Luella and Minnie Livingston left Wednesday to attend the Epworth League convention at Indianapolis.

BROWN'S VALLEY.

John Rusk is on the sick list.

Miss Lily Miles visited friends at Alamo last week.

Thirty-four persons went from here to the lake last Sunday.

James Birch, of Waveland, will move back here next week.

Mrs. Shirley, of Crawfordsville, is visiting Robert Mosely this week.

Miss Nannie Davis is visiting in Crawfordsville among friends this week.

There will be preaching here at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Clara Johnson is home from Hillsboro, where she has been on a two week's visit.

Miss May Davis is visiting a few days at Crawfordsville, and then she will return to her home in Frankfort.

Rev. Burkhardt, of Waveland, will preach at the school house for the Christian people Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There will be preaching here at the Baptist church on the fifth Sunday, and it will be the beginning of a protracted meeting of several weeks.

RURAL ROUTE NO. 4.

Albert Pickett has returned home.

Zora Hall visited Mable Fink Tuesday.

Lillie Stull is working at Andrew Herron's.

Joseph Wilkinson and family spent Sunday in Alamo.

Several from here will be in Waynetown on the 22nd.

Eula Ham, of Scotland, Ill., is visiting relatives here.

Ernest Brown called on home folks Tuesday evening.

James K. Everson took dinner with James Wilkinson Sunday.

Mr. Clark and wife, of Danville, Ill., are the guests of John Brown and wife.

Charley Brown and Josie Huckery spent Sunday with Mr. Watson and wife.

Ora Pickett is getting ready to build a house and barn on his farm a mile north of Alamo.

Charles Brown, Josie Huckery, Lonnie Brown and Mary Gilkey spent Sunday evening with Cora Brown.

Mr. Waterman and Ed Simms, of Waynetown, were here Monday cleaning and tuning organs and pianos.

YOUNTSVILLE.

Ld Crockett is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

W. V. Yount, of New Market, transacted business in this locality this week.

Chas. Thompson left Thursday for new fields of labor. His wife will follow latter.

Frank Swearingen, an old and respected farmer, living in this vicinity is poorly at this writing.

Mrs. W. R. Smith and family, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Ed Hirst and wife.

Claude Harp, Will Thompson and Esq. Graham left Wednesday to accept positions in a brick yard.

We suggest that Miss "Flat Rock," the Journal correspondent, get a copy of the Indiana stock law and post up some.

Farmers in this locality are about through making hay and the particularly small job of threshing wheat has begun.

Rena McCallister, a lady formerly of this place, died in Indianapolis, Tuesday and was buried in Waynetown Friday.

The grand jury will likely call up some of our boys at their next session to see what they know about violations of law.

Billy O'Neill is putting up an extra pumping apparatus and pumps water by horse power for his Jersey cows. His wind engine is not sufficient.

Will Richmond entertained about 40 of his friends from Crawfordsville on Wednesday eve with a "mutton bake" at his camp. Will can do the honors most to perfection.

The young people gathered at the home of George Maltzberger on last Wednesday evening. Ice cream was served in sufficient quantity to satisfy the appetites of all present.

Come off the perch "Polly" we wont tolerate it much longer if you must indulge in poetry after satisfying your own mind, consign your productions to the waste basket.

The travel on the public highway is immense through our place both day and night. Sometimes we think that Crawfordsville people are about to all move out into the country.

Whiskey or beer is strictly forbidden to be sold or drunk on the ground of Flat Rock Park. A few persons have been spotted babbling it out and if it is continued will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Mr. Young has disposed of his interest in Flat Rock Park to Chas. Smith. The Park will continue to be managed by C. Wiley. The Waynetown band will furnish music on Sunday next.

Several young people from the city including Misses Mary Courtney, Winter, Rutha Caldwell, and Fred Vance, and also Miss Luzader, who is visiting here, did the chutes on Wednesday.

John Harpel, who reached the 70 year mile stone on Saturday, July 15, was highly entertained in the evening at his home, three miles northwest of Yountsville, by his own family and neighbors. Ice cream and cake were served and all went as merry as when he first took on the marriage vows.

Big Four Route Excursions.

Methodists attention! Come to Indianapolis, July 20th and 23rd, 1899, and attend the Epworth League. It is desired to make this gathering the largest, grandest and most successful religious meeting ever held in the United States. All great leaders of the Methodist church will be present. Come one—Come all. Half rates on the railroads. The Big Four Route will sell excursion tickets July 19th, 20th and 21st. Good returning until July 24th, inclusive, with proviso for extension until Aug. 2d.

Vandalia Line Excursions.

To Culver, (Lake Maxinkuckee) $2.90 $3.85 $4.35—Bass Lake $4.05—Winona Lake $3.85 and $5.15—St. Joe, Mich., $7.35—Chicago by boat $4.85 one way $7.90 round trip. $1.10 to Shades, Summer rates to Michigan points. Another excursion to Culver in a few weeks.

J. C. HUTCHINSON, Agent.

A remedy for nasal catarrh which is drying and exciting to the deceased membrane should not be used. What is needed is that which is cleansing, soothing, protecting and healing, such a remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. To test it a trial size for 10 cents or the large for 50 cents is mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. Druggists keep it. The Balm when placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. A cold in the head vanishes quickly.

A Great Bargain.

In view of the great demand for white linen shirt waists our offer of 400 yards of a regular $1.00 quality 38 in. Irish linen at 59c. yd. is most opportune. Don't buy regular 50c. goods when you can buy $1.00 goods for 59c. Louis Bischoff, The Big Store.

Mr. Editor.—My crop of Fultzo-Mediterranean Wheat yielded 3309 bushels on 80 acres. Average over 41 bus. Part of it was on corn ground which cut the average down considerable. I raised it for J. A. Everett, Seedsman, of this place, of whom your readers can get free samples if they mention this paper. It is the greatest wheat I ever saw.

D. C. CHENOWETH, Indianapolis, Ind.

Low prices on fine pictures pleases your purse, and a little bird makes you smile at the Willis gallery. You are invited to call and see these things.

PIG PARADISE.

Allie Douglass is sailing around on a new wheel.

Miss Sarah Williams is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Dora Lewis.

Elmer says he wouldn't give one "Pearl" for forty diamonds.

Miss Verna Viers picked thirty gallons of blackberries one day last week.

William Viers shipped twenty gallons of blackberries to Palermo, Ill., on Thursday.

Mrs. Ella Donovan and husband, of Wingate, Mondayed with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis.

An ice cream social will be given at the valley school house to-night, Saturday, July 22nd.

Tommy Edeen can raise a dead horse with nothing but a little milk and soda and a long-necked bottle.

Miss Pearl Loftland, a fair and amiable daughter of Wide Awake, visited her brother Will, on Wednesday.

They say Sarah's young man goes to town every night to see her. Something important must be near at hand. When does it take place, Vince?

Kansas Bill has not been heard from since he left the Paradise. The supposition is that he has at last been successful in securing a wife.

Charles Viers, Carl Duncan, and Edward Fruits have the Okaloman fever pretty bad. They are liable to leave for that country at any moment.

Blackberry Hill has swarmed with berry pickers this week. Long before the sun had risen, men, women and children could have been seen coming from all directions.

Charles Ledger, Tom Edeen, and Dan George made hay a Cedar Knoll farm, on Wednesday, and were served with a fine dinner by Miss Mar. Devan. They pronounced her a capital cook.

Stanley Jones, the mail carrier on rural route No. 3, has many warm friends in the Paradise. He is prompt, accommodating and competent. No better person could have been chosen for the place.

Miss Mamie Fruits, of the city, who is well and favorably known in the Paradise, performed a wonderful pedestrian feat one hot day last week. She walked from Alamo to Crawfordsville and then some.

The thump of the thrasher and the music of the mower are heard in the Paradise. The air is rich in the exquisite fragrance of new-mown hay and dewy thyme, while cool, ambrosial gales cheer the hardy sons of toil.

The Black Creek Dramatic Club will be reorganized next month. The company will commence the rehearsal of a beautiful romantic drama. New members will soon be added to the club. We will then have the best company this side of Alamo.

I received a perfumed note on pink paper, last Saturday, from Ellis Gray, in which he asks permission to call on me some of these moonlight nights. Yes, Ellis, you are welcome at my Coon Hollow cottage any time, but for goodness sake leave Old "John" at home. I'm afraid of the old son-of-a-gun.

Charley Swank and family, of Hog Island, Allie Douglass, of wherever his hat's off, and your Aunt Polly took dinner at Cedar Knoll, on Sunday last. In spite of the inclement weather, the day was pleasantly passed. Among the funny stories that were told, was one about a girl going to mass, which made us all giggle with glee.

Some cows broke into Charley Lewis's garden, last week, and devoured considerable corn and other vegetables. When a person has taken pains to raise a lot of garden truck, it is very provoking to have his neighbor's cheeky cows step in and eat it up. Look after you cows, folks, or the law will be after you real-hot. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The party at "Sandy's", last week, was a failure. Not a girl was present, but about 8 o'clock the boys began to come, and by 9 they were all lined upon the fence like a lot of crows. The boys expect us girls to go to these parties alone and return home the same way, but we don't intend to do anything of the sort. So the ungallant ganders can just go on with their old stag socials.

Carl Duncan gave a delightful dance on Wednesday evening, at the home of his parents, on Fairview Hill. Ice cream and pretty girls were conspicuous. The girls were gowned in white, and looked as fresh and airy as newborn butterflies. Good music was furnished by Bruner brothers, Howard Shanklin, and Tommy Edeen. The large crowd was elegantly entertained.

Wagon loads of itinerant vagabonds are moving through here continually. They manage to exist by peddling and pilfering. An old hollow-eyed hag called on Mrs. D. S. Morris, last week, and offered to trade her a bottle of polish for something to eat. Mrs. Morris gave her a loaf of bread and a pan of baked beans. The woman said she would return in the course of fifteen minutes with the polish. At present writing Made was still waiting for the polish and the pan.

Dan King, who is the most popular and philanthropic man in the Paradise, invited "Old Sandy" over to help him stack wheat, on Wednesday. "Sandy" accepted the kind invitation and went forth to assist his neighbor. The twain worked like beavers till 10 o'clock, when they stopped to take a lunch. The lunch consisted of cold chicken, ice cream, and "Zion's Watchman." I am glad to know that the two Dons have smoked the pipe of peace and buried the hatchet. The clouds of war no longer hover above their houses.

Said one of our citizens, the other, day, speaking of the small-pox scare: "I will not permit my children to be vaccinated. I am bitterly opposed to it." That's the way to talk. Vaccination is villainous. It is an old barbarous practice. It poisons the blood, and the people should rebel against it. Don't let your doctor talk you into being vaccinated. Most physicians are puffed with pride and ignorance, especially the allopathists. They adhere too closely to the "Code of Ethics" instead of following along the lines of common sense. The medical fraternity is narrow.
