FORTY MILLION DOLLARS!

That is an immense sum of money for one man to possess, yet it is given as about the correct value of the earthly belongings of ex-Senator Fair, of California, who a few days ago laid down all his great wealth and took his departure on that journey from which no traveler ever returns. With so much poverty, distress and want, at all times and in all localities it looks like there was something wrong in the distribution of things good and bad that one man should be able to accumulate so much wealth while thousands of his neighbors may be near the verge of want and starvation, but on the other hand what a wise dispensation, is it that prevents every man from taking away his possessions with him. It would seem to make up for other deficiencies.
The chief end of man on earth judging by the way many men act in business is to accumulate all you possibly can and when dying leave it to relatives to quarrel and litigate about. Don't enjoy any of it yourself while on this mundane sphere, but pile it up and give it all to those who succeed you. That is the custom of about nine-tenths of the wealthy men of the world—no enjoyment for themselves on life's journey but labor for others who are to follow.
Fair, the wealthy Californian, seems to have been of the usual style, and already his heirs who treated him as a dog while living, are getting ready to fight over what he left them. Rather than devote the major part of his vast possessions to charity, to education, to the benefit of mankind, and leave but a small part only to his descendants as probably should be done, he wills about all his fortune to them. They will at once commence to throw it away by riotous living, expensive litigation and extravagance. That is the general line laid out by millionaires for the disposition of their wealth, and their descendants in most cases act just that way after securing it.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The annual session of the State legislature convened at Indianapolis on Thursday. Little was done aside from organization. The actual work will begin with the ensuing week. The legislature, as every one knows, is largely republican, and will be enabled through its majority to pass the most radical measures desired by its leaders. There is little needed in the way of new laws; those passed by the last two or three sessions being ample for the people, aside from a few amendments to them.
The election law, assessment and school book law, were all created at the right time and they were all needed. They should remain, and any alterations of them should only be made when the sentiments of the people may demand it, and not the politicians. At every session, however, a short crop of fools, ambitious for a little cheap notoriety or candidates for Congress, governor, or judge, must introduce some useless measure in the senate or house which takes up valuable time and does no good.
This session will not be free from it.
The crop promises to be large this session, and valuable time will be spent in the advocacy of many matters that have no right even in the discussions of a country school debating club, let alone in the branches of a State legislature.

THE LOBBIES.

The "opportunities" for susceptible members during the present session of the State Legislature to accumulate money, judged from reports of the number of lobbies being formed for this and that purpose are probably very encouraging. Lobbies go there to influence legislation. They hire some man to approach the members. Those that are "approachable" are soon known, and the bargain is soon made. Their vote and "opinion" can be calculated to a certainty. It is a terrible corrupt state of affairs that such things exist, yet they do, and many sessions of the State Legislature heretofore have been cursed with just such "lobbies" and this one will not be free from them. They are almost always against the interests of the people, yet in this corrupt and venal age, how can they be prevented?

FREE FROM DEBT.

The great State of New York, with much the largest population of any in the Union, and which has been under democratic control for several years, it was announced by Gov. Flower, who is succeeded by Gov. Morton, is entirely free from debt, and has no past State obligations to meet. This is certainly of much credit to those who have control of its financial affairs. Republican newspapers of that State will probably say as little about it as possible, as their party had nothing to do in bringing about such an encouraging state of affairs.
With them the least said is the better.

OFFICERS VS. THE PEOPLE.

The war between the county officers and the people on the important matter of fees and salaries is about to open in the legislative halls of the State. It solely depends on the legislature which side shall win, and a close interest in the contest will be observed. The county officers elected at the last November election are almost all determined, if possible, to have a higher compensation for their labor, and are encouraging by words and money, the lobby provided in their interest. Reasonable people over the State will favor reasonable salaries, but from upon, and justly, too, any extortion on the part of the officials. The legislature must be sole judge of the matter and settle it, and the members of it must know that their actions in this will be closely watched throughout. Some of them will make records that will rise up in judgment against them. If, as many will think, there are plain evidences of bargain and sale in the matter, those supposed to be guilty will never hear the last of it and should not. If they avoid the attempts made upon them to go against the people, then will there records be that much more honorable.

The money sharks of Wall street made a formal demand of the President last week, that he remove Secretary Carlisle, because he had interfered with some of their plans for making money out of the government. The New York financiers charge that the Secretary broke faith with them on the recent bond issue, by springing his currency plan just after he had disposed of the bonds and depressing the price on the market. It is terrible, indeed, that these interest-grabbing scoundrels should have their business interfered with by any action on the part of the government that may be for the benefit of the people. The blood suckers should be made to feel that this country does not belong to them, and they with their continuous piratical designs should be thankful that they are permitted to live in a free government. If ever there was a country that was fast passing into the hands of the money power, it is certainly this, and if ever there was a time that the government should teach these speculators on its securities a lesson, that time is now.

THE ERA OF THE TRUST.

In a recent issue of the Dial William Henry Smith contends that monopoly is rapidly transforming the republic by placing into the hands of the few, the power that of right belongs to the many.
"The trusts," he says, "have seized upon what they possess, and by pursuing a career of robbery, under the form of law, have become superior to law, defying all popular tribunals." He recites the rise of the Standard oil trust. He tells how competition was throttled in producing and refining oil; how railway corporations were forced to subserve the purposes of the trust and how courts and legislatures became the willing tools of the giant monopoly. So successful in acquiring wealth rapidly did the Standard Oil Company become that corners were established upon other necessaries of life and trade in many lines has been controlled absolutely by the power of concentrated wealth. Notably is this the case with the sugar trust which has thus far been able to defeat legislation designed to crush it. power.

NO REMOVAL IN PROSPECT.

The talk of removing the State university from Bloomington to Indianapolis will probably amount to only talk in the end. If it is expected that the State is to continue to foot the bills to keep the thing alive, then it might just as well remain where it is. Only let those antiquated politicians learn that no money comes from the State to support it in the event of removal, and they will shut up at once about its removal.
It is only when the prospect is brightest for bleeding the State of money that these demands are the loudest and most vehement. This desire to ameliorate the condition of the people is always the most earnest when the prospect of money ahead is the brightest.

STRIKING examples of republican love for the loaves and fishes are furnished at the assembling of the State legislature at Indianapolis, this week. There were about thirty positions in the each branch of the legislature, most of them worth $5.00 per day, during the 61 days session. About every member had a nephew, son, cousin or sister, that he wanted to have occupy one of these soft jobs during the winter, and was determined he should receive it. Many of these failed, however, in their attempted nepotism, and are wrathful at their failure.
Always count on a republican when he has an opportunity to make the tax payers support his relatives.

A "Lexow committee" has lately been appointed by Bloomington, Ind., officials to investigate the acts of its officials for some years back. These "Lexow committees" are spreading, and many cities of the country are selecting them and putting them to work. We are still of the opinion that a "Lexow committee" for Crawfordsville would develop many things which its citizens at present know nothing, and would be of value to the tax-payers hereafter.

The sea is estimated to contain 2,250, 000,000 cubic miles of water.

STOP THE APPROPRIATION.

The sentiment with many of the taxpayers of the State is that it is time to call a halt now in the matter of further appropriations to Bloomington and Purdue universities of the State. They are leeches on the State treasury, and for the benefits resulting from them, the greater part of the money is thrown away. The money is used in part to keep alive old antiquated politicians, who being further unable to bleed the counties from where they come, and placed as trustees and as other officials over these institutions. Let these institutions stand on the footing and repatation they now have, and withdraw the support of the State. Tax the people to enable scholars to have a recognized good school education and no more. If they desire to go up higher, let them pay for it themselves, the same as the young man fitting himself for any business pursuit or profession does. Withdraw the State's money from these concerns and those so solicitous about them, will discover some plan to keep them running without yearly bleeding the State to do so.

ANOTHER ruction, it is reported, has broken out in the Blaine family, and Beal, who married a daughter of the late James G. Blaine, will sue for a divorce. Like in the case of a son, James Blaine, Jr., who was divorced from his wife, it is probably a case of too much mother-in-law.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Ringed Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing sound, are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood.

Hood's Pills are the best after dinner tion.

Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system.

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient,"

I suffered terribly from a roaring in my head during an attack of catarrh, and because very deaf, used Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as ever.—A. E. Newman, Graling, Mich.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from the nose. Physicians prescribed without benefit. After using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the disease was cured.—O. A. Cary,

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

are also holidays.

3 The largest Laboratory in the

What more can be said? Hood's Sar-
