LOCAL PROTECTION.

An instance of how tariff works on one hand and free trade would exist on the other is about to be exemplified in this city soon, we understand. The city council, we are informed, at the instigation of the butchers, will pass an ordinance compelling country butchers to pay a license of $3 per week for retailing meat, through the streets. In our belief that free trade should predominate everywhere we consider this measure wrong and believe it eventually to be damaging to the city. For instance say the town butcher charges you 12 cents for loin steak, while the country butcher charges you but 9 cents, why should you be compelled, as you would be, to pay the higher price?
Why are you in all fairness not to be allowed to save the extra 3 cents, as well as the home butcher? Must you be taxed to make his living for him?
Certainly not, and yet you are. It may sound very patriotic and liberal to urge protection to home interests but it is a poor theory when put in practice at the expense of your own pocket book.
There should be no restraint to any individual buying where he pleases and at the lowest rates he can secure, and no law is just which impedes him from thus acting. Allow that the home butcher pays taxes, as some urge as a reason for this tariff, so does the consumer of the meat, and his interests are just as much to be guarded as the other man. The number of meat markets might be increased by this kind of an ordinance, but at whose expense—the consumer. Every tub should sit on its own bottom or fall to pieces. If one class of men are to be protected by an ordinance, then make it general. Tax the farmer who brings apples, potatoes and fruits and retails them around.
Tax the newsdealers who sell Cincinnati and Chicago daily papers at 2 and 3 cents, while the home papers must sell at 5 cents. Protect all or protect none.
Don't make fish of one and fowl of the other. While in the protection business pass ordinances to protect every home interest. We feel very certain that after a time consumers of meat will appreciate the free trade theory the best, if they might not the meat.

MANUFACTURERS of tin plate who are not subscribers to the Daily Journal of this city have missed many valuable pointers regarding their business during the past few days, as the history of the business, how tin is manufactured, where the tin is discovered, and just how much tin is required to cover the sheet of iron, etc., have all been considerably furnished by that publication. These manufacturers may have flattered themselves that they knew something about the business, but their minds will at once be disabused of this after perusing the elaborate publications on tin plate from the Journal.

HON. E. V. BROOKSHIRE will begin the canvass of the 8th district in a few days speaking from two to three times in each county. The Journal man who seems wonderfully interested in Mr. B's welfare, need suffer no loss of sleep regarding his vote and action on measures coming before the house. Mr.
Brookshire has shown the ability to take care of himself in any political matter under discussion. He has served the people faithfully, and will be again elected in November.

The starting up of factories and the revival of business all over the country is the saddest news to republican campaign orators that they could possibly hear. It gives the lie direct to all their prophecies.

LYNCHING NEGROES.

There has been much said about the recent murder of six negroes in the South near Memphis, for the crimes of arson and theft. While the lynching of these men is nothing more nor less than pure and unadulterated murder, and should be punished as such, the aim of republican papers to make it as a result of political teachings and differences is entirely wrong. It is the result more of race prejudices, and long before the teachings of abolitionism were known the lynching of the negro anywhere in the south was a very rare event. The Phillipses, the Garrisons and others are directly responsible for much of the unlawful and undeserved treatment of the negro in the south to-day. They fomented the strife between white and black. They created the undying race prejudice and hatred that exists there to-day. They sowed the wind to reap the whirlwind in the expenditure of untold millions of money and the loss of thousands upon thousands of lives.
To-day the republican party is interested in fomenting the strife between white and black. It is its great stock in trade. Though it aims to unify political sentiment and action in the north against southern people. Notwithstanding, through white-captism the same criminal action is frequently chronicled in the north, no political capital is sought to be made out of it.
Neither, however, are justifiable, happen where they may. Law abiding citizens are rarely hung up by the neck or shot. And we are only impressed the more with the fact that each section should take care of society and protect it from the criminally inclined without the interference of others, and the hatred and spirit of lawlessness should not be sought to be created. Law abiding citizens of both south and north, white or black, stand rarely in the way of danger.

THE INDIANA CONGRESSMEN.

The Washington Post last week printed a political forecast of the next House of Representatives, which gives the democrats 187, the republicans 154 and the populists 11.

Indiana is set down for seven democrats and six republicans.

The writer takes the following view of the situation: "The thirteen districts will probably send seven democrats and six republicans. The First, now represented by Taylor, democrat, will be republican. The democrats will carry the Second district (Bretz's), the Third, where Jason Brown recently did not get the nomination, and the Fourth with Papa Holman. The Fifth district now represented by Cooper, democrat, is doubtful with the chances in favor of the republicans. The Sixth will return Johnson, republican. The Seventh district will probably return Brynum. The Eighth district (Brookshire's) will be democratic; the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh, republicans. The Twelfth and Thirteenth will send democrats."

The statement of the conditions in Indiana is not regarded as accurate by either democrats or republicans from this State, who are there.

EVIDENCE is not wanting to show that in the awarding of any work for the benefit of the city and where bids are called for, the persons competing for such work should take their bids sealed direct to the council chamber and have them opened then and there in presence of the council and not allow any committee to handle their bids at all except in regular session of the council. There is no doubt that favorites of the council or members of the city ring have frequently been furnished tips by which they learned just what figures to put in in any work for the city.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON, his admirers desire it distinctly understood, will make two speeches in this State this year. What matters it whether he makes two or twenty-two? The public can well understand just about what will be the tenor of his speeches, and will not have to hold their breath while listening. The usual amount of balder-dash that is heard will, of course, be re-hashed, and the public will be no wiser in the end. Harrison's efforts to pose as a statesman and political prophet are not meeting with the encouragement expected.

In some respects farmers are more readily imposed upon than any other class of people. During the summer agents of wool buyers traversed the country over predicting the most ruinous prices on account of the free wool clause in the Wilson bill. Since both Houses passed the bill, and after a majority of the farmers were frightened into selling, the price has jumped five and six cents on the pound. The farmer need not be told that under the highest tariff ever known—the McKinley law—wool reached the lowest price.

REPUBLICAN newspapers made much ado last week over the election of the republican State ticket in Vermont.
Where there is anything to rejoice at in this the public would like to have explained as that State never goes any other way politically. If old time tried and weather-beaten republican States like Vermont reject the party then the time for them to sell out has arrived.

BUSINESS RESUMING.

All over the country at almost every point of importance, the indications point to a rapid dissolution of the "hard times," and a resumption of business, and this too in the face of the republican press which is using great efforts to show an entirely different aspect.
Many large manufacturing establishments in Massachusetts and New York, such as cotton mills, iron mills, carpet manufacturing houses, etc., have already resumed business with a full force of workmen and orders ahead to keep them employed for many months.
In the gas belt of this State many large manufacturing establishments employing many hundreds of hands have resumed business with a very encouraging prospect ahead for business. These things are discouraging to republican orators and newspapers. It causes a rapid dissolution of their stock in trade which they use in hopes of future political success. The prophecies they have made, the lies they originate, fall with little effect in the light of encouraging business prospects. Better times are here in spite of them, and the people are rapidly beginning to realize it.
Tariff burdens are lightened by the new law, and republican Congressmen did nothing to bring about this state of affairs. So long as business was prostrated these calamity howlers were happy, but now the prospect is greatly changed and they must find something to harp upon. Republican success is to be founded on a business gloom. The business outlook now before the fall elections is saddening to them. If there were any way to prevent it until after that time they would feel greatly encouraged as to future political success.

NEW YORK republicans with the usual amount of boast say that State will go republican in November. Already there is a quarrel between the friends of Morton and DePauw over which shall be the candidate for Governor, and the prospect of a division in the party is bright, which will prevent the victory the party hopes for.

Who is Paris is the question? No one seems to know anything about him.
He is a nonentity. He lives in Terre Haute, and just to appease Vigo county republicans was nominated for Congress. They don't expect to elect him, but use him as a make-believe, and to fill out the ticket.

Born the Nevada Senators, Jones and Stewart, have gone over from the republicans to the populists, which indicates them to be even worse cranks than before.

HON. E. V. BROOKSHIRE will begin his campaign, we understand, this week, making his first speech at Attica.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or traveling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and to cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. For instance, Hood's Sarsaparilla as a general tonic, and to keep the blood pure and less liable to absorb the germs of disease, will be well nigh invaluable. Change of drinking water often causes serious trouble, especially if one has been used to a spring water in the country. From a few drops to a teaspoonful of Hood's Sarsaparilla in a tumbler of water will prevent the water having any injurious effect.

Hood's Vegetable Pills, as a cathartic, cause no discomfort, no disturbance, no loss of sleep, but assist the digestive organs, so that satisfactory results are effected in a natural and regular manner.

Deer are reported to be plentiful in northern New Hampshire.

Distemper Among Horses.

Safely and quickly cured by the use of Craft's Distemper and cough cure.
It not only cures distemper but when administered in time prevents its spread among horses and colts that have been exposed to the contagion. It is not expensive and is easily administered. Send for book on distemper free. Address Well's Medicine Co., La-Fayette, Ind., or ask Nye & Boce.
