IN THE MCKINLEY INTEREST.

The observer of political affairs is soon satisfied that the alleged "national" democratic convention at Indianapolis this week had two objects in view in the matter if nothing else—self revenge and in the interest of McKinley. Bryan was nominated by delegates, democratic too, from every State of the Union, and is as much entitled to it as was Tilden or Cleveland in national conventions of the past. A few of the leaders of antiquated views, men who had aided in bringing about the depressed condition of the party, thought different and as much as motives of revenge as anything else aided and encouraged the present movement. Their object is, if possible, to defeat Bryan. They have no more hope of electing a president than do the prohibitionists. They want to take votes away from Bryan.
They know by it that they, to some extent, can aid McKinley and protection, and cripple Bryan and free silver. What in particular has Bynum, Vilas, Palmer and others in this movement, done for the party. If anything, they have been well paid for it. Every man of them has for years been an office holder, and could perhaps not make a decent living away from office. The time is at hand to throw such driftwood out on the shore. They have created the time themselves and if they remain away permanently from the party it suffers no loss. Men with new ideas, with a determination to place the party on a higher plain are now at the head. They are progressive, thinking, industrious men, and know the party's needs. The public can fully understand the object of the Indianapolis movement, and republicans are secretly encouraging it.
They glory in seeing a division of the party. It counteracts the Teller movement at the St. Louis convention.
After the election is over these individuals of the Bynum hue will have ample time for reflection, and so will the other parties at their ignominious conduct in the present campaign, but the remembrance that they, as democrats, sought to bring around the election of McKinley, a republican, will not soon be forgotten.

HON. W. J. BRYAN will probably make three or four speeches in Indiana next month, among the places to be visited being South Bend, Indianapolis and Terre Haute.

WHY HE WON'T SUPPORT HIM.

The editor of the Delphi Times who refuses to support Cheadle, and for the very sensible reason that he is not a democrat and never claimed to be, says in an extract below:

"I want the democrats of Carroll county to plainly understand that I am supporting every candidate nominated on the democratic national, state, senatorial, judicial and county tickets; that I will not support C. B. Landis or Joseph B. Cheadle for the reason that they are two rank republicans.

Some of the dampfools of the party up there lately sent out notices over the district that the Times, of Delphi, was no longer the democratic party organ because it refused to support a republican for Congress, but so long as its editor keeps a level head there is no trouble to be feared on that score, and the Times will continue to exist as it has for near a half century, the true representative of the democracy of Carroll county, while the pewees who chatter so much against it will soon pass into oblivion. The dictum of a few officious persons of a party does not make or unmake the policy, standing nor influence of a newspaper. That same thing was tried on THE REVIEW four years ago by a certain central committee, but its declaration did not amount to a curse and in this case will not with the Delphi Times. "Be sure you are right. Then go ahead."

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Why should gold monometallism be continued as the financial policy of the government?

Is it not gradually ruining business throughout the United States?

Does it not open up the doors of the federal treasury to the most shameful raids of the gold rings?

Are not $40,000,000 per annum too much for the people of the United States to contribute to the support of the London and New York gold alliance?

Does not the republican platform adopted at St. Louis sanction these predatory incursions upon the people's money?

Did not Maj. McKinley consent to the raids of the gold ring when he accepted the nomination of the plutocratic millionaire convention, which assembled in St. Louis last June?

Is it possible for the gold rings to make any more raids on the treasury if the financial plank of the Chicago platform is indorsed by the people next November, and afterward formulated into a law?

Does any one doubt that William J.
Bryan will throttle the British and New York gold combination, if he is ever commissioned by the people to do it?

Why, then, not elect him president of the great republic?

MCKINLEY'S LETTER.

After a nomination made three months ago McKinley last week in a letter, concludes to accept it, discouraging as the prospect is of an election it is probable that his managers have held him back purposely in order to see what Bryan would say. Bryan has said. He has said many able things.
He has not sought to hide his light under a bushel. He is not under the control of a gold syndicate, but does his own thinking and speaks out fearlessly. McKinley, even if elected, would be a mere puppet in the hands of scheming politicians, as he is to-day.
His letter of acceptance is simply a re-hash of republican campaign speeches, and no doubt his keepers dictated to him just what to say and in what manner he should say it.

THE CAMPAIGN LIAR.

The reports of any correspondent regarding the numbers in attendance at any political meeting, should not be published by any newspaper unless the crowd has been counted. It is an old stereotyped system of falsifying that has been a feature of campaigns for many years. It would seem necessary to lie in matters of this kind for the purpose of helping out the party. The campaign liar should have been set aside years ago, yet he seems as numerous in this campaign as ever.

THE Indianapolis bolters national democratic convention has not created one-half the interest its managers had anticipated, even with the aid of the republican managers thrown in. If Indiana is one of its strongholds, then its strength is contemptible and amounts to nothing. It is questionable if the total vote in Indiana of the bolters' ticket will amount to over 10,000 or 12,000.

It is announced that ex-President Harrison is to take the stump in behalf of the gold bug ticket. He is to lead the forlorn hope. He is the ablest speaker they have, yet he is a back number compared to Bryan so far as oratorical abilities are concerned. There are very few speakers of the past two decades whose efforts on the stump have equalled Bryan's.

B. F. HAVENS, of Terre Haute, says he was "compelled" to leave the democratic party. Of course it was not because Cleveland refused to give him an office.
But, then, some of his best friends say so.

The United States never issued bonds payable in gold. They are payable in "coin."

'A CHANGE AT LEAST.

The gold standard people are prolific in prophecies regarding what will happen if the free silver national ticket prevails at the November. They know not one thing more about it than anybody else. It is one thing certain, however, business will not be near so good with speculators and note shavers then as it is now. The misfortunes of the people are the fortunes of a small certain class of every community. If money is high and hard to get, it is a blessing to those having it to sell. Money plenty and business with them is poor. The great mass of the people, the producers and laboring people, are seeking and hoping to better their present condition, to get better prices for that which they have to sell, to get away from pincy times and be in a condition where they may not be in distress. The free silver doctrine to them seems the best—the gold standard times which now prevail, the worst.
During the three past years we have had fitting illustrations of what "sound money," "gold standard" will do. Can you blame the people for desiring a change, whatever it may be? It does not look like money matters could be much worse, or times much duller, or labor poorer paid than during the past few years. And the gold standard men want all this to continue. Not at all, the people say, if it can be prevented.

THE COUNTRY IN PERIL.

In a speech in Maine Monday Senator Frye said that he believed this country was in "absolute peril, even more so than during the civil war," and the senator is right. Why? The money power and the people are in a death grapple.
If the former wins the latter will be its slaves for at least the next twenty five years, and perhaps for as long a time as the nation lives.

The most startling feature of the situation is that the republican party leaders are "standing in" with the money power.

Without it there would have been no odious gold plank adopted at St. Louis.

The money power dictated that plank.
The money power dictated McKinley's nomination.

The money power is supplying the corruption fund to elect him.

The money power will run his administration.

The money power will be the administrative.

The money power will dictate the financial policy of the government.

The money power will plunder the United States treasury just as it has frequently done during the past year.

These are all self-evident propositions.
No one can deny their truth.

Senator Frye is correct. The country is in absolute peril.—Ex.

BRYAN'S visit to the east will, no doubt be of vast benefit to him. Thousands who heard him were impressed with his sincerity, the justice of his cause, and the truths which, by his speeches were made plain to them, and many of them will vote for him despite the gold bug influences of the east.

VOTERS who curse the last legislature for its many foolish acts, its unconstitutional laws, and the general spirit of robbery that characterized it, should bear in mind that Capt. McCrea, who is again a candidate, voted for all acts proposed by his party members. Spot him.

VOTERS should remember that if they remove from one township to another after the 3d of September they will lose their vote, and if they remove from one precinct to another, although in the same township, after October 3 they will lose their vote.

HOKE SMITH resigned his position last week as Secretary of the Interior, the first of Cleveland's present cabinet to resign. The pension agents will have a new man to curse hereafter in their dealings in that department.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufac-contains no mercury, and is taken interand mucous surfaces of the system. In
