REPUBLICAN SPOILSMEN.

There is simply no possibility for a man to be a republican and a spoilsman, —Indianapolis News.

The above quotation contains more gall and more falsehood than any short sentence we remember to have read in a long time. A republican not a spoilsman!
The thousands of republicans now in office and those that have enjoyed official positions in the past who read or hear of this, must laugh in derision.
Any one at all familiar with the political history of this country must acknowledge that the republican is the most gigantic spoils organization ever known to the country. It is the originator, beginning with 1861, of every scheme to retain power and plunder the people. It created more offices for its henchmen than ever dreamt of in a free government and hundreds of which were unnecessary. It began by doubling the salary of the president from $25,000 to $50,000 per year, and continued the custom by increasing the salaries of congressmen and thousands of government offices, and has shown no disposition, although in control most of the time, to reduce, loop or abolish any unnecessary position.
Most of the contractors for government supplies during and since the war have been republicans, and they have gutted the government treasury right and left.
They have been spoilsmen and they were in for the spoils at every opportunity.
A republican cabinet officer under Grant sold post sutlerships and has been honored with an expensive monument over his grave as a mark of esteem, probably from those he had favored. The cohesive power of public plunder has held the republican party together in the past and unites them today. Who roars against civil service reform today? Republicans more than any others. A republican not a spoilsman! What a joke.
The News must just have been a "fun-in" a little when it said that.

MUCH ASSURANCE.

Gov. Mount in a speech the other day said he would have the satisfaction of seeing the State debt created by former democratic administrations extinguished before leaving his office. The gall and intended misrepresentation of this little pop-in-jay official is remarkable.
The State debt at its highest figures within the past twenty years was near $10,000,000. With the increase in our population within that time the erection of large numbers of buildings as benevolent institutions has been necessary, also for penal institutions, State educational institutions, and also a State House.
These all cost vast sums of money, and republican legislators voted for the construction of them. This is the democratic administration's State debt that this man refers to—debts that were absolutely necessary to contract.
As soon as these improvements were completed the debt of the State began to lessen and has since, and long before the Governor was brought out of the wilds of Franklin township to assume his office. The reduction of the State debt was going on during the administration of Gov. Matthews. Another thing this boasting individual will do will be to remember—the State debt will not be extinguished by the time Mount is ready to go back to the plow.

It would look judging from the names heretofore mentioned as candidates for U. S. Senator before the next general assembly of Indiana by the republicans that they had gone down to the bottom tier for timber and were short of material. Wallace, Mount, J. Frank Hanly, Taylor, etc! Wouldn't any of them be very obscure patterns to follow in the footsteps of Henry S. Lane, O. P. Morton, Thos. A.
Hendricks and Jos. E. McDonald? The party leaders should cast their seines for another haul and see if they cannot bring up a better breed of small fry.

It is said that a man's hair turns gray five years earlier than a woman's.

LEGISLATIVE JOLIFICATION.

Some fifty members of the late State legislature met at Indianapolis one day last week to have a sort of love feast—eat, drink and exaggerate their importance.
Gov. Mount addressed them. He spoke of the great work and usefulness of the last session of the law makers, and the benefit arising from their work.
This must certainly have been intended for sarcasm. There has not been a session in many years where so many laws have been declared unconstitutional and inoperative than the last.
Even within the past two months efforts have been made to induce the Governor to call the legislature together in extra session to finish up work uncompleted or wrongly done. To credit the last session of law makers with having enacted anything of especial importance should be considered in the nature of a joke, or done for electioneering purposes.

LARGE SUBSCRIPTION LIST.

THE REVIEW begins the year 1898 with the largest paid subscription list it has had before for nine or ten years—and all at $1.00 each. Some publishers can, or say they can, send two papers per year for $1.00 per year. We cannot do this and pay our bills, although there is not a dollar of mortgage on our establishment. The subscription price of THE REVIEW will remain $1.00, not a cent less. Our paper is taken in large numbers at every post office in the country, and even at Jamestown, Wallace, Roachdale, Romney and several other post offices outside the county, has several hundred subscribers. We trust every subscriber will feel that at the close of the year he has had full remuneration for the dollar invested.

J. FRANK HANLEY, the Tippecanoe county statesman, who parts his name in the middle, is a candidate for U. S.
Senator, notwithstanding the fact that he is not in it at any stage of the game.
J. Frank missed it greatly in not having Kurnal Wingate as his advisor. With the Kurnal behind him to advise and reprove at such times as it would be needed, he might have some show.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh "are taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitutional and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list FINCASTLE, IND., Dec. 18, '97.—Everywhere we go we find some one who has been benefitted by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great medicine numbers its friends by the tens of thousands. "My mother has been troubled for some time with rheumatism and could not sleep. One of her friends advised her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she did so.
She has taken several bottles, and she is so much relieved from the rheumatism that she can now sleep well."

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Easy and yet efficient.

We live in a country of which the principal scourge is stomach trouble.
It is more wide-spread than any other disease, and, very nearly, more dangerous.

One thing that makes it more dangerous is that it is so little understood.

If it were better understood, it would be more feared, more easily cured, less universal than it is now.

So, those who wish to be cured, take Shaker's Digestive Cordial, because it goes to the root of the trouble as no other medicine does. The pure, harmless, curative herbs and plants, of which it is composed, are what render it so certain and, at the same time, so gentle a cure.

It helps and strengthens the stomach, purifies and tones up the system.
Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

cisely the nature and quality of all ingredients used.

Robbed of His Sweetheart and His Sophronia.

HARLES SWAIN, the Lewis (Pa.) hermit, died the other day at his home near Trout Run, and his body was buried by the poor overseers of Lewis township, upon whose hands the old man had been a charge for several years. The death of "Charley" Swain ends a unique career. He was 87 years old, and in his long life experienced many ups and downs. Indeed, it need only be said that he was once worth $140,000 to show that he once enjoyed some of the "ups" of life.
Most of his money was made while boating on the Lehigh canal. He was once an intimate friend of Thaddeus Stevens and Asa Packer. He never married, for a romance that occurred when he was about 25 years of age turned the love tide against him. He loved and wooed a young woman in the northern part of Pennsylvania. Her name was Sophronia. Their wedding day was set, but fate willed otherwise.
