

Going to Buy a Watch?

If so, buy one that cannot be stolen. The only thief-proof Watches are those with BOWS.

Here's the Idea: The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, holding the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

To be sure of getting a Non-pull-out, see that the case is stamped with this trade mark. It cannot be had with any other kind.

NINE SPIES ESCAPE.

GOVERNOR TILLMAN RECEIVES CHEERING NEWS.

All the Whisky "Spotters" at Darlington, S. C., Were Not Wiped Out—Troops On their Way—The Trouble Not Yet Over.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 2.—To use his own language, Gov. Tillman last night received "the best news yet." It was a dispatch to the effect that nine fugitive constables boarded a train at Lake City and within a few hours will have arrived safely in Charleston. They are: Chief Gaillard, Felder, Murphy, Livingston, Scott, McCants, Bryson, Gardner and Harting.

Twenty-three constables were in Darlington when the outbreak occurred. One of these was killed. Another was wounded and is in jail at Darlington. Five are in Columbia and seven are still unaccounted for. Their names are: Swan, Meekin, Brown, King, Holloway, Walker, and Gaillard. Gov. Tillman thinks the escape of the nine to Charleston will greatly relieve the tension. The governor says until the missing men are found the military force will not be withdrawn. The governor has ordered all the dispensaries in the several counties closed till the trouble is over.

A courier from the country near Timmonsville announces that two spies were found dead in the woods near that place at a late hour yesterday afternoon.

The seat of war has been removed from this city to Darlington. In the afternoon Gov. Tillman ordered a special train on the Atlantic Coast line, which left here at 5 o'clock for Darlington. The troops were assembled at the penitentiary and the special backed near the building, where they boarded it. There was a large crowd of citizens present, but beyond hissing the troops there was no disorder.

Before the troops left the penitentiary Gov. Tillman appeared on the scene and mounting one of the iron posts surrounding the building made an address to the men.

The troops are under the immediate command of Brig.-Gen. R. N. Richburg and Major Charles N. Newham. Last evening two more companies of cavalry on foot, armed with carbines, arrived. No further trouble is anticipated here.

What the result of the move is going to be remains to be seen. No notice has been or can be sent to the seat of war. Some expect the military will find everything quiet. Others think the militia will have to go into Darlington county if it goes at all, and when the attempt to arrest the citizens is made open warfare will be precipitated. It looks as if citizens from other parts of the state will march over to assist the men of Darlington.

It is reported on pretty good authority this morning that young Gaillard, a son of the chief constable, has been riddled with bullets. According to the story he was wounded and crawled into a ditch. There the crowd found him and proceeded to kill him. This was the only news received from Darlington at this point yesterday, owing to the seizure of the telegraph offices.

Gov. Tillman in an interview said he could get plenty of men and would put down the insurrection. He declared that those who had violated the law would be ferreted out and punished. The soldiers he sent to Darlington to-day, he said, would shoot to kill. He believed this trouble would strengthen the dispensary law.

TRouble of TILLMAN'S MAKING.

Charleston "News and Courier" Declares

There is No Need for Troops.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 2.—The News and Courier says:

"Let it be distinctly borne in mind in the present disturbed condition of things that there is no disorder in the state now except what is of Gov. Tillman's making. The assembling of troops in Columbia and Darlington is to no purpose whatever. There is no need for them at either place. All the present excitement is caused by the mustering of troops by the governor's orders, the issuing of proclamations, the seizure of railroads and telegraph offices. The constables who are in hiding are in danger of being lynched, no doubt, but they certainly can not be protected in any degree by gathering troops in Darlington and Columbia or elsewhere. Gov. Tillman and his admirers appear to have lost their heads."

Florence Ready for an Outbreak.

FLORENCE, S. C., April 2.—Although there was no actual disturbance here yesterday the undercurrent of the feeling is still bitter, and it would only require an outbreak in the vicinity or some obnoxious act on the part of the governor to stir again the citizens to arms. The people have lost faith in the efficacy of the law to protect their lives and liberties. Darlington asserts its independence of Gov. Tillman and his laws. Florence is ready to follow and it is believed other towns in the state stand ready to take the cue from Darlington. The citizens are not disposed to surrender the advance they made, but propose that being outlawed, they will proceed to restore law and order themselves.

Troops Will Make No Arrests.

DARLINGTON, S. C., April 2.—Gov. Tillman's military train, bringing twelve companies arrived at 9:30. They were met by the local military company and escorted to their quarters. Great excitement prevailed at the time the train arrived, but it has since died away. If the governor desires to make arrests he will have to send at least five times the number of troops now on the ground, and it is believed if the military is called on to arrest citizens that at least half if not all the soldiers will lay down their arms and assist the citizens should trouble occur. At this writing the town is very quiet. No trouble is anticipated.

WHOLE FAMILY SLAIN.

Fritz Kloeckler Kills His Wife, His Four Children and Himself.

DOLGEVILLE, N. Y., April 2.—Fritz Kloeckler murdered his wife and four children at his home last night and then committed suicide. He was one of a band of twenty socialists here. For several weeks he had been out of work and his family had been supported by the town the past few days; when the police broke into the house a horrible sight met them. On the second floor in one of the back bedrooms on a blanket, with their heads against the wall, were found the bodies of the entire family of six. First in the row of bodies was that of Mrs. Kloeckler. Her throat had been cut. The second was Frieda, aged 12, with a gash across her throat. Kloeckler's body was next with a gash in his throat and a wound in his heart. Next was five-year-old Eliza. There were no marks on her body, and she, with another child, had been poisoned. The last one was Bruno, aged three, with his head nearly severed from the trunk. The bodies were cold, and the probabilities are that the tragedy was enacted during the afternoon.

RESTS IN HIS GRAVE.

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand People Look at Kossuth's Face.

BUDA PESTH, April 2.—An immense crowd of people from all parts of Hungary and many from Austria, is in this city. The great center of attraction was the National Museum, in which the body of Kossuth is lying in state. It is estimated that at least 150,000 people of all classes walked past the catafalque.

The funeral services were held in the vestibule of the National Museum in the presence of the Lutheran bishops, members of the Hungarian diet, and the Hungarian magnates. The burgomaster of Buda Pesth said that the grave of Kossuth would become a place of pilgrimage for Hungarians, every one of whom felt the deepest gratitude for the services Kossuth had rendered his country.

Flocking to Gen. Frye's Standard.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 2.—Two hundred recruits of Frye's army arrived at 5 o'clock this morning on a stock train and joined their command, which was camped at North Little Rock; 900 more at San Antonio are awaiting transportation. At 8:30 last night 250 from this city joined the forces and left for Memphis via the Bald Knob branch of the Iron Mountain, nearly 1,100 strong. Their discipline is remarkable. It is their serious, quiet and orderly demeanor that appeals to the people. They get everything they want along the line in the way of food and kind treatment. The railroads furnish transportation with little objection.

The Pollard-Breckinridge Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Although the Pollard-Breckinridge scandal has dragged through the Circuit court for three weeks to the exclusion of other cases which are equally important from a financial point, it promises to hold the boards for two weeks more. Judge Bradley has extended the session one hour a day, which means a gain of one day in a week, but the lawyers do not expect to be able to deliver their valencies to the jury before the last of next week.

Restlessness at East Liverpool.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, April 2.—All is quiet in this city and labor leaders are using every possible precaution to prevent a repetition of Saturday night's trouble. There are fears that there will be more violence to-night, however, on account of the municipal elections, which occur to-day. The manufacturers of the city held a secret meeting yesterday afternoon and appointed to the sheriff for protection.

Fatal Explosion of Natural Gas.

ELWOOD, Ind., April 2.—Four men were killed and three seriously burned in an explosion from natural gas yesterday shortly after midnight in the building of the Whiteside Brothers at the town of Alexandria. The names of the victims are: Ira Ball, Frederick Boyer, Charles Hoover, James Harold. The following were injured: William Heart, Walter Pyle, James Scott. The accident was the result of carelessness.

Extent of Fruit Damage in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 2.—Reports sent to the state board of agriculture show that the southern part of the state suffered most from the frost. The early fruit, cherries, peaches, plums, etc., have been killed, but the later fruits are not injured. In central Ohio there will be fruit in spots. The cold weather also injured the wheat in southern Ohio.

Chinese Can Not Return.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 2.—Collector of Customs Wise has issued a statement which set forth that the certificate of registration issued to Chinamen under the Geary law is simply evidence of his right to remain in this country and does not entitle the possessor to land in case he should leave the country and return.

Major Le Caron Dead.

LONDON, April 2.—Major Le Caron, who was once employed by the British government as a spy upon Irishmen in America, died yesterday afternoon in London, after suffering some time from a painful malady. He had lived in this city with his family during the time the train arrived, but it has since died away. If the governor desires to

COXEY'S ARMY GROWS

RECRUITS AND PROVISIONS ARE COMING IN.

Fears that the Supply of Provisions May Run Short in the Mountains—Much Interest Manifested in the Approach of the Army.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 2.—Yesterday was a great day for Coxey. Fully 10,000 people watched the entry of the army into Beaver Falls in the morning. Provisions in plenty have been donated and nearly 250 recruits have joined the commonwealth. Just a week ago Coxey made the start from Massillon with a handful of men. The troops have marched seventy-five miles and have experienced privation and hardship enough for a campaign, and have steadily gained in numbers. Today the commonwealth will march on Economy. According to Browne's bulletin the army is to be entertained at lunch, have its wagons filled and get a lot of clothing. After an eighteen-mile march the army will camp at Sewickley, Pittsburg's fashionable suburb. Sewickley, it is said, is considerably wrought up over the prospect and is indulging extensively in paddocks and revolvers.

Local authorities say Beaver Falls has never before seen such a crowd as gathered here yesterday. Off the line of march, but near to this place, lie the towns of New Brighton, Bridgewater, Beaver, Rochester and Monroe. Wagons loads of people came in from all these places and added to the crowd. Men on horseback, afoot and in carriages went out in droves to meet the army. Thirty mounted men riding two abreast escorted the army into town and the lines of buggies which followed were countless.

The matter of food in the mountains is beginning to be of pressing importance. Coxey is making strenuous efforts to have enough for his men when they strike the mountains, but he will assuredly run short according to present indications. Already the men have been put on short rations as much as possible, and although five wagon loads of supplies were received here all the men got for supper last night was dry bread, potatoes and a bit of bologna sausage. The supplies received consisted of one beef, sixty dozen eggs and a quantity of bread, meat, potatoes, vegetables and canned goods. All the provisions were loaded into a car and will be sent into the mountains of the army.

EDITOR SET UPON AND KILLED

Makes a Desperate Fight, Sending Four Bullets After His Assailants.

ATHENS, Ga., April 2.—News of the assassination of M. D. Lamar, editor of the Oconee Enterprise, has been received. Last night he was attacked in a lonely section of that county and was shot, after having sent four bullets after his assailants Wednesday night previous to went through a hand to hand cutting affray with four men. His paper has been advocating prohibition. He was warned last week in a letter ornamented with skull and cross bones that he carried his life in his hands. There is intense feeling in the county, and other desperate encounters are looked for before the affair passes over.

Killed at a Revival Meeting.

LIMA, Ohio, April 2.—Murder resulted from a silly joke at a revival meeting at Olive last night. Walter Johnson's brother Ezra pinned a tag to the coat of John Williams during the meeting. This offended Williams, who, thinking it was done by Walter, plunged a knife into the young man's abdomen. This created a panic, several of the worshippers fainting and others jumping through the windows. Before a physician arrived Johnson bled to death.

Decimating Lawmakers' Ranks.

ATCHISON, Kan., April 2.—The matter of reducing the number of members in the house of representatives of this state is being vigorously discussed in Populist and Farmers' alliance circles. The plan advocated is to reduce the membership of the house from 125 members, the present number, to twenty-four. The measure, to become a law, must be submitted by the legislature to the people in the form of an amendment to the constitution.
