

CORRESPONDENCE.

RURAL ROUTE NO. 4.

W. S. Fink is visiting in Chicago. Mrs. Orpha Hankins is slightly improving. Mrs. Bud Barton, of the city, is the guest of home folks.

Arthur Muncill, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives here.

James Wilkinson and son Joe will attend the Newtown fair.

Mrs. Noah Fruitt and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Annie Brown.

Vernie McCormick attended church at Ingersoll's Corner Sunday night.

Ora Pickett and wife, of Alamo, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Pickett.

Charles Hughes and Clint Pickett took dinner at Alva Hessler's Sunday.

Joe Wilkinson sold a horse to Ambrose Campbell, of Alamo, Tuesday.

James Wilkinson and family spent Monday at a birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Livengood.

Thomas Herron and family have concluded a week's visit with A. W. Herron and wife, and returned home to Ladoga.

NEW MARKET.

Jasper Hall will build a four room house for Jno. Glover.

Jesse Hicks moved to the house vacated by Wm. Whittaker.

Mr. Simpson will occupy the property of Mrs. Hannah Busenbark.

Mrs. Nancy Davis returned from a three weeks visit in Ill. this week.

Henry Bell and wife, formerly of this place, but now living near Waveland, visited here Tuesday.

Christian S. S. will meet at 9:30 a. m. instead of 3:00 p. m. The officers and teachers think it for the best interests of the school.

Frank Long was the victim of a well planned surprise last week. A large number of friends spent a pleasant day and left wishing Frank many more such days.

The comments of Peter Porcupine, on the chances of a red handed murderer entering the pearly gates are about to the point according to our way of thinking.

WAYNETOWN.

Ernest Boldt was in town Sunday. Dan Easley and wife spent Sunday in Danville.

Bud Furr and daughter, Alice were in Crawfordsville Tuesday.

Harry Munsell, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives in our city.

Chas. Hall and wife, of Yountsville, spent Sunday with the family of H. W. Darnell.

Misses Kittie Goble and Bettie Brant left Thursday for a few days visit in Colfax.

Mrs. Lawson Parker has been quite sick for a few days but is much better at the present writing.

Our town will be represented by a large crowd in Crawfordsville Monday. The band intends going.

Henry Newlin and wife and two sons, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Quite a number of our people attended the Old Settler's meeting at McHarry's Grove Thursday.

Mrs. Ike Sutton and children have returned from a few days visit with Mrs. Wm. Barnett, of Wingate.

John Boo, an old Waynetown boy, has returned from Seattle, Wash., after having been gone three years.

Miss Daisy Ewell, of Indianapolis, returned to her home Tuesday evening, after several days visit with Miss Lotta Darnall.

Several of our young people attended the Soldiers' reunion at Veedersburg Saturday. They report quite a crowd present.

Misses Dinnie Keys and Florene Thompson attended social Saturday evening given by Miss Edith Gilkey, of Yountsville.

Rev. Henson's brother and wife, of Newport, visited him at his home near Newtown last week and returned home Tuesday.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lunch at the Maxwell reunion Saturday; they will have the only stand on the ground.

There were union services in the M. E. church Sunday evening. Rev. Brewer, of the Christian church delivered a very able address.

Fred McClure had a sale of personal property Thursday, and intends to go west in the near future. He sold his residence to Wm. Quillin.

Madame Rumors says we are doomed to have another divorce case, but it is to be hoped the lady is again in error, for it would indeed be sad to have one heart twice broken.

WHITE CHURCH.

Jim Allen is hauling gravel. Levi Fisher is all smiles. It's a boy.

Johnny Rettinger is on the sick list.

Will Jobe and sister Cora, are back from Iowa.

J. R. Rettinger striped George Huber's buggy Monday.

Stella Allen started for her home in California last Thursday.

Will Peterson is talking of going to Denver, Col., for his health.

Will Ormsby and family called on Silas Deans Sunday near Colfax.

Talk about your snake tales; Ma found one in the cellar the other day.

Several young folks went to Sugar Creek Wednesday to spend the day.

Rev. Lute Dunbar delivered quite an interesting sermon at this place Sunday.

Will Cook and family spent Sunday at Marsh Hamptons near Bowers Station.

John Rettinger and family attended the Harshbarger reunion near Ladoga last Thursday.

The Dunbar family had a reunion last Thursday at Rob Dunbar's place. Quite a number was present and all report an enjoyable time.

The Sunday visitors at Wm. Dunbars were Tom Dunbar and wife, Samuel Peterson's wife and daughter Mabel, Bettie Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Decker, of Iowa.

WINGATE.

Considerable sickness.

Hot days and cool nights.

John Gray's wife is improving.

A. Carney visited here this week.

Maggie Marley is now confined to her bed.

Dewood Secris will leave for Kentucky soon.

Mildred Wainscott is suffering with hay fever.

Maggie Ross is suffering from a tumor in her side.

John C. Wingate is spending a few days at home.

Frank Bagby has returned from a visit to Danville, Ill.

Charles Grenard has a steer that weighs 2,850 pounds.

James Utterback is erecting a new dwelling on B street.

Andrew Foley will teach school this winter in Coal Creek.

Several from here attended conference at Mellott this week.

Chas. Appleby and family, of Frankfort, are visiting here.

M. E. Foley will go to New York about the 15th of September.

The telephone company are putting in new poles north of this place.

Bert Morrow will move to Wingate soon and build a $1,000 residence.

Elmer Twiddy and wife have lost their three-year-old child from flux.

Wes Twiddy lost his barn by fire on last Saturday night. Loss, $800.

Several will go from this place to Monon on the excursion next Tuesday.

Wm. Warbington will preach at the Christian church this conference year.

John Cripe and wife have gone to Frankfort to have their sick child doctor.

P. Vanscoyoc has moved to Waynetown, where he takes charge of a school.

Dad Ricketts has sold his bakery to Buck Reeder, and will go to Lafayette.

Farmers are busy hauling sweet corn and tomatoes to the canning factory.

Harmon Campbell has moved into part of the property with Simon Wainscott.

The brickmasons and carpenters are at work on Biddel & Cadwallader's new brick building.

E. Detchon, of Crawfordsville, has sold $4,000 worth of stuff off his farm near here in the last year.

Our canning factory has been crowded with corn and tomatoes ever since they started, and have run day and night.

Thomas Foster and wife, of New Richmond, were here one day last week. Tom says our canning factory is all right.

The canning factory is running on full time with 125 hands. They can 50 cans of corn and 30 cans of tomatoes per minute.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Carl H. Hiltner.

ALAMO.

Pearl Cason has typhoid fever.

John Michaels has very poor health.

Ethel Truax has returned to her home at Terre Haute.

Bertha Stonebraker, after a long stay in the city is home.

Mrs. Daisy Musser is the guest of home folks for a few days.

Rev. Caldwell preached his last time for the Brethren Sunday.

Clyde Watson, who was kicked by a horse last Friday is recovering.

Elijah Crowder, of Hillsboro, was to the meeting last Sunday.

Stella Ammerman and brother Walford are quite sick with the fever.

Wat Ham and Emma Stonebraker were married last Monday evening.

Wm. Michaels, of Benton county, is the guest of John and Jas. Michaels.

Mrs. Simms, of Waynetown, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Runyan.

Andrew Campbell and son Ambrose, transacted business in the city last Saturday.

Mrs. Hamie McSpadden and son Clifford, and Miss Opal have returned from Cayuga.

Paul Campbell and Alex painted Samuel Irwin's residence in Crawfordsville last week.

GUY GRIMES and Al Pickett were two of the late Soldiers from here who went to the reunion last week.

Martin Miller, wife and son visited friends and a niece, who is quite low with consumption in Indianapolis last week.

Mrs. Mandy Hybarger and granddaughters, Ether Truax and Mary Hybarger spent last Friday with Lavinia Truax.

Wallie Sparks, county clerk, and his brothers, Wat, of Crawfordsville, and Bert, of St. Louis are visiting their father John Sparks.

Effie Parkerson, of Balthinch, visited here last Saturday and Sunday. Quite a number of old Soldiers from our place attended the reunion at Veedersburg.

Norval Tucker and George Wagoner met quite a loss by lightning, last Friday, killing two cows belonging to Norval worth $80, and one for Wagoner valued at $30.

John Truax and Paul Campbell attended the birthday party of Miss Edith Gilkey at her uncle Henry Thompson's last Saturday night. Edith received a great many nice presents.

The elder Dr. Brown is making daily trips north of town waiting on the sick. It looks quite natural to see the doctor at his old calling. He used to go horse-back altogether, but now he rides in a rubber tired buggy. Mrs. Sarah Runyon died at the home of her grandson, Wily Runyon last Sunday morning. She has failed gradually for more than two years. She was one of the good old ladies of the past, a Christian woman, and will be missed by her many friends. Services were conducted at the house Monday at 12 o'clock. Interment in the Alamo cemetery.

White Church seems to envy the Alamo scribe's invite to Pig Paradise. Well I don't like the prospect of slippery elm pies. I think we should have a little more substantial menu, such as Pig on toast and elderberry pie, for which the Paradise is so plentifully supplied. Perhaps the reason our friend Paradise is so slippery with the pen, he has lived on elm pies and nothing else.

LINDEN.

The people of our town are laying concrete walks.

Mrs. Jane Stoddard is doing her share of putting down good sidewalks.

Seventy-three tickets were sold to Chicago last Sunday for the excursion.

The wife and family of Charles J. Stuller returned home from Alerton after a two weeks' visit.

On Thursday last a team belonging to J. N. Beach, took a notion to run away while hitched to a scraper.

A visit to our town will convince the skeptic that the Marsden Company means business, and that it will be more than a bunghole factory.

George Facker has charge of the leveling up of the R. R. tracks running on the fodder factory grounds, and has a gang of men working.

Last Sunday quite a number of men and boys were not at church but out at the park on William Dunkle's farm, playing base ball.

George S. Flathers, a printer of Maquoketa, Iowa, has been working

Moving Prices

Remember we will move soon to the Zack Mahoney room and want to reduce stock.

Look at This Rocker!

Moving Price $2.75!

In Rocking Chairs we have over 100 different styles and all prices.

We are Headquarters

For everything in the Grocery Line. A trial will convince you of that fact.

BARNHILL, HORNADAY & PICKETT

on the Linden Leader for a short time as the editor and printer are gone.

J. W. Beech will have a cement walk on Main street, in front of the old ware house, and John Vyse is putting in one where the veranda was.

The cellulose company has received the two 4-inch well put down into a sheet or lake of water, eighty-three feet deep. It throws thirty gallons per minute and does not affect the wells.

William Dunkle has bought the Durham corner and will build a business house and a bank room. Part will be one story and part two stories, and will be brick and metallic roof buildings.

Last Sunday evening there were no less than 100 people looking over the cellulose grounds. In the morning some men from Champaign, Ill., were looking at what has been done here towards working up the cornstalks.

There are strange faces in our town every day now, some wanting to buy lots, and some wanting all of Mrs. Jane Stoddard's land, which is worth over a hundred dollars per acre. They realize that Linden will be an enterprising town yet and they want to start with it.

On Friday of last week Dr. Dingman hitched up a young horse to a cart for the first time, and the doctor got into the seat. The horse scared and whirled suddenly, throwing the cart and driver into the ditch, with the cart on top but the horse did not stop.

Patrons taking advantage of Clover Leaf Sunday excursions to Toledo during July and August, will find the Sleeper in train No. 3, a decided convenience. Privilege of retiring at 10:00 p. m., good night's rest, home for business early next morning. Double berth rate does not exceed $1.50.

DR. B. F. BYE, Indianapolis, Ind