

CORRESPONDENCE.

MONON CROSSING.

Mr. Will Vannice bought a cow of Mr. Massing who is selling stock at private sale.

There is lots of changing going on around us now incident to the time of year.

Mr. Beebe, son-in-law, of Uncle George Chesterson, received a telegram announcing the death of his sister-in-law a few days ago.

John Massing sold his farm to Mr. Dooley and has moved to the Hernly house in Highland.

Our enterprising farmer, Finley Clawson, has built a wood-house, having got tired of getting his wood and being exposed to inclement weather.

Farmers, you ought all to take the New Review, which is brim full of news and the best weekly paper published in Montgomery county. If you are not taking it, subscribe at once.

WATERLOO.

Mrs. Timothy Guard still continues very ill.

Albert Swanson and family spent Saturday night with relatives near Stockwell.

Oliver Parker has improved the appearance of his yard by pruning some of his shade trees.

Reports say that the colored minstrel troupe had the crowd but gave no show last Saturday night.

Owing to bad weather this place was not well represented at Dr. Burrough's lecture Friday night.

Ezra C. Voris has bought O. W. Stingley's and John Hutton's farms near Kirkpatrick. Price, $55 per acre.

Lon Stewart and family, of Shanondale, and Daniel Conrad's, of Linden, were Sunday visitors at Joel Conrad's.

Amos Whitecotton, of Illinois, brought an infant child here for burial last week. It was interred in the Linden cemetery Thursday.

NEW MARKET.

George Sweet is better.

Mrs. Blacker is reported better.

Bazze Vanceleave is building a new barn.

James Quinlen is working on the section.

Dr. B. F. Doyle is offbearing for Childers.

Nellie Proctor is working for Mrs. Bed Wray.

Dora Bicks will work at the millinery trade this summer.

Emmons Busenbark will build an addition to his livery barn.

Walker Miller is clearing off some new ground, getting it ready for the plow.

Alf Shepherd was in our town last Saturday. Alf is getting bigger every day.

John Bicks was in town Tuesday which was a great surprise to everybody.

James Armentrout sold twelve hundred bushels of corn to Lawrence and Busenbark.

The old maid's communion was well attended, considering the bad weather. Receipts $10.

ROMNEY.

Moving is all the rage now.

Elizabeth Burghardt is reported better.

F. L. Andrews went to Lafayette on Monday.

Miss May Bennett, of Shadeland is the guest of Romney friends.

The teachers of Randolph township met Saturday and held their last institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Throckmartin, of Lafayette, were the guests of Romney friends over Sunday.

The numerous cases of sickness which prevailed for the period of a few months have reduced in number.

All little towns around are getting canning factories. What's the matter with Romney having one?

An entertainment will be given in the town hall Friday and Saturday nights for the benefit of the home hospital. All are cordially invited.

Mort Allman, Edward Andrews and George Welchimer returned from Cambridge City, Thursday, where they went to purchase new driving horses.

The annual thanks offering of the W. F. M. S., of the M. E. church, was held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Claypool Wednesday and was well attended.

The marriage of Edward Livingston and Miss Eleanor Bunton unites two of our most worthy young people, and the best wishes of a host of friends go with them to their new home.

Farmers are busily engaged in trimming fruit trees and grape vines. While in conversation with a gentleman here, he claimed that the grape crop would not be very large, owing to the severe cold weather.

It will pay you to read Dr. Hendricks' add. in this issue.

BUZZARD ROOST.

Moving is the order.

The grip is disappearing.

Our roads are in very bad condition.

Some of our farmers have standing corn out yet.

Wm. Lyon traded for a fine driving mare Friday.

Jim Hunter bought hogs of Frank Mills Friday.

Sefton & Son sold Frank Mills a fine cow last Thursday.

Our roads were blockaded in several places by the snow.

Fred Barr has a new buggy. Be ready, girls, he's sure to call.

Jim Hunter is moving on the farm vacated by J. P. Faust.

A. Vail sold Frank Taylor a calf Wednesday for the sum of $25.

Wm. Murdock started to the gold diggings of North Dakota last week.

Jack Lyon and John Pullian completed Ot Thompson's barn Wednesday.

Goldie, the little daughter of Frank and Ida Mills is very sick at this writing.

J. P. Faust moved onto Fos Fletcher's farm at Center the fore part of last week.

Jim Kincade was at this place Monday to transact business with Albert Vails.

Charley Lyon and Elmer Pullian were at New Richmond looking for a location.

A singing class of twenty-four scholars has been organized at this place with J. C. McCloud as teacher.

John Tomlinson has lost quite a number of his sheep this winter. He is thinking of quitting the sheep business.

A musical carnival was given at Jack Lyon's the first of the week. The house was crowded and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Jonathon Chesterson, from south of Crawfordville, was at this place Wednesday and bought some fine hogs of Frank Mills.

During the past three months Jake Simms claims to have sold chickens to the amount of four hundred dollars. Surely he must have sold a lot of 'em.

Dan Stout was at this place Wednesday and bought a fat cow of Frank Mills. Frank always keeps the best and gets the highest prices in the market.

NORTH SALEM.

Mrs. C. C. Clay is much better.

Harry Davidson spent a week in town.

Dr. Johnson was in our midst Tuesday.

Mrs. Keffoy is no better at this writing.

T. H. Case is out after a day's sickness.

Mrs. Cal. Adams is still confined to her bed.

Joe. Bymaster and wife are in the city to-day.

Alvin Lumpkins' condition does not improve any.

W. L. Waters is in Newman, Ill., prospecting for a location.

Another social at the hall Saturday night. As good a time as usual is anticipated.

E. M. Sellers and Tom Hackley are our boss duck hunters. Four in one afternoon.

Dud Blanton will move to Manhattan, Putnam county, to live on the farm he traded for.

Moore & Fleece have sold their dry goods store and will devote their entire attention to the hardware business.

Till Miller reports prosperity that struck him, live stock getting so plentiful that he will be obliged to buy more land.

Squire Thompson is preparing to put in new machinery in the mill, of the latest improvement, then we will have flour as good as the best.

North Salem is on the boom; no business rooms to rent, new dwellings going up and more business rooms to be built every spring. It looks like a boom.

LINDEN.

Papering houses is in order.

Ed Benefield will operate a portable oven.

Mr. Jones, of Shelbyville, is here on a short visit with his son, A. O. Jones and family.

Grandma Thomas, aged 94 years, fell a week ago last Sunday and dislocated her hip.

Miss Gertie Hendricks went to Dayton to get a class in instrumental music the fore part of the week.

The soliciting committee for the new church building will meet again one week from next Saturday.

About fifty large tile in the J. M. Hose ditch have to be replaced with whole ones, the tile being two feet long.

The flag staff on the school building came down by force of the wind last Saturday night, and this week the flag has not floated.

John Harrigan, Bert Dunkle and Ed Layton went last Monday to the Kankakee to try their luck in capturing some ducks and geese.

Now, if the management of this paper will have the above item put in then we are ahead, and if he cuts it out he is ahead. (We cut it out and are ahead.)

Albert Hendricks has a job with the carpenters of the Clover Leaf railroad company. Last week they built an office in East St. Louis, and this week on the east end, some where.

J. W. Beach began to move to his farm two weeks ago, and last Wednesday he took the family. They are now farmers. Two or three families will occupy the Beach house here.

We are of the opinion that the proprietors of THE NEW REVIEW made money by offering prizes for the best country letters as that induces the correspondents to get good items.

The Hickory Farm company will give that play for the benefit of the Christian church, by the church being at the expense of the hall. The play will be given on the evening of the 23rd.

The Maccabees gave a public meeting last Thursday night in the Christian church. Mr. Replogle, chief scribe of the order made a speech and the Linden sinners furnished the music.

Charles W. Newkirk will move into the Shanklin house and work for John Kelsey this summer. They will let him off to attend normal school early in the fall, as he wants to teach next winter.

F. E. Thomas has had another flowing well put in at Young Thompson's building place. The well is 45 feet deep and flows 20 inches above the ground and can run the water into a tank at the barnyard. The location is half a mile north of Cherry Grove.

And now it does look like the Mars don Cellulose Co. was going to do something as the Eva Stout house on the 40 acre lot will be torn away, but the house on the next 20 acres will be repaired and the fodder ricks straightened up. Mr. Winters writes he will be here in a few days.

On account of bad roads and dark nights, there was no I. O. O. F. lodge organized on last Saturday night at New Richmond. But if nothing should happen the Crawfordville team and some from Lafayette, Romney, Wingate and Linden will be on hand to help organize the lodge the night of the 18th.

At about 1 a. m. last Tuesday Mrs. Abijah Hays died after a long illness from that dreaded disease, consumption. Interment at Linden cemetery. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter. The funeral took place at the Christian church at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. J. W. Dudley preached the funeral to a good audience.

BLACK GREEK.

Our literary will continue till May.

Oliver Demoret is operating the sugar camp of Mrs. Oppy.

School closed Friday (yesterday) with an exhibition and a dinner.

Miss Polly Pacer was the happy guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Payne on Wednesday evening.

Frank Miller leaves for Indianapolis to-day, where he will work at the carpenter trade with his brother, Link.

The Democrats of this locality take no stock in this Philippine argument. They are interested in the money question.

Uncle Vol. Miller is rapidly regaining his old time vitality. He can now navigate without the aid of crutches, and is assisting his son-in-law, Willard Payne, in the latter's sugar camp.

A member of the literary is dramatizing a story entitled, "The Angel of Death," which will probably be presented at Wesley Chapel for the benefit of the church. The play is said to be sublime and moral.

The president of the literary is sorry he was obliged to reprimand a few smart Alecks Wednesday night. It was a painful duty which had to be performed. Some young folks get entirely too gay occasionally.

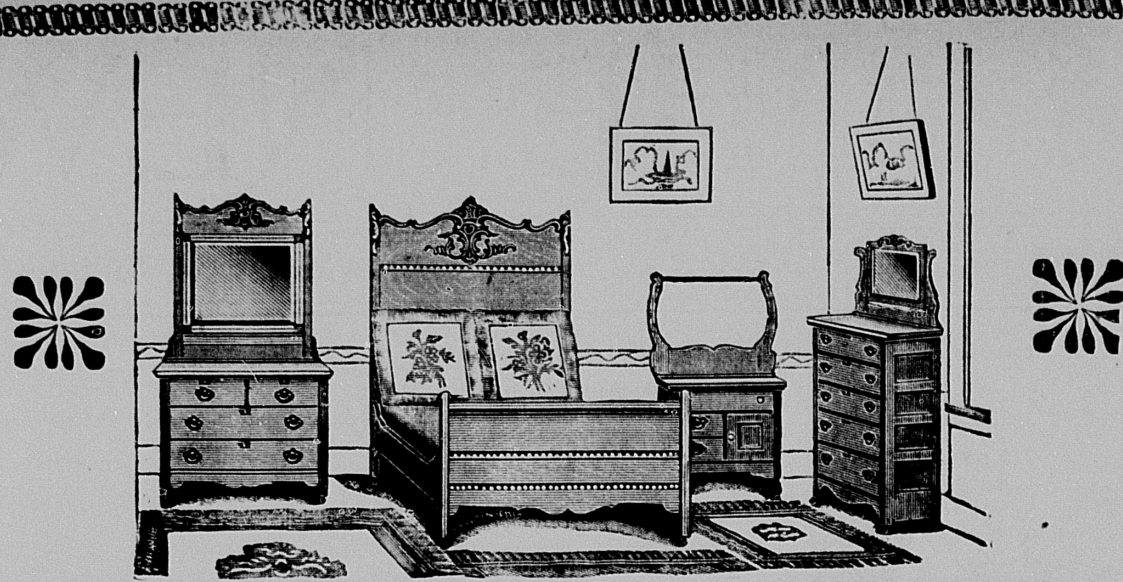

The person who occupied the president's chair, at the literary Wednesday night, desires to state for the benefit of those young ladies in the back seats that the question of changing the meeting night from Wednesday night to Saturday night did not originate with him. He was requested to put it before the society, and let it decide. It did decide.

A good programme was carried out at the literary Wednesday night, consisting of speeches, delightful dialogues, and funny farces. The exercises closed with some army anecdotes by D. S. Morris, relating to Gen. Otis, who is now in command at Manila. Gen. Otis was at one time lieutenant colonel of Mr. Morris's regiment. A red-hot debate is booked for next Wednesday night. After that night the literary will be held on Saturday night, and continue until the first week in May. Now that school has closed, we will build a stage at once. The best part of our literary is yet to come. We have not got fairly started yet.

FRUITS.

Mrs. David Myers is suffering with a very sore hand.

Misses Stella and Gladys Ammerman,

$12.50

$12.50

Is all that it takes to buy the above Bedroom Suite. Solid oak, bevel glass and neatly carved.

$25.00!

Buys a six-hole Steel Range; High Warming Closet; 15 gallon Reservoir, guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. The price is $10.00 less than other Ranges are sold for.

Ingrain Carpets 25 cents to 60 cents. Elegant patterns and a great variety.

Our Bargain Counters are loaded down with Bargains on Granite Ware, Tin Ware, Wooden Ware Glass Ware, Queensware, Crockery, etc.

ZACK MAHORNEY CO.

of Alamo, visited their brother Will last week.

Miss Maggie Wrisk is working at Andrew Herron's.

James Swearingen, of Yountsville, is now at the home of his father.

James Roberts, of Boliver, Mo., visited at James Wilkinson's last week.

Howard and Cora Brown and Chas. Dittamore visited at Everett Brown's Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Livengood and sister-in-law Zoe, were guests of Miss Kate Livingston Wednesday.

The farm owned by Mrs. Anna Livengood but now occupied by Mr. Walton is for sale or trade.

Ernest Brown, of Indianapolis, and Dora Hankins, of New Ross, visited home folks last Monday.

Allen Byers, of Waynetown, bought five gallons of maple molasses of James Steele at a dollar a gallon.

David Phillips, of Wesley, was here Monday to see about renting the Fruits grocery store and postoffice.

Messrs. Payne, Brown and Davis have rented a house belonging to Mrs. Hall and will occupy it soon.

Bert McCormick and wife, Mrs. McCormick and son, Robert, visited relatives at Yountsville Wednesday.

Frank Swearingen and daughter Mary, visited Chub Yount and family at New Market one day last week.

Elbert Titus, the Alamo poultry man, will soon move his family to Wayne-town and will run his wagon through this neighborhood.

Prof. Booe, Mr. McKee, Miss Vernia McCormick and Dot and Gertrude Wilkinson spent Sunday with Decatur Wilkinson's family.

Decatur Wilkenson has sold his interest in the Wilkinson fence machine to Elbert McKee, an enterprising young man of Fountain county.

WINGATE.

Two more weeks of school.

Lots of rain and bad roads.

Green Dickson moved to Lebanon this week.

Eli Ochletree is visiting at New Richmond.

Jacob Snyder, who has been very sick, is much better.

Harry Brown has moved to town and will run a dray.

The show was well attended at this place this week.

Jasper Beedle has sold the Cord property to John Johnson.

Mrs. Mary Ross was on a visit to Covington and Danville, Ill., last week.

Joe Zirk has rented his new house and will not move to town this spring.

The canning factory is a sure thing. Work will commence the first of April.

Burt Nogle has returned to his home after several weeks stay with friends here.

James Oxley will be at home Saturday. He has been in California for four months.

The Palin girls are having the old saloon repaired and will move their millinery shop to that place.

Wm. Jackson's saw mill caught fire on the 10th inst, but was discovered and put out before much damage was done.

The friends of John C. Wingate met at his residence on the 10th, and had a good time. Several good talks were made and after passing the wine the crowd returned to their homes, bidding John good night. John is all right if he don't get any worse.

Mrs. Mary Smith died of dropsy at the home of her son-in-law, two miles east of this place, on March 13. Her remains were buried at Oakland cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Portal. Mrs. Smith was 71 years of age, and was born in Owen county, Ky. She leaves three daughters, one son and many friends to mourn her loss.

Darter & Hodgkin are selling clover and timothy seed for less money than any house in the city.

"A Thrilling Night's Ride" is the title of a very interesting illustrated story, which will be mailed free upon receipt of 2 cents postage, by A. H. Waggoner, 6 Jackson place, Indianapolis, Ind.

It affords me much pleasure to inform those who may need such treatment, that I am prepared to treat diseases of

THROAT, NOSE & LUNGS

with the latest improved appliances. I have spared neither pains or expense in procuring the best, and can render you as good service as you can get in the State and at less expense to the patient.

I can permanently cure many cases of rupture without the knife or chloroform operations.

Piles in all forms and stages absolutely cured, often with little or no detention from business.

Tuesday and Friday of each week will be devoted to the treatment of diseases of women, surgical and non-surgical.

Physicians who are kind enough to refer or bring cases to me, will be shown the greatest courtesy, and the remedies and methods used fully explained. I have no secrets to guard. My methods are open and fair.

Consultation free. Satisfaction our guarantee.

Charges reasonable.

Office, Castle Hall, Lebanon, Ind.

J. I. Hendricks, M. D.

"THE GOLDEN RULE."

Costs and Values— Thrown to the Winds.

And the next 10 days we will give to the public a few grand bargains; some extra specials to introduce to our customers the finest and most perfect line of spring merchandise in the city,

DRESS GOODS.

New black Geron, extra wide, the latest, and a bargain at $1.25. Our price 60c.

Wool and Mohair Novelties, black only, not 85c, but the low price of 58c.

All-wool chevrot in all the spring shades, for skirts and tailor-made suits, $1 quality. Our price 75c.

SHIRT WAISTS.

Our new line of shirt waists are in stock. Latest styles and materials at the popular prices. Come see them and be convinced.

KID GLOVES.

Extra Special—Ladies' real kid Gloves, $1.75 quality, in all the latest shades, regular price $e.65. Our price $1.25.

Ladies' kid gloves in $1.00 quality, now 79c.

GINGHAMS.

Our beautiful line of new dress gingham can not be equalled in the city, and for the benefit of our customers we offer the following bargains:

All the pretty stripes in dainty colors, corded, worth 12c, now 10c.

Stylish checks in all colors, worth 15c, now 12c.

Assorted checks and stripes in a 10c quality, now 7c.

We also offer numerous bargains in our notion department. Prices speak for themselves. Call and see us and be convinced that our prices cannot be equalled by any one in the city.

THE GOLDEN RULE