FAIRBANK'S CHOICE.

Among some republicans it is quietly hinted that Fairbanks, the present republican U. S. Senator from Indiana, is secretly favoring Mount for Senator against Wallace for the purpose of furthering his own ambition and interests in the matter. Fairbanks is anxious to be considered the leader of the party in Indiana, the author of all the keynotes to be used in future campaigns of the party, the man to be looked up and consulted as to party management, in fact the idol of the entire combination, the same as Morton and Harrison in past years were. This would not be the case if either Wallace, of this city, or Judge Taylor, of Fort Wayne, should happen to be chosen. The former has now as much standing and influence probably in the party as Fairbanks, and the Fort Wayne man is reported to be his equal fully in intellect. Neither of these men would play second fiddle to Fairbanks. With Mount the case would be different. He would be a mere puppet in the hands of Fairbanks. His mouthings, so common to the people of Indiana, would count for nothing before the U. S. Senate. Mount probably would never have thought of himself for Senator had it not been whispered to him quietly through the Fairbanks coterie. There is no question but that the Fairbanks interest would much prefer Mount to either Wallace or Taylor. The ambition of Fairbanks would thus be more quickly satisfied.

HARD TIMES EAST.

The east, the home of the bond holders, the note shavers, the gold bugs, is at last beginning to feel the effect of the hard times, and the gold standard policy, so dearly desired by them. Many thousands of persons in Massachusetts and Connecticut are now realizing the effect of hard times in being thrown out of employment or forced to work at starvation prices. Many employees in cotton mills, shoe factories and other large manufacturing establishments whose pay per day had been from $2 to $4, are compelled to accept $1.00 per day, or remain idle. All these people were supporters of the McKinley ticket in 1896, and are now realizing some of the "prosperity" that was to come with his election.

HAMILTON COUNTY NOT IN IT.

At a meeting of the republican delegates to the district convention at Noblesville last week, the delegates from Hamilton county refused to vote for the resolutions indorsing Wallace as a candidate for Senator and Landis for Representative. Of the seven counties of the ninth district, Hamilton county gives usually much the largest majority of any of them for the republican ticket and their actions last week has created consternation among the republicans of the district. They scent defeat of their pet Landis if Hamilton county continues contrary as it seems likely to do, and its failure to indorse him after all the other counties have done so gives indications of troubles ahead for the G. O. P.

MONEY is merely a measure of value, not a value. The higher priced money is the greater amount of all things else will it purchase except those things which call for payment of dollars. Cheap money benefits the debtor and producing classes; dear money helps the creditor class—the tax eater and the coupon clipper. That's all there is in the money question. If you favor prosperity among the former class you want money cheapened by increasing its volume, if you want the other class benefited at the expense of the former continue the present gold standard.

THE friends of the Lafayette statesman, the statesman too who parts his name in the middle, J. Frank Hanley, are doing everything to make him seem prominent as a candidate for a U. S. Senator before the coming session of the State legislature, whereas in fact he has not near the influence nor money of our Crawfordsville statesman, Gen. Wallace. J. Frank Hanley should get the endorsement of Hon. B. Wilson Smith, or get at least a friendly word from the democratic editor up there, W. Bent Wilson.

THE ONE TO NOMINATE.

With the growing unpopularity of Landis, the independent disposition shown by the republicans of Hamilton county, the lukewarm feeling of numerous office wanters in the party, the democrats can this year, we believe, elect their candidate for Congress, providing he be a democrat in thought, action and principle. A fusion candidate cannot, we believe, win under any circumstances.

"Is papa strong as Samson, Aunt?" "Why no, Willie, of course not." "Well, mamma said he had you on his hands for two months."—Scribner's.

THE SAME CONTEST.

The political campaign this year will be fought on the same lines as in 1896. At this gold bug organs, monopolists and money sharks wonder. They seem to be unable to comprehend why the advocates of free silver coinage should desire a renewal of the contest after their defeat and the election of McKinley. The reason is plain. The people have had time to think and reflect, and they can see to where the country is drifting under the gold standard which the McKinley administration represents. They now thoroughly understand the means used to bring about the victory for the gold standard ticket in 1896. They now know that intimidation of voters was one plan adopted, the specious and lying promises were used, but above all they fail to see the "prosperity" that was to immediately follow McKinley's election. All these things have set them to reflecting, and they realize above all things that the legislation of this country is largely in the interest of the wealthy and well-to-do, while the producers, the toilers, are of a secondary consideration. The question is much plainer now to them than two years ago, and they can and will vote more intelligently. The gold bug advocates can have no reason to wonder why free silver men desire the battle over again. A little investigation will open their eyes.

ENE NEBAKER, of Covington, is wanted by many of the republicans active in State politics for the position of chairman of the State central committee. As Nebaker has the capacity to do as much dirty political work as any of them he is undoubtedly the man they want and will probably be chosen.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Seekers after gold are often disappointed. Seekers after health take Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it meets every expectation.

If You Wish To Be Well

You must fortify your system against the attacks of disease. Your blood must be kept pure, your stomach and digestive organs in order, your appetite good. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine to build you up, purify and enrich your blood and give you strength. It creates an appetite and gives digestive power.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

Before 1886 the average number of labor strikes of all kinds in this country was about 500 a year. Since that date the average has been 1,500.

When your stomach begins to trouble you, it needs help. The help it needs, is to digest your food, and until it gets it, you won't have any peace. Stomach trouble is very distressing, very obstinate, very dangerous. Many of the most dangerous diseases begin with simple indigestion. The reason is that indigestion (not-digestion, not-nourishment) weakens the system and allows disease germs to attack it. The antidote is Shaker Digestive Cordial, strengthening, nourishing, curative. It cures indigestion and renews strength and health. It does this by strengthening the stomach, by helping it to digest your food. It nourishes you. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made of pure herbs, plants and wine, is perfectly harmless and will certainly cure all genuine stomach trouble. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

RUNNING FROM VACCINATION.

The Girls Objected to It but Their Outcries Did No Good.

There has been a smallpox scare in Atlanta, Ga., and wholesale vaccination throughout the city is the result, says the Baltimore Sun. Doctors, accompanied by policemen, are making a house-to-house canvass and vaccinating all whom they come across. An amusing incident occurred in one of the big wholesale dry goods houses on Whitehall street. The shopgirls, of whom a large number are employed in the house, were on the watch, and when the cry was made that "the phillistines are upon us" there was the biggest stampede ever witnessed in that dry goods store.

Girls who had been gazing in the faces of customers with looks of proud and haughty defiance during the earlier morning hours fled from their posts with wild yells of fear and it took every cash boy in the house, together with the porters, to corral them. Some hid in the cloak rooms, others secreted themselves in the toilet rooms, some crouched down behind counters in dusky nooks seldom frequented save by rats, which they were willing to brave rather than face the vaccinating brigade. There were tears and pleadings that were heartrending in their pathos, but in spite of all the work went on until the delicate form of every shopgirl in that establishment was dosed with the virus.

Married by Telephone.

J. F. Hull, superintendent of the Polk county (Mass.) telephone line, and Miss Flora Linke, both of Humansville, were married recently over the telephone wire. The bridegroom was at Bolivar, while the bride was at Humansville. A minister was at either end of the wire with the required number of witnesses. All participating were acquainted with one another and recognized the various voices. The witnesses are, therefore, prepared to swear, if ever a question is raised, that they knew of their own knowledge that the ceremony was performed.

Lynched for Hog Stealing.

An aged negro was lynched recently by a mob of white citizens near Sherrill, in Cleveland county, Ark., for hog stealing. When discovered the body of the negro was lying across the dead body of the hog he had stolen. Pinned to the man's clothing was a card bearing the words:

"You will never tell who told you to steal this hog."

The negro lived in a cabin near Sherrill. The hog was of the "Arkansas razorback" variety and was worth about $2. For some time farmers around Sherrill have suffered from the depredations of hog thieves. Suspicion pointed to the negro. He was watched and caught in the act of stealing. The crowd quickly gathered. The thief was strung up to his cabin door and shot.

Marriage of Officers.

Officers in the Russian army are not free to marry when they choose. The restrictive conditions at present in force with regard to matrimony are very severe. In no other army in Europe are the rules so strict. Under no circumstances whatever are officers under the age of 23 permitted to wed. More than that, no matter what his age or rank is, when an officer desires to enter into the matrimonial estate he must first secure the consent of the government through his superior officer. If the groom be between the age of 23 and 28 the bride must bring with her an annual income of at least 260 roubles.

An Owl Fights Two Men.

It was an owl that caused the greatest recent excitement in Waldoboro, Maine. The bird first swooped down on the head of Moses Newbert, lacerating his head and face severely and making off with Mr. Newbert's hat, which was found a few days afterward back of Alden Burnheimer's barn. He afterward attacked Elmus Shuman in the same manner, nearly knocking him over. Mr. Shuman, in his excitement, made a grab and caught the "wise old owl" by the legs. He has him now in close confinement.

Easily Stated.

A committee having in charge a local entertainment went to a noted editor to request him to take part in it. "What do you want me to do, gentlemen?" he asked. "We would like to have you give us a talk on spelling reform," the replied. "Well," he rejoined, "I can give you my idea of spelling reform in one sentence: Just leave 'me' off the 'program.'"

His Specialty.

"Do you think Kaiser William is really crazy?" "I don't know whether he is or not, but he seldom lets a day go by without making a lot of other people crazy."
