CITY ELECTION.

EDITORIAL REVIEW:
There has been considerable talk about the democrats making a ticket to be voted for at the coming city election.
For one am opposed to it, because it will be next to political suicide for any man to run as a democrat, no matter how good or competent he may be.

We have heard that old song sung too often about "dissatisfied republicans enough to help elect a democrat."

If they are in earnest why do they not bolt the party nominations and make an independent ticket? By so doing they can show their faith by their works and thereby prove to the taxpayers that they are really in favor of retrenchment and reform.

If they will make an independent republican ticket, I for one will try to help them elect it. Otherwise I am opposed to running anybody against the ring. Let them run the affairs of the city to suit themselves. We can stand it if they can, and as long too as those republicans who have not the grit to do what they know to be right.

It may be after the ring builds a few more bridges, and orders a lot more curbing, and buys another steam roller or two, and bankrupts the city, those indignant republicans may summon up courage enough to bolt the ring nominations and make an honest ticket.

Until they do so I shall as a democrat have nothing to do with a convention to nominate a city ticket, for there are republicans who would vote for the devil before they would for a straight out democrat, no matter how bitter they might feel against their own party management.

We tried that thing in the city two years ago by running one of the best men in the city against the ring candidate for Mayor and got badly left.

I am well aware that the tail end of both parties want two tickets in the field, so as to make their votes worth just that much more at the election.

In view of the above facts any democrat is foolish who suffers his name to be put on a ticket headed "Democratic" to be voted for at the coming city election, only because a few dissatisfied republicans may have told him they would vote for him.

We have seen that thing tried too often and those who persist in making a democratic ticket will see in the end we are right. DEMOCRAT.

PENSIONERS ON THE ROLL.

In response to a resolution the Secretary of the Interior informed the Senate that there were, January 1st, 1896, pensioners on the rolls as follows: General law, 454,876, of whom 100,714 are widows, mothers, children, etc.; under act of June 27, 1890, 481,231, of which 102, 822 are widows, mothers, children, etc.; war of 1812, 3,583 of which 3,567 are widows and 16 survivors; war with Mexico 20,165, of which 12,241 are survivors and 7,924 widows; Indian wars of 1832-1842, 6,979, of which 2,867 are survivors and 4,112 widows. Grand total, 966,934. July 1, 1895, this grand total was 970,524.

CARLISLE'S CANDIDACY.

Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury of the present administration, it was announced last week would be a candidate for President before the Chicago national democratic convention. In his person will be represented the "hard money" or gold standard of the party. He favors Cleveland's ideas exactly on matters of finance. He would be anything but a popular candidate. He would represent but a small fraction of a great party in his ideas on the all absorbing and never ceasing money question.
With Wall street and speculators in gold, those who feast and fatten on the misfortunes of the government, he would be in perfect accord. With the immense element of agriculturists, tillers of the soil, producers, etc., who bring the wealth of the country from the earth, Carlisle will have little standing and influence. You may fool all the people a part of the time, but a short time only. They know full well that the demonetization of silver brought about in 1873 was a pre-arranged scheme in the interest of the money sharks of the country, that from that time began the troubles in the monetary system of the country that has caused the failures in business of thousands of citizens, panic, hard times, distress, misery and death in all parts of the country, but which has been of vast pecuniary benefit to the favored few of Wall street and speculators of the east.
Their wealth has continued to accumulate, while many millions of the people have experienced a greatly contrary result. They see no evidence of Cleveland and Carlisle and those thinking with them, desiring a different state of affairs; they express no desire to have the money matters of the government run as they did for eighty years, or previous to 1873. The money power is every year becoming stronger in this country, and it is continually strengthening itself by the enactment of laws in its interest brought about by its paid tools in Congress. Sooner or later serious times will have to be faced by the people in the contest between accumulated wealth and scattered poverty in this country. Carlisle is not of the people, and the people will not support him, whatever kind of a candidate he may be.

THE CONGRESSIONAL FIGHT.

The contest for the nomination for Congress between the friends of Tucker and Landis, the two candidates of the most strength, is getting decidedly interesting as the time for the convention draws near. The district convention is to be held in Crawfordsville on the 7th of next month. The Landis crowd seems fruitful in low, dirty, political schemings, and do not appear to be possessed of but little political honor in their labor for their favorite. Many of their actions have been already exposed and if the feeling after the nomination in the event Landis secures it, is as intense against him as now, his election may be considered as very doubtful.
He seems to be making all sorts and styles of promises to his adherents should he be elected, and the number of men to be appointed post masters, positions in the revenue department and other soft positions from this district, will make a full regiment of 1,000 men. By some hook or crook, known best to himself, the republican ring of this country has been secured for him and not a man of it is for Tucker. Although Tucker was an old soldier, a life time republican and an old worker for the party he is not in it with the ring here. It should not however, be understood that all the republicans in the county are for Landis for this would not be correct. With many of them, taking party service into account, they prefer Tucker and these will use their influence to secure his nomination.
The contest from now on will be watched with interest and the light now on among the office-seekers, schemers for place and hangers-on for spoils, cannot fail to attract attention.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

Four years ago in addressing a crowd at Indianapolis in the interest of Harrison, Gen. Wallace stated he was not a politician. For one not a politician he certainly shows a remarkable interest in politics, and political maneuverings.
Even last week at a quiet meeting at which Charley Williams, Frank Dize and A. R. Ramsey were wrangling as to whom the honor of a delegate to the St. Louis convention should be bestowed, Gen. Wallace was reported to be on hand and extremely desirous of having no delegate pledged to McKinley, but secretly favoring everything for Harrison. Harrison said weeks ago he was not a candidate for the nomination for President and would not be. Most of the republicans of the State, outside a political ring at Indianapolis, have taken him at his word and desire no monkey business in the matter. They are for McKinley, first and last, and the springing of Harrison's name at the eleventh hour will not work with them.
If Wallace is no politician he should keep his hands off, keep out of the mix and bear in mind that Harrison has had his day, and it is folly to seek to resurrect him.

The railroad from Beyrout to Damascus has been completed and is open for traffic. This is the first railroad opened in Syria.

WHO ROBBED THE TREASURY?

The following letter is self-explanatory:
Washington, D. C., March 9, 1896.— Hon. Salmon Chase, Waverland, Ind.
Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of recent date, asking me if President Harrison paid out all the money in the Government treasury and treasured upon the gold reserve four or five million dollars.

The story is too long to be answered in detail. In a word President Harrison found in the neighborhood of $200-000,000 of surplus money in the Treasury Department over and above the $100,000,000 gold reserve on his accession to office. "his he exhausted, as well as about $50,000,000 of annual revenue during his administration.

At the time Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated in 1893 there was practically no free money in the Treasury. By free money is meant money above the so-called $100,000,000 gold reserve. The facts regarding Mr. Harrison's administration can only be obtained by a careful study of public documents.

It is proper for me to add that Mr.
Harrison had given orders for the engraving of bonds to be issued just as Mr. Cleveland is now issuing them, before he retired from office. The letter of his Secretary of Treasury, Mr. Foster, on this subject, is on file with the Treasury Department. Yours,
WM. V. ALLEN

ASSESSORS

In a few days those individuals known as assessors will begin to assume some importance. They will be around to know just what your possessions are and what you are worth. By their work alone is the amount of every man's tax, State and county, calculated and placed on the tax duplicate for collection.
When the importance of the office of township assessor is taken into consideration it is remarkable that the public take so little interest in selecting the persons qualified to fill it. Out of ten persons acting as assessors not more than two of them, generally speaking, are worthy of the position. They should be men of a good knowledge of the present value of land, lots and personal property, and without prejudice.
Instead, however, they are generally political favorites, broken down politicians, hangers-on about county offices, and opposed from principle to much manual or mental labor. Look around and see if this is not about the kind of men selected to appraise the property of men having taxes to pay. It may be that first class business men will not have such place for the remuneration that is in it, but certain it is they are rarely to be found on assessor's pay rolls.

NICHOLSON RENOMINATED.

At the primary nominating election in Howard county last week by the republicans, Nicholson, the author of the temperance law bearing his name was renominated for Representative. Nicholson by his law has disarranged the plans and business to a great extent among a certain class of citizens. It was generally thought from the enmity he had created in Howard county that some one else would be chosen for the position. Howard is largely republican and Nicholson will be re-elected.

The apportionment suit was filed in the supreme court last Thursday week.
This is the suit of the republicans committee to set aside the apportionment act of 1885. The court will be asked to advance the case immediately that a decision may be given in five or six weeks.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
