The finest cabinets at Lawson's. KIRKPATRICK.

Mart Rakestraw is ditching here.

Our school is giving satisfaction. Mr. Sheetz having done his duty as teacher here.

John Bennett of Linden, was a caller here last Thursday. He visited the temperance meeting here.

Forty dogs were seen on our streets one day last week not counting the two-legged puppies and poodles.

The darkey settlement north of here is quite numerous and more are coming. They hail from old Kentucky.

The man who leaves whips and switches at doorsteps is only jealous of his girl. All know that here.

The forth coming history of "Kirkpatrick after dark," to be published in The Review will interest your subscribers. It will be written by a boy that knows. Look out.

John Vyse, the Linden saloonist, was mistaken for once as to the great American Jurors. He supposed he would get justice, but did he? The higher court sayeth nah, verily!

Chas. McBee, of Linden, is quite sick and his friends are quite uneasy as to the outcome. Mr. McBee has a host of friends in and around Kirkpatrick who are sorry to learn of his ill health.

The grand monk of the good templars called here a few nights ago and took from our over-flushed-with-money citizens some fifteen dollars. That's right. Let your sugar, coffee and meat bills go, but give these paper collared gents your last penny.

Wm. Campbell has built a nice store room at Romney near the depot. He will now sell groceries and all kind of goods below all competition, as his experience as a merchant and his goods delivered right at his door. Look for prices never heard of before in Romney.

One of our young dudes was seen walking down the railroad track a few days ago with his best girl at 16. An older person of course would not do such a thing, was seen to kiss her six times between the station and Nicholson's crossing. The snacks were loud enough to be heard by Mr. Nicholson near a quarter of a mile distant.

John Ford will work for Mr. Barnett at $10 per month the coming summer. John Peterson will work for Wm. Campbell at $20 per month. Tat Barnes will work for Milton Norman, at 25 per month. Did any one say labor was cheap? No hands have yet hired for less than $18 dollars per month.

The Clover Leaf R. R. is going down hill as fast as her flying express is. They pay 99 cents per day to their hands. Now the talk is that nearly half of the trains will be taken off. If the stock holders would remove some half a hundred useless officers and dudes from the road it might do something. To many idle red taped gents to support, we are led to believe.

The boys and young men engaged in a fierce snow ball encounter on our streets last Sunday. They came near having trouble before it was ended. Some one threw a ball and hit Charley Caves in the back and also hit his wife while she was passing. Mr. Caves jumped from his buggy and jerking up a rock using some very forcible language, but did not let go of the rock. The people who do not partake of the fun should be left alone, especially the ladies who are only passing the highway.

Wm. Jordan shipped a car load of fat hogs to Indianapolis last Wednesday.

Some say wheat looks well, others that it does not. So far we know nothing about it.

O. W. Stingley was in our village last Saturday. O. W. is one of our best farmers.

The young bloods are in high close over the Good Templars lodge that is to start here. You know they can see their girls now and their parents can't say no.

The signs of the times around Kirkpatrick is that some one or two are going to get their heads pined in the near future. See it we predict right or wrong.

A conundrum we would like solved by the bright ones, "Who is the best people of this vicinity, those who are church members, or those who are not?" The question is often debated here.

We are informed Mr. Wade, the great Temperance Apostle, will hold a series of meetings at this place in the near future. When he can burst a rock by his talking, he can do something here, otherwise not.

John Vyse, the man who tried a Linden jury, was made to rejoice a few days ago by his case wherein one McKorkle tried to down him, was thrown out of the circuit court. John said his faith was good before he had his trial. In trial by jury, but now he will make an exception as to the kind found around Linden. Mr. Vyse should know all is not gold that glitters, neither are those who flatter you.

Democrats are disgusted with their representatives in congress and senate. Was the election for president and congressman to come off this spring they would not get enough votes to elect a supervisor. A larger lot of dead beats never disgraced a party. The Peoples' Party if we mistake not is coming to the front with a double quick pace and the dissatisfied of both old parties say they will vote that ticket and let both of the old boogie parties go, as there is nothing to hope from either of them.

Three of our young men who think themselves men last Sunday evening met three young ladies at a certain house in our village and one who saw them, but who these greenies did not, saw them kissing each other in a very sickening and familiar manner. They each traded no less than a quart of spittle with each other. Your scribe would have watched the performance through, but getting deathly sick at the stomach he was compelled to withdraw and throw up his Sunday dinner. These sickening greenies should be made to pay for the beef and cabbage they compelled him to part with when times are so hard.
