HENRY D. VANCE, Chairman.

TAYLOR THOMPSON, Secretary.

Abe Levinson was up from Terre Haute this week.

Sheriff Canine and wife were in Indianapolis this week.

The freeze of Monday and Tuesday played havoc with the growing fruit.

The Sells-Forrepaugh show is billed for exhibition at Indianapolis, May 21.

E. E. Ballard and wife were guests of N. J. Clodfelter in Indianapolis this week.

J. C. Wicker attended the State laundrymen's convention at Indianapolis this week.

Frank Scott, the popular mail carrier, is soon to wed a prominent society young lady of Indianapolis.

The Peoria & Eastern has settled with half the people who were injured in the wreck near Bloomington, Ill., a few days ago.

J. C. Hutchison, Vandalia agent, who has been down with a siege of the grip for two weeks, has recovered and returned to his duties.

James Swank, the Elmdale merchant prince, was in the city Monday. Jim says that democratic prospects in old Coal Creek were never brighter.

Beach & Bowers' big minstrel company will appear at Music Hall Wednesday evening, April 13. Frank Holland, an old Crawfordsville boy, is with the company.

The upset price placed by Judge Taft for the sale of the Clover Leaf is $7,500. William A. Van Buren, of Indianapolis, and H. D. Peck, of Cincinnati have been selected as commissioners to conduct the sale.

Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on in spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying affections of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why: the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York

ELMDALE.

Our school will close next Friday.

Will Rankin is ditching for C. A. Widner.

Sam Humphry was in Crawfordsville Monday.

Will Cox is building fence for 10m Quillen.

Sunday school began last Sunday at the chapel.

Will Foot is doing some plastering for Ab Aimes.

Dr. Olin is having some fencing done on his farm.

Ben Swank and son have begun making their assessments.

Clifford Daisy is having his house finished on the inside.

D. C. Moore and wife visited R. Vancleave at Wingate Sunday.

James Coons and daughter, of the city, are visiting friends here.

The Harmon boys are preparing to run two forges in their shop soon.

James Quick has been doing some improving by building a new fence around his house.

The way is open for bids on carrying the mail from this point to Crawfordsville daily.

Robert Titus and wife, of Alamo, spent Sunday and Monday with Wes. Grubb and family.

M. M. Vancleave and family, of near New Market, stayed over night with A. S. Goff Friday.

In all probability Uncle Dan Hawk will furnish you sweet potato plants when the time comes.

War is the talk on every corner. If some of these men who want to see war had to go, it would be surprising to see how much agree there is in this country.

The Wingate scribe said their new calaboose would be named after the first man that was put in it. His name ought to be Little, for it is so small that the brick masons had to stand on the outside to do the work.

A gentleman was taking orders for pictures in this place the fore part of the week. He left his horse standing unhitched and went into a house. The horse started down the road but was caught by some ladies and a run-a-way prevented.

WIDE AWAKE.

Spencer Lee has his barn nearly completed.

All the farmers are plowing for oats and corn.

Laurence Long is tending the farm of Charley Myers.

Elias Francis is working for John Fullen this week.

Fish Commissioner Smith broke stalks for the mayor Tuesday.

Ward McClelland is seen at his old stamping ground again.

Henry, can't you do something to create some excitement?

What has become of our old friends, New Ross and Black Creek?

Mrs. Wilbert Breaks spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Morris.

Ira McIntire wants to know what he can do to get his name in the paper.

Mrs. William Tomolson, near Cherry Grove, is no better at this writing.

Pearl Lofland spent a few days with relatives in Crawfordsville this week.

J. M. Lofland and family spent Sunday with Ira Snyder, of Crawfordsville.

Marshall Brown and John Simpson visited H. Lofland and family last week.

Say, Clarence, come over to Wide Awake and I will tell you who writes for Robert's Chapel.

The cold wave caused those who were trying to "force the season," to put up their heating stoves again.

Lew Tomlinson, wife and son, of Veedersburg, spent a few days this week visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Eunice Purdum has returned to her home in Chillicothe, Mo., after an extended visit with her aged father.

Will Layne won't have to go to Garfield for "Sand" for some time to come. There is plenty on the railroad in front of his home.

The team of horses of Mr. Willis, the huxter, who passes through Wide Awake, got scared at the cars, ran away and broke the tongue out of the wagon and demolished things.

The Mayor is so interested in his work, so I am told, that he has no time for fooling, don't even have time to untie his horse from a hitching rack. How is it mayor? Is it so? If so, we are glad to hear you are so dutiful.

A Life Saved.

Marvelous cures of throat and lung affections are made daily by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Miss Annie Swan, Petersburg, Va., writes: "My brother was attacked by a bad cough and cold, and it was thought he had consumption. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup was used, and to our great surprise it made him well and hearty. There is no better cure in the world than this Syrup." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is sold everywhere for 25 cents.

La Pearl's Vicious Animals.

A lion attacked Henry Huffman at the winter quarters at La Pearl's circus at Tilton Sunday afternoon. Huffman escaped with his life, but his clothes suffered considerably. He was in the cage attempting to subdue the animal when it attacked him.

On the same day Kid Sullivan was stirring up the ocelot with a stick and unthinkingly rested his hand on the bars of the wolf cage above that in which the ocelot is kept. The wolf seized the hand in his teeth and tore the skin of his wrist and forearm, making a very uncomfortable wound. Medical attention was rendered immediately, and no danger is expected to follow.—Danville, Ill., Democrat.

A Sporting Telegram.

Walter Scott and Harry Swann will after April 14th run a Sporting Telegram which will be devoted to base ball, cycling, foot ball, prize fights, and general sporting news. They will receive the news for all national and western leagues games every evening between 4:30 and 6:00 o'clock over the long distance Bell telephone. The games will be posted in a number of business houses where they can be seen each evening. The games will also be received each Sunday evening.

Double Admission to the Bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Morris have been admitted to the practice of law in Lebanon. Mrs. Morris is the first woman ever admitted to the bar in Boone county, and it is said to be the first instance in the State where husband and wife were both accepted at the same time. There are but one or two instances in the United States, William J. Bryan and wife being the most notable.

"Tub" Chadwick, one of the young toughs implicated in the theft of a keg from Gill's beer emporium, was released by Judge West, Wednesday, on good behavior.
