CORNSTALK CREEK MAN WORKED

Charles Welch, from Indiana, Victim of Chicago Sharper.

Chicago, June 26.—Charles Welch, an Indiana farmer, who was born and reared on Cornstalk creek, in Montgomery county, came to Chicago on an excursion. He drew $35 out of the bank at Ladoga Saturday, and having heard of Chicago pickpockets he put the money in his shoe for safe keeping.

He was in the waiting-room at the Polk st. depot last evening when a stranger came up and told him he answered the description of a man who was wanted for having counterfeit money in his possession. The stranger threw back his coat and showed a star. He told Welch he must go with him to the police station.

The man from Indiana knew that he did not have any spurious money, and he willingly went with the alleged policeman. Outside the depot the stranger asked Welch to show his money. Welch drew the money from his shoe, and the stranger, after examining it, said it was all right, and handed him back what Welch supposed was the same roll of bills. The stranger then suddenly departed. After he had gone Welch discovered that the roll of paper returned to him was advertisements of a Van Buren st. jewelry store. He reported his loss at the Harrison st. station.

Woudn't Put It In.

The Lebanon council gets after the Central Union Telephone Company in about the right sort of style to bring it to time or cause it to stay out of town. They are not in favor of giving away all their rights over there. The following from the Reporter will show how the case is handled in Lebanon. "Mr. Tyler, representing the Central Union Telephone Co., was before the council and spoke in regard to the franchise, which his company is asking for. He said his company would give service for 50 cents and $1 per 'phone, the former being the price of 'phones in residences. He agreed to put these prices into a contract but would not agree to put them into the ordinance. He agreed to make a contract for a period of from twenty-five to fifty years. The proposition of Mr. Tyler occasioned much discussion. The discussion branched off repeatedly upon side issues but City Attorney Artman always brought it back to the question: 'would you be willing to put those prices into the ordinance which you are asking for?' The reply was always in the negative. Finally Mr. Tyler was informed that his petition for a franchise would not be considered until after he would agree to incorporate his prices for 'phones into the ordinance."

Miss Ruby Sies.

The death of Miss Ruby Sies occurred Tuesday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sies, on Garden street. Her malady was consumption and she had been a long sufferer. She was 21 years of age, and had just graduated from the city high school. She was a member of the Christian church, and a faithful worker in the Sunday school and Endeavor. She had a class in the Christian Sunday school, which she had induced to attend, and who from her efforts were getting spiritual instructions which heretofore had been denied them. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Oak Hill.

Athletic Meet.

The annual State athletic meet will be held at the fair grounds in this city July 4 under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. Quite a number of events in the athletic line will be pulled off and a day of enjoyment is promised those who delight in such things. All entries close to-day.

Principal for Mills School.

The city School Board has selected W. C. Caroon as principal of the Mills school. Mr. Caroon is editor of the Veedersburg Record, the new newspaper venture at that place, and has been principal of the schools of that place for some years.

To the Public.

CUPID CATCHES CLARK

He Claims a LaFayette Belle as His Bride Wednesday Morning.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock Thomas S. Clark, of this city, and Miss Mary A. Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Shoemaker, were married in St. Mary's Catholic church at Lafayette, by the Very Rev. John R. Dinnen, formerly pastor of St. Bernard's church in this city, now of St. Mary's. The ceremony was witnessed by a large concourse of friends of the young couple. Those who attended the wedding from Crawfordsville were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Drury, John Clark, Misses Briggetta Costello, Elizabeth Clark, Mamie Wicks, Ella Callahan, Mary Fall and Catherine Clark.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, parents of the bride, which lasted from 8 o'clock to 11:30. The bridal party, with a number of Lafayette friends came to this city on the afternoon train, and Wednesday evening a grand reception was tendered them by the groom's parents at the home on Whitlock avenue, from 7 to 10 o'clock. From ten o'clock until train time, 1:25, the visitors were entertained at the hall of the Knights of St. John. A very enjoyable time was had.

Mr. Clark is a well known and hustling business man of this place, having for many years operated an extensive merchant tailoring establishment and in connection gents furnishing goods. He is popular with everybody, and all join in bidding his fair bride welcome to Crawfordsville.

Won His Case.

A. D. Loftland has won his suit against O. U. Perrin, in which he charged Perrin with misappropriating funds placed in his hands to secure a patent. He sued for $2,000 and got a judgment for $1,500 in the Clinton circuit court. Perrin will appeal.

WE ARE IN IT.

Crawfordsville Admitted into the Eye-and-Eye Base Ball League.

At a league meeting held at Danville, Ill., Tuesday evening last an Indiana and Illinois base ball league was formed with clubs from the following cities making the league: Wabash, Muncie, Kokomo, Terre Haute and Crawfordsville, Indiana, and Danville, Bloomington and Mattoon, Ills. T. A. Bryant was the Crawfordsville representative at the meeting and he came home enthusiastic over the new combination. A schedule was arranged by which four clubs will be on the road away from home playing every day during the season. The pennant for the first half of the season was awarded to Danville. The league will start out fresh on July 1, Crawfordsville opening with two games at Muncie, thence two at Wabash, two at Kokomo and then home. The season will open here on July 12. The manager and captain of the team will be Cook. No Sunday games will be played at Crawfordsville, Kokomo or Wabash. It was the desire of these three towns to stop Sunday ball playing entirely but they were out-voted by the other towns, but no games will be played on Sunday in either town. Those at the head of the enterprise are A. S. Miller, T. A. Bryant and G. M. Gregg. The team will no doubt receive the earnest and hearty support of the city. It will be a good advertisement for the town and furnish amusement for those who are seeking it. The grounds here will be improved and every effort put forth to make those who attend comfortable. An awning has been placed over the grand stand, and seats will be provided for those who attend the games.

Stilwell—Glover.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Christian church in this city, occurred the marriage of George S. Glover, of Veedersburg, and May L. Stilwell, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wallace Tharp, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large assembly of invited witnesses. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Stilwell, of this city, and the groom a prosperous business man of Veedersburg.

Kosztanzer—Galey.

Herman Kosztanzer and Miss Anna Galey stole a march on their friends Wednesday evening, and were quietly married at the residence of the bride's parents, northwest of the city. Only the immediate relatives of the parties were present. Rev. E. B. Thomson performed the ceremony. The groom is the junior member of the firm of Kosztanzer's Sons, and a good business man. Many friends wish them a pleasant journey through life.

Findlay, O. Slaughtered.

The Orphans slaughtered the crack ball team from Findlay, Ohio, in two straight games this week. The score on Monday was 4 to 2 and Tuesday 7 to 2 in favor of the Orphans. The base ball "cranks" are now ready to bet their last dollar on the Orphans.

O. W. McGaughey Called.

Rev. O. W. McGaughey has been called to the pastorate of the sixth Christian church at Indianapolis. Mr. McGaughey graduated from Wabash College with the class of '99, and will enter the Bible department of Butler this fall.

Jas. R. Milligan.

James R. Milligan died at his home at Waveland Monday evening of heart disease, aged 55 years. The death was sudden and unexpected. The funeral took place Wednesday. Interment at Waveland.
