H. S. BRADEN'S CARD.

In the daily Crawfordsville Journal of Saturday, H. S. Braden, a republican and a money lender, publishes the following card:

Notice.
To Whom It May Concern:

In order that those so clamorous for "Free Silver" may be aided in keeping it (when they get it), I hereby give notice that on and after this date loans will only be made on notes payable in gold, or present standard, or its equivalent. Renewals, if made at all, will be on notes with above conditions, and amply secured. Notes not paid promptly, as they mature, will at once be placed in hands of attorney for collection, as I desire to be repaid in money of same purchasing power as had that I furnished.

H. S. BRADEN.

August 15, 1896.

Of course Mr. Braden has the right to dictate any terms, he may choose in loaning money, may demand payment of notes due him in gold or anything else he may feel so disposed to ask—pay in diamonds if the drawer of the note so agrees, but it should be remembered that such work all in accordance with the republican electioneering plan will not in the long run prove triumphant. Simply because an individual exercises his right to think and act on the financial question as his conscience dictates, he should not be forced through it to undergo bodily and mental suffering in seeking to pay off pecuniary obligations which he may assume. Men of the Braden mode of thinking and acting, and they exist in every community, may eventually create a trouble from which they will call upon the rocks and mountains to hide them. They can create want, they can create suffering, they can create desperation and anarchy.
It would have been in much better taste had Braden personally informed men dealing with him of his determination instead of carding his business through a newspaper. However, as stated, this is in accordance with the the republican electioneering system and more of it will be hereafter seen. If however, it succeeds in securing votes for the McKinley cause it will only be another instance where, through intimadation and fear, men have been compelled to forego a matter of conscience and yield to the often unjust demands of wealth.

The mosque of St. Sophia at Constantinople, was laid up in mortar perfumed with musk. It was built 1,000 years ago yet the musky smell is still noticeable.

A CHALLENGE NOT ACCEPTED.

Bonnell Says They (the Republican Central Committee) Have Made Other Arrangements.

The following correspondence between the Chairman of the Central Committee explains itself:

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., Aug. 11, '96.
Mr. John R. Bonnell, Chairman Montgomery County Republican Com.

Dear Sir:

As this is to be a campaign of education by all of the great political parties, I think the people of Crawfordsville and vicinity would be greatly benefited by having a joint discussion between the republicans and democrats on the financial questions, the speakers to have talent.

I do this day challenge you and your committee to meet me and my committee to arrange a series of joint discussions (two or more) the committees to arrange the preliminaries, to begin not later than the 1st of September.

Yours Respectfully,
TAYLOR THOMPSON,
Chairman Dem. Com.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., Aug. 14, '96.

Mr. Taylor Thompson, Chairman Montgomery County Democratic Committee.

DEAR SIR:

Realizing full well that this will be a campaign of education, and believing that better results can be obtained through a system of speeches already arranged for by our committee, we respectfully decline at the present to enter into arrangements for joint discussion of the silver question in accordance with your favor of the eleventh inst.

Yours Very Truly,
JOHN R. BONNELL,
Chairman Rep. Com.

THE DISORGANIZERS.

Brynm, Wilson and other democrats about Indianapolis, who are organizing the bolt so far as this State is concerned against the regular nominees for president and vice president of the democracy of the nation, are simply digging their own political graves.
What efforts they make toward disrupting and disorganizing the party through nominating another ticket against Bryan and Sewell, will in the next political fight hereafter rise up in judgment against them. The democracy can have hereafter no further use for them and, unless they join the ranks of the opposition, should retire permanently from politics. The party can have no further use for them whatever may be the result of the November election.
Failing to have the sentiment of the party accord with theirs they proceed deliberately to wreck it if they can. A much more honorable way would have been, it would strike the average observer, for such persons if dissatisfied, to at least remain quiet. They perhaps would be much better satisfied with the election of McKinley than Bryan, since they have started out on their disorganizing course. The various State and territorial conventions sent delegates to Chicago who were democrats and who represented the sentiment of the party in nominating Bryan and Sewell.
These bolters in aiming, as they allege, to save the party, are taking a peculiar course to do so, and hereafter numbers of them who may not go over to the republicans will find themselves permanently alone, as so other political organization would desire their company nor their influence.

TAXING INCOMES.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, in his address accepting the nomination for president on the democratic ticket touches on the matter of the income tax which was in-grafted in the Wilson tariff bill, but subsequently declared unconstitutional and inoperative. There are hundreds of men millionaires in this country who do not pay as much tax to support the institutions of this country as many others worth not more than a tenth as much. Without the intercession of long headed lawyers or pompous courts any one knows this is not just nor equitable and that a law should and could be enacted to reach the wealthy who do not bear the just burdens of taxation.
Any law that forces millionaires anywhere in this country to pay what they justly should in the way of taxation some how or other is always discovered to be unconstitutional where they make the proper effort to so have it ruled that way, while nothing of this kind is found out where the middle classes are compelled to pay. Will ever a law be enacted compelling millionaires to pay the amount of taxes they should in this country? At the rate at which things have been going for years past it is doubtful.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

The State campaign opened on the part of the democracy all over the State on Saturday. Meetings were held in almost every county and very generally well attended. The prospects in Indiana to-day are very encouraging for free silver, the people are reading and investigating, and accessions from the republican ranks are numerous.

Taken in time Hood's Sarsaparilla prevents serious illness by keeping the blood pure and all the organs in a healthy condition.

GOLD NOTES.

A bank in this city has recently had some blank notes printed in which it is stipulated that the borrower of money of it, must on payment liquidate in gold coin. Considering the scarcity of it compared to paper or silver, the majority of men borrowing money cannot and will not be able to meet this requirement, and litigation in vast quantities must result from it. Taken to the highest courts of the land it is doubtful if the payments of notes thus stipulated can be enforced, but in this the best legal minds of the country will be of different conclusions. Depositors in banks so disposed will insist in many cases that their checks shall also be paid in gold. And what bank could pay h ur after hour demands upon it for gold? The entire proceeding seems in accordance with the gold bug plan to distress the people as much as possible, and force them into voting for Mc-Kinley and the platform on which his party leaders forced him to stand. It will not work. The people are seeking relief from their present distressed financial condition, but they will not be intimidated, nor driven from opinions which they believe to be right. These men seeking such plans to enforce their ideas may sow a wind from which may arise a whirlwind.

MEXICAN DOLLARS.

The purchase of Mexican dollars here by several business houses and the offering of them for sale at 50 and 55 cents, is all in accordance with the designs and orders of the national and State republican central committees.
It is a part of the republican campaign program, the object being to convince the voters that the American dollar of 100 cents would be likewise depreciated if free silver doctrines prevail and are brought into practice. The exhibition of Mexican silver dollars was instigated by the republican leaders at the instance of the syndicates who have waxed rich in buying government bonds, and who can well afford to pay the costs of such work if they can continue to have laws enacted, as heretofore, for this especial benefit. The gold bugs foot the bills for such work. They can well afford to so long as they can force the government to dance to their music.
Business men who permit themselves to become the tools of these politicians are certainly engaged in a contemptible calling. Mexico and this country are as different in everything as there is between day and night, and the attempt to compare her financial management, resources etc., with this is ridiculous.
Throw around silver the same legal safeguards and privileges that is given gold, and every dollar of it will continue to be worth 100 cents as it is now.

From Washington City comes a special, under date of Aug. 8, which gives information that the republican campaign managers have arranged to raise a campaign corruption fund of $25,000,000 with which they propose to make Mc-Kinley's election sure if possible, and most of this corruption fund is to be used in the States of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Maryland and West Virginia.
The way they figure it is that they are reasonably sure to carry the New England States, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and these States with the 125 electoral votes coming from the States named above which they expect to deluge with money and buy, will give them victory; they believe these States are naturally for Bryan and they propose to override the public will by corrupting corruptible voters.
