

CRAWFORDSVILLE REVIEW.

ESTABLISHED 1841.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, INDIANA, SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1898.

57TH YEAR.—NO 35.

The Opening Is Over Crowds Were Immense

And as enthusiastic as large. All day long admiring crowds would linger over the Easter Beauties. Such Hats, such Marvels of the Milliner's Art and Skill had never before been seen in Crawfordsville. Many of the Hats, more than ever before, were sold this week, but new models from New York and many choice new patterns from our own work room have replaced the ravages of the past week, and Monday morning we shall make as fine a display as we did on the opening day. You will surely be pleased if you get your spring hat here.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

The Silks and Dress Goods are a sweet surprise, spiced with bewitching Ribbon and Trimming Bits, and a whole page of this paper would not hold half the story of the goods we have gathered in the Old Trade Palace for spring selling.

SPRING WRAP DEPARTMENT.

The nobbiest Jackets and Capes you ever saw.

DRAPERY DEPARTMENT.

Portiers and Lace Curtains cheaper and richer than ever.

OUR NEW SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Is replete with values that shake the foundation of Low Prices.

CARPET AND WALL PAPER DEPARTMENT.

All the new blendings of beautiful colors are here at prices that give you a glad-I-went-there feeling. Don't miss this Grand display of spring beauty fabrics, loveliest of color harmonies. Fairy fingers could weave no fairer web.

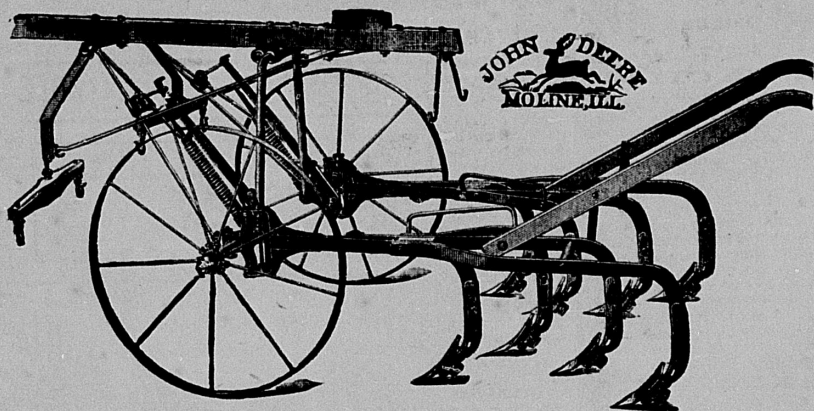

We have never been so well equipped with beautiful, stylish goods at the season's start, and the wonder of wonders is that the prices can be made so little—only half what you would expect. This is your store, come and enjoy it.

HARRY WILSON KILLED.

Meets Death at the Hands of a Michigan City Policeman.

Harry Wilson, young man who was born and raised in this city, and who lived here until about a year ago, was killed in Michigan City Monday night. The deceased was a son of Harmon Wilson, and brother of Fred Wilson, the ball player. Speaking of the tragic affair a special from Michigan City says:

"While Patrolman Barney Dolan was attempting to arrest Harry Wilson yesterday afternoon Wilson resisted and was struck on the head by an officer with his mace. Wilson was taken to the city jail and incarcerated for intoxication and resisting an officer, and no thought was entertained that the means employed was sufficient to cause a fatality.

"But at about 9 o'clock Wilson was found breathing heavily in his cell. Two doctors were called, who informed the brother and the officers that his life was short. He was immediately removed to the residence of his brother, Coody Wilson, a saloonkeeper, where he died at 2 o'clock this morning.

"Wilson had been drinking during the day and about 2 o'clock, in company with several boon companions, Patrolman Dolan saw them and started out to get the party. He followed them into Pangborn's barber shop and told Wilson he was compelled to arrest him. Wilson refused to be arrested and made a pass at the patrolman, when the latter drew his mace and hit him over the head. There was a scuffle between the officer and Wilson, when Wilson was again struck and carried to the city jail. He immediately sank into a comatose condition, which was thought to be a drunken stupor. When he was examined by the physicians his condition was pronounced dangerous. After his death the patrolman was placed in jail to await the verdict of the coroner. A post mortem examination was held this afternoon and it was discovered that his death was caused by a fracture of the skull.

"The coroner has not yet given his verdict, but it is the opinion of every one that it will go hard with the patrolman, as he was not justified in using his mace under the conditions."

A Snug Life Insurance.

C. N. Vancleave, general agent for the New York Life Insurance Co., this week paid to the widow of the late Ashley R. Cadwallader, of West Lebanon, who committed suicide in that town recently, the sum of $11,161.20, the amount of the policies carried by the deceased in that company. Two of the policies were what are known as full return premium policies, the face of which were for $5,000, but the return premiums swelled that amount to $6,224.20. The other was a straight life policy for $5,000. The New York Life is one of the few companies that pays suicide death claims.

"Inshavogue" Monday night.

Zack Mahorney has returned from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mat. Doherty is expected here within a few days on a visit.

William Alston and Ira Stout, of New Richmond, are going to remove to Darlington to engage in business.

Iva Carr was offered a position as trombone player in LaPearl's circus band, which opens the season at Danville on Thursday, but declined.

Several hundred car loads of gravel have been hauled south through here on the Monon this week, and is being used in improving the road bed.

Judge Jenkins, of the United States District Court, delivered his lecture, "The Law and Preparation for the Law," in the college chapel last night. The lecture proved both interesting and instructive and was much enjoyed by those present.

De Pauw University is badly crippled financially and will be short not less than $15,000 in salaries. This state of affairs has been brought about by the exhaustion of the $10,000 set aside by De Pauw and the failure to settle up the estate.

A. F. Ramsey has purchased the Odd Fellows' block on north Green street, the consideration being $4,000. The work of tearing down the building will begin at once and in its stead will be erected a handsome building with all modern improvements.

SPANISH WAR NEWS.

President McKinley Still Holds Back for Time.

In spite of the talk of war between this country and Spain over Cuban matters, no declaration for war has yet been made by either nation. It is thought, however, before another week something definite will be done.

The Washington Post's summary of the situation is as follows:

"The temporary withholding of President McKinley's message from congress was due to the receipt of a cablegram from Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, our consul-general at Havana, advising that if the message contemplated armed intervention it be deferred until all Americans in Cuba could leave the island. He stated that the exodus could be completed by the 10th inst. Members of the foreign affairs committee of the senate and house upon being shown this dispatch have promptly concurred in the opinion of the president that the message should be delayed until next Monday. The utmost confidence is felt by the administration and congress in the wisdom and good judgment of Gen. Lee in any emergency.

"Negotiations with Spain have not been reopened by the United States and will not be. The queen regent has not sent a personal message to the president, making a new proposal for peace. With the influence now at work through foreign diplomatic channels to bring about a settlement of the difficulties between Spain and her rebellious subjects in Cuba this government has absolutely nothing to do. The administration and congress stand pledged to the freedom of Cuba and will accept no solution that does not involve the withdrawal of Spanish troops from the island and the hauling down of the Spanish flag.

"The five great powers have not sent a joint note to the United States counseling against war. Meditation of any sort has not been offered to this government and will not be accepted."

Preparations are still going on briskly in the navy department of the government. Ships are being rapidly constructed, others are being purchased, torpedoes and powder manufactured and hurried to the eastern seashore. Many think there will be no war, others that if there is one it will be short, and result in the independence of Cuba.

More About Smalley.

Riley D. Smalley, who, it is alleged, stole a horse and buggy from his nephew, John T. Smalley, of near Ladoga, and who was being hunted around here Saturday, succeeded in eluding his pursuers, and all traces of him have been lost. Riley Smalley sold the outfit to George Wright, living west of the city, and they came to town together to get the money to pay for it. It was not more than half an hour after Smalley walked out of the bank with the cash when his nephew drove into the public square and identified the horse as his—Greencastle Banner.

Wants Some of Our "Surplus" Cash.

Mrs. Annie M. Murdock, living four miles northeast of Crawfordsville, has brought suit in the circuit court against her city for damages to the amount of $1,000. The complaint alleges that on January 7 the plaintiff slipped on the ice near the Schlemmer saloon, on Market street, and fell with such force as to fracture her arm. Sometime ago Murdock attempted to compromise the case with the city council but that body refused to grant her damages, hence the suit above.

Robbed a Saloon.

Thieves entered the saloon of Bob Allen on West Market street Tuesday night, by prying open a front window. After taking on a copious supply of wet goods and loading up with cigars and some small change they found in the money drawer the thieves departed by the back door. The police have a clue to the guilty parties and expect to have them under arrest in a few days.

Marriage of C. N. Williams.

Wednesday at high noon at the house of the bride's mother, in Lafayette, occurred the marriage of Mr. C. N. Williams and Miss Margaret Doll, Dr. Joseph Tuttle, of this city officiating. The wedding was quiet, only the immediate relatives being present. After an extended wedding tour to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and other eastern points they will take up their residence in Indianapolis.

The Killing of Wilson.

Coroner Long, of Michigan city, has rendered a decision that Harry Wilson came to his death from compression of the brain by a blood clot, resulting from a blow inflicted by Policeman Dolan with his mace. Dolan has been taken to the northern prison for safe keeping, Wilson's friends and relatives threatening violence.

Uncle Daniel Boraker Dead.

Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, at his home, four miles west of the city the spirit of Daniel Boraker took its flight to "that house not built by hands, eternal in the heavens." Mr. Boraker was born in Shenandoah county, Virginia, Sept. 11, 1816, and came to this county in 1833. In 1841 he was married to Nancy Jackson. Eight children were born to them, six of whom still live; Elkanah, John, Ebenezer, Sarah, George and Nancy Jane. Two, Lucinda and Henry, are dead. Mr. Boraker was a life-long democrat, ever believing in the principles of that party. He was a man of splendid character and at all times merited the esteem shown by all who were fortunate enough to know him. The funeral occurred at Wesley Chapel Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended. It was conducted under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of this city, of which order the deceased had been a member for more than forty years.

Blackford-Jones.

Clyde H. Jones, of Ladoga, and Nora E. Blackford were married at the residence of the bride's parents, two miles north of Waynetown, Wednesday at high noon. Rev. Henson, of Waynetown, officiating.

An elaborate wedding dinner followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom repaired to Ladoga to take possession of a new house prepared by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are among the most popular young people of the county and began married life under the most auspicious circumstances.

I. O. O. F. Celebration Off.

The big I. O. O. F. celebration which was arranged to have been in this city July 4 has been declared off. This action was caused by the inability of the Indianapolis lodge to make arrangements with the Big Four railway company for cars for transportation, the company refusing to furnish the same. This turn in affairs is much to be regretted as the celebration gave promise of being one of the largest ever held in the city.

Death of James Fisher.

James Fisher, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Brown township, died at his home Monday evening at 6 o'clock of typhoid fever at the age of 87 years. The funeral occurred at New Market Wednesday evening, and was largely attended. The interment occurred at the Masonic cemetery in this city.

Death of Presley Johnson.

Presley D. Johnson, one of the oldest citizens of Montgomery county, died at his home in Scott township Thursday afternoon, at the age of 82 years. He has been a resident of this county since 1831. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. John C. Hampton, of New Market, and Mrs. Reeves, of Clinton, Mich.

Death of Ed Galloway.

Ed Galloway, a former resident of the city, died at his home in Indianapolis Wednesday night, of dropsy, at the age of 43 years. He leaves a wife and three children. The body was brought to this city yesterday and was interred in Calvary cemetery.

Marriage Licenses.
