THE LIBEL LAW.

The various editorial associations of the State will aim to have a new libel law enacted or the old so modified that the plaintiff in such cases will have to give bond for costs in the event suit is decided against him. The "Grubbs'" libel law as it is termed has received many maladictions at the hands of many of the newspaper publishers of the State, and yet in many respects it was not enacted any too soon. Simply because a man may possess a press and printing materials gives him no license to abuse or vilify any one whose conduct is not satisfactory to him. "Freedom of the press" is not to lie nor scandalize an individual nor corporation. Many a good man has been ruined through vicious, malevolent attacks of the press when there was no apparent need of such work. The "Grubbs'" law is aimed to hold such ambitious individuals in check and it does too. They are induced through it to think twice and often save themselves and others the expense and mortification of a suit in court. Some fool publishers seem desirous of turmoil, scandal and libel suits, and have even boasted of the number of times they have been sued for libel. Such individuals, we believe, on examination will be found to have soft places about their heads and have not the sense of perception to see what ridiculous asses they have made of themselves. The other side to this is that many a worthless scoundrel has sought to blackmail publishers through the means afforded by the present law, but instances are rare where he has succeeded, yet at the same time costs are enacted which the publisher must pay, the other side being bankrupt in everything. Following a straight, forward, sincere course, and poiting hims if thoroughly regarding the individual who he may be inclined to "rip up," we see little danger to be feared by any publisher from the operation of the present law, and see no pressing necessity for its amendment. A new law may be no better for the publisher, and may be worse than the "Grubbs."

DEBS TO JAIL.

As is known generally the ending of the troubles resulting from the railway strikes at Chicago last summer is the sentence of Debs and some half dozen other officials to imprisonment in jail, Debs to serve six months and the others three months. They are now in the Woodstock, (Ill.) jail. Before going Debs issued a manifesto from which we make the following extract:

"In going to jail for participation in the late strike we have no apologies to make nor regrets to express. We go to jail, not like quarry slaves, but sustained by the consciousness that we have done our duty. No ignominy attaches to us on account of this sentence. I would not change places with Judge Woods, and if it is expected that six months or even six years in jail will purge me of contempt the punishment will fail of its purpose."

Debs compels me to characterize the whole proceeding as infamous. It is not calculated to revive the rapidly fading confidence of the American people in the federal judiciary. There is not a scrap of testimony to show that one of us violated any law whatsoever.
And if we are guilty of conspiracy why are we punished for contempt? This question will continue to be asked with ever increasing emphasis.

"I would a thousand times rather be accountable for the strike than for the decision."

There can be no question that a sympathy far reaching is felt among millions of laboring men of this country toward Debs and the cause he advocates, and a contempt fully as extensive for the judiciary which too often seems inclined to favor those blessed with capital, but under no circumstances should an individual violate the laws of the land enacted as they should be for the entire people. What the future may develop on the labor question time only can tell but that future troubles of great magnitude will again occur we doubt not, unless in the meantime a more harmonious state of affairs can be brought about between capital and labor than now exists. Laboring men are becoming more aggressive and more intelligent, and matters like unto the Chicago strike are liable to again occur. Debs imprisonment is only a temporary truce.

THE ROBY RACE COURSE.

It seems probable that the disgraceful association known as Roby, located in Indiana just over the State line from Illinois in Lake county, will receive the proper attention at the hands of the Legislature. The Governor recommends that racing during the winter months and pool selling be made a felony, and a law to that effect will probably be enacted. It should have been done two years ago.

FRIENDSHIP OF CLEVELAND AND HILL.

Much surprise was expressed the other day, the account says, at the appearance of Senator Hill at a reception in Washington at the White House, given by President Cleveland. The two men for some years past, it has been understood, were personal enemies, and Hill had kept away from the White House heretofore, while Cleveland failed to register and vote for Hill at the last election for Governor.

It matters not now to the democracy of the country whether these two men are friends or enemies but there can be no question that both of them, more or less, by peculiar courses they have followed have done as much as anything else to bring about the almost universal defeat which the party received in November. The one by his persistent course in retaining republicans in office and treating with contempt the requests of democrats for positions, also his seeming friendship for Wall street methods on the money question, and the other by his fight against portions of the tariff bill and the low political cunning that has distinguished him in other matters, have both brought about them the contempt of the party the country over. Politically both are dead with the democracy and can never rise again. They both by their personal antagonisms, their seeking for quiet revenge one against the other, have done more to prostrate the banner of democracy than anything else. The party very generally would gladly retire them to the shades of oblivion. Their renewed friendship at this late day will do no good. The chances for national victory in 1896, we look upon as very doubtful, and the party will not desire these men to undertake to lead them or dictate its policy. The democracy have seen enough of these New York politicians not to desire their leadership for the next ten years. They must stand aside. The party knows enough of them now not to desire any assumption toward leadership by any of them. The policy and leadership must not come from New York.

ANDREW JACKSON'S DAY.

A meeting of over 500 democrats from different parts of the State was held last week at Indianapolis to commemorate by speeches and a banquet the anniversay of the battle of New Orleans and its principal character in that historical event, General Andrew Jackson.

There were sixteen toasts on the programme. There was an ovation extended Gov. Matthews after the chairs had been pushed back from the table. He was pointed to by men here and there as the next nominee of the democratic party for president. In his speech marks he made no reference to his own political aspirations. He simply welcomed the representatives of the party of Jackson to the city. The democratic party, he said, like the memory of Jackson, would never die.

John G. Shrank, responded to the toast "Andrew Jackson as President." He pointed out the sterling qualities of the old democrat, Charles L. Jewett has for his subject "The President of the United States." He spoke of Grover Cleveland, who was able to find the right and had to courage to fight for it. Minister Gray made a conservative speech on the subject, "Are the principles of the Democratic Party Sufficiently Potent to Regain Prestige?"

He answered the question in the affirmative. He urged that if the democratic party or any party is to be trusted by the people, it must be true to its principles.

THE EXCESS OF VANITY.

A late issue of the Indianapolis Journal intimates that an editorial in this paper relating to the establishment of the proposed "Soldiers' Home" in Tippecanoe county was inscribed in part by a desire that it be published in an evening paper (The News) of that city, and that to secure such a desire all that was necessary was to send a marked copy.
Such an intimation is ridiculous, and to us the suggestion is a thing never dreamed of. There may be many dangerous editors who think they have reached the acme of happiness if an article of theirs is published in a city paper, but we beg to say we are not in that particular class. Whether any opinion of ours is ever copied either in a city or country paper is entirely immatterial and any editor who writes for such a purpose is an undoubted vain individual of the first magnitude, and yet there may be such. Papers are published to put money in the pockets of their owners. That is the sum and substance of all of it, and where there is anything gained pecuniary by re-publication of political opinions in any paper, city or country, we are unable to see. His opinions on matters political, religious, financial, or what not, are for his patrons alone, and it is entirely a matter of taste whether an outsider copies them or not.

Indiana just over the State line from
proper attention at the hands of the Legislature. The Governor recommends that racing during the winter
been done two years ago.

Not a Montgomery county republican got a job at the opening of the legislature last week, although there were near a half dozen applicants from here among them Clements, Billingsby, Gifford and others. Each received 1 vote, and we can account for this only on the presumption that Representative Mc-Crea at each separate balloting voted for each man in turn.

A BIG DEFALCATION.

The Treasurer of the State of South Dakota has lately defrauded for the sum of over $350,000. He belonged to the republican State ring of that State and always helped to roll up republican majorities. He handled the State funds, and the ring to which he belonged are now making heroic efforts to save themselves from the disgrace attaching to their acts. They are on his bond, and very probable the State will have to compromise with the entire crowd, and lose the greater share of the money.

The republican papers of the State two years ago had much to say about the extra number of doorkeepers, clerks, etc., that had been provided for at that session, which was democratic. This session, which is republican, has already discovered that by providing extra places for a number of hungry men of the party, and the number to be paid out of the State treasury is much larger than two years ago.

Mr. Langsdale, a member of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Commission at Indianapolis, resigned the other day after having held the position for about seven years. The account says, his resignation was received with astonishment. May be when the amount of salary he has drawn from the State treasury on account of his position is made known, there will be more astonishment.

It is a sad thing to the large number of hungry republicans that made the pilgrimage to Indianapolis in bust of soft places from the legislature and failed. The members did their best to provide for them, but painful to relate there were not enough positions to go all around.

It does not seem probable that there will be any "watch dog" of the State treasury during this session of the republican legislature. They won't have him around and would probably give him a button if he appeared.

The great mistake in our laws relative to currency is that which gives organized capitalists the opportunity to draw the U. S. Treasury of its so-called gold reserve, and then force the Government to pay them a premium to get it back.

This is a sign out on Sedgwick street, Chicago: "Clothing made to fit lean people, same as if they was fat."

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or a perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., Dec. 29, 1894.
I am now using my fifth bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has done me more good than any other medicine I have ever taken. I have been troubled with catarrh for many years but it has troubled me less this winter than for a long time. My little girl had sores nearly all over her but she is now free from them and her skin is smooth and clear. MURRAY CLESTERSON.
