Little Eva has recovered sufficiently to rejoin her company, and we trust that Uncle Tom and Marks will be able to join them in the near future.

The write-up of North Salem will not appear for a few weeks as they wish to increase their circulation so that it will not only benefit a few, but the multitude.

The K. of P. lodge will give a public supper February 3d, admission 25 cents. Everybody invited. They will entertain you in more ways than one. Enjoy yourselves will be their motto.

Perry Wilson died at his home in Charleston, Ill., of lung fever. The deceased was a son of Mrs. Joe Waters. He was brought here on Saturday and was buried on Sunday. He leaves a wife and three children.

While the good people were at church Sunday evening, there was a free-for-all brawl on the bowerly in which two women and a crowd of men and boys participated. The house was rocked, windows broken and revolvers flourished which caused a stampede of some of the inmates who tore down gates and broke down fences in their rush for liberty.

The correspondent for THE REVIEW wishes to say to the people of this vicinity that it is here to stay, and has the support of the best men around here, who will see that no harm will come, and think much good will be derived by its circulation here. Their Mr. Eltzroth is a thorough news hustler, and reliable for all he says and does, and when he returns again we hope the people will give him a liberal patronage as it is to their interest as well as his.

Charlie Grisson says he don't know whether to laugh or cry over another girl that has come to stay at his home until she is sweet sixteen.

Now, Mr. Black Creek, many thanks for your kind invitation. I would like very much to attend your literary society but I will have to decline as I am such a timid creature I feel it would not be safe to venture so far from home.

BALHINCH.

Gilbert Rush has the grip.

Candy Lewellen has a very sore hand.

Braxton Cash is still on the sick list.

David Bollman's family have all had the grip.

Mrs. Wm. Grubbs has had tonsillitis for several days.

Badger, Groves and wife and Henry Layson all have the grip.

Charles Ramsey and wife went to church in the city Sunday night.

All this talk about making the Argus News the democratic organ is nonsense. It flops around too much. It was first independent, then a gold standard, now is democratic, and in 1900 God only knows what it will be.

David White was born June 15, 1852, near Burksville, Cumberland county, Kentucky. He was married to Mary J. Walden Nov. 2, 1881, she died leaving two boys. He was married again to Mattie C. Gregory December 12th, 1887. Two children blessed this union. Mr. White died January 20th, 1899, aged 46 years. The funeral was preached at the house Sunday by Rev. Jayne, of the Baptist church, of Brown's Valley. He leaves a wife, two grown sons and one little boy. He was buried in the Masonic cemetery at Crawfordsville.

ROBERT'S CHAPEL.

Clarence Hughes has lost his grip.

Jay Elmore is happy—it is a boy.

George Cruce and his father are trapping muskrat.

Frank Taylor says he can't play on a fiddle with but one string.

Sunday school is on the boom with P. G. Cowan, superintendent.

Willie News, our butcher boy, will work for Cal Breaks this summer.

Vint Smith and family took dinner with his brother, John, last Sunday.

The president held a brilliant reception at the white house on January 2, entertaining diplomats and leaders of politics and society, says a dispatch. He did not invite any of the six million working people who elevated him to high and powerful office. They don't count after election. They are not fit to appear at the house of the one-horse lawyer and bankrupt, though the house he lives in belongs to them. Their patches of prosperity would not look well among the toothpick coats and sparkling diamonds of the "servants" who infest Washington. Doncher know it would be ridiculous to suggest that laboring people have any right to even look on the gay house! What funny animals the human work horses are! Perhaps he sent invitations to them but the mails have been slow.

LINDEN.

Uncle Will Dunkle is very much under the weather.

THE REVIEW comes out in a new dress. It is well enough.

Miss Verna Viers was down with the grip the fore part of the week.

The judges on the last debate seemed to be of the opinion that the sword is mightier than the pen.

The members of the "Old Deestrick Skule" are pushing things with a vim. They expect to be able to produce the play within a few weeks.

Frank Miller while taking a girl home from the literary, last week, in a buggy, attempted to put his arm around her in order to keep her warm. It had its effect. She became very warm, so warm, in fact, that she gave him a bat on the nose. This made Frank angry and he immediately fired her out of the buggy, and what do you think? That poor girl to walk home, but it served her right. If a girl don't want to be squeezed she should say so instead of trying to disfigure a fellow's physiognomy.

The Black Creek Literary Society gave a magnificent entertainment on Wednesday night. The house was packed and a number of comic and sentimental pieces were given as well as some fine selections from our excellent orchestra. The debate, "Resolved, That Lincoln did more for this country than Washington," was won by the negative. The affirmative was represented by Harry Stout and some clown from town; the negative by Sandy Morris and F. N. Miller. The speeches of Morris and Stout were highly spoken of. Rev. Shuey, representing the U. B. college of Illinois, was present and made a very pleasant and interesting little talk. He paid a very flattering compliment to the literary. Next Wednesday night an extraordinary programme will be carried out. Two debates are booked for that evening. The first is: "Resolved, That the United States should not retain the Philippine Islands," and the second: "Resolved, That whiskey has caused more ruin than war."

POLLY PACER.

Benj. Hopping and George Harlan have taken the contract of cutting into wood the old orchard of Joseph Hopping, just east of town.

We had the pleasure of an acquaintance and a two hours chat with the correspondent of Crawfordsville Journal at this place. Oh my, how she does dislike the Flat Rock correspondent and her style of dishing up news. The Yountsville scribe has received quite a number of books as prizes which were awarded her for her brilliant letters.

NOTICE TO HEIRS, CREDITORS, ETC.

In the matter of the estate of William E. Francis, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that George W. Francis, as administrator of estate of William E. Francis, deceased, has presented and filed his accounts and vouchers in final settlement of said estate, and that the same will come up for the examination and action of said Circuit Court on the 20th day of Jan. 1899, at which time all heirs, creditors or legatees of said estate are required to appear in said Court and show cause if any there be, why said accounts and vouchers should not be approved, and the heirs and distributees of said estate are also notified to be in said Court at the time aforesaid and make proof of heirship.

Money Talks

AT ROBB'S CASH GROCERY.

A credit store, no matter how carefully conducted, cannot avoid a certain amount of uncollectable accounts. The proprietor cannot afford to lose this per cent. If he did he would soon be forced out of business. He simply adds a little to the price of his goods all around and the result is the good paying customers furnish groceries for those who won't or can't pay. Robb sells for cash only and therefore has no bad debts to provide for. He sells groceries for cost, plus a necessary living profit. Here are some sample prices:
