Returns to New Richmond.

Eight years of most pleasant business associations bring about ties of friendship that are lasting. Such has been the case of J. W. McCordle's connection with Paddock, Hodge & Co., since June 16, '90. On Jan. 1st '98 the firm of Paddock, Hodge & Co. was dissolved, J. H. Bowman & Co. succeeding them. Saturday last J. W. McCordle severed his connection with the firm by buying the elevator and grounds at this place, giving $5,000 cash for the company's half interest, will now move his family back here where all his interest will be and devote his whole attention to the grain business and the improvements of his realty. His Frankfort residence is for sale, then as soon as other little matters are squared away he will erect a large four-room brick block on the post office corner.—Enterprise.

Rockville Light Artillery.

The Rockville light artillery was organized at that place Saturday afternoon with 126 members. The following officers were elected: Captain, C. C. Connelly; first lieutenant, Harry B. Fisher; junior first lieutenant, E. L. Batmat; second lieutenant, James B. Thompson. The boys are drilling three times a week and expect to go to the front in the second call. Application was filed during the first call about May 10. If Dana does not go Rockville will have the next chance, as Parke or Vermillion has not been represented as yet in the service.

Decoration Day at Liberty.

Decoration day exercises were held at Liberty church, six miles northwest of the city, last Sunday. People gathered from far and near to pay fitting tribute to the fallen heroes, quite a number of whom are buried in the cemetery there. The church was decorated in a profusion of flowers and presented a most beautiful appearance. Frank Hole and M. E. Foley were present and delivered appropriate addresses. The ceremonies were excellently conducted and reflected much credit on those in charge.

Conventions To-day.

The democrats will meet in the several townships to-day to select delegates to the county convention to be held on June 18. No mistake should be made in the selection of these delegates. Select none but good men. That will insure a good county ticket which means success in November. Attend these conventions. It is your duty.

OFFICIAL CALL ISSUED.

"INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 23, 1898.
"To the democracy of Indiana:
"The democratic state convention will assemble at Tomlinson hall, in the city of Indianapolis, at 10 o'clock a. m., on Wednesday June 22, 1898, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers to be voted for at the November election 1898, the adoption of a platform and such other business as may properly come before the convention.

"The basis of representation to said convention as fixed by the democratic state committee is one delegate for each 200, and one delegate for each fraction of 100 or more of the votes cast for Hon. John B. Stoll, presidential elector, 1896.
"Under this apportionment the convention will consist of 1,528 delegates.

"The offices for which nominations will be made are as follows:

"Secretary of State.
"Auditor of State.
"Attorney-general.
"Clerk of supreme court.
"Superintendent of public instruction.
"Chief of Indiana bureau of statistics.
"State geologists.
"Judge of supreme court, 2d district.
"Judge of supreme court, 3rd district.
"Judge of supreme court, 5th district.
"Judge of appellate court, 1st district.
"Judge of appellate court, 2nd district.
"Judge of appellate court, 3d district.
"Judge of appellate court, 4th district.
"Judge of appellate court, 5th district.

"PARKS M. MARTIN, Chairman.

"ASHEL H. WAMPLER, Secretary.

COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION.

A Good Attendance—Election of Officers.

The annual county Sunday school convention was held at Center church last Friday. The attendance was large, every township in the county being represented. The programme was one of unusual interest and was carried out in full. The next convention will be held at New Richmond sometime in August. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—L. A. Clark, city.
Vice-president—J. S. Henry, Wingate.
Secretary-Treasurer—Elam T. Murphy, city.

Superintendent Home Department—W. K. Banks.

The following is a list of the presidents of the various townships:

Coal Creek—J. S. Henry, Wingate.
Wayne—P. J. Lough, Waynetown.
Ripley—Sherman Luzader, Yountsville.

Brown—Mack Wasson, Waveland.
Scott—Mrs. J. M. Glover, New Market.

Clark—Harry Kessler, Ladoga.
Walnut—Wm. Loop, Mace.

Franklin—George Seybold, Darlington.

Sugar Creek—R. C. Harper—Darlington.

Madison—A. S. Fraley, Linden.

Union—Mrs. George Smith, city.

Death of Ella Benson.

Mrs. Ella Benson, of this city, dropped dead on one of the business streets in Chicago last Saturday morning of heart disease. Mrs. Benson was visiting her sister, Mrs. Mattie Harney, there at the time of her death. The remains were shipped back here for burial last Sunday and the funeral occurred from the home of the deceased's mother, Mrs. Wallace, on Lafayette avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Oak Hill.

Union Township Graduating Exercises.

The graduating exercises of Union township will occur as follows:
New Market—Wednesday, June 8th.
Mt. Tabor—Thursday, June 16th.
Whitesville—Thursday, June 23d.
Mt. Zion—Thursday, June 30th.

A Swell Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the Brown township public schools will be held in the Baptist church at Brownsvalley on the evening of June 10. There are 18 graduates. The Montani Bros., of Indianapolis, will furnish the music.—Waveland Independent.

Lafayette is a rich city—in proportion to population the richest city in Indiana. The total deposits in the four national banks and the savings banks on the 5th inst. amounted to $2,618,193. This is mostly idle money, drawing very little interest, and most of it, no interest.

Hon. Charles B. Landis, of Delphi, was honored with a renomination to congress by the unanimous vote of his party. There was talk of some opposition, but it melted away when it became apparent that Landis had things his own way. Now, if the democrats will put up a popular man like Capt. David F. Allen of Frankfort, Charley Landis will have to be satisfied with a single term.—South Bend Times.

YOU MAY BE SURE

"Colonel" Wingate Didn't Suggest An Investigation—That Isn't His Style.

Governor Mount says that he has never heard of an alleged Democratic plan of campaign attack on the state officers. When told that Democrats say that John Wingate, of Montgomery, was the republican politician who had urged the governor to use his influence to stop methods which Democrats say are in vogue at the state house, Governor Mount said:

"Mr. Wingate is an old time friend of myself and family, and a Sunday or two ago did come to my house, but he said nothing about the matters you suggest, in fact, we did not talk politics at all. If there is any wrong doing in this state house, I do not know it, and I have not heard it hinted. I hope the Democrats will turn on the search light and give the offices a thorough investigation. Such an investigation would redound only to the credit of the Republican party.

If there is anything wrong here, I assure you I will not wait for the Democratic or any other party to make an investigation. I will do it myself, as far as rests in my power."—Indianapolis News.

Quick Nominations.

From the small number of men offering themselves as candidates this year by both parties it would look like nominations would be made at the conventions with but little delay. For Representative each party, if we understand it, has one candidate; for Auditor the same; for Treasurer the is one democratic candidate only while the republicans have but two; for sheriff one democratic candidate and one republican. There are more candidates for prosecutor this year from the two parties for any tan office. We have heard of no candidates for commissioners, coroner or joint representative. The failure to announce of many alleged candidates would indicate that they are only luke warm in the matter, and are not disposed to spend much time nor money in the matter. Fewer candidates from both parties have not been seen in many years before, and it may be that office seeking is becoming unpopular and has lost its charms to many persons.

Laverty Estate Case Settled.

The estate of Aquilla Laverty, the Parke county land king, who died possessed of nearly five thousand acres of land, much of it choice Wabash bottom, has been finally settled out of the courts. This matter has been hanging fire some time, and was consummated this week. It required about $60,000 to square up the indebtedness of the estate, each of the five heirs contributing $8,500 to the liquidation over and above what was realized from the sale of a large amount of personal property. The children of Mr. Laverty receive above 500 acres each of land, while the widow gets 2,381 acres.

Binder Twine Goes Up.

War has played havoc with binder twine. It seems that most of the raw material from which the twine is made comes from Manilla and since the war there has been no exporting from that point. Twine is now worth nine cents per pound and dealers say it may go to twelve cents.

Shipping Mules.

Jas. Walters and Horace Law shipped several car loads of mules to St. Louis on Monday. The price of mules has advanced rapidly for two months past, and dealers are realizing good sums of money for them.

Dr. Hard Has Gone.

Dr. Hard went to Chicago, Monday to make arrangements to enter the United States Hospital Service. He expects to be sent South in a few days.

HERE'S A CHANCE.

Twenty-Five Recruits Needed For Each Company.

Two field officers from each of Indiana's four regiments of infantry in the service and one officer from each of the two batteries representing the State will be detailed to come home and recruit the regiments and the batteries to the maximum authorized under the volunteer army law. The recruiting officers are to be detailed by the War Department, after having been designated by the Governor on recommendations forwarded the colonels of infantry regiments and captains of batteries. Unless there should be expected delay, the officers detailed to do the recruiting will be here some time this week.

The understanding is that the recruiting officers shall look to the cities and towns that have companies in service for the additional men needed to bring the present organizations up to the maximum.

The following cities and towns will be called upon for twenty-five men each in recruiting the 158th: Crawfordsville, Kokomo, Martinsville, Sheridan, Covington, Winchester, Franklin, Frankfort, Rochester, Indianapolis (seventy-five, on account of having three companies in the regiment.)—Indianapolis News.

BY THE HEMP ROUTE.

Loyd McMains, of Waveland, Jumps Into Eternity

The town of Waveland was thrown into a state of excitement Monday morning by the suicide of Loyd McMains, one of her oldest and most prominent citizens. Some time early in the morning Mr. McMains went into the barn of his brother-in-law, John Alfrey, with whom he had been making his home, and hanged himself. His body was not found until nearly noon and showed signs of having been dead several hours. The deceased was an old bachelor and was about 57 years old. He had been in ill health for some time, brooding over which, it is supposed, produced temporary insanity. He was a brother of Robt. McMains of this city.

"D—n You, Obey Orders."

General Manson once said to Webb Casto, when he asked the comrade to relieve him from the ambulance corps: "Young man, what is the first duty of a soldier?" Webb replied: "To obey orders."

"Well," said the General, "D—n you, obey your orders."—Terre Haute Express.

Sick in Camp.

Henry C. Shoemaker, a member of Co. M, will be sent home from Chickamauga in a few days. Mr. Shoemaker has been suffering from Bright's Disease since the company was sent South. His condition is now alarming and it was deemed best to send him home.

Moves to Chicago.

Dr. T. F. Leech and family left for Chicago last night, where they will locate. Dr. Leech recently moved from Crawfordsville to this city and his many friends will regret to know that he is moving away.—Bloomington World.

Regular Session.

The regular June session of Commissioner's Court convenes on Monday.

Frank Bryant is home from St. Louis on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maxwell sang at the M. E. church here last Sunday.

Misses Katherine and Marguerite Birch, of Chicago, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Birch.

The Wabash base ball team was defeated by the I. U. team at Bloomington last Saturday by a score of 12 to 4.

George Gregg visited Company M at Chickamauga this week. He reports all of the boys well and enjoying themselves.

The Monon has commenced discharging all conductors who are members of the grievance committee of the Order of Railway Conductors.

Will Denman was up from Greencastle last Saturday. Mrs. Denman is still at Phoenix, Ariz., and her condition is but little improved.
