A THOROUGHLY reliable Republican exchange exclaims in jubilant tones, if the expression is allowable, "Lumber is on the jump! Wonderful advances have occurred within the past few weeks in the price of lumber. The rise in price is from $1 to $6 a thousand. Southern pine has shown such an increase, and hard woods are abreast. Hemlock brings $12.50 as against $9 the first of the year. In yellow pine there is an advance of $5 a thousand. Lumber is going still higher. There is no telling when it will stop." True, there is no telling when it will stop, so long as no action is taken against the formation of trusts. The gigantic lumber combine has thus raised the price to the consumer, and short sighted organs diagnose such feverish conditions as an indication of the return of prosperity. It is a pitiable thing to see a man sick unto death mistake the coming of the death calm for the return of health. How much more pitiable it is to see a strong nation writhing in the clutches of a giant octopus, mistaking the loss of sensation, as its life is crushed out, for an evidence of a healthful condition. Our contemporary is evidently slightly confused on the symptoms of commercial life and death.

RICHARD CROKER's conversion to the ranks of the Bryan following draws down upon his devoted head the anathemas of an amazed and disgruntled horde of non-believers. Henry Watterson admits that he is almost ready to say that Bryan is the greatest of living Americans, and he too is being generously lambasted. Still they come and Bryan grows in popularity every day. His nomination is a foregone conclusion. He is the one man in public life to whom the people look for deliverance.

"Sound money" advocates in '96 stoutly maintained that there was plenty of gold, and "lack of confidence" was what was hurting business. Now they say the gold from Alaska has brought relief. A strange harmony of discords is this. As a matter of course if more gold is discovered the volume of money will be increased, but no such need was recognized by the gold people then. They ought to explain.

The silence of Beveridge is strange and perplexing. It is a question whether the sights he saw have shocked his powers of speech or he is simply gathering momentum for one of the most awful outbursts of oratory he has ever inflicted upon a patient and forgiving public.

ROOSEVELT warily dodges the vice-presidential snares set for his feet. He seems to forget the grand opening first shown by Hobart, as a promoter of resignations. The field is a new and a wide one. He should not despise so great a destiny.

THE uproar caused by the Woman's Congress has subsided since they have quit talking. As the smoke clears away an eager search is being made for the killed and wounded. It must be confessed the casualties are not numerous.

BRYAN, who has been so reviled for receiving money for lectures, gave $1,250 to the fund contributed for the purpose of bringing the Nebraska boys home. No doubt some wise enemy may find therein lurking some sinister motive.

HON. JAMES T. JOHNSTON, of Rockville, dared to express an honest opinion on the question of "expansion," in his recent speech at Clinton. The result is that he is being unmercifully lambasted by his quondam friends of the Republican press. They can find in their vocabularies no epithets too vile to apply to this man, whom once, when he was a narrow partizan, they were delighted to honor. Like Henry U. Johnson, he now doubtless sees how liberal is the party to which he belongs.

A GREAT hue and cry is being raised about the scarcity of farm hands in the Northwest, and it is being used as an argument to prove that all who desire can get employment in this great country. There are more than enough men in Indiana alone, who are sitting around idle, to glut the labor market of the entire Northwest. The demand is for a few days only, during the harvest rush, and when that is over the men would be as idle there as here. It is all talk and of a very cheap kind.

THAT Secretary Root will resign in the very near future, is a rumor that is pretty well authenticated. So the dreary procession of noncompetents and malcontents keeps on through the stirring annals of this administration. McKinley is constantly welcoming the coming and speeding the parting guest in his illustrious cabinet. He keeps things moving, and will move himself when a few more months have rolled away.

THE grief of the Indianapolis News over the platform of the Iowa Democrats is simply pathetic. It was extremely thoughtless not to say unkind of those democrats not to consult the News on such an important question. The News fancies that it knows just what should have been the nature of that declaration of principles.

POOR John Chinaman is catching it on every hand. General Otis, acting without instructions from Washington, has applied the exclusion law to the Chinese in the Philippines. Evidently he believes in a military despotism, and will exercise his authority while 'King for a day.' The end of all this cannot be very far away.

REPUBLICAN leaders are now busily engaged in reading out of the party every man who is not heart and soul in favor of the administration's Philippine policy. It is a decimating process, and names of many a whilom powerful leader appear on the list.

IT cost in this state last year $42,822.54 to drive unwilling youth to school. Compulsory instruction comes high but we must have it. Still there is an old adage about taking a horse to water, that is not altogether inapplicable.

IT is reported that Otis still continues to view American success through a very large magnifying glass, and defeats through the small end of a telescope. The truth will hurt so much the worse when it is known, and known it must be.

JOHN R. MCLEAN has rendered service to the Democratic party deserving of such recognition as is being asked for him from the party in Ohio. He will make as strong a candidate as could be put in the field.

THE punishment of Captain Carter almost matches the cruelty of the penalty imposed on General Eagen. A very stern affair is a military court in this country. In France, now—well, there's a slight difference.

THE anti-Goebel faction in Kentucky, while in the field with John Young Brown as a candidate are not creating the havoc they anticipated. The folly of such proceedings is more and more apparent.

SECRETARY ROOT is now busily engaged in studying the war map of the Philippines. While he is concocting a war theory, Aguinaldo is practicing the art of war. Educating war secretaries is expensive.

REED resigns from Congress that he may make money. Let this be a warning to the impecunious horde that have been expecting to break into Congress for that very purpose.

SINCE Schurman has been heard from, we know that that gentleman is still hopeful as to the outcome in the Philippines, but we have learned precious little else.

WE are certainly safe since we have the friendship of the Sultan of Sulu to fall back on, even if we did have to buy it.

MAYOR JONES, of Toledo, has decided to be a candidate for Governor of Ohio, strictly independent, on a ticket all by himself. It will be a case of not only a man of one party, but a party of one man, and he will probably be a mighty lonesome candidate. He succeeded as a candidate for Mayor, but this is a very different thing as Jones will soon discover.

THE conversion of the Hon. Dick Croker to the anti-expansion doctrine has made him a target for all the barbed shafts of the republican press. His opinions have no weight with the expansionists now. And to add to their sorrow and chagrin, it is said that Tom Reed is the man who caused this sudden change of front.

THE war cloud in South Africa continues to roll up in quite a threatening manner, and to darken very perceptibly. The thunderbolt of war may fall at any moment. When it does the Boer with his gun will make an appalling record of red before he gets out of the way of the Anglo-Saxon.

ANDREW CAMEGIE will not renounce his American citizenship. He has only just become thoroughly acclimated, and has imbibed some excellent democratic ideas, and is filled with the true democratic spirit. Here is a good place to carry them out and prove his sincerity.

THE modesty of Chicago has been fully vindicated. The unseemly models of nymphs carved in various postures, and greater or less degrees of "the altogether" have been broken up, and will offend no more the discriminating eye of modest Chicago.

RUSSIA speaks her wishes in a plain blunt fashion that cannot be misunderstood by the "heathen Chinese." It is very evident that China is as helpless as a lamb among wolves.

SENATOR BURROWS stands by his interview, but says that he is not hostile toward the administration. We have no evidence as to the feeling of the administration for him.

IT has long been a puzzle to the public as to what possible use we have for a Vice-President. Mr. Hobart solved the riddle when he caused the resignation of Alger.

THE readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
