A SANTIAGO HERO.

Charley Doyel, a Crawfordsville Boy, Has Seen Real War.

Charley Doyel, of the 16th U. S. infantry, arrived in the city last Saturday on a thirty days' furlough to visit relatives. Of all the Crawfordsville boys who went to war to kill a Spaniard Doyel is the only one, perhaps, who had the pleasure of pumping lead into the Dons. His regiment was in the thickest of the fight at Santiago, his description of which is graphic and exciting. He says that when his regiment planted the stars and stripes on San Juan hill the bullets fell about them like hail, wounding and killing many, although he escaped without a scratch. With sickness and fever, however, he did not fare so well and was several times in the hospital. He describes the sufferings of the soldiers as something awful. "It wasn't Spanish bullets we feared," he said, "but the continuous rains, intense heat, improper food and bad sanitary condition of the camps. That's what killed most of the poor boys." He said when the troops entered the city of Santiago the sight was one he would never forget. The streets were full of half-starved, sick and dying Spanish soldiers, while every house was a hospital. He brought back with him a most interesting collection of Spanish shells and other relics. Doyel is just recovering from an attack of malaria and is pale and emaciated.

Another Midland Rumor.

A special from Anderson to the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"Through what was considered perfectly reliable sources it is understood that a deal has been closed whereby Crawford Fairbanks, the Terre Haute millionaire, and M. R. Williams, general manager of the strawboard plant, have purchased a very large part of the stock in the Chicago and Southeastern railway, and will assume control. It has been controlled by Harry Crawford, of Chicago. It reaches from Brazil, the center of the Indiana coal fields, to this city, and is being extended through the gas belt to Muncie. It is also understood that it is to be run to Fairbanks' coal mines, and the two men are figuring on natural gas giving out and opening a wondrous coal traffic."

A Hoboe Dies in Jail.

Thursday afternoon an aged tramp giving the name of Henry Williams was found lying in the gutter near the electric light plant and was taken to jail sick. The old man was found to be suffering from running sores over his body, besides being covered with lice, and altogether he was a most repulsive customer. He refused to answer any questions further than to give the name above. Friday night he died and was buried in the potter's field Saturday.

Monon Not Absorbed.

An official of the Monon lines said yesterday that there were any foundation for the statement that the Monon was to be absorbed by the Big Four, work on the expensive nine-mile cut-off at Bedford would doubtless be suspended and the joint arrangement between the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton as to freight depots at Indianapolis would have been abandoned. These improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Add Was Disgusted.

A. P. Hanna attended the populist meeting at Cincinnati this week, and came home very much disgusted. He says the meeting was intended only for a conference, and when a handful of them seized control and turned it into a nominating convention, a large majority of those present walked out of the hall and went home.—Waveland Independent.

"John's Best" Wins.

Mrs. Eli Armentrout secured the barrel of flour at the fair offered by Mr. John Bickhart, of the city flouring mills, for the best loaf of bread baked from his brand of flour, known as "John's Best." This loaf was also in open competition and secured the ribbon over an excellent display of bread, most of which had been made from spring wheat flour.

Is Tired of Charley.

Jennie Caldwell is the latest applicant for admission to grass-widowhood. Jennie alleges that her husband, Charles, is a bogus article, that he not only refuses to provide for her, but that he has treated her in a base, inhuman manner. She asks the court for an absolute divorce, but has overlooked the little item of alimony.

Most all Paid.

Most all the claims against the county fair association have been paid off this week, and a neat surplus of $600 or more will be left.

Darlington's Scandal.

Commenting on the sensational lie sent out from the Argus News office, some time ago, in regard to the Coffman-Hamilton scandal, the Darlington Echo says: "The press all over the country has commented freely upon the Coffman-Hamilton case, both in the news and editorial columns, and the facts have become grossly exaggerated. Rev. W. H. Broomfield has received a large number of letters scoring him and his church for the alleged cold shoulder shown the repentant girl, and Miss Hamilton has received letters of Christian sympathy and condolence, and some that are exceedingly ridiculous. The facts in the matter are that when Broomfield made statement of Miss Hamilton's part in the scandal and she had declared that all the minister had said was true, he asked all the members present who would forgive her to rise to their feet. Although only a small part of congregation present were members of the church, a large percentage of them arose from their seats and thus indicated their forgiveness of the wrong confessed. Miss Hamilton is not now nor has she been since the church incident in any way mentally unbalanced, but is seen on the streets of the town and about her home acting in a perfectly sensible and lady like manner. She is taking the very wisest course in the matter and if those outside of our community who have no earthly interest in the matter would only attend to their own business the affair would soon adjust itself and the matter be ended."

Loves to Steal.

Robert Grenlee, 14 years of age, was run in by the police Saturday for stealing a horse belonging to Wm. Quillen. Young Grenlee's case is a sad one. He is somewhat demented and doesn't seem to realize that it is wrong or unlawful to steal. In fact he says he loves to steal just for the fun of the thing. His parents sent him to the reform school at Plainfield at one time but they would not keep him because he was not capable of receiving instructions. The authorities are in a quandary to know just how to dispose of him.

The Street Fair

Is a go. The arrangement of the affair is in the hands of genuine hustlers and the fair will be the biggest thing of the kind ever in Crawfordsville. The principal business streets will be given over to stock pens, booths, fodder shocks and side shows. There will be music in the air and midway dancers in profusion. Prominent among all these attractions will be the Hoboe cigar at all the stands. The fair would not be a success without them.

Where is Joe?

Clerk Sparks is holding in trust about $700 which belongs to Joseph Coyner, a former resident of Sugar Creek township. About a year ago Joe pulled up stakes and left the country, leaving no address, and it is thought by many that he is wading knee deep in gold up in the Klondike country. The money is Joe's share from the sale of land in the Coyner estate.

Destroyed By Fire.

A residence on the farm of Amos Quick, some four miles north-west of the city, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning about 4 o'clock. The house was occupied by a Mr. Maxwell, a tenant, who with his family were asleep at the time, and who escaped with only a few household articles before the building fell. There was no insurance.

Prepared for the Street Fair.

Tom Nolan, of the Sherman House, is now the happy possessor of a genuine side show with hoochie-coochie and snake charmer accompaniments. Tom captured it from an unfortunate fair follower who was unable to pay his board bill. He will keep it here and exhibit it during the big peace jubilee and street fair in October.

For Whipping His Father-in-Law.

Elbert Ammerman, of Alamo, was fined before Squire Stilwell last Friday for assaulting his father-in-law, Mr. Brown, at the Rountree grove during the old soldiers' reunion at that place a couple of weeks ago. The case against Brown for provocation was dismissed.

Properly Promoted.

The vacancy in Co. M caused by the resignation of Capt. Fred Alexander recently has been filled through regular promotion. Charles O. Wilbite is made captain, I. C. Elston, Jr., is made first lieutenant and George S. Harney is second lieutenant.

For the South.

The LaPearl show has during the past four weeks, been exhibiting in Michigan, and has been doing a prosperous business. It is now en route for the South, and next month will exhibit in Missouri and Arkansas.

M. E. Church Appointments.

The northwest Indiana Conference closed its labors at Plymouth last Monday. Below are the appointments for the Crawfordsville district:

Presiding Elder J. H. Cissel, Crawfordsville; First church, E. H. Brumbaugh; Trinity, H. L. Davis; circuit, A. E. Tinkham; Avon, T. J. Rider; Colfax, F. M. Paney; Covington, H. N. Ogden; Danville, W. Stanford; Waveland, U. G. Shofly; Whitestown, W. Stall; Wingate, C. W. Postill; Yountsville, H. S. White; Zionsville, J. B. Siles.

Death of Mrs. W. W. Morgan.

Mrs. William W. Morgan died at her home on east Market street last Sunday morning at 2:15 o'clock from heart trouble. Mrs. Morgan's health had been declining for several months but her condition was not considered dangerous until Saturday night when a turn for the worse occurred and she passed quietly away. The funeral occurred from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. E. B. Thomson officiating. Interment at Oak Hill.

Mrs. Morgan was the daughter of Andrew and Sarah Dunbar, and was born Nov. 1, 1848. In 1871 she was married to W. W. Morgan, and two children were the fruit of the marriage, Harry Morgan, of this city, and Mrs. Mary Brewer, of New York. They also raised an orphan child, Bert Morgan, who is now a member of Co. M. Besides these Mrs. Morgan also leaves her aged mother, now 90 years old. The deceased was one of the best known women of Crawfordsville and was most highly esteemed and loved by all.

A Coffin to Order.

Joseph Sandlin is the name of an eccentric old man who lives in Advance, Boone county. He is a veteran of the civil war, and is getting along in years. Some time ago he had a coffin made to his order, and is now engaged himself in putting on the handles. The coffin is very plain, but substantial, and now rests in the Red Men's Hall in Advance. It is his desire that when he dies he shall be placed in the coffin especially prepared for him and that it shall be hauled to the cemetery on a two-wheeled cart, attended by four members of the Red Men's Lodge, with which he is affiliated.

Masons at Ladoga.

The Ladoga Masonic lodge will hold a special meeting Thursday, Sept. 22 and will have three candidates for the third degree. The work will begin at 2:30 p. m., and Darlington lodge will take the first candidate through. Waveland lodge will then take the second candidate through the work. After supper is served Crawfordsville will do the work for the third candidate. In addition to the three lodges mentioned, the lodges from Jamestown, North Salem, Groveland, Bainbridge, Roachdale and Russellville have been invited and are expected to be present.—Ladoga Leader.

Found the Watch.

During the fire here a couple of months ago Starr Dunn lost his watch along with other things, and had lost all hope of seeing it again. The debris had all been taken away and careful search made. A few loads were dumped in the driveway at the elevator and Wednesday Bert Page found the watch there after it had been run over by many teams. It had stopped at 12 min. to 3 o'clock, showing the hour that Dunn's house had fallen in.—New Richmond Enterprise.

Fish for Supper.

Rev. Gibson, a Methodist minister of Thorntown, was putting beneath the billows of the roaring creek the 20th convert when he was alarmed by a big fish getting into his pantaloons leg. He dropped the convert and made a dash for the shore, holding his pant leg. Arriving on terra firma he pulled out a monster catfish that had horned him severely. The ministers family had fish for supper. These ministers are hot people.

Tomatoes.

The tomato crop in this locality has been exceedingly large this year, and the amount of them canned will be enormous. They have been so plenty that prices for them have ranged from thirty to forty cents per bushel.

If mothers would cast aside foolish vanity, and impart to their daughters the knowledge that they, themselves, have acquired by years of suffering, they would be forced to spend fewer hours of anxious attendance at the bedside of sick daughters. A woman who suffers from weakness, disease, or derangement of the distinctly feminine organs is an incomplete woman. She is unfitted for woman's highest and best duty—motherhood. She cannot be a happy wife or the mistress of a happy home. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only proprietary medicine ever devised by an expert skilled specialist in woman's diseases for the one purpose of curing these troubles in the privacy of the home. It makes a woman strong and healthy in a womanly way, and can be relied upon to relieve motherhood of all pain and almost all pain. It insures healthy, robust children. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into healthy, happy wives and mothers.

"Words fail to describe my suffering before I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets,'" writes Miss Lule S. Hardy, of South Seabrook, Rockingham Co., N. H. "I could hardly walk across the room. I had an abscess on the fallopian tube that discharged through the bladder. It left the bladder in a irritable condition and the uterus inflamed. I had an awful burning in my stomach; my appetite, wasting, drain, constipation, excruciating monthly pains and backache all the time. I was confined to my bed five months. Then I commenced the use of your medicines and have been greatly benefited by them."

In paper covers, 21 one-cent stamps, cloth binding, 25 cents extra. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
