A PRIMARY ELECTION LAW.

A bill will probably be introduced at the next session of the legislature for the enactment of a law making primary elections legal, and throwing around them such safe guards that they may, it is hoped, be genuine expressions of the popular will where men are elected as candidates for offices. We have little faith in any such efforts. As long as there are men in the field with money to buy votes there will always be found human nature to sell themselves. It has been this way for many long years, and we see nothing to stop the disgusting and demoralizing habit in spite of all laws that may be created. Makers of safes for the security of money and other valuables have been aiming from year to year to invent and so improve their safes that they could be absolutely burglar proof, but they have never succeeded. Talent used in creating burglar proof receptacles finds itself after a time opposed by just as high order of brains in successfully undoing that which was supposed to be impregnable in the way of a burglar proof safe, and that there is such a thing as a burglar proof article is very questionable. Many law makers of the past have busied their brains in seeking to originate acts that legalized would make elections genuine expressions of the popular will, would induce every voter to act independently in casting his ballot, unawed, unbought or intimidated. The intention was a worthy one, but what has it amounted to? The Australian system of managing elections was thought to be about the correct thing, and its adoption at our State elections some years ago was warmly approved by honest people. But unscrupulous scoundrels have discovered plans for circumventing it, and did so in a thousand precincts in Indiana last month. Men having money to commit bribery at elections will always find men who will take money. If some one can invent a Keely cure, which by injecting some kind of a preparation under the hides of voting cattle by which their appetites for money may be greatly lessened and their moral sensibilities aroused he will have made the first genuine step toward election reform, but until then we have little hope of better things than are now to be seen.

OPPOSED TO IMPERIALISM.

Sherman, ex-secretary of State, Carnegie, the great iron manufacturer, and other numerous lights of the Republican party, are opposed to the McKinley belief and doctrine of imperialism, that is, the ownership and government of the Philippine Islands by this government. If there was campaign on at this time this would be an issue and the Republican party would be greatly divided upon it. The policy is wrong, is contrary to the policy and tenets of the government. The ownership by this government of the Philippine Islands will prove a white elephant indeed, and the sooner they are disposed of to some foreign power the better. It will be a continuous heavy expense to control and govern the Philippines, and will not pay in 100 years to come.

Bad news comes from the Ninth congressional district. It is reported on authority beyond question that Joseph B. Cheadle will again be a candidate for Congress, but on what ticket is not clear. Mr. Cheadle gave out in writing that if he was elected this time he would not be a candidate for re-election, and this pledge, his friends assert, does not hold good, because he was not elected. Indianapolis News.

The above is certainly not true. Hungry as he may be for office, and demagogue as he is, Cheadle has assured enough sense to know that he has had his day, so far as the matter of Representative is concerned in the 9th district, and that the political party does not now exist that would under any circumstances nominate him.

NOT MUCH DIFFERENCE.

If there is dishonesty, rapacity and "looting" on the part of the natural gas company towards its patrons as many assert, we do not see where they better their condition in patronizing many of the wood dealers. The quality of the fuel many of these men offer in market is of the poorest, and the prices they ask the height of extortion. What is now needed at once is the appointment of a wood measurer by the city council. If a person pays for a half cord of wood he should have the full measure, no more and no less.

NOTWITHSTANDING "McKinley and Prosperity" many business failures are weekly announced as occurring in different parts of the country, and reduction of wages of employees in large manufacturing centers are often chronic. The trouble is, the public at first did not just exactly understand what McKinley with prosperity meant. They are now learning its meaning thoroughly.

SOME of the temperance people about Waveland are preparing to combat Ed Cuppy's application for a license to sell liquor before the approaching term of Commissioners' Court. That may be all right, but how about the drug stores down that way. It has been noticed for some years past that in most of the radical temperance towns they generally have very prosperous drug stores.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
