

WINGATE.

Chas. Appleby has gone to Frankfort.

Some few attended the Hawk trial at Covington.

John Doss' little girl has a gathering in her head.

Health in general is pretty good at this writing.

Lulu Brown will teach in the same place this season.

Thomas Simms has purchased the coal yard at this place.

Nancy Wingate is improving and will soon be able to be out again.

T. A. Tempelton will sell buggies and other implements at this place.

J. N. Hearne has sold his blacksmith shop to a man in Veedersburg, but will work here.

Charles Dazey, of Bristle Ridge was at this place this week, looking for a house to rent.

There was a man went from this town to Crawfordsville and got too much red eye and started for home and got the wrong road and when two miles from town found he was on the wrong way and turned his horse and started for home.

KINGSLEY'S CHAPEL.

Ground hog day to-morrow.

Plenty of sickness in this vicinity.

D. M. Crowder has got the influenza.

Joseph Abbott is down with the grippe.

Henry Cannon is no better at this writing.

Jessie Riley has hired to Art. Peebles for a year.

George Shields is the proud father of a boy baby.

Fred Caster is spending his time hunting skunks.

There will be six more weeks of school at this place.

Otis Hall has hired to Walter Hughes for this year.

Jessie Moore is hauling corn to Darlington this week.

L. D. Engle contemplates going to Missouri next fall.

Wm. Prophel can be seen at Mr. Fritz's any Sunday.

Sherman Trout will go the house-keeping in a few days.

Somebody's hounds got into Henry Johnson's sheep last week.

Rev. Grimes filled his regular appointment at this place last Sunday.

YOUNTSVILLE.

Art. Yount started for Chicago on Monday.

Bent Snyder butchered his hogs on Monday.

Rev. Brown delivered an eloquent address last Sunday.

Bennett Engle attended the Moose banquet last Thursday.

Bert Hayworth is attending business college at Crawfordsville.

Miss Clara Coleman was the guest of her parents over Sunday.

Harry Lebo is now foreman of the weaving department at the woolen mills.

The young ladies cut quite a dash on the Yountsville streets last Sunday.

Batchelors, watch Lawton and Work.

The minstrels drew out quite a crowd on last Saturday evening and every one was highly pleased with the entertainment. The proceeds, which were $15.75, went for the benefit of the hall. Troutman and the Shanklin Brothers did themselves much credit. They expect to repeat the performance soon, and everyone should be in attendance. Owing to the bad night last Saturday, many were compelled to stay at home.

MACE.

W. B. Walkup walked up to New Ross last Saturday.

C. C. McClure is working for M. E. Edwards.

Sunday is ground hog day. Watch for your shadow.

Thos. Lockridge is now our most famous horse trader.

Protracted meeting began at Walnut Chapel last Tuesday night.

Edwards & Linn shipped a car load of cattle to Indianapolis last week.

Mrs. Ida McCray, of Hendricks county, visited relatives here the first of the week.

Joseph Goldberg's undertaker passed through here last Saturday with a dead horse.

The gravel roads are in worse condition at present than they have been this winter.

It's sneeze and cough and cough and sneeze. Everybody has a bad cold and can't get rid of it.

W. T. Kise, Wm. Hankins and families spent Sunday evening with F. B. Armstrong and wife.

Preaching at the Christian church last Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night by Rev. Smith. Services the fourth Sunday of each month.

Harry Freeman, of Darlington, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here. He also visited Mace Lodge, K.

of P. and gave a glorious good speech on the good of the order. Come again, Harry.

Our singing school will hereafter meet on Tuesday and Friday nights of each week, instead of Wednesday night as heretofore.

Mrs. Martha Smith is very poorly at this writing. Mrs. Wm. Sellers, T. H. Phelps and Mart Thompson are also on the sick list.

The old saying that if January 25th is a fair day we will have good crops, and if a bad day poor crops, predicts a poor crop for this season. We, however, give you the privilege to believe this or not, just as you please.

W. T. Kise, Mel Edwards, R. H. Galoway and T. A. Armstrong attended the grand banquet given by the Moose Lodge, of Crawfordsville, last week. They all report a great time. T. A. Armstrong said that some of the cakes were as large as sugar barrels.

ELMDALE

Al Badgley, of Ohio, is visiting here.

All we need now is a telephone line.

Mrs. A. S. Goff is sick at this writing.

L. M. Coons is hauling corn to Wingate.

Ralph Vancleave is still improving from his injury.

P. H. Hawk is in jail at Covington, awaiting his trial.

Dr. Olin helped to perform an operation on James Groandike last Monday.

H. T. Vancleave is talking of moving to the farm of his father-in-law, Wm. Patton.

ALAMO.

The sick are all better.

Bert Cramer, of Fowler, is in town.

The fine insurance adjusters were here last week.

Grandma Campbell, of Crawfordsville, is visiting friends here.

The Alamo brass band was organized once more last Tuesday night.

Aaron Heath, of Alexandria, visited home folks the first of the week.

Misses Rose Titus and Grace Fruits went to Crawfordsville last week.

Mrs. Vanderver, of Greenville, will conduct a meeting at the Presbyterian church.

Ed Troutman, Walter Work, and Miss Rena McClure, of Yountsville, attended the Good Templars lodge last Monday night.

The Alamo talent contemplates a theatrical play soon under the management of Mr. Scott Harris.

The schools here will observe Washington's birthday with appropriate music and recitations.

James Stonebraker, aged 81, residing with his son, David, in Alamo, died last Wednesday of general debility.

John Bell came near meeting with a serious accident Wednesday of last week by being thrown from a horse.

Last Sunday Mrs. Florence Bell made a birthday dinner in honor of her husband, Edward Bell, it being his birthday. The guests were: J. P. Wirt and wife, Charles Westfall and wife, Wm. Deitz, father of Mrs. Bell, Bert Deitz, brother of Mrs. Bell, Miss Annie Wirt, Wiley Wirt, Paul Campbell, Miss Sallie Stanford, Frank Westfall, Ambrose Campbell. The day was pleasantly spent by all. Before dinner there was music by the Westfall brothers. The dinner was excellent and relished by all present. The dinners of Mrs. Deitz's daughters are hard to excel in excellency.

GENERAL STATE NEWS.

Much hog cholera in Boone county. Muncie people have organized to fight Lrothels.

Mormon elders are at work in St. Joseph county.

No delinquent tax sale in Wabash county, this year.

Vincennes is preparing for a huge 4th of July celebration.

Colored boy 12 years old preaches at Farmland three times a day.

Glanders in Allen county. Four horses have been shot and 30 are quarantined.

Eli Green, 85, Rushville, preparing to celebrate his birthday, died suddenly Tuesday.

Vandalia engineer offers this as a sure cure for grip: A pint of hot beer before going to bed.

Correspondent at Goshen asks how far it is proper to encourage a lady showing symptoms of proposing.

Bad boys at Gas City put cayenne pepper on a dancing floor, Saturday night. Dance broke up in a quadrille.

Peter Domboski, St. Joseph county, had Chicago physicians remove a piece of skull from his brain, last Saturday, which footpads had crushed in.

More Shelbyville saloonists were fined, Tuesday. They introduced no witnesses, and depended on the cross-questioning of their lawyers.

Thomas Gray, Francisville, has been declared insane. A year ago sharks traded him worthless property for his

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

fine farms near Winamac. Worry over the loss shattered his mind.

William O. Comer and Miss Estella R. Yarran, of Yountsville, were married by Rev. G. W. Stafford, on the 29th inst., at his residence east of the fair grounds. This young couple commence married life with bright prospects before them.

The Chicago & Southeastern railway, after running along smoothly for so long a time that it began to feel really haughty, has suddenly struck hard luck. It came in with the January thaw. Last week was marked by the ditching of two freight trains, and two expensive wrecks.

A. Quinn Evans, a traveling man for a Chicago house, but residing at Lafayette, made an effort to kill himself by a dose of laudanum a few days ago. He is known in this city, as he occasionally visits it in the interest of his trade. The Lafayette papers seem to intimate that there is regret that he did not succeed in his attempt at self destruction.

The Bonnell ring has managed to get out another candidate for sheriff, this time from Sugar Creek township. There are already three or four more, but the more the candidates the better the opportunity for Buck Brothers, as Union township will control the most votes, and Union will nominate him, if they keep on bringing out more candidates. In accordance with the program the Journal gives the Sugar Creek man a 30-line puff, but all candidates will be served likewise.

NOTICE TO NON RESIDENTS.

State of Indiana, Montgomery county: In the Montgomery Circuit Court, January term, 1896, John S. Brown vs. William N. Sweetser, Elizabeth B. Harbert, Martin Cannon, Eliza H. Talbot, Mae Winshell, Hugh Talbot, Joseph A. Davis, Rolla O. Wilcox, Albert D. Wilcox and Elizabeth Wilcox, Complaint No. 1187.

Comes now the plaintiff by William T. Brush, his attorney, and files his complaint herein, together with an affidavit that said defendants, above named, are not residents of the State of Indiana, and that this is an action brought by the plaintiff to quiet title to real estate. Notice is therefore hereby given each and all of said defendants that unless they be and appear on the 23rd day of the March term of the Montgomery Circuit Court for the year 1896, the same being the 27th day of March, A. D. 1896, at the Court House in Crawfordsville, in said county and state, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness my name, and the seal of said Court, at Crawfordsville, this 25th day of January, A. D., 1896. WALLACE SPARKS, Clerk.

Am Jones, of the Robbins, has been at Ft. Wayne, this week, to visit his father who is seriously ill.

Martin B. Thompson, residing with A. J. Abbott, of Mace, died on Tuesday, aged 84 years. The funeral occurred on Tuesday. Interment at Mace cemetery.

Take the Queen & Crescent to Florida. The only line running Parlor, Cafe and Observation Cars South.

Vandalia Excursions.

First Tuesday in each month, very low one way colonists tickets to many places south.

February 11th, home-seekers' round trip tickets south and south-west. Good 30 days.

Winter tourist tickets on sale every day to many southern points.

For republican convention at St. Louis the Vandalia will be "the" line. Solid train, no change of cars, quick time and low rates.

Don't forget we are the line for Michigan points, Detroit and Canada points, Fort Wayne, Nashville, Tenn., and all the south-west.

Also leaving here at 8:16 a. m. you arrive at Chicago at 2 p. m. via Big 4 route from Colfax.

J. C. HUTCHINSON, Agt.

NOTICE TO HEIRS, CREDITORS, ETC.

In the matter of the estate of Henry H. Hall, deceased.

In the Montgomery Circuit Court, January term, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that George W. Corn, as administrator of the estate of Henry H. Hall, deceased, has presented and filed his accounts and vouchers in final settlement of said estate, and that the same will come up for the examination and action of said Circuit Court on the 13th day of February, 1896, at which time all heirs, creditors or legatees of said estate are required to appear in said Court and show cause, if any there be, why said accounts and vouchers should not be approved, and the heirs or distributees of said estate are also notified to be in said Court at the time aforesaid and make proof of heirship.

GEORGE W. CORN, Administrator.

Dated this 16th day of January, 1896.

MONEY FOUND

by buying from us. If you want first-class Fruit Trees, Roses, Shrubs, etc., write us for our 1896 catalogue. (Do it now.) Its full of all the choice kinds.

Globe Nursery Co.
Rochester, N. Y.

WILL CONTINUE

GRAND NET COST SALE AT THE TRADE PALACE!

Having just finished our invoice of stock and desiring to still further reduce the stock before our spring goods arrive, we have decided to continue Our Grand Cost Sale Fifteen Days Longer. The success of our sale has been unprecedented. Cost with us means what we paid for the goods. Our customers know this, hence our success. In addition to our whole stock at Net Cost, we will place on sale

MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 3RD

Dress Gingham worth 10 to 12 1-2c for 5c
All colors in Cashmeres worth 25c for 10c

Plisse and Novelty Suitings worth 12 1-2c for 5c.
Full line all wool Novelties worth 50c to $1 for 24c.

These items are all desirable for present and spring ware. Our whole stock of Spring Carpets are now in and ready for you. The handsomest designs and colorings you ever saw.

Wall Paper to Match Your Carpets!

Our new line of Spring Wall Paper has just arrived. All these and our whole stock without reserve goes in our Net Cost Sale until February 15th. Now is the time.

M'CLURE & GRAHAM.