caffein on the market. They are the best thing out for headache. E. P. Jones, M. D., Orleans, Mass.

One year ago I was one of the greatest sufferers from sick and nervous headache that I ever knew. I no more have trouble with sick headache, and seldom have even a slight headache. I attribute the great change to your Phenyo-Caffein, a remedy I could not do without. It cost $1 a box. I have tried a dozen or more remedies (warranted to cure) without their even helping me. I can not praise your valuable preparation enough. Frank S. Schmitt, Seymour, Ind.

On account of some irregularities in the instructions to the jury W. P. Britton, who acted as special judge in the $10,000 damage suit of the Wm. Hutchings heirs against the county, has granted the defense a new trial. One member of the board of county commissioners was in favor of appealing the case to the Supreme court, but on account of irregularities mentioned it was deemed best to have a re-hearing, and the case has been set for the March term of the circuit court. The last jury awarded the Hutchings heirs $1,000 damages on a compromise verdict and the county may fare better in the forthcoming suit.

WORK OF SLAVERS

WHOLE TOWNS WIPED OUT IN AFRICA.

Horrible Details Given by a British Officer—Hundreds of Slaves Liberated—United States Represented at a Sanitary Conference.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A correspondent describing the march of the expedition under Col. Ellis against the Sofas in Sierra Leone and the engagement between the French and British troops near Warina gives the details of the horrifying Sofa slave raids.

In some cases entire towns have been wiped out and their inhabitants butchered and scattered. The once thriving town of Tekiviana, which a few months ago had 3,000 inhabitants, is now a scene of desolation. All the houses are in ashes and the headless and mutilated trunks of men, women and children are lying heaped amid the ruins. Col. Ellis liberated hundreds of slaves.

Cheer the Kaiser. WILHELMSHAVEN, Feb. 21.—Emperor William and Prince Henry of Prussia arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning and drove to the drill ground in order to administer the oath of allegiance to the naval recruits. The streets were decorated with flags and the route from the railroad station to the drill ground was lined with marines, who loudly cheered the emperor and the imperial party.

The Sanitary Conference. PARIS, Feb. 21.—It has been a matter of surprise that the United States government has cared to be represented at the present sanitary conference, the purposes of which are to preserve Europe from cholera. The delegates of the government have been instructed to raise the question of emigration between Europe and the United States. This will be impossible, however, as such a question must be discussed apart.

Defeat For Peixoto. BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 21.—A battle has been fought at Itapeva, 160 miles west of the City of Sao Paulo, between the insurgents and government forces. Peixoto's troops were defeated. Admiral Mello, who is on the insurgent warship Republica, intends to bombard the City of Santos as soon as the insurgent land forces under General Saraiva arrive from Sao Paulo.

IT NETTLES BRITONS.

BENHAM'S ACTION IN BRAZILIAN WATERS CRITICISED.

Papers Describe His Action in Protecting English Commerce as Unwarranted Assumption—Money Cheap in England—Big Mercantile Firm Falls.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The story cabled to the press here by a news agency saying that the commander of the British squadron at Rio de Janeiro has refused to protect British merchant vessels in obtaining water is generally discredited but has aroused considerable feeling on the subject. The Globe, referring to the subject, remarks:

"If the news is true, it is the duty of England to demand an immediate apology for Admiral Benham's extraordinary conduct. His action in giving protection to the Nasmyth was an unwarranted interference. Admiral Benham, no doubt, is at perfect liberty to bully the Brazilians as he pleases or as his superior officers permit. But when it comes to offering an injurious insult to the British navy it is quite a different matter. His whole action in regard to the blockade would be described as a 'bluster' in this country."

The St. James Gazette says it is intensely irritating to be informed that a British ship had to seek the protection of Americans, adding:

"Surely Lord Rosebery does not acquiesce in the so-called 'Monroe doctrine' that the sole right to interfere belongs to the United States. We hope the action will not be allowed to pass without process."

Police Prevent a Demonstration. LONDON, Feb. 24.—The undertaker's establishment on Chapel street, where the remains of Bourdin, the anarchist who was fatally injured by his own bomb Feb. 15, was surrounded with crowds of excited spectators, including many anarchists, from the earliest morning hours. But there was a strong force of police and detectives in and about Chapel street, and when the anarchists attempted to remove the body to one of their meeting places in Fitzroy square, where they intended that their leaders should deliver orations over the remains, the police interfered and forbade the carrying out of this program.

House of Lords Backs Down. LONDON, Feb. 24.—The house of lords adopted by a vote of 59 to 56 Lord Salisbury's new amendment enabling parishes of between 200 and 500 inhabitants to forego the parish councils. The proportion of elected trustees in parish charities raised the main discussion of the evening. Lord Salisbury moved to restrict the proportion to one-third and his motion was adopted by a vote of 72 to 33, the liberal unionists supporting the government minority.

Author of Another Outrage. PARIS, Feb. 24.—Henry, the anarchist, has confessed that he was the author of the explosion which took place in the Rue des Bons Enfants in November, 1892.

Cologne, Feb. 24.—A glass tube containing liquid and half-brim wool, surrounded by pieces of iron and tin, bullets and gunpowder, all being wrapped in a piece of paper, has been found in the court of justice. The contents are being analyzed.

TO BURN AND SACK A TOWN. Four Dangerous Men Placed in Jail at Gadsden, Ala.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 24.—Will Smith, Ben Oakes, Jack Holcomb and Frank Cassels were prevented from burning and looting the town of Gadsden last night by being arrested and placed in jail. Their plot was to cut off the water supply, set fire to several stores, simultaneously, and, taking advantage of the confusion, make a general sack of the city. The arrested men are leaders of a notorious gang which has terrorized Etowah county for several years. A female confederate disclosed their plot and aided in their capture.

Coal Miners to Hold a Convention. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 24.—The bituminous coal miners of Indiana will hold a delegate convention here next Wednesday. The probability is that a committee will be appointed to confer with the operators and a hitch will come in trying to have the latter agree to some proposition by which the acceptance of the lower rate at present shall not affect the issue regarding next year's scale.

ANOTHER BIG FIRE.

INCENDIARIES STILL THREATEN THE FAIR

East Wing of the Illinois State Building in the World's Fair Grounds Wholly Destroyed—Narrow Escape of Firemen.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Fire partly destroyed the Illinois State building at Jackson park yesterday afternoon. As there has been no fire in or around the building for months the only conclusion the firemen could reach was that the fire, like the others at the Fair grounds recently, was started by incendiaries. Wreckers have been at work tearing down the building for some time. All the flooring had been removed, and in fact there was little if anything left standing but the staff-negated shell. The loss, therefore, was nominal. Four thousand dollars' worth of lumber was destroyed, but the loss will not fall on the South park commissioners. Sloan & Co. recently purchased the structure for $1,650.

The fire was discovered by a park policeman and an arm was turned in at 2:50 p. m. The blaze started in the southeast corner of the building and was confined to the east end, which was destroyed. A brisk southeast wind was blowing and the whole building was threatened. The east end was blazing briskly, and the flames were sweeping rapidly along the remnants of the roof toward the center, but the work of the firemen proved effective. In a few minutes after the engines got to work the fire was under control, and by 3:30 o'clock there were only smoldering embers left. The fire was drowned out. Experience has taught the firemen how to fight a World's Fair blaze. Axes were brought into play, holes were cut through the staff shell in advance of the flames and a stream directed through the opening made short work of it.

Four of the firemen barely escaped death when the fire was at its height. Lient. Drew, with Firemen James Gallagher, John Nolan and Linne-barger of Company 71, had taken a lead of hose up on the roof as near as they could get to the flames. The frail structure was already tottering. Marshal O'Malley saw their danger and shouted to them to come down. They ran for their lives toward a stairway. Just as they got out of harm's way the whole east end of the building, including the part where they had been working, fell in with a crash. The crowd that had been watching the four men in suspense sent up a cheer when it saw they had escaped.

UNEMPLOYED AT LINCOLN. Court-Room Crowded with Men Who Demand Work of the City.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 19.—The courtroom was crowded to suffocation last night by the unemployed workmen of this city, who met to devise ways and means to bring an end to the long period of enforced idleness. The discussion assumed a wide range, but no definite plan was adopted. A large number of resolutions were adopted, demanding that work be furnished them. The meeting also adopted a resolution declaring that workmen should be paid full wages and that eight hours should constitute a full day's work.

BRUTAL MURDER AVENGED. Negro Slayer of an Alabama Woman Is Riddled with Bullets.

SELMA, Ala., Feb. 19.—Stanton, Chilton county, is in a state of great excitement over the murder of Mrs. Jessie Rucker and its avenging, the dead body of a negro being found riddled with bullets lying near the scene of the dastardly crime, while another negro is under arrest. The place where Mrs. Rucker was murdered is a lonely settlement and the unfortunate woman being dead, there is no way of getting at the details of the horrible crime.

Temporarily Accept a Cut. WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The plate mill men of the Riverside iron works held a meeting last night to take some action on the proposed cut in wages which will average about 15 per cent. The cut will affect about 300 men. It was decided to work at the reduction until March 10, and in the meantime to perfect an organization of all the employees of the works.

Wellsburg, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The Forbes, Carmichael & Co.'s coal mines at this place will attempt to resume operations to-day with non-union men, after being idle for several weeks.

Big Reward for the Apache Kid. Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 19.—Advices from Bunker Hill, where the Apache Kid made his recent flight, state that Apache scouts who examined the dead squaw found there, say she was Kid's wife. The squaw had on a ring with six marks, which the Apaches say represent six murders. These added to eleven others which the Kid and his followers have killed during the last two years in Arizona, indicate the ravages of the renegade. Gov. Hughes has issued a reward of $5,000 for Kid dead or alive.

Wreck on the Pennsylvania. HUNTINGTON, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Atlantic express on the Pennsylvania railroad, while running at a high rate of speed, ran into a freight train this morning, demolishing three engines and a number of loaded cars. The passengers on the Atlantic express were badly shaken up, but no one was seriously hurt.

PHOSPHITES!

That is the splendid combination known to physicians in hospital and private practice as Magee's Emulsion.

It is fire. Cod Liver Oil is fuel. Emulsion is the mechanical separation of the fat, that it may the better feed the fire.

Magee's Emulsion

is called by physicians "the finest made" and deserves the high praise.

Nothing can excel it; doubtful if any equal it.

It will not grow rancid and nauseate you; it will remain sweet to the last drop.

The distinctive combination with Hypophosphites and Malt gives new life and strength to the delicate.

Supply more fuel than is consumed, and the fire is kept burning.

Magee's Emulsion will do that for you. Try it, and tell the story of your recovery in restoring vitality and strength.
