DEMOCRATIC POSSIBILITIES.

The Men Talked of to Make up the City Ticket.

Next Tuesday night the democrats of the city will meet in mass convention and put a city ticket in the field. The names of some mighty good men have been mentioned in connection with the various offices, for which nominations are to be made. We will proceed to give them.

In the event that Capt. W. P. Herron concludes that his health will not admit of his entering the race for Mayor, the name of uncle Alex Harper will be placed at the head of a ticket that already smells of the smoke of victory.

Will Goltra is a young man with good qualities and capable of making a splendid race in whatever he undertakes. He will doubtless be nominated for Treasurer.

It now looks as if Big Bayless would have no opposition in the nomination for marshal and he will run like a scared dog. At this distance off, it looks like Big Bayless would be elected.

Newt Wray and Will Sidner are talked of for Clerk. Both are excellent young men.

In the first ward the names of four tried and true men are spoken of for councilman. They are Jas. P. Walter, who has served an acceptable term before, M. V. Smith, Robt. Davis and William McMakin. Either man mentioned stands a good chance of being elected.

Two members are to be elected in the second ward—one to succeed Smith and one to fill out the unexpired term of A. L. Tomlinson. E. C. Griffith will doubtless be nominated against Robinson. Eli Myers is favorably mentioned as the man to run against uncle William Vanarsdall.

The third ward has great possibilities for the democrats. The names of three staunch men are being talked in that ward. They are John A. Booe, James Watson and John L. Williams. One of these men ought to be elected.

In conclusion, we feel justified in saying that a ticket will be nominated next Tuesday night of such a character as to make the oncoming city election exceedingly interesting. The city has been carefully polled and the outlook is not at all discouraging. Work is the word from now until the election.

The Ward Burrows Case in the Supreme Court.

A brief has been filed in the Supreme Court by the attorney-general, says the Indianapolis Sentinel, in the case of Ward Burrows against the State.

Burrows was a student at Wabash college in Crawfordsville and was sent to the penitentiary last fall on a charge of grand larceny for the theft of a check from a fellow student. He and a young man named Piser, from New York, were intimate friends. Just before commencement last spring Piser sent home for money and his father, who is a wealthy man, sent him a check for $50. Becoming impatient at the delay in getting the check young Piser drew on his father for the amount and received the money from a Crawfordsville bank.

When the check finally came Burrows intercepted the letter containing it and went to Logansport, indorsed the name of young Piser upon the back of it and attempted to collect it at one of the Logansport banks. The bank would not pay it without some information as to the drawer of the check and Burrows telegraphed to the bank on which the check was drawn and signed young Piser's name. The New York bank wired the Logansport bank that the check was all right and Burrows received the money on it and went to Chicago and "blew it in." He was arrested and convicted of grand larceny.

The defense declares that a check is valuable until indorsed and the theft of it could not be termed grand larceny. They admit that the name of young Piser was forged, but claim that there was no larceny according to the statutes. This point has never been decided by the supreme court of this state, but in other states it has invariably been decided that a check is valuable property and the theft of it is larceny.

Violated His Parole.

Jasper Hill, who escaped from the Frankfort jail recently by disguising himself in the garb of a tramp, was captured on the train at Lebanon Monday morning by Deputy Sheriffs Baker and Gobin, of Clinton county. Hill was sentenced from Clinton county to a twelve-year term at Michigan City, and after serving three years he was paroled, but after a few days of liberty he was arrested on a charge of stealing a lawn mower. While awaiting the action of the court several tramps were placed in jail, and when they were released, Hill, who had exchanged clothes with one of the tramps, walked out with them.

To City and Township School Trustees.

Supt. Zuck has received a circular letter from a trustee of Marion county, which is not only of interest to city and township school trustees, but tax payers as well. The circular asks them each to make a contribution of $2 towards defraying the suit of the Attorney-General against trustees for refunding tuitions in excess of $100 as required by act of last legislature, also for the expense of a rehearing. The position held by the trustees is that a difference and distinction exists between the state's tuition and the local levy. This point was not sufficiently considered by the court, as the strass was laid on the constitutionality of the law and the Attorney-General's jurisdiction.

"We are positive," continues the circular, "that a reconsideration of the question will lead to a decision that will not deprive a town or township of the tuition made by local levy compelling them to turn it into the state's funds."
