

MOTHERS MUST GUIDE.

Should Watch the Physical Development of Their Daughters.

Information They Should Furnish at the Proper Time—Knowledge by Which Suffering May Be Avoided.

Every mother possesses information of vital value to her young daughter. When the girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness, and a disposition to sleep, pains in back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike to the society of children: when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then, her mother should come to her aid. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will, at this time, prepare the system for the coming change. See that she has it, and Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., will cheerfully answer any letters where information is desired. Thousands of women owe their health to her and the Vegetable Compound, and mothers are constantly applying to her for advice regarding their daughters.

A Dandy Thing to Sell.

I have been doing so well this summer selling combination dippers that I think it is my duty to tell others about it. I have not made as much money as some I read about, but I never make less than $3, and often $5 a day; the dipper can be used as a fruit jar filler; a plain dipper, a fine strainer; a strainer funnel; a sick room warming pan; and a pint measure. These eight different uses makes the dipper such a necessary article that it sells at nearly every house, as it is so cheap. You can get a sample by sending, as I did, 18 two-cent stamps to pay postage, etc., to W. H. Baird & Co., Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., and they will mail you a dipper, and you can go right to work. Any one can make $3 or $4 a day anywhere.

Did You Ever Make Money Easy?

Mr. Editor.—I have read how Mr. C. E. B. made so much money in the Dish Washer business and think I have beat him. I am very young yet and have had little experience in selling goods, but have made over eight hundred dollars in ten weeks selling Dish Washers. It is simply wonderful how easy it is to sell them. All you have to do is to show the ladies how they work and they cannot help but buy one. For the benefit of others I will state that I got my start from the Mount City Dish Washer Co., St. Louis, Mo. Write to them and they will send you full particulars.

I think I can clear over $3,000 the coming year, and I am not going to let the opportunity pass. Try it and publish your success for the benefit of others.

He should leave Montgomery county permanently, or he may yet be returned to his old quarters where whisky drinking and drunken rows are unknown.

It is said that the reason Maggie Keller, tried and acquitted of the murder of Clara Shanks last year in Parke county, went to Iowa to live is because she wants to bring a suit for damages in the Federal court and as long as she is a resident of the state she cannot do it, but when she has lived in Iowa six months she can then bring the suit in the Federal court, and it is thought that is what she will do.

At an inn near Place Rochehouart, in Paris, there is an exchange for the hiring of artists' models. They assemble there every Monday and Tuesday in the hope of obtaining employment. When engaged the models are generally paid from 15 to 30 francs per week. Sometimes they get more. They sit for three hours a day. When artists are seeking for models the palm of beauty and symmetry of figure is given to the girls of Spain, while those of Ireland are a good second. The prettiest faces and most graceful throats are said to be found among the English maidens. A model for a perfect arm is sought for among the Grecian women. Italian women are noted among the Parisian artists for having the best figures.

THE TINIEST BICYCLE GIRL.

Little Margerie Payne, of Tonawanda, N. Y. Is an Expert.

There is something funny in the spectacle of an octogenarian—man or woman—clad in the outing garb of the period, scorching up and down the bicycle paths in the park, gay as if the wheel's magic had cancelled half a century of their years and made them young again. But it is funnier yet to see little Margerie Payne, who is without question the most diminutive wheel-woman in the world, stooping over the handle bars of her miniature machine and doing her baby best to make pace for her father. Small Margerie is the daughter of Lewis T. Payne, a leading member of the Tonawanda bar. Before the mite had forsaken her baby talk she began to clamor for a "bitick," and at last her parent ordered a machine for her from a western house. The wheel has a tiny twelve-inch frame, wheels which look almost like watch wheels, and is probably the smallest ever known for actual use, but is thoroughly first-class in every respect. The little mistress of this lilliputian conveyance learned to ride very readily, and from constant practice has reached a degree of expertness which is incredible. Though only a little over four years old, she can ride at a rattling pace, and without touching so much as a baby finger to the handles.

Remarkable Work of a Time Crane.

A writer on "Animal Helpers and Servers," in the Cornhill Magazine, gives a remarkable account of a tame crane communicated by Von Seyffert. Von Seyffert had a pair of tame cranes, which soon lost all fear of man and of domestic animals, and became strongly attached to the former. Their life in a German village, in which agriculture was the sole employment, and the communal system of joint herding of cattle and swine, and driving them together to the common pasture, prevailed, was very much to their taste. They soon knew all the inhabitants in the place, and until the female crane died, used to call regularly at the houses to be fed. Then the female died, and the survivor at once took as a new friend a bull. He would stand by the bull in the stall and keep the flies off him, screamed when he roared, danced before him and followed him out with the herd. In this association the crane saw and remarked the duties of the cow-herd, and one evening he brought home the whole of the village herd of heifers unaided, and drove them into the stable. From that time the crane undertook so many duties that it was busy from dawn till night. He acted as policeman among the poultry, stopping all fights and disorder. He would stand by a horse when left in a cart, and prevent it from moving by pecking its nose and screaming. A turkey and a gamecock were found fighting, whereon the crane first fought the turkey, and then sought out and thrashed the cock. Meantime it always "herded" the cattle, not always with complete success. These were collected in the morning by the sound of a horn, and some would lag behind. On one occasion the crane went back drove up some lagging heifers through the street, and then frightened them so much that they broke away and ran two miles in the wrong direction. The bird could not bring them back, but drove them into a field, where it guarded them until they were fetched. It would drive out trespassing cattle as courageously as a dog, and unlike most bodyguards, was a universal favorite, and the pride of the village.

Trinidad's Pitch Lake.

A remarkable phenomenon in the Island of Trinidad is the "Pitch lake," situated at La Brea, about sixteen miles from the Port of Spain, the capital of the island. It is about one and a half miles in circumference and elevated 80 feet above the level of the sea. The water is covered almost entirely with a stratum of asphaltum, traversed by fissures and crevices filled with water. The pitch at the sides is perfectly hard and cold, but as one walks towards the middle the heat gradually increases, and the pitch becomes softer and softer. At last it is seen boiling up in a liquid state and the air is strongly impregnated with bitumen and sulphur. During the rainy season it is possible to walk over nearly the whole lake, but in the hot weather a great part cannot be approached. This pitch is much used in the island for roads, pavements and roofs, and is exported to the United States and Canada.

Exchange for Models.

At an inn near Place Rochehouart, in Paris, there is an exchange for the hiring of artists' models. They assemble there every Monday and Tuesday in the hope of obtaining employment. When engaged the models are generally paid from 15 to 30 francs per week. Sometimes they get more. They sit for three hours a day. The Costermongers of London.
There are some 60,000 costermongers who carry on business in the streets of London. Their capital is supposed to be $250,000, while they are said to do a trade during the year of $15,000,000. The profits of this turnover are about $5,000,000.

GENERAL STATE NEWS.

W. R. McKeen, of Terre Haute, recently celebrated his sixty-seventh birthday anniversary.

Lee Linn, a versatile writer, has resigned his editorial connection with the Wabash Tribune.

Dr. Herman Von Gutschmidt, who suddenly left Hammond, committed suicide in Chicago by taking morphine.

Quite a number of counterfeit silver quarters, bearing the date 1892, '93 and '94, have recently been circulated at Ft. Wayne.

The diphtheria epidemic in Delaware county is practically stamped out, Daleville being the only point still giving trouble.

Burglars entered the St. Joe county infirmary, knocked down the superintendent's son and robbed the superintendent of $50.

Hon. John G. Williams, one of the prominent members of the Terre Haute bar, will remove to Indianapolis immediately after election to continue the practice of law.

J. W. Fisher, of Lagrange county, plowed up a copper coin about the size of a silver dollar. One side is inscribed "Specie payment suspended May 10, 1837," while upon the other side was stamped "Substitute for Shipplasters."

An Industries Committee.

No central committee that the democracy of the county have ever had has worked more industriously than the gentlemen occupying that position at the present, and let the results be whatever they may, it cannot be said the committee has at any time failed in its duties. Especially have the chairman, and secretary, assisted by M. J. Carroll, been active and alert at all times. A large amount of political literature has been sent out over the county, addresses to be made by any public speakers have been promptly advertised, and all the machinery necessary to keep political movements going, has been kept in good running order. Members of the party every where in the county should, when demanded, promptly aid the committee when called upon, thereby rendering its work less difficult and accomplishing results more speedily. The committee has one more week of hard work, and every one anxious for success should aid it to the extent of his time and ability when so requested.

Novel Election Bet.

Another novel bet has been made in Philadelphia. The loser is to resign his present position and for a year take up one in an entirely different branch of industry.

A wager was drawn up at St. John, Kas., the other day, as follows: "W. Glascock and C. Burnett make an agreement this day, that if McKinley is defeated, Glascock is to eat a large, warty toad, but if he is elected, Burnett is to eat the toad."

Two young men of Philadelphia have been paying marked attention to the same young lady. They have decided to let the election settle matters for them. If the democrat wins, the republican is to stop calling on the young lady for six months, and vice versa.

Under the requirements of an election bet, druggist Krautzman, of Sedalia, Neb., will saw and split a cord of wood in front of his store in the event of Bryan's success, whereas McKinley's victory will call for like exercise on the part of V. R. Hall, the other party to the wager.

NOWADAYS, when women are trying to do everything it is not strange that many things are overdone. It is not strange that there are all kinds of physical and mental disturbances. If the woman is a doctor, or a lawyer, or a journalist, or in business would not try to be a society woman too it might be different; but the woman who knows when she has done a day's work has yet to be born. Usually a woman's way is to keep doing until she drops.

Working in this way has manifold evils. As an old colored Aunt used to say: "There's always something the matter. It isn't one thing or two." The most common trouble resulting from over-exertion, either mentally or physically, is constipation of the bowels, with all its attendant horrors.

There is no human ailment that so saps the energies, so deadens the ambitions, as that coming from the bowels forgetting their vocation, or the liver only working about eight hours out of the twenty-four.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most effectual remedy in the market. They work upon the system easily, naturally. There is no unpleasant nausea after taking them. No griping—no pain—no discomfort. They are composed of materials that go through the system gradually, collecting all impurities and like the good little servants that they are, disposing of them effectually.

MRS. ROSANNA M. BLISS, of Colusa, Oregon County, New York, says:

"I had suffered much with dizziness, sometimes faintness from too much mental work. Over exertion physically caused constipation of the bowels, I tried liver pills. They gave temporary relief. Two years ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I have, at intervals, used three bottles, and I am now enjoying uninterrupted good health."

Yours truly,

Rosanna M. Bliss.

The New Hook Spoon Free to All.

I read in the Christian Standard that Miss A. M. Fritz, Stanton, A. M., St. Louis, Mo., would give an elegant plated hook spoon to anyone sending her ten 5-cent stamps. I sent for one and found it so useful that I showed it to my friends, and made $13.00 in two hours, taking orders for the spoon. The hook spoon is a household necessity. It cannot slip into the dish or cooking vessel, being held in the place by a hook on the back. The spoon is something that housekeepers have needed ever since spoons were first invented. Anyone can get a sample spoon by sending ten 5-cent stamps to Miss Fritz. This is a splendid way to make money around home.

Very truly,
JEANNETTE G.

A Chance to Make Money.

I have made $1,640 clear money in 87 days and attended to my household duties besides, and I think this is doing splendid for a woman inexperienced in business. Anyone can sell what everyone wants to buy, and every family wants a Dish Washer. I don't canvass at all; people come or send for the washer, and every washer that goes out sells two or three more, as they do the work to perfection. You can wash and dry the dishes in two minutes. I am going to devote my whole time to this business now and I am sure I can clear $5,000 a year. My sister and brother have started in the business and are doing splendid. You can get complete instructions and hundreds of testimonials by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., and if you don't make lots of money it's your own fault.

Mrs. W. H.
Sept. 5-13 w.

A Money Maker in Hard Times.

I have for the past five years had a pretty hard struggle to make a living, but about three months ago I began selling self heating flat irons and have made from four to five dollars every day, which I think is pretty good for an inexperienced woman, my brother is now selling irons and makes more than I do but he has sold other things and is more experienced. The iron is self heating, so it is the proper heat all the time; and you can iron in half the time you commonly do and have the clothes much nicer, you can iron out under a tree or in any cool place and one cent's worth of Benzoin will do an ordinary ironing so you save the price of the price of the price of the iron in a few weeks. By addressing W. A. Baird & Co., Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., you can get full particulars, and I know any one can do splendidly any where. We sell at nearly every house and any woman that irons once with a self heating iron will have one, as it saves so much labor and does so much better work.
