"A Partial Report."

An evening publication under the above title speaks of the report of Superintendent Abraham made to the committee of the city council appointed for the investigation of the feasibility of the proposition to sell the city light plant. The item to which reference has been made states that the report of Superintendent Abraham was very indefinite, and did not contain names of persons who are using free lights, and in fact left the matter in a very hazy manner, indeed and further asks for a clear and concise statement. In the interest of truth Mr. Abraham was interviewed and it was found that the following interrogations had been submitted to him by Dr. Morgan, chairman of the committee, and the appended answers were given:

Q—How many incandescents are used?
A—3460.
Q—How many on flat rate?
A—2599.
Q—How many "dead heads" and who?
A—City building. Light plant, 29; City building, 52; Office, 22; Treasurer's office, 5. Total 108.
A—Employees. F. D. Abraham, Supt. 8; Ivy Carr, electrician, 8; Gregg Kelly, assistant electrician, 6; Ed Aimes, engineer, 13; Frank Prewitt, assistant engineer 10. Y. M. C. A.
101. Total 254.

Q—How many delinquents?
A—67.
Q—How much due on delinquents?
A—$1080.58. Probably doubtful $104.94 of this amount.

Mr. Abraham stated that there are no other dead heads, and if any other persons are getting lights without paying for them they are stealing them.

Elder John L. Smith.

Elder John L. Smith is dead having finished his earthly journey of 88 years at Valparaiso on last Saturday.
He was dean of the Methodist ministry the state. He has been a permanent figure in the Methodist church of this state for many years, having been licensed to preach in June 1836 and it is quite probable that he has preached in every church in the state except those erected within recent years. He was particularly well known in Montgomery and adjoining counties. He passed through all the vicissitudes and toils that full to the lot of the pioneer preacher. He was an indefatigable worker and exerted a great influence in his own denomination. He retired from the ministry in 1891, after a career as a preacher of fifty-five years. At the age of eighty-two he wrote a book of 450 pages on Indiana Methodism, having been requested by his conference to do so.
His long and varied experience in the ministry, rendered him peculiarly fitted to undertake the task, he was familiar with the condition in the west, and was acquainted with the ministers of the early days. He leaves a widow whom he married in '92. He also had two daughters residing in this state and two sons, one in California, and one in Colorado.

Death at Waynetown.

Monday morning at Waynetown occurred the death of George Lough, aged 84 years. He was ill but a short time, his death being caused by heart failure. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death.
One son resides in Waynetown, one in Ohio, and three daughters in the west. They grieve for him as not lost but gone before, full of years, and gathered as the ripened cone by the reaper. Funeral services will be held at the Waynetown Christian church to-day at 2 o'clock. Rev. Kerr of Crawfordsville being the officiating minister.
